Responsive Reading — Psalm 119:9-16

Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word.

With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wander from thy commandments.

Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.

Blessed art thou, O Lord: teach me thy statutes.

With my lips have I declared all the judgments of thy mouth.

I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, as much as in all riches.

I will meditate in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways.

I will delight myself in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word.

Hymn: "Whene'er We Come into the Halls" — Weekes-Hatton

1. Whene'er we come into the halls
To learning's purpose set apart
Be Thou from Whom all knowledge falls
Be Thou in every mind and heart.
2. In vain we read the sage's word
And vain to us the poet's song,
If we in these have never heard
Thy Voice, that breathes the lines along.
3. What is all science but a stair
On which we climb, O Lord, to Thee?
And all our art a mirror fair
Wherein Thy gracious form to see?
4. O come, Who art our need supreme,
That all our learning be not in vain,
Reveal Thyself, in only theme
That merits human toil and pain.

The Lord's Prayer
