WM. MITCHELL PRINTING CO.
GREENFIELD, IND.
GREETING

To the new student we extend our hearty welcome to the College of William and Mary. The session 1923-1924 marks the two hundred and thirty-first year of the usefulness of the college. The college is the heritage of the Nation. The college is an ancient seat of learning. The college is a hallowed spot dear to the hearts of all its alumni.

The past of the College of William and Mary rests on a foundation firmly established by men who made the American Union. William and Mary is proud of her past. It rests with you, the new student, to make for William and Mary a future that will equal the past. We greet you upon your entrance at the College of William and Mary.
ALMA MATER

Hark! the students' voices swelling,
Strong and clear and true,
Alma Mater's love they're telling,
Ringing far and near.

CHORUS

William and Mary loved of old,
Hark, upon the gale,
Hear the thunder of our chorus,
Alma Mater—hail.

All thy sons are faithful to thee
Through their college days,
Singing out from hearts that love thee
Alma Mater's praise.

Iron shod and golden sandaled
Shall the years go by,—
Still our hearts shall weave about thee
Love that cannot die.

God, our Father, hear our voices,
Listen to our cry,
Bless the college of our boyhood,
Let her never die.

—J. S. Wilson, '02.

Monday, September 24
Gymnasium of Jefferson Hall
8 p. m.

The entire student body, the faculty, and other college officers are cordially invited to the annual opening reception given by the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A.
The Honor System was inaugurated in America in 1779 at the College of William and Mary. From that time to this, the system has been in successful operation at the college. The Honor System emphasizes two things in particular: First, that the student is answerable at all times under all circumstances for every one of his actions; and, second, that he must recognize his personal responsibility for the well-being of the college in every phase of life in which he touches her existence. The Honor System is to the college what the Constitution is to the United States. To the Honor System must be attributed no little of the success of the leaders in the past who attended this ancient seat of learning, and its maintenance and faithful observance can but make for thinkers who will, like the statesmen of the past, lead men into light and order out of these dark days of world confusion and universal dissatisfaction. It is not always an easy or the most pleasant thing to adhere closely to the provisions of the Honor System, but such a course is the only one for men of honor, and those who would reject it or refuse to abide by the rules of the Honor System are undesirable students. Those things for which the Honor System stands have always and ever shall prevail at the grand old College of William and Mary.

FRESHMAN CREDO

I believe I lend dignity and respect to my Duc cap. Were I to leave it off no one would suspect me of being a freshman.

I believe, that, being a freshman, I should study my lessons. As upper-classman I can then go through on my momentum.

I believe my professors are more interested in their work than in their salaries otherwise they would quit teaching and do something to make money.

I believe William and Mary has the highest average of beauty outside of my high school graduating class.

I believe I shall go far in college, with my high school standing, tenth in my class (of eleven) and with my experience as secretary of the Amateurian Literary Society.

I believe I am easily distinguished, even in a crowd of freshmen, by my superior polish and my intellectual, purposeful appearance.

I believe I am the berries.
PRIORITIES OF WILLIAM AND MARY

The first American college to receive a charter from the crown: this was dated 1693, under seal of the Privy Council.

The first and only college to be granted a coat of arms from the Herald's College, 1694.

The first American college to have a full faculty of president, six professors, writing master and usher.

The first medals awarded in America as collegiate prizes were those donated by Lord Botetourt, 1771.

The first Greek letter fraternity was founded at William and Mary on December 5, 1776. This fraternity, the Phi Beta Kappa, is the great honor society of the foremost institution of learning in America.

The first honor system.

The first elective system of studies, 1779.

The first schools of Modern Languages and of Law were established in 1779, under the influence of Jefferson.

The first college to teach political economy was William and Mary, in 1784.

The first school of history was founded here in 1803.

We should exemplify in our own lives that which we most admire in others.
GENERAL INFORMATION

The College of William and Mary received its charter in 1693 from William and Mary, Sovereigns of England. Its colors, of which it is particularly proud, were also derived from these sovereigns who granted its charter, orange for William of Orange, and white for Mary of York. William and Mary is the only American college to be granted a coat of arms from the Herald's College of England.

The College Bell

The college bell sounds a warning five minutes before the meeting of each class. The bell is rung also for all student meetings and chapel services. It is important that each student should find out why the bell is being rung, and if there is a meeting at which he should be present, he should go at once. There is little excuse for lateness.

Meal Hours

Breakfast .................. 7:55 a. m.
Lunch ...................... 1:15 p. m.
Dinner ..................... 6:30 p. m.

Library Hours

The library will be open daily from 9:00 a. m. to 10:00 p. m., except on Sunday. The library hours on Sunday will be from 2:00 p. m. to 6:00 p. m.
Bulletin Boards

A bulletin board will be found at the entrance of the Main Building, another inside at the rear entrance, and special bulletin boards will be found in the halls of the women's dormitories. The board inside the Main Building is reserved for use by the faculty. Other bulletin boards are free for student use.

