Strong Finishes

In recent seasons the Tribe has ended the regular season exceptionally well, and this year is no different, as W&M has won nine of its last 11 games ... Three of those wins were against nationally-ranked teams (No. 8 Princeton, No. 11 Delaware and No. 14 Virginia) and both of the losses were by one goal against top-four opponents (No. 3 Duke and No. 4 North Carolina) ... In 2002 W&M ended the regular season with eight straight wins, while the 2001 team won 10 of its last 12 ... In 2000 the Tribe won five of its last six regular season contests.

Balanced Scoring Attack

Part of W&M's success this season is due to the fact that the team doesn't have to rely on just one scoring threat ... Five different players have scored five or more goals and 11 or more points for the Tribe this season.

Jordan Steele	12	5	29

Tribe Tied for First in CAA

For the first time in school history, W&M earned a share of the regular season CAA title, tying Old Dominion with a 6-1 conference record ... That 6-1 league mark is also tied for the best conference finish in school history, matching last season's record, as well as that of the 1987, 1989 and 1990 teams in the South Atlantic Field Hockey/Lacrosse Conference.

Hawthorne Looking For 200 Victories at W&M

The Tribe's next win will be the 200th for head coach Peel Hawthorne in her career at W&M ... Now in her 17th season at the College, Hawthorne has compiled a record of 199-137-2 (.592) at W&M and 230-154-5 (.598) in her coaching career, which includes four seasons at Division III Connecticut College ... The Tribe mentor was named CAA Coach of the Year in 1995 and 2001.

W&M Earns Five All-Conference Selections

Five W&M players earned All-CAA accolades this season, including four selections to the first team, two more than any other school this season ... No other team had more than four players earn all-league honors.

Solid Goalkeeping

W&M senior goalkeeper Stacey Gaenzle has made an immediate impact on the team after transferring to the College from Rutgers over the summer ... Gaenzle was one of two goalkeepers named to the all-conference first team, and leads the CAA with a 1.35 goals against average, the 14th best mark in the nation through November 3 ... She earned her first career shut-out in an important 1-0 win at Virginia Commonwealth and is second in the CAA with .782 save percentage.

Playing Against the Best

Once again, W&M head coach Peel Hawthorne has her team facing a nationally competitive schedule ... Seven of W&M's 17 regular season opponents are currently ranked in the top-20 in at least one of the national polls.

Opponent	Rank	W&M Result
