TRIBE TRAVELS TO BATTLE PAIR OF TOP-10 TEAMS

The Tribe returns to action over Labor Day Weekend when it travels to Durham, N.C., for a pair of matches against top-10 foes. W&M will meet No. 4 Duke on Saturday, Sept. 1, at 1 p.m., before facing No. 10 Iowa on Monday, Sept. 3, at 1 p.m.

The Blue Devils have advanced to each of the last four NCAA Final Fours, while it will be the first ever contest between the Tribe and Iowa. The contest with the Hawkeyes will also serve as a reunion of sorts for W&M assistant coach Quan Nim Anderson, who was an All-American at Iowa in 1999.

TRIBE NEWS AND NOTES

- The Tribe received 33 votes in the Preseason STX/NFHCA Top 20 rankings, making it the fourth team listed in the category. The 2007 slate will pit the Tribe against six of the top 11 teams in the STX/NFHCA Preseason Rankings. W&M will also face six teams who are receiving votes for the poll.

- The College returns six starters and 11 letterwinners from last season.

- W&M has won 10 or more matches in each of the last nine seasons after compiling a 10-9 ledger last season.

- W&M has a young roster as evident by 18 players who are freshmen, redshirt freshmen or sophomores.

- After going 6-1 in home games last season, W&M jumped out to a 2-0 record at the friendly confines of Busch Field in 2007. The Tribe is 114-49-2 (.697) all-time at Busch Field.

- W&M scored seven of its nine goals in the first two game of the season during the second half.

- Seven of W&M's nine goals on the weekend were scored by underclassmen (freshmen, redshirt freshmen or sophomores).

- Four different W&M players (sophomore Kaitlin Johnson, redshirt freshman Alexis Gerber and freshmen Rebecca Wagner and Jenna Cinalli) registered their first collegiate goals over the week for the Tribe.

- With her two-goal performance against Lock Haven, Rebecca Wagner became the first W&M freshman since Lianne Ligetvoet in 2000 to score two goals in one game. Ligetvoet accomplished the feat against Columbia on Oct. 13, 2000.

- W&M improved to 18-3 (.857) in home openers under head coach Peel Hawthorne with its win over Lock Haven. W&M improved to 26-6-3 (.786) in regular-season openers overall since 1973.

- Senior goalkeeper Gwen Hunter ranks among the top-10 in three career categories for the Tribe. She currently ranked eighth in saves and is one save from No. 7 and six saves from No. 6. Hunter is also one shutout away from moving into a tie for fifth on the Tribe career list.

SCOUTING #4 DUKE

The Blue Devils opened the year at 1-1, splitting the opening two games at the Tournament of Champions in East Lansing, Mich. Duke dropped the season-opener to Ohio University, 2-1, on Aug. 25, before shutting out No. 14 Louisville, 2-0, on Aug. 26. The Blue Devils are currently ranked No. 4 in the STX/NFHCA Top-20 released during the preseason.

Camille Dagorn, Susan Ferger and Amie Survilla tallied goals during the opening weekend for the Blue Devils, while Casey Beyel, Marcy Burns and Brooke Patterson recorded assists. Caitlin Williams played both games in the cage, making 12 saves and has a goals against average of 1.00.

Last season, Duke advanced its fourth straight NCAA Final Four and finished the year at 16-6. The Blue Devils return eight starters and 12 letterwinners from a season ago. Duke returns a pair of All-Americans in midfielders Laura Suchoski and Marian Dickinson. Along with Suchoski and Dickinson, Williams and Shayna McGeehan return as Blue Devils who were named NFHCA South Atlantic All-Region in 2006.

Duke leads the all-time series with W&M, 16-8-1, including a 9-1-1 advantage in Durham. Last season, the Blue Devils defeated W&M, 3-1, in Norfolk, Va. The match between W&M and Duke will also be the 100th game for the Blue Devils at Williams Field.

SCOUTING #10 IOWA

The Hawkeyes enter the weekend with a 1-1 record after splitting matches against a pair of top-three programs. Iowa upset No. 2 Wake Forest, 3-0, in the season opening before falling to No. 3 North Carolina, 5-2, both at the Big Ten/ACC Challenge in Ann Arbor, Mich. The Hawkeyes will meet their third straight ACC foe to open the season in Duke on Saturday, Sept. 2, before facing the Tribe. The contest will be the first meeting between W&M and Iowa. The Hawkeyes are currently ranked No. 10 in the STX/NFHCA Top-20 released during the preseason.

Against the Demon Deacons, the Hawkeyes broke a scoreless tie with three goals over an eight-minute span to tally the victory. Junior Lauren Pfeiffer led the way with a pair of tallies against Wake Forest, while junior goalkeeper Lissa Munley notched her fourth career shutout with five saves. North Carolina scored five second-half goals to put the wraps on the Hawkeyes early, before Iowa scored two in the second half for the final margin.

Pfeiffer leads the Hawkeyes with five points on two goals and an assist, while Tricia Dean, Katie Naughton and Roz Ellis registered goals for Iowa during the opening weekend. Munley made 11 saves during the first two games of the season and has a goals against average of 2.50.

Last season, Iowa finished the year at 12-9 and captured the Big Ten Championship with a 2-1 win over then-No. 6 Penn State. The Hawkeyes advanced to the NCAA Tournament before falling to Virginia, 1-0, in the opening round. Iowa returns a pair of players who were named Second-Team NFHCA All-West Region in Pfeiffer and sophomore Meghan Beamesderfer. The Hawkeyes also boast a trio of players who were named to the United States Under-21 field hockey team over the summer in senior Kadi Sickel, junior Caitlin McCurdy and Pfeiffer (alternate).