Text Books

Text books may be secured at the College Shop, located on Duke of Gloucester Street, to the left at the entrance of the college campus. The Y. W. C. A. will conduct during the first few weeks, a second-hand book store on the second floor of the Main Building. If you wish to buy or sell any second-hand books, patronize the Y. W. C. A. Book Store.

Laundry

The college laundry is done by the Williamsburg Steam Laundry. The laundry will be taken from the rear of the Deanery every Monday morning and can be secured from the same place by the following Thursday or Friday.

Bible and Mission Study

Bible study groups are led by student instructors. A faculty instructor meets these leaders once a week in a normal training class. The instructors are thus prepared to lead their classes, which meet at such time and places as are most convenient for the group. Bible study is discussed more fully on pages 34 and 39.
The Honor System

Of its many priorities, William and Mary is justly proud that it was the first college to have an honor system, which was established at this college in 1779. The Honor System can only be sustained by every student knowing what it is and making it a part of himself. It is essential that every student should read and understand the constitution and working of the Honor System. A complete discussion appears on page 61, and any old student will be glad to tell you about the Honor System.

Information Bureau

The Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. will maintain during the opening days of the session on the first floor of the Main Building a bureau of general information. Students wishing information should avail themselves of this service. Ask the Y's.

College Orchestra

The college orchestra is made up from the students and furnishes music on informal occasions and for the informal dances.

Supreme Court

The two hundred and thirty-first session of the Supreme Court of the College of William and Mary will be held about three weeks after the opening of school. Supreme Court is a court of justice organized and administered by the upper-classmen of the college for the purpose of trying and punishing those Ducs who have been unusually fresh, and whom the student jury decides deserves to be punished. The court is recognized by the faculty and all prisoners will be furnished with competent counsel. Every Duc is required to be present and the roll is called. Any Duc who is absent will receive special attention at a later date. The women's session of the Supreme Court follows the men's session several days later.

Infirmary

The men's infirmary is located to the right of the Taliaferro dormitory. The girls' infirmary is in room seven of Jefferson Hall.

Medical attention and drugs may be secured free during the consultation hours. In cases of emergency, the college nurse, Miss Ross may be found in Jefferson Hall. Dr. King will be at the infirmaries during the morning consultation hours. Excuses from classes on account of sickness may be secured only during consultation hours.

CAMPUS AND BUILDINGS

Main Building

The large ivy-covered building in the center of the campus is the Main Building and lecture hall of the college. The original building was erected in 1694, having been designed by Sir Christopher Wren, the great English architect who designed St. Paul’s Cathedral in London. This building has been burned three times but rebuilt each time on the same spot, for the most part on the same foundations and walls.

Brafferton

The second oldest building at the college is the Brafferton, located on the front campus to the left of the Main Building. It was built in 1723 and was used as the first Indian school in America. The Brafferton was a gift from the estate of the famous English chemist, Honorable Robert Boyle, and was named after his estate in Yorkshire, England. The building now contains the offices of the dean, the registrar, the secretary of the alumni, the college President, and the treasurer.

President’s House

Across the campus and facing the Brafferton, is the house in which the presidents of the college have lived since 1732. This house was used by Lord Cornwallis as his headquarters before his surrender at Yorktown in 1781, after which the house was occupied by French soldiers. While thus occupied the house was accidentally burned, but was restored from the personal funds of King Louis XVI.

Lord Botetourt
In the center of the front campus stands the statue of Norborne Berkeley, Baron de Botetourt, who was one of the most beloved of the royal governors of colonial Virginia. This is the first statue in America to be erected by an act of a general assembly.

Spotswood Cannon
Near the statue of Lord Botetourt stands an old cannon which was used at Fort Christiana, Brunswick County. This fort was established by Governor Spotswood in 1712 for the defense of the frontier against Indian attacks.

Science Hall
To the right of the Main Building is the Science Hall in which are located the physics, home economics, and part of the chemical departments. The biological laboratories and lecture rooms are located in the Penniman Building.

Library
To the rear of the Science Hall is the Library, which contains many treasures of colonial history. The splendidly equipped building was made possible by the generosity of Andrew Carnegie and other friends of the college. The building has been recently enlarged by funds from the Carnegie Foundation.

Gymnasium

The old gymnasium to the left of the Main Building has been converted into class rooms. At present both the men and the women are obliged to use the women's gymnasium in the basement of Jefferson Hall. During the next few months a modern gymnasium, costing approximately $100,000, will be erected for the men.

Jefferson Hall

Fronting on the Jamestown road and back of the old gymnasium is the handsome new dormitory for women, Jefferson Hall. In this building is the office of the Social Director of Women, the women's swimming pool and gymnasium, social rooms, and rooms for 150 women.

