GREETINGS

You are welcome to the College of William and Mary. Two hundred and twenty-nine years of famous college history lie behind you—a glorious past of which we are justly proud. We invite you to share in the past glories of our Alma Mater, hallowed in the hearts of many; and to push forward into the future with the Greater William and Mary.

You come at a time when the horizon of the college is brightest, when her life is at its fullest, and when we are looking to the biggest and best year of our college history. We can not mar the past. That was shaped by the men who moulded the American Nation. But we must build the future. "We know more than the Ancients." Therefore, we should live better than they. The past is secure. The future is yours. It is for you to make a future for William and Mary that will equal her past.

We greet you upon your entrance at the College of William and Mary.
Hark! the students' voices swelling,
Strong and clear and true,
Alma Mater's love they're telling,
Ringing far and near.

CHORUS

William and Mary loved of old,
Hark, upon the gale,
Hear the thunder of our chorus,
Alma Mater—hail.

All thy sons are faithful to thee
Through their college days,
Singing out from hearts that love thee
Alma Mater's praise.

Iron shod and golden sandaled
Shall the years go by,—
Still our hearts shall weave about thee
Love that cannot die.

God, our Father, hear our voices,
Listen to our cry,
Bless the college of our boyhood,
Let her never die.

—J. S. Wilson, '02.

ANNUAL OPENING RECEPTION

Tuesday, September 26
Gymnasium of Jefferson Hall
8 p. m.

The entire student body, the faculty, and other college officers are cordially invited to the annual opening reception given by the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A.
The Honor System was inaugurated in America in 1779 at the College of William and Mary. From that time to this, the system has been in successful operation at the college. The Honor System emphasizes two things in particular: First, that the student is answerable at all times under all circumstances for every one of his actions; and, second, that he must recognize his personal responsibility for the well-being of the college in every phase of life in which he touches her existence. The Honor System is to the college what the Constitution is to the United States. To the Honor System must be attributed no little of the success of the leaders in the past who attended this ancient seat of learning, and its maintenance and faithful observance can but make for thinkers who will, like the statesmen of the past, lead men into light and order out of these dark days of world confusion and universal dissatisfaction. It is not always an easy or the most pleasant thing to adhere closely to the provisions of the Honor System, but such a course is the only one for men of honor, and those who would reject it or refuse to abide by the rules of the Honor System are undesirable students. Those things for which the Honor System stands have always and ever shall prevail at the grand old College of William and Mary.

If you don't know what to do or where to go, ask the next intelligent looking person you see. He may not know either, but ask him anyway.

Don't allow your class to be a dead one.

Whenever you trade with a firm which advertises in our publications, tell him where you saw his ad.

Put your name card on your door.

Watch the bulletin boards daily and read the Flat Hat; it will help you to get a line on things.

Remember there can be no Honor System without honor.

Write for the Literary Magazine and the Flat Hat. Without your help they cannot exist.

Keep your mind, body, and soul clean.
The first American college to receive a charter from the crown: this was dated 1693, under seal of the Privy Council.

The first and only college to be granted a coat of arms from the Herald's College, 1694.

The first American college to have a full faculty of president, six professors, writing master and usher.

The first medals awarded in America as collegiate prizes were those donated by Lord Botetourt, 1771.

The first Greek letter fraternity was founded at William and Mary on December 5, 1776. This fraternity, the Phi Beta Kappa, is the great honor society of the foremost institutions of learning in America.

The first honor system.

The first elective system of studies, 1779.

The first schools of Modern Languages and of Law were established in 1779, under the influence of Jefferson.

The first college to teach political economy was William and Mary, in 1784.

The first school of history was founded here in 1803.

"Honor" is a relative term, but at William and Mary honor means the good and the true and the just.
The College of William and Mary received its charter in 1693 from William and Mary, Sovereigns of England. Its colors, of which it is particularly proud, were also derived from these sovereigns who granted its charter, orange for William of Orange, and white for Mary of York. William and Mary is the only American college to be granted a coat of arms from the Herald's College of England.

The College Bell

The college bell sounds a warning five minutes before the meeting of each class. The bell is rung also for all student meetings and chapel services. It is important that each student should find out why the bell is being rung, and if there is a meeting at which he should be present, he should go at once. There is little excuse for lateness.

Meal Hours

Breakfast..............................8:00 a. m.
Lunch.................................1:15 p. m.
Dinner.................................6:30 p. m.

Library Hours

The library will be open daily from 9:00 a. m. to 10:00 p. m., except on Sunday. The library hours on Sunday will be from 2:00 p. m. to 6:00 p. m.
Bulletin Boards

A bulletin board will be found at the entrance of the Main Building, another inside at the rear entrance, and special bulletin boards will be found in the halls of the women's dormitories. The board inside the Main Building is reserved for use by the faculty. Other bulletin boards are free for student use.

Text Books

Text books may be secured at the College Shop, located on Duke of Gloucester Street, to the left at the entrance of the college campus.

The Y. W. C. A. will conduct during the first few weeks, a second-hand book store on the second floor of the Main Building. If you wish to buy or sell any second-hand books, patronize the Y. W. C. A. Book Store.

Laundry

The college laundry is done by the Hampton Steam Laundry. The laundry will be taken from the rear of the Deanery every Monday morning and can be secured from the same place by the following Thursday or Friday.

Bible and Mission Study

Bible study groups are led by student instructors. A faculty instructor meets these leaders once a week in a normal training class. The instructors are thus prepared to lead their classes, which meet at such time and places as are most convenient for the group. Bible study is discussed more fully on pages 37 and 42.

The Honor System

Of its many priorities, William and Mary is justly proud that it was the first college to have an honor system, which was established at this college in 1779. The Honor System can only be sustained by every student knowing what it is and making it a part of himself. It is essential that every student should read and understand the constitution and working of the Honor System. A complete discussion appears on page 64, and any old student will be glad to tell you about the Honor System.

Information Bureau

The Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. will maintain during the opening days of the session on the first floor of the Main Building a bureau of general information. Students wishing information should avail themselves of this service. Ask the Y’s.

Employment Bureaus

The Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. will maintain throughout the year employment bureaus. These bureaus will be instrumental in securing employment for those students who desire work while at college. On pages 37 and 44, the working of the employment bureaus is discussed at greater length.

College Band

The college furnishes instruments for the band and a conductor meets the band once or twice each week for practice. If you can play any suitable instrument, join the college band.

College Orchestra

The college orchestra is made up from the students and furnishes music on informal occasions and for the informal dances.

Supreme Court

The two hundred and thirtieth session of the Supreme Court of the College of William and Mary will be held about three weeks after the opening of school. Supreme Court is a court of justice organized and administered by the upper-classmen of the college for the purpose of trying and punishing those Ducs who have been unusually fresh, and whom the student jury decides deserve to be punished. The court is recognized by the faculty and all prisoners will be furnished with competent counsel. Every Duc is required to be present and the roll is called. Any Duc who is absent will receive special attention at a later date. The women's session of the Supreme Court follows the men's session several days later.

Infirmary

The men's infirmary is located to the right of the Taliaferro dormitory. The girls' infirmary is in room seven of Jefferson Hall.

Medical attention and drugs may be secured free during the consultation hours. In cases of emergency, the college nurse, Miss Fortune, may be found in room three, Tyler Hall; or Miss Welsh in Jefferson Hall. Dr. King will be at the infirmaries during the morning consultation hours. Excuses from classes on account of sickness may be gotten only during consultation hours.

