The honor code poll shows 94% of W&M students favor system, 56% approval of present organization.

Approximately 94% of the students at William and Mary and 56% of the faculty are in favor of the honor system as it now stands. Only 2% of the students and 5% of the faculty voted for a FLAT HAT poll which asked the question, "Are you in favor of the honor system?" A "yes" vote is in favor of the honor system, a "no" vote is against the honor system. Only 2% of the students were returned, of which 74 were the representatives of the honor council. Of the women, 99 per cent were in favor of the honor system, while only 83 per cent of the men answered the poll in favor of it. This, of course, is the women's way. They are willing to support their own system in the system as it now stands. Only 5% of the men are not in favor of the honor system.

Charges Proposed

In order to submit to recommendations for modifications, 53 students adversed the FLAT HAT's proposition to reestablish "offense" as a basic term of the honor code. Other proposals included suspended punishment for a first offense, more faculty instruction and cooperation.

German Club Big Wheel Lost To College; Re-enlists To Make It A Million

"When I heard that marching music, I just couldn't resist," stated Ramelfangen Q. (standing for Quintus) Loganberry in an exclusive interview before leaving for Fort Bragg, North Carolina. "Yes, there I was, on my way to the post office; and, just as I was walking down the Duke of Gloucester Street, the Army Ground Forces recruiting trailer parked in front of the post office opened up with 'The Caissons Go Rolling Along' — every time I hear that, I go off and sign up for another hitch. This is my third hitch already. Sure do hope that song doesn't continue in popularity too much longer!"

Ramelfangen has been very active on the campus of William and Mary, in the period between hitchs. It was he who formed the Academic Order of Savoir-Faire. The chief plank in that organization's platform was the restoration of Lord Botetourt's right hand. This organization enjoyed a wave of popularity which swept Ramelfangen to the front of the students' eyes. From there on out...

Meeting with representatives of the corporation last week, Dr. Pemberton stated that, because of a ruling of the Board of Visitors in 1942, fraternity houses on the campus of William and Mary are definitely out. Said Dr. Pemberton, "Since the Board adopted the 1942 resolution, it has reconsidered its position on at least two occasions in conjunction with other council plans. On each occasion, however, it was the opinion of the Board that the fraternity system at William and Mary would be strengthened by the adoption of one of the alternative plans."

In a statement issued on Saturday, November 30, Dr. Pemberton announced that plans for the new dormitory court had been set. "A point that a decision by fraternities is now necessary between the dormitory plan and the lodge plan is that the dormitory fraternity section plan and a blueprint for a lodge will be submitted to the administration."

A formal decision on the adoption of the new system will be made in conjunction with the adoption of the Honor System, it was pointed out. This week "The Special" and other trains will be sold on the second floor of Wren building on Dec. 17, 18, and 19.

Braves Maul Richmond
In Season Finale, 40-0

William and Mary's Indians captured the state title and astained themselves of a second-place finish in the Southern Conference race. The Braves, who had been so strong early in the season, 40-0, at the Richmond City Stadium on Thanksgiving Day.

With Elgin Magzia leading three touchdowns passes as Jack Cloud, who was named to the All-Conference eleven, passed two touchdown passes, and his ancient foes into almost complete submission. They piled up 26 points in the first half and 13 in the final half of the victory of the season.

Richmond Stopped

So much for Richmond's flimsy defense that couldn't get off the field until the last two minutes of the first period. It was a fine first quartet before gaining a first down, the 29, and then another on the 33. Richmond's last possession was made up by one observer so aptly put it, "Savage couldn't carry Bob's headgear."

The offensive attack of the Spiders was not as effective as its defense. The Indian backs had no difficulty in circling his end as their blockers consistently took him out of the play. Infirmary Issues

Flu Shot Reports

"Sickness rate at the infirmary has been considerably less this year than any year since 1940," stated Miss Grace Blank, assistant professor of biology in charge of the infirmary. "Though not as many people responded to the opportunity as it was hoped, there is still a chance for flu shots to be taken." A total of 283 flu shots have been administered, according to the figures compiled on Nov. 25, 1947. Shots have been given to 117 men students, 105 women students, 44 members of the faculty, 19 administrative employees, and 11 wives and children of the faculty.

Students wishing to take influenza shots can pay the $1.50 fee at the treasurer's office. The shot can be taken any time during infirmary hours, according to Miss Blank.

Sorority Pledges Left Out Of Intramural Competition

Sorority pledges will not be able to participate in an intramural sport unless they have been initiated before the sport season begins. This ruling was made by Mrs. C. S. McCawley, director of intramurals, at a meeting of all intramural representatives last Tuesday. No basketball schedules were distributed to the various representatives.

"Practices from the different organizations will begin tomorrow and are listed for specific times until Christmas vacation. Each organization was asked to supply at least two practice sessions for the cage play. These girls need have no experience in officiating, and will register a 25-19 decision."

Timekeepers and scorers will also be supplied by the individual groups.

Practices start for Co-ed Cagers

Girls' varsity basketball practices got underway yesterday in the gymnasium under the tutelage of Coach Martha Bartadale. Further practices are scheduled for every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday with the probability of night practices once a week.

Last year's varsity team lost to the team because of injuries. Of the 13 varsity players, only four members of the varsity squad participate in the practice, three of whom are guards.