Practice House

To the rear of the President's house, on Richmond road, is an attractive residence which is used as the Practice House in Home Economics.

Ewell Dormitory

Across the Jamestown road from the Brafferton is the Ewell Dormitory and Annex for men.
Taliaferro Dormitory

To the right of the Ewell is the Taliaferro, which is also a dormitory for men. The Taliaferro was built with funds appropriated by Congress in payment of damages done the college by Federal soldiers in the Civil War.

Infirmary

To the right of the Taliaferro is a two-story frame building, which is the men's Infirmary and dispensary for medicines. The women's Infirmary is located in room seven, first floor, of Jefferson Hall. To the rear of the Taliaferro and the Infirmary is the power plant which supplies heat, light, and water to all of the college buildings. Electric light bulbs may be secured there.

Dining Hall

The Main Dining Hall of the College is situated to the rear of the Taliaferro and Ewell Dormitories. Another Dining Hall is on the second floor of the Penniman Building, directly behind the Main Dining Hall.

Penniman Dormitory

To the rear of the Dining Hall is a temporary building used as a men's dormitory. In this building are also situated a small dining hall, and the biological department.
Deanery

On the left side of the Dining Hall is the house in which the manager of the boarding department and the dietitian live. This building is also used as a women's dormitory.

Tyler Hall

On the corner of the left front campus is the women's dormitory known as Tyler Hall.

Tyler Annex

To the rear of Tyler Hall and on the left of the Deanery is a temporary dormitory for women known as Tyler Annex.

Scotland Street Dormitory

The men's dormitory on Scotland Street, about four blocks from the college campus, is the only dormitory not on the campus.
IF.

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing their's and blaming you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting, too.
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated, don't give away to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise.

If you can dream, and not make dreams your master,
If you can think, and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster,
And treat those two imposters just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you have spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build them up with worn-out tools.

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breathe a word about your loss.
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone
And so hold on when there's nothing in you,
Except the Will which says to them, "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings—nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds worth of distance run,
Your's is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son!

—Rudyard Kipling.

DO'S FOR DUCS

Forget that you came from any particular preparatory school. You are a William and Mary student now.

Do all the good you can and keep the knowledge of it under your hat.

Take off your hat when "Alma Mater" is sung.

Be honest with yourself and always keep in mind that you are here for a life purpose.

Do all your work on week days; you need one rest day in every seven.

Do things in the right proportion; don't be a "grind."

Remember that the faculty members are your friends; upon request they will gladly give advice.

Be a mixer and a credit to the college.

Take part in student activities; action speaks louder than words.

Learn the songs and yells and join in the "rooting."

Attend all contests on Cary Field. It is your duty.

Get out for some form of athletics and stick to it.

Remember that money does not buy time, so don't waste either.

Keep your mind, body, and soul clean.

Remember that you will never "find" time for anything; if you want time, you must make it.

Remember that you will find true and noble friends, if you want them among both faculty and students.
Student Activities Fee

During the latter part of May, 1921, the students asked for a Student Activities Fee, to which the faculty and board of visitors consented. For purposes of administration this fee will be collected by the treasurer of the college and used as follows:

$5.00 for the Colonial Echo.
$3.00 for the Flat Hat.
$3.00 for the Literary Magazine.
$2.00 (men) for the Y. M. C. A.
$2.00 (women) for the Y. W. C. A.
$2.00 (men) for the Literary Societies.
$1.00 (women) for the Literary Societies.
$1.00 (women) for the Student Government Fee.

Each student will be entitled, without extra charge, to a copy of the Colonial Echo, a subscription to the Flat Hat and the Literary Magazine, to membership in the Y. M. C. A. or the Y. W. C. A. as the case may be, and to membership in the Literary Society of his choice; and all women are entitled to active membership and vote in the Women's Student Government Association.

The Colonial Echo

Ted Dalton, Editor-in-Chief.
T. H. Mawson, Business Manager.

The Colonial Echo is the College Annual, giving an artistic presentation of the academic year, the classes, and events in all phases of activity. It is a handsome and valuable souvenir of the college and of the year's life on the campus.

The Flat Hat

Larry Green, Editor-in-Chief.
J. H. Garnett, Business Manager.

The Flat Hat is the weekly newspaper of the college. It consists of eight pages and is issued every Friday. The Flat Hat gives an account of the student life, news, opinions, and events.

The Literary Magazine

E. W. Brauer, Editor-in-Chief.
J. A. Wilkins, Business Manager.

The Literary Magazine is issued six times a year by the students and alumni. The dates of issue are: the first day of October, November, December, March, April, and May. Valuable prizes are given by the Literary Magazine for the best essays, poems, and short stories published.

Students' Handbook

This is it.