Men's Infirmary

Consultation Hours:

- 9:00 a. m. to 9:45 a. m.
- 2:00 p. m. to 2:30 p. m.
- 7:00 p. m. to 7:30 p. m.

Women's Infirmary

Consultation Hours:

- 9:45 a. m. to 10:30 a. m.
- 2:00 p. m. to 3:00 p. m.
- 7:30 p. m. to 8:00 p. m.

"A WORD TO THE WISE"

A system of faculty advisers has been adopted by the college for the benefit of the students, and you will find it decidedly to your advantage to cooperate in making it a success in your own case. You will be assigned to some member of the faculty who will stand ready to advise you in all matters—whatever they may be—in which you need the help of an older person. Learn to use your adviser and cultivate his friendship, even though it may be difficult to get close to him at the outset. He is not as unsympathetic as you may think, and intimacy with him will mean much to you, not only in solving the particular problems which confront you, but in getting the right attitude toward your college career and in forming a broader outlook on the college world.

If you are entering college with a number of friends, don't think that they are the only friends you will need. You will make your friendship for them none the less strong by forming other friends. Guard against criticising your classmates and never neglect to say "hello" to a man, whether you know him or not. Remember that in general, "The man you don't like is the man you don't know," and as a rule, the big men in the Freshman year are not the big men in the Senior year.

But most important, develop some serious interest outside your studies. You can not acquire a well rounded education from books alone.
Main Building

The large ivy-covered building in the center of the campus is the Main Building and lecture hall of the college. The original building was erected in 1694, having been designed by Sir Christopher Wren, the great English architect who designed St. Paul's Cathedral in London. This building has been burned three times but rebuilt each time on the same spot, for the most part on the same foundations and walls.

Brafferton

The second oldest building at the college is the Brafferton, located on the front campus to the left of the Main Building. It was built in 1723 and was used as the first Indian school in America. The Brafferton was a gift from the estate of the famous English chemist, Honorable Robert Boyle, and was named after his estate in Yorkshire, England. The building now contains the offices of the dean, the registrar, the secretary of the alumni, the student publications, and the Pollard Law Library.

President's House

Across the campus and facing the Brafferton, is the house in which the presidents of the college have lived since 1732. This house was used by Lord Cornwallis as his headquarters before his surrender at Yorktown in 1781, after which the house was occupied by French soldiers. While thus occupied the house was accidentally burned, but was restored from the personal funds of King Louis XVI.

Lord Botetourt

In the center of the front campus stands the statue of Norborne Berkeley, Baron de Botetourt, who was one of the most beloved of the royal governors of colonial Virginia. This is the first statue in America to be erected by an act of a general assembly.

Spotswood Cannon

Near the statue of Lord Botetourt stands an old cannon which was used at Fort Christanna, Brunswick County. This fort was established by Governor Spotswood in 1712 for the defense of the frontier against Indian attacks.

Science Hall

To the right of the Main Building is the Science Hall in which are located the physics, home economics, and part of the chemical departments. The biological laboratories and lecture rooms are located in the Penniman Building. Although the Science Hall was built in recent years, it is to be replaced by a handsome new building when practicable.

Library

To the rear of the Science Hall is the Library, which contains many treasures of colonial history. The splendidly equipped building was made possible by the generosity of Andrew Carnegie and other friends of the college. The building will be enlarged very soon by funds from the Carnegie Foundation.

Gymnasium

The old gymnasium to the left of the Main Building has been converted into class rooms. At present both the men and the women are obliged to use the women's gymnasium in the basement of Jefferson Hall. A new building will be provided for the men in the near future.

Jefferson Hall

Fronting on the Jamestown road and back of the old gymnasium is the handsome new dormitory for women, Jefferson Hall. In this building is the office of the Social Director of Women, the women's swimming pool and gymnasium, social rooms, and rooms for 150 women.
Practice House

Opposite the Jefferson is a small bungalow which is used as the Practice House in Home Economics.

Ewell Dormitory

Across the Jamestown road from the Brafferton is the Ewell Dormitory and Annex for men.

Taliaferro Dormitory

To the right of the Ewell is the Taliaferro, which is also a dormitory for men. The Taliaferro was built with funds appropriated by Congress in payment of damages done the college by Federal soldiers in the Civil War.

Infirmary

To the right of the Taliaferro is a two-story frame building, which is the men’s Infirmary and dispensary for medicines.

The women’s Infirmary is located in room seven, first floor, of Jefferson Hall.

To the rear of the Taliaferro and the Infirmary is the power plant which supplies heat, light, and water to all of the college buildings. Electric light bulbs may be secured there.

Dining Hall

The Main Dining Hall of the College is situated to the rear of the Taliaferro and Ewell Dormitories. Another Dining Hall is on the second floor of the Penniman Building, directly behind the Main Dining Hall.

Penniman Dormitory

To the rear of the Dining Hall is a temporary building used as a men's dormitory. In this building are also situated a small dining hall, and the biological department.

Deanery

On the left side of the Dining Hall is the house in which the manager of the boarding department and the dietitian live. This building is also used as a women's dormitory.

Tyler Hall

On the corner of the left front campus is the women's dormitory known as Tyler Hall.

Tyler Annex

To the rear of Tyler Hall and on the left of the Deanery is a temporary dormitory for women known as Tyler Annex.

Scotland Street Dormitory

The men's dormitory on Scotland Street, about four blocks from the college campus, is the only dormitory not on the campus.
Every freshman shall wear a distinctive cap, commonly known as "duc hat." This rule does not apply on Sunday, while out of town, or during stormy weather.

Social hour for freshmen will be from four to six only; this rule does not apply to Saturday night dances or Sundays.

Every freshman will be required to attend all athletic rallies, athletic celebrations, and games on the home field; sickness the only exception.

No freshman shall sit at table ends in the dining hall, but freshmen shall be responsible for pouring water, tea, and coffee.

All freshmen shall attend football practice once a week.

Freshmen shall know all college songs and yells by October 15.

Freshmen shall not remain on the porch of the College Shop for a period longer than two minutes.

Freshmen may smoke pipes only in their rooms.

Freshmen shall tip hats or caps to all professors.

Freshmen shall remain in the grandstand during games.
DUC RULES—WOMEN

All Ducs must attend all athletic rallies, celebrations, games on the home field, and chapel exercises.

All Ducs must attend at least one football practice each week.

All Ducs must learn all college yells and songs.

All Ducs must speak to all upperclassmen; instead of saying "Hello!" they must say "Quack!"

All Ducs must powder their faces in their rooms only.

All Ducs with bobbed hair must wear it in little plaits around their heads.

All Ducs who can play on musical instruments of any kind must do so when requested.

All Ducs must step off the walk to let upperclassmen pass.

When Ducs are asked what time it is they must hop on one foot, with arms spread, the number of hours.

Each Duc must wear her handkerchief on the left side of her waist, pinned with a large safety pin.

No Duc may enter the dining-room until all old girls have gone in.

No Duc shall be seated until at least one upperclassman is seated.

No Duc shall sit at the end of a table, but shall serve all drinks such as tea, coffee, water, etc.
DO'S FOR DUCS

Forget that you came from any particular preparatory school. You are a William and Mary student now.

Do all the good you can and keep the knowledge of it under your hat.

Take off your hat when “Alma Mater” is sung.

Be honest with yourself and always remember that you are here for a purpose.

Do all your work on week days, rest on Sunday, and sport a little, not much.

Do things in the right proportion; don’t be a grind.

Get acquainted with your professors. They are a fine group of men.