WAGNER NAMED NATIONAL ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

Freshman forward Rebecca Wagner wasted little time making an impact on the Tribe field hockey program, and reaped the rewards of both conference and national rookie of the week after the opening two game of the season. She garnered both the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) Rookie of the Week and the womensfieldhockey.com National Rookie of the Week honors, following a weekend in which she scored a trio of goals in the Tribe's pair of season opening victories. Wagner became the first Tribe player since Shannon Karl in 2002 to take home the CAA weekly award, and the first ever to win the web site accolade for a rookie although Ann Ekberg was named the National Player of the Week by womensfieldhockey.com on Nov. 5, 2002.

In her first collegiate game against Lock Haven, Wagner scored twice in the second half, propelling the Tribe to a 4-2 victory over the defending Northeast Conference Champions and NCAA Play-in Game participants from last season. She notched her first career goal, redirecting a shot from senior Laura Kastelic into the back of the boards in the 40th minute. The Virginia Beach, Va., native scored the eventual game-winner on a rebound in the 61st minute for her second tally against Lock Haven.

She became the first W&M freshman since Lianne Ligtoet in 2000 to score two goals in one game. Ligtoet accomplished the feat against Columbia on Oct. 13, 2000. In the College's 5-0 win over Fairfield on Sunday, Wagner tallied the game-winner on a pass from redshirt freshman Alexis Gerber to start the scoring in the 24th minute.

YOUTH IS SERVED

A glance at the Tribe roster would easily explain how young W&M is in 2007. The roster features 24 players, 18 of which are listed as freshmen, redshirt freshmen and sophomores. While the College will lean on its core of returning upperclassmen, it is inevitable that a lot will fall on the shoulders of younger players. After the opening two games of the regular season, it appears that the Tribe's youth is not only up to the task, but promoting a bright future for the College as well.

In its victories over Lock Haven and Fairfield, the Tribe used lineups that featured 19 and 20 players, respectively. Underclassmen composed 14 of those players, including six who made their first collegiate starts. Freshmen Danielle Scissom and Erica Eng along with redshirt freshmen Alexis Gerber and Maura Checchio started the first games of their collegiate careers in the opener against Lock Haven, while sophomore Courtney Farino and freshman Liz Loudy made their first starts against Fairfield.

In total, seven of the Tribe's nine goals during the opening weekend were scored by underclassmen, while 16 of the Tribe's 24 points were registered by freshmen, redshirt freshmen and sophomores. Freshmen Rebecca Wagner and Jenna Cinalli scored their first collegiate goals in the victory over Lock Haven, while Gerber and sophomore Kaitlin Johnson pulled the trick against Fairfield.

SENIOR LEADERSHIP

With a roster that includes 18 players who are freshmen, redshirt freshmen or sophomores, the Tribe will rely heavy on a quartet of seniors during the 2007 season. The Tribe will be led by the senior group of Kim Hedley, Gwen Hunter, Jes Kacerek and Laura Kastelic. All four are returning starters from a season ago and will be relied upon to be the leader of their respective positions.

Hedley was a Second-Team All-CAA choice last season after leading the Tribe with nine goals. She tallied a pair of two-goal games on the year and scored a game-winner. Hunter ranks among the Tribe's all-time leaders in saves, goals against average and shutouts. Over her three-year career, she has stated 41 contests in cage for the Tribe. Kacerek is the Tribe's playmaker in the midfield. She has started 36 matches over the last two seasons and totaled 15 points on five goals and five assists. Kastelic anchors the Tribe's backline. She is the Tribe's most experienced returning field player in terms of games (54) and starts (37). Last season, Kastelic equaled the school record for assists in a game with three in the Tribe's victory over VCU.

GIVING BACK

Members of the William and Mary field hockey program did their part to honor the 32 victims who were gunned down at Virginia Tech on April 16. Led by an idea from senior Jes Kacerek and junior Katie Broaddus, the Tribe players, with the help of Colonial Sports, designed and sold maroon T-shirts emblazoned with the logos of the College and Virginia Tech. The back of the shirts read "Today we are all Hokies. April 16, 2007." The timing of the sale coincided with "Orange and Maroon Effect" Day on April 20, and many of the shirts were visible during the ceremony at the Wren Building.

In just 15 minutes, the group sold out of the 150 shirts that Colonial Sports had produced, and by noon, the W&M students had taken over 1,000 orders from students and staff. Each shirt cost $10 with all the proceeds going to benefit the Hokie Spirit Memorial Fund, which will be used to cover the expenses that include assistance to the victims and their families, grief counseling, memorials, communications expenses and comfort expenses.

On May 9, Broaddus and Kacerek made the four-hour trek to Blacksburg to meet with Virginia Tech President Charles W. Steger. The William and Mary students spent 30 minutes with the Hokie President and along with a check for the Hokie fund, they presented him with a shirt and a plaque that had the Virginia Tech and William and Mary logos with the slogan, "Today we are all Hokies. April 16, 2007," on it.

The fundraising is not yet finished. Orders are still flowing in every day with all the proceeds going to the memorial fund. The Tribe students also plan to sell more shirts when the two Virginia schools meet in football during September in Blacksburg. The game scheduled for a 1:30 p.m. start time on Saturday, Sept. 22. Shirts can also still be ordered for $10 by sending an e-mail to hokietribe@colonialsportscustom.com.