Literary Societies

The men students of the college have two literary societies, the Phoenix and the Philomathean. The women students also have two literary societies, the Whitehall and the J. Leslie Hall.

These societies hold weekly meetings in their respective halls, having for their main programmes orations, declamations, and debates. This year the professor of public speaking will coach the members of the societies and cooperate with the societies in developing a high standard of literary work.

In December of each year the Phoenix and Philomathean Societies hold a Freshman Contest. The contest is for the possession of a banner given to the society winning the most points in declamation, oration, reading, and debate. The men who win their points in this contest are presented with gold medals.

The Annual Celebration of the Phoenix and Philomathean Societies is held the first night of commencement. Each society is represented by an orator, a declamer, and two debaters. It is a high honor to appear in this contest and the winners are presented with handsome medals.

The work of the societies has been of such a satisfactory nature that the college offers one credit for good attendance and literary work. Each student is urged and expected to join a literary society and attend its meeting regularly. There is no greater accomplishment than the ability to deliver an eloquent and powerful address.

State Oratorical Association
The State Oratorical Association is composed of the eight leading colleges of Virginia. Every year in May it holds an annual contest. The contest last year was held at Washington and Lee University. Although William and Mary did not win first place, she was ably represented. The winner of first place is presented with a handsome fifty dollar gold medal; however, the college gives its representative a fine medal even though he does not win first honors.

Inter-Collegiate Debate Council
A. J. Winder..................President
L. C. Warren..................Manager

The Inter-Collegiate Debate Council, elected by and from the four literary societies, arranges a series of inter-collegiate debates with leading colleges and universities in the East and South.

The debating teams are chosen after two preliminary contests have been held in which all students are eligible to participate. It has been the policy of the Council for men to debate against men's colleges, and for the women to meet with women's colleges. The college offers no higher honor than that of representing her in debate or oration. This is a much coveted honor, and one for which every new student, and every old student should work. Handsome medals are given to the men who represent the college in the debates.

During the past session the college entered two debates. Of these, William and Mary was victorious in one. This record, not so good upon its face, is nevertheless an incentive to strive for greater success. Inter-collegiate debating is in a process of development and, it is expected that with the establishment of a department of public speaking the debating standards will be greatly raised. During the past year William and Mary was represented by Messrs. T. H. Mawson and A. J. Winder.

Dramatics

With the beginning of this year, dramatics at this college will assume a position of greater prominence than heretofore.

The presentation of dramas and other plays will be under the supervision and direction of a dramatic committee. With the existence of this committee, it is believed that the production of plays will be greatly enhanced.

The college in recent months has become a member of the Peninsula Dramatics League. The formation of this league has tended to promote dramatics in the cities nearby. The membership of the college in the league will enable the college to present its productions in the cities that are members of this league.

Prof. Gwathmey and Dr. Montgomery, who as play producers, are recognized to be inferior to none, urge that all students possessing any stage talent present themselves to the Dramatics Committee. Prof. Gwathmey excels in the productions of romances; Dr. Montgomery produces to the satisfaction of his audience a popular classic play every spring.

Minstrels

The William and Mary "Minstrel Night" is a glad night in Williamsburg. Mr. "Jack" Hundley was largely responsible for the high class minstrels given last year.

Purpose of the Y. M. C. A.
The work of the Y. M. C. A. is done in a broad, Christian, non-sectarian spirit with the purpose of:

1. Leading the students to faith in God through Jesus Christ.
2. Leading them into membership and service in the Christian Church.
3. Promoting their growth in Christian faith, especially through the study of the Bible and prayer.
4. Influencing them to devote themselves in united effort with all Christians to make the will of Christ effective in human society, and to extending the Kingdom of God throughout the world.
The support of every loyal Christian student is necessary if there is to be a realization of these high ideals, adopted by the National Convention of the Y. M. C. A. Every man must be willing and anxious to do his Christian duty.

Y. M. C. A. Meetings

It has been the policy of the Y. M. C. A. to hold a meeting on one night each week. The programmes of these meetings are religious and devotional for the most part. However, discussions of vital problems are frequently held, as social and racial problems. In connection with these meetings the State Association (College) has arranged to have a number of lecturers of national fame visit the colleges of Virginia. On other nights, members of the faculty and speakers from nearby cities will address the Association. During the year, on appropriate and special seasons, early morning prayer services are held before breakfast by the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. These services are short and inspirational, and do much towards developing and keeping alive the proper Christian attitude in the students.

However, the meetings of the Association are not all of a serious nature. A number of socials and get-together entertainments are given by the Y's, to which, of course, all the students are invited.

Y. M. C. A. Bible Study

As has been the custom for the past several years, the Y. M. C. A. will conduct the Bible study classes for men. The instructors for these classes will be selected from members of the upper classes by the committee in charge of this work. For the most part these instructors will be men who are studying for the ministry, or for some special Christian work.