Be a mixer and a credit to the college.

Take part in student activities; action speaks louder than words.

Learn the songs and yells and make yourself heard in the rooting.

Attend all contests on Cary Field. It is your duty.

Get out for some activity, and STAY OUT!

When you are asked to do something, do it cheerfully. You will have to do it anyway.

Remember that you will find true and noble friends, if you want them, among both faculty and students.

Maintain a discreet silence on all matters pertaining to fraternities and such subjects.

Cheerfulness is contagious.

Remember that genius wins sometimes; hard work always.
During the latter part of May, 1921, the students asked for a Student Activities Fee, to which the faculty and board of visitors consented. For purposes of administration this fee will be collected by the treasurer of the college and used as follows:

- $5.00 for the Colonial Echo.
- $3.00 for the Flat Hat.
- $3.00 for the Literary Magazine.
- $2.00 (men) for the Y. M. C. A.
- $2.00 (women) for the Y. W. C. A.
- $2.00 (men) for the Literary Societies.
- $1.00 (women) for the Literary Societies.
- $1.00 (women) for the Student Government Fee.

Each student will be entitled, without extra charge, to a copy of the Colonial Echo, a subscription to the Flat Hat and the Literary Magazine, to membership in the Y. M. C. A. or the Y. W. C. A. as the case may be, and to membership in the Literary Society of his choice; and all women are entitled to active membership and vote in the Women's Student Government Association.
The Colonial Echo

J. G. Pollard, Jr., Editor-in-Chief.
O. B. East, Business Manager.
The Colonial Echo is the College Annual, giving an artistic presentation of the academic year, the classes, and events in all phases of activity. It is a handsome and valuable souvenir of the college and of the year's life on the campus.

The Flat Hat

W. A. Dickinson, Editor-in-Chief.
P. W. Ackiss, Business Manager.
The Flat Hat is the weekly newspaper of the college. It consists of eight pages and is issued every Friday. The Flat Hat gives an account of the student life, news, opinions, and events.

The Literary Magazine

C. R. Ball, Editor-in-Chief.
C. B. Jones, Business Manager.
The Literary Magazine is issued six times a year by the students and alumni. The dates of issue are: the first day of October, November, December, March, April, and May. Valuable prizes are given by the Literary Magazine for the best essays, poems, and short stories published.

Literary Societies

The men students of the college have two literary societies, the Phoenix and the Philomathean. The women students also have two literary societies, the Whitehall and the J. Lesslie Hall.

These societies hold weekly meetings in their respective halls, having for their main programmes orations, declamations, and debates. This year the professor of public speaking will coach the members of the societies and coöperate with the societies in developing a high standard of literary work. During the year, several joint contests are held between the men's and women's societies.

In December of each year the Phoenix and Philomathean Societies hold a Freshman Contest. The contest is for the possession of a banner given to the society winning the most points in declamation, oration, reading, and debate. The men who win their points in this contest are presented with gold medals.

The Annual Celebration of the Phoenix and Philomathean Societies is held the first night of commencement. Each society is represented by an orator, a declamer, and two debaters. It is a high honor to appear in this contest and the winners are presented with handsome medals.

The work of the societies has been of such a satisfactory nature that the college offers one credit for good attendance and literary work. Each student is urged and expected to join a literary society and attend its meeting regularly. There is no greater accomplishment than the ability to deliver an eloquent and powerful address.

The Inter-Collegiate Debate Council, elected by and from the four literary societies, arranges a series of inter-collegiate debates with leading colleges and universities in the East.

The debating teams are chosen after two preliminary contests have been held in which all students are eligible to participate. It has been the policy of the Council for men to debate against men's colleges, and for the women to meet with women's colleges. The college offers no higher honor than that of representing her in debate or oration. This is a much coveted honor, and one for which every new student, and every old student should work. Handsome medals are given to the men who represent the college in the debates.

During the past session the college entered three single and one dual debate. Of these, William and Mary was victorious in one single debate and in half of the dual debate. This record, not so good upon its face, is nevertheless a fine one. Inter-collegiate debating is being only developed here and the colleges against whom we debated were masters in the art. It is expected that this year with the establishment of a department of public speaking the debating standards will be greatly raised. During the past year William and Mary was defeated by Colby College, of Maine, and by Washington Square College, of New York University, while she was victor over St. John's College, and in the dual debate with the University of Richmond she won at Richmond and lost at Williamsburg. The debaters against Colby, Washington Square, St. John's, and Richmond in Richmond were Messrs. W. A. Dickinson and Charles A. Duke; against Richmond in Williamsburg, Messrs. T. H. Mawson and A. J. Winder. The question debated was, Resolved, That the principle of the closed shop is justifiable.

State Oratorical Association

The State Oratorical Association is composed of the eight leading colleges of Virginia. Every year in May it holds an annual contest. During the session 1922-1923 the contest will be held at Washington and Lee University. The contest last year was held at Lynchburg College. Although William and Mary did not win first place, she was ably represented. The winner of first place is presented with a handsome fifty dollar gold medal; however, the college gives its representative a fine medal even though he does not win first honors.

Representative 1922—H. L. Gilbert.

Dramatic Club

The William and Mary Dramatic Club, under the direction of Dr. Cary F.
Jacob and Professor Edward M. Gwathmey, produces two plays each year. The aim of the Dramatic Club is to develop and train the latent dramatic talents of its members. The Dramatic Club is as important in its field as are the 'varieties, the literary societies, or the publications in their fields. Every student who is interested in dramatic art is urged to try for a place in one of the productions, and he may feel sure of a liberal and fair chance. Those who excel in dramatics should endeavor to help William and Mary in this important activity. After appearing at Williamsburg, the plays are carried to near-by towns and cities. The production last year of Booth Tarkington's "Clarence" was such a success that a second performance was necessary.

Students in the ancient languages classes presented the Greek play, "Agamemnon," during Commencement Exercises. A repeat performance was given during the summer session. For their artistic production of the classic play, Drs. W. A. Montgomery and G. W. Gel singer are due much credit.

Minstrels

The William and Mary "Minstrel Night" is a glad night in Williamsburg. Mr. "Jack" Hundley was largely responsible for the high class minstrels given last year.

Purpose of the Y. M. C. A.

The work of the Y. M. C. A. is done in a broad, Christian, non-sectarian spirit with the purpose of:
1. Leading the students to faith in God through Jesus Christ.
2. Leading them into membership and service in the Christian Church.
3. Promoting their growth in Christian faith, especially through the study of the Bible and prayer.
4. Influencing them to devote themselves in united effort with all Christians to make the will of Christ effective in human society, and to extending the Kingdom of God throughout the world. The support of every loyal Christian student is necessary if there is to be a realization of these high ideals, adopted by the National Convention of the Y. M. C. A. Every man must be willing and anxious to do his Christian duty.

Y. M. C. A. Meetings

It has been the policy of the Y. M. C. A. to hold a meeting on one night each week. The programmes of these meetings are religious and devotional for the most part. However, discussions of vital problems are frequently held, as social and racial problems. In connection with these meetings the State Association (College) has arranged to have a number of lecturers of national fame visit the colleges of Virginia. On other nights, members of the faculty and speakers from nearby cities will address the Association. During the year, on appropriate and special seasons, early morning prayer services are held before breakfast by the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. These services are short and inspirational, and do much towards developing and keeping alive the proper Christian attitude in the students.

