150 Students Eat In New Cafeteria

Additional Equipment To Be Installed Soon

A group of eleven students began testing the new cafeteria on March 11th. The new cafeteria, which is located in the East Wing, will be completed as soon as a few equipment problems are solved. Some of the students who were tested were: Lawrence M. Deibl, Robert F. Haxeltin, Robert T. Hurley, Robert E. Shamp, William D. Bixler, William C. Blizzard, and J. B. H. Thursby. The new cafeteria will be a great improvement over the old one.

Rule Breakers Caught!

Two students were caught in the act by the Flat Hat photographer. It was a scene that will be remembered for a long time. The students were caught in the act of breaking the rules.

Tawney, Noted Author, Lecturer, To Discuss "British Labor and War"

Tawney has made a number of important contributions to the study of economic theory. His works on social philosophy have been widely read and have influenced many others in their thinking.

Schofield Averages

At first it all sounds like a joke, but the real situation is far more serious. According to the Schofield survey, the average student at Wabash is not doing very well.

Knock and Handshakes

For the first time in history William and Mary was greeted by the All-American Conference basketball team. Captain Clinton Ross and Captain Thomas were the first to knock. In addition, these games opened the 1942 season. For details see next week's issue.

Molière's "School For Husbands" Well Received

By ELLI DIAMOND

In recent weeks, the Williamsburg Playhouse has been presenting a variety of plays, from the classic "School For Husbands" by Molière to the modern "Easy" by Pinter. The latter, however, was not as well received as the former, which has been praised for its wit and social commentary.

The "School For Husbands" is a play that has been performed many times since its original production in 1661. It follows the story of Sganarelle, a wealthy man who takes his wife to a school to learn how to be a good wife. The play is a satirical look at marriage and the role of women in society.

The play was directed by Tony Manzi, who also played the character of Sganarelle. Manzi's performance was praised for its humor and pathos. The critics noted that Manzi was able to convey the character's love for his wife while also showing his frustration with her lack of social graces.

The acting was praised throughout the cast. Harry Cox, who played the role of Albright, was noted for his ability to bring out the character's pathos and humor. Miss Hunt, who played the role of Mrs. Piconde, was praised for her ability to convey the character's naivety and naughtiness.

The play was well received by the audience, with many noting the relevance of the themes to modern society. The play was performed on several occasions, and it continues to be performed at the Williamsburg Playhouse today.

Overtake 16 Pt. Lead In Last Five Minutes

The Indians of William and Mary, although not the best team in their year, seems to be developing into a serious basketball heavyweight for the next season. The Tribe is opening the season with a highly favored Washington & Lee University, but will probably be able to hit the path of success in the coming year by the strength and hard work of the players on the team.

Intersquad Series

Even as Green Gridders Win, 124

Taking a swing at victory in the middle of the field, the Tribe’s Blue Gridders have scored two straight victories against the Black Gridders, and seem to be working hard to prepare for the upcoming season. The Blue Gridders will face the Black Gridders again in the next game, and are expected to win.

Tribe Called Best Fighters In Tournament

"Never before have so many good players as this tourney" is the comment of Winston Church on the tournament, which is sure to be a success. The tourney is expected to have a field of 16 teams, and is sure to be a hit among basketball enthusiasts.

The election of Arrow whites today!

Arrow Garden, colored clubs and boldness under the title, "Winners!" will be awarded after three years. Qualified for this honor are:

Charles Jaffe, the second violinist, having made a sensational debut at five years old. The rest of the program will include a group of shorter pieces: the Nocturne from a quartet by Borodin, a Canzonetta from Mendelssohn's First Quartet, and the Scherzo from Tchaikovsky's Third Quartet.

Student Opinion Surveys

Tague remains unfulfilled. Fifty per cent of the students interviewed believe that we are fighting England's war. Their attitude is similar to that of those who answered, "We are fighting because of the Pearl Harbor attack; we wereailed late." "Save Our Neckls"

Several groups of people were surveyed. One girl at St. John's College in Cambridge, Mass., and one at the University of Maine in Orono, said, "We are fighting to finish our education and to protect our schools from the war in this way." Another girl at Wilmington College in Ohio was very enthusiastic about the war, and her answer was, "We are fighting to finish our education and to protect our schools from the war in this way."

Civil Liberties Must Be Kept—Theme Of Baldwin’s Speech

Says Freedom Can Be Retained

"Now more than ever before, now, when we are at war, we Americans must take care to preserve our civil liberties—freedom of speech, press, and religion," said—this was the voice of Mr. Francis Baldwin, former chairman of the Civil Liberties Union, who spoke last Wednesday evening in the series, "Civil Liberties at War Time."

There is a fundamental truth in most of the charges made against the government, he said. The fear is that the government is extending too far its legitimate powers against enemy aliens, notably in connection with a name such as communism. Mr. Baldwin, "for we can misuse our rights and still have a democratic government when we exercise from war to peace," Among the Civil Liberties Union have been a great number of cases in which they prevailed against individual restraints to cases coming under popular approval.

Possible to Keep Freedom

It is possible to conduct a war and keep civil liberties. Mr. Baldwin cites Great Britain as an example of a nation which has been元旦 voluntary unity with loyal support of the working classes accomplished through labor organizations who held high governmental positions. But here, too, it is possible. The United States is already feeling the pinch of policies which we fear when we change from peace to war. These are the arguments of Mr. Baldwin, "Many say that we should allow no powers to set a limit to the citizen’s constitutional right to criticize the government. The bill of human rights must be kept at all times.

The important question is, says Mr. Baldwin, "how far we can sacrifice our civil liberties during this war, associated with a name such as communism."

"We are either to find falsely traducers for those who are engaged in some subversive activities, or allow the public to know the full extent of the effect of the war."

The action against the differing forms of two Cuban sisters, Lawyer Edith (York—Virginia Dungan on literature) and her sister Gladys (Gladys Dungan), who are among these two, has already begun. According to the President, the action is necessary because it is under "necessary" to keep secret only to shield mistakes. The law was passed on that the public for many years was no longer a right of the public or private. It was passed because the President was able to present the public with the full extent of his action as an unwarranted acquisition of last spring of Vance (Harry Cook). As the law was passed on the public with the public for many years was no longer a right of the public or private. It was passed because the President was able to present the public with the full extent of his action as an unwarranted acquisition of last spring of Vance (Harry Cook).

Mr. Baldwin declares it to be true that freedom of the press and people in general was not enjoyed under the new law. He says, "We must keep secret only to shield mistakes."

There are seven dangers to civil liberties which we should guard against, especially now that we are at war, he said. Mr. Baldwin said we should not allow a lawyer to be continued.

The first danger is the withholding of necessary information which has been kept secret only to shield mistakes. The second danger is the withholding of necessary information which has been kept secret only to shield mistakes. The second danger is the withholding of necessary information which has been kept secret only to shield mistakes. More Pleasure for You

There's satisfaction in knowing that the first revenue tax you pay on every pack of twenty cigarettes is doing its bit for Uncle Sam.

Every time you buy Chesterfields you get the satisfaction of a smoke that's definitely MILDER, for COOLER and BETTER-TASTING.

Chesterfield's superb blend of the world's best cigarette tobaccos will give you more smoking pleasure than you ever had before. Try a pack of Chesterfields today.

DON'T BE AN OUTSIDER.
Be sure your face is visible and your picture on record. If not, you may be taxed for a tax you haven't paid. It's your right. Your privilege. CHESTERFIELD.

ON THE NATION'S FRONT

It's Chesterfield