The instructors are required to meet once a week in a normal training class taught by a member of the faculty. The work to be taken up in the classes is outlined in these normal classes and the instructors are thus prepared to lead their groups.

The Bible classes are open to all men students and are held in the dormitories on such nights as are most convenient to the members of the classes and the instructors. These classes meet for an hour once each week, and upon completion of eighteen weeks' work of satisfactory nature, the student will be given college credits.

The Bible study classes have proved both interesting and valuable to those who have taken them and it is hoped that as many students as possible will enter one of these classes.

Information Bureau

The Y. M. C. A. will conduct during the first few days of college an information bureau in the hall of the Main Building. Students desiring information or help of any kind should ask the "Y" for assistance.

Purpose of the Y. W. C. A.
The purpose of the Young Women's Christian Association is:
1. To lead students to faith in God through Jesus Christ.

2. To lead them into membership and service in the Christian Church.

3. To promote their growth in Christian faith and character, especially through the study of the Bible.

4. To influence them to devote themselves, in united effort with all Christians, to making the will of Christ effective in human society, and to extending the Kingdom of God throughout the world.

Membership in the Y. W. C. A.

Every girl who matriculates at William and Mary becomes a member of the Y. W. C. A., paying her membership fee through the Student’s Activities Fee collected by the college treasurer. There are, however, two classes of members, namely, active and inactive. The certificate of active membership entitles a girl to a vote in all association proceedings at William and Mary and to the privileges of any student or city association of the National Board of the Y. W. C. A. in the United States. The only additional requirement for active membership is sympathy with the purpose of the association and the acceptance of the following purpose as provided by the National Young Women’s Christian Association:

"It is my purpose to live as a true follower of the Lord Jesus Christ."
"Big Sister" Plan

The Y. W. C. A. sees to it that every new girl on the campus has an old girl for a "big sister." This is in order that none of the new girls may get homesick or lonely. These "big sisters" are to look out for their "little sisters" during the whole session. Really, it helps wonderfully to have some one interested in each new girl and anxious to help her to adjust herself to new conditions and make new friends.

If any new girl wants to know anything about the Honor System or about the Student Government, which prevail at William and Mary, she can ask her "big sister," who will gladly tell her about them.

The Y. W. C. A. has arranged a new plan in case of violations of Student Government regulations by new girls. In such cases, when the new girl is called before a meeting of the Student Council her "big sister" will go with her and remain with her during the proceedings of the Council. This will enable the "big sister" to be of very real assistance to the new girl who has failed to live up to the requirements of student government on the campus. With the help of a "big sister" who has her best interest at heart, the fit of girl should soon catch the habit and have no student self-govern before the Student Council.
Weekly Programme Meetings

The regular weekly meetings of the Y. W. C. A. will be held every Wednesday night at seven o'clock in the college chapel. Each programme presented will be of interest to every college girl. Your support will determine the value of the Y. W. C. A. in student life at William and Mary.

Bulletin Boards

Watch the Y. W. C. A. bulletin board for attractive posters, interesting events, and things every college girl ought to know!

Main board in Jefferson Hall.
Small boards in Tyler Hall and Tyler Annex.
Y. W. C. A. notices are also posted on the students' bulletin board at the entrance to the Main Building.

Bible Study

The Y. W. C. A. offers Bible study classes for small groups of students conducted by student leaders under the direction of a member of the faculty. The object of these classes is to develop:

First—A knowledge of the facts of the Bible.
Second—Its bearing on modern problems.
Third—Its value to the individual
The course consists of eighteen meetings during the session and either an examination or a written essay on some phase of the year's work. The student is given one college credit for the successful completion of the course.

The committee in charge will be glad to receive the names of all who wish to take this course. Give your name to the chairman of the Bible Study Committee, Leah James.

Blue Ridge Conference

The Y. W. C. A. holds a division conference in June of each year at Blue Ridge, N. C. Here gather hundreds of college girls from many different institutions for discussion of their problems and for inspiration to greater Christian service. William and Mary sends as many girls as possible each year to represent our association and to bring back to its members a broader outlook and a wider knowledge of the work and aims of the Y. W. C. A.

Y. W. C. A. Book Store

Second-hand text-books may be bought at half price from the Y. W. C. A. book store on the second floor of the Main Building. Any students having text-books for sale may sell them in this way for a small charge.
CLUBS AND FRATERNITIES

Clubs

The new student will find soon after entering William and Mary that several loosely organized clubs are on the campus. Of these, the following territorial clubs are representative: Southwest, Northern Lights, Tidewater, Eastern Shore, Rappahannock, Newport News, Norfolk, Richmond, and Williamsburg. Other clubs, the purpose of which is not very well known, follow: Doctors, Biology, Monogram, B. I. C., S. O. S., T. N. T., Cotillion, Oversea, and Anglo Saxon Club. The women's clubs are: Alpha Club, Edith M. Baer Club, German Club, K. O. B., and the Walking Stix.