However, the meetings of the Association are not all of a serious nature. A number of socials and get-together entertainments are given by the Y’s, to which, of course, all the students are invited.
Y. M. C. A. Bible Study

As has been the custom for the past several years, the Y. M. C. A. will conduct the Bible study classes for men. The instructors for these classes will be selected from members of the upper classes by the committee in charge of this work. For the most part these instructors will be men who are studying for the ministry, or for some special Christian work.

The instructors are required to meet once a week in a normal training class taught by a member of the faculty. The work to be taken up in the classes is outlined in these normal classes and the instructors are thus prepared to lead their groups.

The Bible classes are open to all men students and are held in the dormitories on such nights as are most convenient to the members of the classes and the instructors. These classes meet for an hour once each week, and upon completion of eighteen weeks' work of satisfactory nature, the student will be given college credits.

The Bible study classes have proved both interesting and valuable to those who have taken them and it is hoped that as many students as possible will enter one of these classes.

Information and Employment Bureaus

The Y. M. C. A. will conduct during the first few days of college an information bureau in the hall of the Main Building. Students desiring information or help of any kind should ask the "Y" for assistance. In connection with the information bureau for the first few days, and independently during the remainder of the year, the Y. M. C. A. will maintain an employment bureau for the benefit of students desiring work and self-help positions either permanently or temporarily. A list of available positions will be kept and applicants will be directed to the kind of work which they prefer in so far as this is possible. This work will be in and around town and on nearby farms. Those students who have not already been given employment by the college should register with the Y. M. C. A. bureau if they desire work. The success of the employment bureau will depend on the faithfulness with which the students fulfill their work. Only students who are seriously and persistently dependable in their work are desired as applicants. Others would soon destroy the usefulness of the bureau.

Conventions

Every year there is a meeting of the State Field Council, a committee made up of representatives from all the Virginia colleges. There is also a General Convention of the State College Associations, and each summer a training camp is held at Blue Ridge, North Carolina, for a period of ten days. These conventions are highly important in the development and shaping of the state and national "Y" policies, and William and Mary is represented at all of them.

Purpose of the Y. W. C. A.

The purpose of the Young Women's Christian Association is:
1. To lead students to faith in God through Jesus Christ.
2. To lead them into membership and service in the Christian Church.
3. To promote their growth in Christian faith and character, especially through the study of the Bible.
4. To influence them to devote themselves, in united effort with all Christians, to making the will of Christ effective in human society, and to extending the Kingdom of God throughout the world.

Membership in the Y. W. C. A.

Every girl who matriculates at William and Mary becomes a member of the Y. W. C. A., paying her membership fee through the Student's Activities Fee collected by the college treasurer. There are, however, two classes of members, namely, active and inactive. The certificate of active membership entitles a girl to a vote in all association proceedings at William and Mary and to the privileges of any student or city association of the National Board of the Y. W. C. A. in the United States. The only additional requirement for active membership is sympathy with the purpose of the association and the acceptance of the following purpose as provided by the National Young Women's Christian Association:

“It is my purpose to live as a true follower of the Lord Jesus Christ.”
"Big Sister" Plan

The Y. W. C. A. sees to it that every new girl on the campus has an old girl for a "big sister." This is in order that none of the new girls may get homesick or lonely. These "big sisters" are to look out for their "little sisters" during the whole session. Really, it helps wonderfully to have some one interested in each new girl and anxious to help her to adjust herself to new conditions and make new friends.

If any new girl wants to know anything about the Honor System or about the Student Government, which prevail at William and Mary, she can ask her "big sister," who will gladly tell her about them.

The Y. W. C. A. has arranged a new plan in case of violations of Student Government regulations by new girls. In such cases, when the new girl is called before a meeting of the Student Council her "big sister" will go with her and remain with her during the proceedings of the Council. This will enable the "big sister" to be of very real assistance to the new girl who has failed to live up to the requirements of student government on the campus. With the help of a "big sister" who has her best interest at heart, the new girl should soon catch the spirit of student self-government and have no occasion to appear before the Student Council.
Weekly Programme Meetings

The regular weekly meetings of the Y. W. C. A. will be held every Wednesday night at seven o’clock in the college chapel. Each programme presented will be of interest to every college girl. Your support will determine the value of the Y. W. C. A. in student life at William and Mary.

Bulletin Boards

Watch the Y. W. C. A. bulletin board for attractive posters, interesting events, and things every college girl ought to know!

Main board in Jefferson Hall.
Small boards in Tyler Hall and Tyler Annex.

Y. W. C. A. notices are also posted on the students' bulletin board at the entrance to the Main Building.

Bible Study

The Y. W. C. A. offers Bible study classes for small groups of students conducted by student leaders under the direction of a member of the faculty. The object of these classes is to develop:

First—A knowledge of the facts of the Bible.

Second—Its bearing on modern problems.

Third—Its value in the individual life.
The course consists of eighteen meetings during the session and either an examination or a written essay on some phase of the year's work. The student is given one college credit for the successful completion of the course.

The committee in charge will be glad to receive the names of all who wish to take this course. Give your name to the chairman of the Bible Study Committee, Alice Clay.

Blue Ridge Conference

The Y. W. C. A. holds a division conference in June of each year at Blue Ridge, N. C. Here gather hundreds of college girls from many different institutions for discussion of their problems and for inspiration to greater Christian service. William and Mary sends as many girls as possible each year to represent our association and to bring back to its members a broader outlook and a wider knowledge of the work and aims of the Y. W. C. A.

Y. W. C. A. Book Store

Second-hand text-books may be bought at half price from the Y. W. C. A. book store on the second floor of the Main Building. Any students having text-books for sale may sell them in this way for a small charge.
Information Bureau

During the first few days of the college session the Y. W. C. A. will conduct an information bureau in the hall of the Main Building. The object of this bureau is to serve the new student in any way possible. If the girl in charge cannot give the desired information, she knows who can and will gladly find out about it for you.

Employment Bureau

Girls desiring to do sewing, stenographic work, coaching, and the like have the opportunity of securing work through the Y. W. C. A. See Elizabeth De Shazo, the Undergraduate Representative, who has charge of the Employment Bureau.

Dew Drop Inn

This means just what it says—do drop in and get something good to eat at the tea room run by the Y. W. C. A.! You will always find good things to tempt your appetite with very little harm to your pocketbook. Any member of the cabinet or finance committee will tell you that the money made in this way is used to help in sending representatives from our association to the Y. W. C. A. conference at Blue Ridge, North Carolina. Isn’t it fine to be able to help the Y. W. C. A. by enjoying delicious sandwiches and salads?
CLUBS AND FRATERNITIES

Clubs

There are various temporary, loosely organized clubs at the college. Of these clubs, the following territorial clubs are representative: Southwest, Northern Lights, Tidewater, Southside, Rappahannock, Newport News, Richmond, and Williamsburg. There are interest clubs, of which the following are representative: Doctors', Biology, Monogram, Brothers', Press, B. I. C., S. O. S., T. N. T., Cotillion, Oversea, and Pony. The women have six clubs: Alpha Club, Edith M. Baer Club, German Club, Walking Sticks, K. O. B., and G. G. G.

Of the various clubs, the Flat Hat Club is recognized as the greatest in point of service and seniority. This club represents some of the best literary ability among the faculty and students. Its primary purpose is to foster and maintain a high standard of literary work at the college.

Fraternities

The American Greek letter fraternity system originated at William and Mary in 1776 with the founding of Phi Beta Kappa (now honorary). The Greek letter fraternities are national organizations represented by local chapters in the various colleges and universities.
Their purpose is fraternal and as secret brotherhoods they seek to ally men of one type—men who are congenial, and who, by close association, will mutually benefit one another. The chapters own or rent houses, in which many of their members live.

