Sir,

It is our pleasing duty, as organs of those whom we represent on this occasion, to tender, on this occasion, to you your wishes on this occasion to meet us on the 4th of next July, around the feature board, and enter into feliciting of a friendly character. It has been the custom of the students to tender the invitation to those whose life has been devoted to the advancement of education and the cultivation of literature. We hope that you will be with us on the 4th, to add interest to the occasion. We beg you to accept the assurances of esteem and respect for——

J. L. Scott

Committee

Friend

W. H. Mitchell

C. R. Morphy