Of the various clubs, the Flat Hat Club is recognized as the greatest in point of service and seniority. This club represents some of the best literary ability among the faculty and students. Its primary purpose is to foster and maintain a high standard of literary work at the college.

Fraternities

The American Greek letter fraternity system originated at William and Mary in 1776 with the founding of Phi Beta Kappa (now honorary). The Greek letter fraternities are national organizations represented by local chapters in the various colleges and universities. Their purpose is fraternal and as secret brotherhoods they seek to ally men of one type—men who are congenial, and who, by close association, will mutually benefit one another. The chapters own or rent houses, in which many of their numbers live.

Because the aim of the fraternity is to bring together in a close bond of brotherhood such men who have similar tastes, talents, or ambitions, it must necessarily follow that none can join except upon invitation by the members. If an invitation is extended you, do not decide hastily. You will be no better or worse for having declined or accepted an invitation. A fraternity may be a distinct help or it may be a hindrance. It will not raise you to sudden eminence among your fellows; the best it can do is to inspire you to greater endeavors, manliness, and higher achievements. There is a possibility of mutual helpfulness in the intimate association of like-minded men, but be sure to retain your own individuality. Before joining be certain you understand the following facts: First, the character, reputation, and ideals of the national organization; second, the object and general purpose or policy of the local chapter; third, the character of the men in the local chapter; and fourth, the dues, assessments, room rent, initiation fee, and so forth.

Do not allow your membership to interfere with your personal ideals. Do not place your fraternity before the college that is to become your Alma Mater. If you narrow your college life to an intimacy with none but your fraternity brothers, you will lose much of the best that the life at William and Mary holds for you. You will find that some of your warmest friends will be made among non-fraternity men. Be broad and generous, non-partisan, and democratic.

There are highly organized fraternities of social and honorary nature at William and Mary. Of the honorary fraternities, Phi Beta Kappa is the first and the greatest. It was the first fraternity established in America and is composed of eminent and distinguished scholars. Other honor fraternities are Omicron Delta Kappa, composed of both graduates and undergraduates; Tau Kappa Alpha, an honor fraternity for orators and debaters; Sigma Upsilon, the literary fraternity. There are eight social fraternities, five sororities, and three professional fraternities.

"Speaking makes a ready man." Join a Literary Society.

Every student is individually responsible for the student government.

The Honor System cannot live in dishonor. Set your standards high.

Student government means student honor.
Freshman year is not a period of triumph or reward, but of preparation. As such, it is the most important of the four. Build your foundation solid. A reputation for ability to take responsibility and to do conscientious work will last throughout college and help you later.

Make sure of your curriculum work. Do not, however, become one-sided. A well-rounded education is not acquired from books alone. Try for every team or a managership. You have nothing to lose, but everything to gain. Your contact with the coaches and athletes is a course in itself.

Do not allow any pressing fraternity invitation to force you to make a hasty decision. Although most pledges are made during the autumn quarter, men are always invited to join fraternities later in their course. Belonging to a fraternity will not make you of any more importance to the college.

Attend as many College Dances as you can financially stand. A good College Dance is a long cherished memory.

Do not let a new environment upset too quickly the ideals you bring with you.

Attend all your class meetings.

In your attitude toward others be natural and sincere. Reserve and deference toward upper classmen show an appreciation of College precedents, but cringing servility is a self-evident sham.
When the new student has properly adjusted himself to his studies for the year, there is nothing to which he should determine his correct attitude sooner than to athletics. As an individual he should do two things. He should determine the best manner in which to keep himself physically fit, and he should strive to do everything in his power to contribute to maintaining what is known as college spirit. Without the proper college spirit college life is worthless.

The individual may contribute to this spirit by participating to his fullest capacity, whether a member of the first team or not, in the athletics of the college and by cultivating an ardent but correct attitude in his support of the teams representing the college, he should remember that by these teams and no less by the support given them, the college will inevitably be judged on the outside. He should remember that the college takes a just pride in its hard playing and winning teams. He should remember that the college takes a greater pride in the spirit which renders it unwilling to win at any price and in its reputation for teams composed of clean sportsman-like gentlemen. His every act should be based on a wish to increase this just pride and to enhance this reputation.
Mass Athletics

The college uses a system of mass athletics which has been adopted by all the leading colleges. Under this system every student is given some form of athletic training, unless he is physically unable to receive it. This training is compulsory for freshmen and is required of all degree applicants. This applies to both men and women. Besides the college teams there are classes in gymnastics and physical education which are adopted to the needs of those who wish to become directors of physical education in the public schools. Full details of these courses may be found in the college catalogue.