Because the aim of the fraternity is to bring together in a close bond of brotherhood such men who have similar tastes, talents, or ambitions, it must necessarily follow that none can join except upon invitation by the members. If an invitation is extended you, do not decide hastily. You will be no better or worse for having declined or accepted an invitation. A fraternity may be a distinct help or it may be a hindrance. It will not raise you to sudden eminence among your fellows; the best it can do is to inspire you to greater endeavors, manliness, and higher achievements. There is a possibility of mutual helpfulness in the intimate association of like-minded men, but be sure to retain your own individuality. Before joining be certain you understand the following facts: First, the character, reputation, and ideals of the national organization; second, the object and general purpose or policy of the local chapter; third, the character of the men in the local chapter; and fourth, the dues, assessments, room rent, initiation fee, and so forth.

Do not allow your membership to interfere with your personal ideals. Do not place your fraternity before the college that is to become your Alma Mater. If you narrow your college life to an intimacy with none but your fraternity brothers, you will lose much of the best that the life at William and Mary holds for you. You will find that some of your warmest friends will be made among non-fraternity men. Be broad and generous, non-partisan, and democratic.

There are highly organized fraternities of social and honorary nature at William and Mary. Of the honorary fraternities, Phi Beta Kappa is the first and the greatest. It was the first fraternity established in America and is composed of eminent and distinguished scholars. Other honor fraternities are Omicron Delta Kappa, composed of both graduates and undergraduates; Tau Kappa Alpha, an honor fraternity for orators and debaters; Sigma Upsilon, the literary fraternity. There are six social fraternities for men, five for women, and three professional fraternities.

ATHLETICS

When the new student has properly adjusted himself to his studies for the year, there is nothing to which he should determine his correct attitude sooner than to athletics. As an individual he should do two things: He should determine the best manner in which to keep himself physically fit, and he should strive to do everything in his power to contribute to maintaining what is known as college spirit. Without the proper college spirit college life is worthless.

The individual may contribute to this spirit by participating to his fullest capacity, whether a member of the first team or not, in the athletics of the college and by cultivating an ardent but correct attitude in his support of the teams representing the college, he should remember that by these teams and no less by the support given them, the college will inevitably be judged on the outside. He should remember that the college takes a just pride in its hard playing and winning teams. He should remember that the college takes a greater pride in the spirit which renders it unwilling to win at any price and in its reputation for teams composed of clean sportsman-like gentlemen. His every act should be based on a wish to increase this just pride and to enhance this reputation.
Mass Athletics

The college uses a system of mass athletics which has been adopted by all the leading colleges. Under this system every student is given some form of athletic training, unless he is physically unable to receive it. This training is compulsory for freshmen and is required of all degree applicants. This applies to both men and women. Besides the college teams there are classes in gymnastics and physical education which are adopted to the needs of those who wish to become directors of physical education in the public schools. Full details of these courses may be found in the college catalogue.

Athletic Management

General supervision of athletics is exercised by the 3-3 or Athletic Committee, which is composed of the President of the college and two members of the faculty appointed by the President; and three students elected by the student body, one from each of the upper classes. This committee determines and directs the general athletic policy of the college, authorizes the expenditure of money, and selects the coaches and the athletic director. The athletic director has general charge of athletics under the committee. He arranges for the entertainment of visiting teams, and for trips, umpires, etc., and has charge of the athletic buildings, equipment, and general affairs. The coaches exercise absolute authority over the players, substitutions, and tactics.

Every student, by paying the college athletic fee, becomes a member of the Athletic Association and is entitled to a vote in the election of officers and the members of the Athletic Committee.

The women have separate associations which, however, are organized similar to those of the men.

Schedules of interesting inter-collegiate games are arranged for all of the first teams representing the college and wherever possible for the scrub teams. There is probably no better advertisement for a college than a successful, hard-fighting athletic team.
The 1922 football schedule as announced by Manager J. C. Chandler is as follows:

October 7—V. P. I., Blacksburg, Va.
October 14—Randolph-Macon, Williamsburg, Va.
October 21—Trinity College, Norfolk.
October 28—Hampden-Sidney, Richmond.
November 4—Wake Forest, Norfolk.
November 11—Roanoke College, Williamsburg.
November 18—Gallaudet College, Newport News.
November 25—Union Theological Seminary, Williamsburg.
November 30—Richmond University, Richmond.

"It is our worst misfortune that we have no ideals."

"They are wise who are taught wisdom by the events of daily life."

"Cowards die many times before their deaths; the valiant never taste of death but once."
Every student should attend every game on the home field at least and as many others as possible, and not only attend, but attend and cheer. All new students are expected, in so far as possible, to attend all rallies and celebrations and learn and use the songs, cheers, and yells printed in this book. Rallies, celebrations, and bonfires raise the spirit and "pep" of both the team and the students. The songs, yells, and cheers should be learned—both words and the manner of rendering—and used freely on appropriate occasions.

13 William and Mary Is Going To Shine

William and Mary's going to shine, to-night,
William and Mary's going to shine;
William and Mary's going to shine, to-night,
William and Mary's going to shine,
When the sun goes down,
And the moon comes up,
William and Mary's going to shine.

14 Poor Old Richmond

Tune: Soloman Levi

Poor Richmond College, you're up against it now,
We've got the hunch, you lack the punch,
So we will show you how.
We'll smash your line; we'll circle your end;
We'll smear up every play; we'll beat you back with our attack,
And win this game to-day.

Chorus
Poor old Richmond College, what are you going to do?
Poor old Richmond College, just wait 'till we get through.
So it's poor old Richmond College,
You're up against it now.

Hallelujah, poor Spiders,
We'll lick them again.

16 Poor Richmond College

Poor Richmond College will be buried in the ground,
Poor Richmond College will be buried in the ground,
Poor Richmond College will be buried in the ground,
While we go marching on.

Chorus

Glory be to William and Mary,
Glory be to William and Mary,
Glory be to William and Mary,
As we go marching on.
We'll hang the Spiders to the sour apple tree,
We'll hang the Spiders to the sour apple tree,
We'll hang the Spiders to the sour apple tree,
While we go marching on.

PLACES OF INTEREST IN WILLIAMSBURG

NOTED RESIDENCES

Blair House

The Blair House was the home of John Blair, Jr., associate justice of the United States. It is a long frame structure, one and a half stories high, with two entrances, situated on the Duke of Gloucester street. This old home has been bought for preservation by Professor Pollard.

Wythe House

The Wythe House is a square brick structure of two stories, situated on the east side of Palace Green, next to Bruton Parish Church yard. This was the home of George Wythe, signer of the Declaration of Independence, chancellor of Virginia, first professor of law in William and Mary College and the designer of the beautiful seal of Virginia, as well as the seal of the chancery court. This house was also occupied by George Washington and Rochambeau during the Yorktown campaign.

Tucker House

The Tucker House was the home of St. George Tucker, stepfather of John Randolph, of Roanoke, and second professor of law in the College of William and Mary. This house is situated on Nicholson street, near Palace Green.

Peyton Randolph House

The Peyton Randolph House is situated on the south side of Francis street in the eastern part of the town. This was the residence of Peyton Randolph, president of the first Continental Congress.

