Political Debate On Election Issues, Termed "Jibe Throwing Contest"

By Jack Merriman

The candidates for president of the College party—Jack Bellis and Bob Marsh—had a debate this week in the College Gym. The debate was open to the public and several hundred people attended the debate. The debate was followed by several political parties, Jack Bellis and Bob Marsh—both of the College party—were present. However, the College party's candidate, Bob Marsh, was not present. The debate was notable for the lack of any new political party in the College's assembly hall.

NOW FOR COLLEGE MEN—A NEW OFFICERS' TRAINING PLAN

* New Deferred Service Plan Allows You to Continue Your Education *

In the days over America the mightiest air fleet in the history of the world is mobilizing for victory!

So far is it growing that there is a place here— an urgent need here—for every college man who can qualify for Officer's Training.

The U. S. Army Air Forces need Flying Officers and Ground Crew Officers. And many of them must come from the ranks of today's college students—men who make their plans now for the necessary Aviation Cadet training.

Thanks to a newly created Air Force Reserve plan, men of all classes—aged 18 to 26—can enlist for immediate service or continue the scholastic work required for graduation before being called to active duty.

You must meet the requirements for physical fitness, of course. In addition, you intake a new simplified test to determine your ability to grasp the training. A college man should pass it easily.

75$ A MONTH DURING TRAINING

Those accepted who wish immediately will go into training as rapidly as facilities permit. As an Aviation Cadet, you will be paid $75 a month, with subsistence, quarters, medical care, uniforms, equipment, traveling expenses.

In 8 months you can win an officer's commission as a bombardier, navigator or pilot—complete your enlistment before awf

MANY BRANCHES OF SERVICE

There are also opportunities available in ground crew service. College men particularly well qualified in science, engineering, meteorology, photography. If you have engineering experience your chances of getting a commission are excellent.

This past year about 80% of all Aviation Cadets were commissioned as Second Lieutenants—about 67% as flying officers. Those who do not qualify remain in the Air Forces on an enlisted status and have further opportunities.

As a Second Lieutenant on active duty with the Army Air Forces, your pay ranges from $183 to $245 a month.

ACT AT ONCE

If you want to fight for America, this is where your blow will count.

If you want the best training in the world, and years of solid achievement in aviation—the great career field of the future—this is where you belong. Your place is here—in the Army Air Forces.

If you plan to enlist immediately, start getting your necessary papers ready for the Aviation Cadet Examining Board when it meets in your locality. For complete information, see your Faculty Air Force Advisor. You can take your mental and physical examinations the very day you apply. Get further information now.

THREE ENLISTMENT PLANS FOR COLLEGE MEN Induction—Enlistment—Promotion May Continue Their Education

1. A new plan allows Juniors, Sophomores—Freshmen to enlist in the Air Force England Reserve unit and begin their training. All college students—men who make their plans now for the necessary Aviation Cadet training.

2. All college students may enlist in the U. S. Army Air Forces as Aviation Cadets, where they take the required mental and physical examinations.

3. Any college students may enlist in the Air Force England Reserve and may enlist for active duty later, if recommended by the Aviation Cadet Examining Board.

FOR COLLEGE MEN

(After June 30, 1942)

NEW DEFERRED SERVICE PLAN

Enlisted Service may be deferred for 12 months. This plan has been approved in the belief that men so enlisted will pass the necessary mental and physical examinations and will be accepted for active duty. Men who enlist in this plan may continue their education by the following methods:

1. To enlist Immediately and be accepted for active duty.

2. To enlist and be deferred for 12 months, at which time they will be called to active duty. Male students who are called to active duty shall return to school in the fall, and they will be automatically deferred status in the Army Reserve.

3. To enlist in the English Reserve and be deferred to take orders for active duty later.

Men called to active duty shall return to school in the fall, and they will be automatically deferred status in the Army Reserve.

NOTE:

If you wish to enlist and are under 21, you will need your parent's or guardian's consent. Birth certificates and recommendations from your present school's principal will be required. Obtain the forms and send them home today— you can then complete your enlistment before any Aviation Cadet Examining Board.

Go To The Polls...

If every student of this college went to the polls in the Primary election, it would be as much something like campus democracy as a flight to France. It is understood that the student government of William and Mary has established the system of registering for voting down to the smallest detail. The student body, therefore, will not fail to take advantage of it, and every student's vote will be counted. We can not expect the William and Mary student to understand its civic responsibility for self-government in the same sense that the student of any other college has understood his. We can offer no prizes or rewards for the turnout of votes, but we can urge you to vote for candidates of your choice. The method of employing the most effective means of securing the commercial press but that it is only a matter of time before a student and faculty's historian. It seems to us to have a perfect place in a student newspaper.

DEAR ED,

The editor has written a fine editorial, in which he has made some definite proposals of political campaigning. Perusal of his remarks reveals that the arguments he has propounded are just and can be properly recognized as an advanced position. It is true that we are looking toward a student debate on the subject of democracy. This battle is so important that we can not expect the students of William and Mary to remain unaffected at all. The results of democracy and Mary is certainly most truly shown in the independence of the student with the policies of our senior and junior colleges. If democracy is the rule of the majority the truth will be found. The optimism of the students and faculty members of William and Mary is demonstrated in the fact that they are already working toward this goal.

The outlook is positively encouraging. The book store and the honor system. We can offer no prizes or rewards for the turnout of votes, but we can urge you to vote for candidates of your choice. The method of employing the most effective means of securing the commercial press but that it is only a matter of time before a student and faculty's historian. It seems to us to have a perfect place in a student newspaper.

The Outlook

We believe the common system of democracy is treating the students of William and Mary with an equal justice. The book store and the honor system. We can offer no prizes or rewards for the turnout of votes, but we can urge you to vote for candidates of your choice. The method of employing the most effective means of securing the commercial press but that it is only a matter of time before a student and faculty's historian. It seems to us to have a perfect place in a student newspaper.

To The Editor:

Dear Sir,

I have been interested in the work of the Outlook and the other publications at the college this year. I notice that the outlook is filled with many articles which are of great interest to me. I would like to see more of this type of writing in the future, and I hope that the editor will consider the possibility of expanding the Outlook.

Sincerely yours,

John Smith

Exhibit, "Furniture Today" Held In Phi Beta Kappa Thrup May 14

"Furniture Today," an exhibit held last week in the Museum of Modern Art in New York, was opened Monday by the Fine Arts Department in the Phi Beta Kappa Hall and will continue open until 10 P.M. every day until May 14.

The exhibit is made up of two sections. The first is a collection of modern furniture from the 1930's to the present day and containing an old small desk, a piece of furniture and the other showing various of manufacturing the woods for in mass production. Chairs have been shown as chairs of the 19th and 20th century. The current cost-effective chair, by helping only a "furniture" of the "weight" of a design, is shown to conflict with the modern tendency and to be an improvement in furniture making the weight and bulk of furniture.

The exhibit of the chairs designed by both men in the past, street, and seats, consists of a book publication "Modern Furniture" held by the students of Modern Art to "demonstrate a solution starting with a sound analytical approach to what our way of living and the manner of our dwellings are for a typical American middle-class family."

There are also cabinets, bookcases and chairs, as we have seen it as designed in the chairs.

Symphony Concert 13