Athletic Management

General supervision of athletics is exercised by the 3-3 or Athletic Committee, which is composed of the President of the college and two members of the faculty appointed by the President; and three students elected by the student body, one from each of the upper classes. This committee determines and directs the general athletic policy of the college, authorizes the expenditure of money, and selects the coaches and the athletic director. The athletic director has general charge of athletics under the committee. He arranges for the entertainment of visiting teams, and for trips, umpires, etc., and has charge of the athletic buildings, equipment, and general affairs. The coaches exercise absolute authority over the players, substitutions, and tactics.
Every student, by paying the college athletic fee, becomes a member of the Athletic Association and is entitled to a vote in the election of officers and the members of the Athletic Committee.

Schedules of interesting inter-collegiate games are arranged for all of the first teams representing the college and wherever possible for the scrub teams. There is probably no better advertisement for a college than a successful, hard-fighting athletic team.

The 1923 football schedule as announced by Manager S. J. Gay is as follows:

September 29—Navy at Annapolis.

October 6—Syracuse University at Syracuse.

October 13—Guilford College at Williamsburg.

YELLS AND SONGS

GET THE PROPER SPIRIT!
GET THE PROPER SPIRIT!

Every old student knows what is expected of him. Every new student has this to learn. Remember that you are at William and Mary; not simply at college, but at William and Mary College. Once knowing that, there are certain responsibilities and obligations incumbent upon you. In your athletics these things are paramount: First, support your coach in every way; second, support your team from the ground up; third, attend every game, rally, and bonfire working to make it a success.

The best way in which the student body can show the teams that the college is behind them is through the songs and yells. In hearing the songs and yells, the morale of the team is raised and the punch that counts is put across.

These suggestions will lead to good cheering:
Keep your eyes on the Cheer Leader during all songs and yells.
Learn the songs and yells.
When a yell or song is called for work on it hard.
Do not use a "cat call" on anyone at any time.
Show appreciation for opponent's good plays.
Stay in the stands until the end of the game.

The Blair House was the home of John Blair, Jr., associate justice of the United States. It is a long frame structure, one and a half stories high, with two entrances, situated on the Duke of Gloucester street. This old home has been bought for preservation by Professor Pollard.

Wythe House

The Wythe House is a square brick structure of two stories, situated on the east side of Palace Green, next to Bruton Parish Church yard. This was the home of George Wythe, signer of the Declaration of Independence, chancellor of Virginia, first professor of law in William and Mary College and the designer of the beautiful seal of Virginia, as well as the seal of the chancery court. This house was also occupied by George Washington and Rochambeau during the Yorktown campaign.

Tucker House

The Tucker House was the home of St. George Tucker, stepfather of John Randolph, of Roanoke, and second professor of law in the College of William and Mary. This house is situated on Nicholson street, near Palace Green.
Peyton Randolph House

The Peyton Randolph House is situated on the south side of Francis street in the eastern part of the town. This was the residence of Peyton Randolph, president of the first Continental Congress.

Bassett Hall

Bassett Hall, a beautiful residence adjoining the Peyton Randolph lot, was formerly the property of Burwell Bassett, a nephew of Mrs. Washington. In the summer of 1804, Williamsburg had for its visitor the distinguished Irish poet, Thomas Moore, who was so impressed with the beautiful lawn of Bassett Hall that he was inspired to pen a few lines "To the Firefly." In 1841 it was the residence of John Tyler, President of the United States.

Audrey House

The Audrey House, typical of an eighteenth century structure, is located on the east side of Palace Green. This house was made famous by Mary Johnston as the residence of Audrey, in her novel of that name.

Site of the House of Burgesses

At the end of the Duke of Gloucester street opposite the college gate, is the site of the old House of Burgesses. It was here that Patrick Henry, with his eloquent, patriotic speeches, stirred the people of Williamsburg and the students of the College, among whom was Thomas Jefferson.

Site of Governor's Palace

Facing Palace Green on Duke of Gloucester street is the site of the Colonial Governor's Palace, built in 1705 and burned following the surrender of Cornwallis. The "Mattey Grammar School," originally established in 1706, stands on this site at present.

Bruton Parish

Powder Horn

Opposite the court house is the old Powder Horn, built as a powder magazine by Governor Spotswood in 1714. From this magazine Governor Dunmore took the powder, April 20, 1775, precipitating revolutionary hostilities in Virginia.

Debtor's Prison

Debtor's Prison, situated on Nicholson street, was the prison in which were incarcerated the crew of the pirate Blackbeard and Governor-General Hamilton, the Detroit "scalp buyer."
Eastern State Hospital

On Francis street is found the Eastern State Hospital, the first Insane Asylum established in America (1768).

Raleigh Tavern

The site of the old Raleigh Tavern, now occupied by Lane & Christian's store, is on the Duke of Gloucester street. The tavern was burned in 1859.