Bassett Hall

Bassett Hall, a beautiful residence adjoining the Peyton Randolph lot, was formerly the property of Burwell Bassett, a nephew of Mrs. Washington. In the summer of 1804, Williamsburg had for its visitor the distinguished Irish poet, Thomas Moore, who was so impressed with the beautiful lawn of Bassett Hall that he was inspired to pen a few lines "To the Firefly." In 1841 it was the residence of John Tyler, President of the United States.

Audrey House

The Audrey House, typical of an eighteenth century structure, is located on the east side of Palace Green. This house was made famous by Mary Johnston as the residence of Audrey, in her novel of that name.
Site of the House of Burgesses

At the end of the Duke of Gloucester street opposite the college gate, is the site of the old House of Burgesses. It was here that Patrick Henry, with his eloquent, patriotic speeches, stirred the people of Williamsburg and the students of the College, among whom was Thomas Jefferson.

Site of Governor's Palace

Facing Palace Green on Duke of Gloucester street is the site of the Colonial Governor's Palace, built in 1705 and burned following the surrender of Cornwallis. The "Mattey Grammar School," originally established in 1706, stands on this site at present.

Bruton Parish

Powder Horn

Opposite the court house is the old Powder Horn, built as a powder magazine by Governor Spotswood in 1714. From this magazine Governor Dunmore took the powder, April 20, 1775, precipitating revolutionary hostilities in Virginia.
Debtor's Prison

Debtor's Prison, situated on Nicholson street, was the prison in which were incarcerated the crew of the pirate Blackbeard and Governor-General Hamilton, the Detroit "scalp buyer."

Eastern State Hospital

On Francis street is found the Eastern State Hospital, the first Insane Asylum established in America (1768).

Raleigh Tavern

The site of the old Raleigh Tavern, now occupied by Lane & Christian's store, is on the Duke of Gloucester street. The tavern was burned in 1859.
THE HONOR SYSTEM AT THE COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY

Among her many priorities, William and Mary justly claims that of leading the way in formulation and the adoption of the Honor System. Early in the nineteenth century, in the days when no other idea of college government prevailed throughout America than that the student should be watched like a suspected criminal for offenses, either actual or potential, the faculty of William and Mary appointed a committee, whose head was the distinguished jurist, Beverley Tucker, to draw up a statement of the spirit and content of an honor system by which the conduct of the students of the old college was to be guided. At once put into operation, this system has continued in actual and successful working without interruption until the present day.

But glorious and inspiring as is the historical origin of the Honor System, it is with its operation now and in the future that the men and women of the new day at the old college are primarily concerned. In the first place, it is of vital importance that every new student enrolling in September, should clearly understand what the Honor System really is and what it means in his life and in the corporate life of the College. Ignorance of it may bring the possibility —even the probability—of breaking it, and at once there follows a well nigh irreparable injury to the character, the reputation, and the future of the individual student and an equally grave lowering of the morale of the student body, for this must always suffer by the disgrace of any of its members. It is in this spirit that the present serious attempt is made to set forth, especially for the benefit of the new students, just what the Honor System is and what is required of each in order to translate it into his life.

The Honor System may be defined in a word as individual responsibility. It brings home to the individual man or woman who would stay at the noble old college and get the advantages she offers, his personal responsibility for her fair name and honor. It emphasizes two things: first, that the student must recognize that he is answerable in the very fullest degree for every one of his actions and dealings with the members of the faculty and with his fellows, in his or their rooms, in the dining halls, the athletic fields, the social centers, and in the class rooms; and, second, that he must recognize his personal responsibility for the well-being of the college in every phase of life in which he touches her existence.

Such phases, in the large, will at once suggest themselves to every one. They include, primarily, everything which touches the securing of aid, assistance, or profit in scholastic work of whatsoever kind, whether in term class work, periodical tests, or in the formal examinations, as well as in all work handed in to the instructor, though it is to be regretted that in the latter respect, students otherwise most sensitive to the Honor System do not seem to feel its demands so keenly as in regard to the others. A slight reflection, however, will convince one that work of this kind should also be included in the scope of the Honor System. It is a source of pride to all lovers of the college that public opinion of the students is now, and has always been, most healthy, vigorous, and uncompromising in its condemnation of all infractions of the Honor System falling under the heads just enumerated.

As to all offenses touching the taking of property which is not one's own, in any form, it goes without saying that these come most completely under the condemnation of the Honor System, and find swift and deserved punishment at the hands of the student body itself.

Constitution and By-Laws of the Men's Student Government of the College of William and Mary

Preamble to Constitution

Whereas, William and Mary has always stood for Truth, Honor, and Gentlemanly Conduct, and still stands for them; and
Whereas, at William and Mary the Honor System had its beginning, and its spirit still prevails in such force that disorder and ungentlemanly conduct are not countenanced; and
Whereas, the present system of Student Government and application of the Honor System to College life at William and Mary is manifestly inadequate to the present and future needs of the college; and

*Freshman member to be elected in accordance with Section 4, and Article IV, Section 1, of the Constitution.
Whereas, we believe that democratic student self-government, emphasizing and based upon student honor, is both possible and desirable, but that its successful operation requires a high degree of active individual and group honor on the part of a large majority of the student body so governed and must be carefully safeguarded and prompted by a wise selection of its officers and by the progressive education of students in the principles of student honor.

Therefore, we, the Student Council of the College of William and Mary, hereby submit the following constitution for the reorganization and reënforcement of the student government and honor system in accordance with these principles:

PART I

Article I

The executive and judicial powers of this government shall be vested in a student council composed of seven members and an honor council composed of seven members.

Article II

The members of the student council shall be chosen as follows:

Section 1. Members at large. Not less than one month previous to the end of the academic year the student council shall select seven men in their judgment best fitted to compose the succeeding council. The names of these men shall be announced, published, and posted as nominees. Not less than one week after the announcement of these nominees has been made, the student body shall elect by secret, signed ballot, three of them as members at large of the student council for the following year.

Sec. 2. Class Members. Following the election of the members at large, each of the three lower classes shall meet and choose one representative.

Sec. 3. Choice of the President and Council Chairman. When the above indicated six members have been elected, they shall meet and choose one of their number for chairman of the council. They shall also select their officers and organize for the following year's work. This meeting shall take place not less than ten days previous to the end of the session and shall be called by the chairman of the existing council.

Sec. 4. Freshman Members. The following academic year, not less than two months after the organization of the freshman class, its members shall choose one of their number for membership on the Student Council.

Article III—Powers and Duties

Sec. 1. The student council shall adopt its own rules of procedure, elect its own officers and define their duties and keep its own records.
Sec. 2. The student council shall have general supervision and control over the student body. It shall be its duty to make laws and rules for the student body. It shall coöperate with the women's student government and hold joint meetings with it for discussion and planning. It shall be its duties to try students accused of committing acts which reflect on the well-being of the student body, such as: gambling, drinking, hazing, and such other acts that interfere with good order and the promotion of the proper college spirit, and such other specific acts as from time to time may be added to its duties by a two-thirds vote of the student body, and if the accused be found guilty, to determine what punishment shall be inflicted.

Sec. 3. The council shall have a regular meeting once each month, date to be decided by the council or the president.

Sec. 4. The student council shall sit at least once each term (date to be determined by a vote of itself) as a grand jury to investigate general student affairs, conduct, complaints, and suggestions. Students and faculty shall be invited to attend these meetings and give views and suggestions.

Sec. 5. The conviction or punishment of any student shall require a two-thirds vote of the council. In case of a tie, the chairman shall vote, but not otherwise. When the chairman so votes, four of the seven votes cast shall determine conviction or punishment. Punishment may extend to the expulsion of the offender from college, but in such case the decision shall be subject to appeal to the president of the college. In the consideration of a fraternity man or of a matter affecting any particular fraternity the members of that fraternity serving in the student council shall not have a vote, but their seats shall be temporarily filled by the choice of the council and the accused from the student body.

Sec. 6. All other powers and duties not herein provided for which may be necessary for the proper operation of the student government shall be exercised by the chairman thereof until further provisions have been made.

Article IV—Honor Council

Sec. 1. The student body shall elect an Honor Council in the same manner as provided for the election of the Student Council. The organizing of the Honor Council shall be the same as provided for the organization of the Student Council. All cases of stealing, or defrauding, of cheating on examinations or other scholastic work, and of violation of one's pledged word shall fall under the supervision of this Council. Every student is honor bound to report for immediate action all such cases of violations against the honor system.
The honor system assumes that every student is a man of truthfulness and honesty, and that any such student is honor bound to procure the permanent removal from the student body of all those who, by violating in any degree this accepted code of honor, prove that they cannot be safely trusted. From the decisions of the Honor Council there is no appeal.

Article V—President of Student Body

Sec. 1. There shall be a president of the student body whose duties it shall be to handle matters pertaining to the student body or relating in any way to the revision of the regulations regarding student government or the honor system, and to hold, at such times as seems best, a joint meeting of the student body for the election of officers as provided in this constitution, or for the transaction of other business for which provision has not been made in this constitution.

Sec. 2. The president of the student body shall be elected at a joint meeting of the Student Council and the Honor Council. These two councils meeting jointly may select some one from the student body at large, or a member from the Student Council or the Honor Council. In the event that the president of the student body is elected from the membership of either the Student Council or the Honor Council, he thereby vacates his membership in said Council, and the student body must be assembled to fill the vacancy thus caused if he is a member at large. If a class member is selected, the class which he represents shall meet and fill the vacancy thus caused.

PART II

Student Supervision and Educational Training in Self-Government and Honor System

Article I—Education

The Student Council and the Honor Council shall see that the meaning and responsibility of the student government and Honor System is presented to the students early in and throughout the college year by means of lectures, addresses, articles in college publications, and individual instruction to students, and in other ways as may be convenient or necessary. Every student shall be made familiar with this constitution, its meaning, and his duty in supporting it.

Article II—Supervision and Educational Training

The chairman of the Student Council shall, at his discretion, appoint, with the advice and consent of the Council, committees for the supervision and educational training of students in proper student conduct and attitude. Members of such committees shall seek to affect the attitude and conduct of students by personal influence and advice, shall investigate the conduct of students on complaint of the other students or on their own initiative, and shall recommend action on such investigations to the Student Council in case they are unable to effect desired changes by advice and instruction of offending students, and shall carry out the orders of the Council regarding punishment of such students.

Article III—Initiative, Referendum, and Recall

Upon request of two members of the Student Council or of the Honor Council, or petition signed by twenty-five men of the student body, the president of the student body shall call a vote of the student body upon the enactment of specified new legislation or rules, the repeal of existing laws or rules, amendments to or changes in this constitution, the recall of the occupant of any student office, or any other matter affecting the student government, with the exception of judicial decisions of the Student Council which are reviewable by the president of the college only.

In voting upon matters arising under this article, a two-third majority shall be required to take action on the subject of original petition.
Article IV—Student Offices

Section 1. Definition: Student offices shall include besides membership of the Student Council and of the Honor Council, all those positions filled by students of this college acting as a student body, but shall not include offices filled by vote of organizations other than the student body.

Sec. 2. Nominations: All nominations for student offices shall be public, announced, and posted not less than one week previous to the date of elections which shall be similarly announced at least ten days in advance.

Sec. 3. Qualifications for Eligibility: No student who has been in this college for more than one term and who for the term in which elections are held and the one previous has not maintained passing grades on ten credit hours shall be eligible to any student office. No student in his first term in this college who has not maintained passing grades on ten credit hours for two months previous to the elections shall be eligible to any student office. Students who have failed to make such grades owing to enforced absences from classes shall be exempt from this qualification. Special students taking less than fifteen hours' work shall be required to make two-thirds of the work which they are taking in order to be eligible to any student office. The secretary of the Student Council shall obtain from the office records of the college at the end of every two months a list of men disqualified under this section, which list shall be consulted before voting on any nomination.

Article V—Miscellaneous

Sec. 1. Student Body: Definitions: The term student body as used in this constitution means those governed by the government hereby established; i. e., the men students of the College of William and Mary.

Sec. 2. The jurisdiction of the student government shall extend over the students in and about Williamsburg within a radius of four miles and wherever they may be under the authority of this college, or in the capacity or guise of students of William and Mary College.

Sec. 3. This constitution shall become operative Sept. 15, 1922, upon its ratification by two-thirds of the student body and shall supersede the former constitution.

Sec. 4. The provisions as to length of notice of nominations or of the time of elections shall not be operative for the first election, which shall take place at any time called for by the president of the student body previous to June 5, 1922.

The purpose of this organization shall be to represent and to further the best interests of the women students, to regulate their conduct under the authority of the college, and to promote personal responsibility and a high sense of honor.
Article III—Membership

Upon matriculating, each woman student shall automatically become a member of this organization.

Article IV—Officers

Sec. 1. The official power of the organization shall be vested in a council composed of the president of the organization, the vice-president, a secretary, a treasurer, a representative from the freshman class, a town representative, and two student members.

Sec. 2. The officers of each dormitory shall be a house-president and two vice-house-presidents, who shall form the house committee; and as many proctors as the house-presidents shall deem necessary in their respective dormitories.

Article V—Meetings

Sec. 1. There shall be a meeting of the organization each month, the first of which meetings shall be within the first two weeks of the school year.

Sec. 2. Meetings shall be called at the discretion of the president or at the written request of ten (10) members of the organization.

Sec. 3. The council shall meet once a week, and at such other times as the discretion of the president shall dictate.
Article VI—Elections

Sec. 1. All the members of the council, except the freshman representative, shall be elected in April of each college year according to the provisions in the by-laws.

Sec. 2. All officers elected in April shall be installed on the first Wednesday in May and shall serve until their successors take office.

Sec. 3. The representative from the freshman class shall be elected annually by the freshman class in the third week in October. The council shall nominate two candidates for this office. Nominations by members of the class may be made at the time of the election.

Article VII—Duties

Sec. 1. It shall be the duty of the president of the organization:

1. To preside over all meetings of the organization and of the council.

2. To appoint all committees and their chairmen when not otherwise provided for.

3. To make necessary decisions in the intervals between meetings of the council and of the organization.

4. To call together all the new students within the first two weeks of the college year, and to explain to them the meaning and purpose of the Women's Student Government Organization, its rules, and the agreement between the organization and the college authorities.

5. To explain to the freshmen the election of their representative, and to conduct the said election in the third week in October.

6. To appoint, with the approval of the council, a substitute for the freshman representative until her election.

7. To fill temporary vacancies in the council.

8. To uphold the constitution and to exercise authority and supervision over all the other officials of the organization.

Sec. II. It shall be the duty of the vice-president:

1. To perform all the duties of the president in the absence of the latter, or at her request.

2. To act as chairman of the campus committee.

Sec. III. It shall be the duty of each house-president:

1. To supervise all conduct in her dormitory.

2. To exercise authority over vice-house-presidents and proctors.

3. To make decisions concerning house matters which do not require the attention of the house committee or council.

4. To represent the students of her dormitory before the council.
5. To call and to preside over meetings of the house committee.

6. To call the meetings of and to present to the students of her dormitory such questions as she may deem necessary for their welfare.

7. To keep a record of all cases of non-conformity to house regulations.

8. To appoint vice-house-presidents with the approval of the council.

9. To appoint and install proctors with the approval of the house committee.

10. To approve all social functions which require an exception to dormitory regulations.

Sec. IV. The duties of the vice-house-president shall be determined by the council.

Sec. V. It shall be the duty of the proctors to regulate quiet and order in their respective dormitories.

Sec. VI. It shall be the duty of the secretary:

1. To record and read the minutes of each meeting of the organization and of the council.

2. To keep a separate record of all resolutions concerning student government.

3. To keep a list of the members of the organization.

4. To keep a record of the officers of the organization and of the members composing all committees.
5. To post all necessary notices.
6. To report to the authorities of the college all amendments to the constitution or to the by-laws.

Sec. VII. It shall be the duty of the treasurer:

1. To collect all dues and fines of the organization.
2. To care for the funds of the organization, to pay all bills authorized by the council, and to spend the surplus moneys according to the will of the organization.
3. To present a report of finances to the organization in November and in May of each college year.

Sec. VIII. It shall be the duty of the town representative to bring before the council matters pertaining to the interests of the women students residing off the campus.

Sec. IX. It shall be the duty of the freshman representative to bring before the council matters pertaining to the interests of the freshman class.

Sec. X. It shall be the duty of the council:

1. To uphold the standards of the college and to make honor the basis of all procedure.
2. To make such regulations as are needful for the welfare of the women students.
3. To deal with infringements of rules or with dishonorable conduct on the part of any members of the organization.

4. To supervise the fire department according to the provisions made in the by-laws.

5. To represent the organization before the college authorities.

6. To act as guardian of the privilege of self-government granted by the college authorities.

Article VIII—By-Laws

The qualifications, elections, dues, standing committees, fire department, and any other matters not contrary to this constitution shall be set forth in a body of by-laws.

Article IX—Amendments

An amendment may be made to this constitution by a two-thirds vote of all the members of the organization, provided the amendment has been posted on the bulletin board in each dormitory at least two weeks before the regular meeting, and provided the said amendment has been approved by the college authorities.

Amendment I

To amend Article IV, taking the place of Section 3 under that article.

The president of the Y. W. C. A. of the College of William and Mary shall be an ex-officio member of the Women’s Student Government Organization of that college.
By-Laws

Article I—Qualifications

Sec I. The president shall be, at the time of her election, a member of the sophomore or of the junior class, in full academic standing.

Sec. II. The vice-president, each student member, and each house-president, shall have the same qualifications as the president.

Sec. III. The secretary and the treasurer shall be at the time of their election, freshmen in full academic standing.

Article II—Election of Officers

Sec. I. All voting shall be by secret ballot and every member of the women's student government organization of the College of William and Mary is eligible to vote for all officers except where otherwise designated.

Sec. II. The president shall be nominated by secret ballot. The three nominees receiving the largest number of votes shall be voted upon for president.

Sec. III. The house-president for each dormitory shall be elected by the students residing in that dormitory. This election shall be held after the election of regular officers of the council. Each house-president shall be ex-officio a member of the council.
Sec. IV. The spring election of officers shall be in the following order: (1) President, (2) Vice-President, (3) Secretary, (4) Treasurer, (5) Two student members. After these elections the town students will hold a meeting and elect a town representative, and the students of each dormitory will hold separate meetings and elect their respective house-presidents.

Article III—Pledges

Sec. I. Each officer of the organization shall take the following pledge:
I hereby pledge myself to promote in this college the highest ideals of honor, both in my personal conduct and by fulfilling to the best of my ability the duties of my office.

Sec. II. Every woman student shall at the beginning of each college year take the following honor pledge:
I hereby promise upon my word of honor:
1. To uphold the constitution and the regulations of the Women’s Student Government Organization, and
2. To report myself to a member of the student council, if at any time I fail to abide by the regulations of the organization.

Article IV—Dues

Sec. I. Each member of the organization shall pay at the time of her matriculation a fee of one dollar.
Sec. II. A fine of fifty cents shall be imposed upon any member who fails to attend a regular meeting of the organization. The only excuses which will be accepted are illness or absence from the city upon due authority of the college.

Article V—Standing Committees

Sec. I. Social Committee.

1. The social committee shall be composed of the president of the organization, the president of the Y. W. C. A., the president of the German Club, and the president of the Pan-Hellenic Council.

2. The duty of the social committee shall be to report to the council the social conditions of the college and social needs therein.

Sec. II. Campus Committee.

1. The campus committee shall be chosen by the vice-president after her election in April.

2. It shall be the duty of the campus committee to supervise all conduct on the campus, and to report to the council campus conditions.

Sec. III. House Committees.

1. The house committee for each dormitory shall be composed of the house-president and two vice-house-presidents. The vice-house-presidents shall be chosen in April by the house-president-elect with the approval of the council then in office.

2. It shall be the duty of each house-committee to regulate problems in its dormitory not requiring the attention of the council.

Article VI—Fire Department

Sec. I. In each dormitory there shall be organized fire drills.

Sec. II. The fire chief and a captain for each dormitory shall be appointed by the council at the beginning of each college year.

Sec. III. All other necessary officers shall be appointed by the chief and the captains.

Article VII—Amendments

An amendment to these by-laws may be made by a two-thirds vote of all the members of the organization, provided the said amendment has been posted on the bulletin board in each dormitory at least three days before the meeting of the organization.

Amendment I

To amend Sec. 2, Article IV.

In exceptional cases the council may grant a permit of absence from regular monthly meetings of the organization upon application for the same by a student not residing in the dormitories.
Resolutions Concerning the Women's Student Government Organization of William and Mary College

Resolution I

RESOLVED, That the Constitution and Resolutions of the Association be annually read aloud by the Secretary to the members of the Association within the first fortnight of the first semester.

Resolution II

RESOLVED, That four days previous to any meeting of the Association, a notice of said meeting be posted on the students' bulletin boards in all the halls, and, forty-eight hours previous to the meeting, a complete list of subjects to be discussed be likewise posted, and no subject be acted on in said meeting that has not been mentioned in said list. In cases requiring immediate or private action, this regulation may be set aside by the President.

Resolution III

RESOLVED, That it be considered the duty of all members of the Student Government Organization, individuals as well as officers, to be responsible for seeing that all infractions of Student Government rules be reported if the information is gained on direct observation.

Resolution IV

RESOLVED, That going away from college with the express purpose of breaking a rule is directly contrary to the spirit of the Organization.

YOUNG MAN, LISTEN!

Lives of great men do more than remind us that we can make our lives count for more than we imagine, for they give us the principles of conduct and action which we may and should follow in order to make our own lives worth while.

Franklin, the printer, philosopher, and diplomat, said: "Save, young man, and become respectable and respected."

The big men of the future will be picked from the money savers of to-day, which suggests the importance of a savings account to the young man who desires to acquire a cash capital and "become respectable and respected."

LET’S GET RID OF THE GLOOM
Let’s all be joyful and the world will look brighter to us.

There is no reason why a gentleman or lady should not be as careful of the appearance of their shoes as they are of their suits.

The minute their suits show wear they send them to the cleaners. They do not stop at having them only cleaned; they have them renewed, if you please. Some people will wear a pair of shoes until they look like the last rose of summer before they will visit the shoe doctor. Why? Simply because they do not know of the