Fortunately, William and Mary has not been co-ed long enough to prove the veracity of Mr. Wells' declaration.
THE HONOR SYSTEM AT THE COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY

Among her many priorities, William and Mary justly claim that of leading the way in formulation and the adoption of the Honor System. Early in the nineteenth century, in the days when no other idea of college government prevailed throughout America than that the student should be watched like a suspected criminal for offenses, either actual or potential, the faculty of William and Mary appointed a committee, whose head was the distinguished jurist, Beverly Tucker, to draw up a statement of the spirit and content of an honor system by which the conduct of the students of the old college was to be guided. At once put into operation, this system has continued in actual and successful working without interruption until the present day.

But glorious and inspiring as is the historical origin of the Honor System, it is with its operation now and in the future that the men and women of the new day at the old college are primarily concerned. In the first place, it is of vital importance that every new student enrolling in September, should clearly understand what the Honor System really is and what it means in his life and in the corporate life of the College. Ignorance of it may bring the possibility—even the probability—of breaking it, and at once there follows a well nigh irreparable injury to the character, the reputation, and the future of the individual student and an equally grave lowering of the morale of the student body, for this must always suffer by the disgrace of any of its members. It is in this spirit that the present serious attempt is made to set forth, especially for the benefit of the new students, just what the Honor System is and what is required of each in order to translate it into his life.

The Honor System may be defined in a word as individual responsibility. It brings home to the individual man or woman who would stay at the noble old college and get the advantages she offers, his personal responsibility for her fair name and honor. It emphasizes two things: first, that the student must recognize that he is answerable in the very fullest degree for every one of his actions and dealings with the members of the faculty and with his fellows, in his or their rooms, in the dining halls, the athletic fields, the social centers, and in the class rooms; and, second, that he must recognize his personal responsibility for the well-being of the college in every phase of life in which he touches her existence.

Such phases, in the large, will at once suggest themselves to every one. They include, primarily, everything which touches the securing of aid, assistance, or profit in scholastic work of whatsoever kind, whether in term class work, periodical tests, or in the formal examinations, as well as in all work handed in to the instructor, though it is to be regretted that in the latter respect, students otherwise most sensitive to the Honor System do not seem to feel its demands so keenly as in regard to the others. A slight reflection, however, will convince one that work of this kind should also be included in the scope of the Honor System. It is a source of pride to all lovers of the college that public opinion of the students is now, and has always been, most healthy, vigorous, and uncompromising in its condemnation of all infractions of the Honor System falling under the heads just enumerated.

As to all offenses touching the taking of property which is not one's own, in any form, it goes without saying that these come most completely under the condemnation of the Honor System, and find swift and deserved punishment at the hands of the student body itself.

Constitution and By-Laws of the Men's Student Government of the College of William and Mary

Preamble to Constitution

Whereas, William and Mary has always stood for Truth, Honor, and Gentlemanly Conduct, and still stands for them; and

Whereas, at William and Mary the Honor System had its beginning, and its spirit still prevails in such force that disorder and ungentlemanly conduct are not countenanced; and

Whereas, the present system of Student Government and application of the Honor System to College life at William and Mary is manifestly inadequate to the present and future needs of the college; and

Whereas, we believe that democratic student self-government, emphasizing and based upon student honor, is both possible and desirable, but that its successful operation requires a high degree of active individual and group honor on the part of a large majority of the student body so governed and must be carefully safeguarded and prompted by a wise selection of its officers and by the progressive education of students in the principles of student honor.

*Freshman member to be elected in accordance with Section 4, and Article IV, Section 1, of the Constitution.
Therefore, we, the Student Council of the College of William and Mary, hereby submit the following constitution for the reorganization and reënforcement of the student government and honor system in accordance with these principles:

PART I

Article I

The executive and judicial powers of this government shall be vested in a student council composed of seven members and an honor council composed of seven members.

Article II

The members of the student council shall be chosen as follows:

Section 1. Members at large. Not less than one month previous to the end of the academic year the student council shall select seven men in their judgment best fitted to compose the succeeding council. The names of these men shall be announced, published, and posted as nominees. Not less than one week after the announcement of these nominees has been made, the student body shall elect by secret, signed ballot, three of them as members at large of the student council for the following year.

Sec. 2. Class Members. Following the election of the members at large, each of the three lower classes shall meet and choose one representative.
Sec. 3. Choice of the President and Council Chairman. When the above indicated six members have been elected, they shall meet and choose one of their number for chairman of the council. They shall also select their officers and organize for the following year's work. This meeting shall take place not less than ten days previous to the end of the session and shall be called by the chairman of the existing council.

Sec. 4. Freshman Members. The following academic year, not less than two months after the organization of the freshman class, its members shall choose one of their number for membership on the Student Council.

Article III—Powers and Duties

Sec. 1. The student council shall adopt its own rules of procedure, elect its own officers and define their duties and keep its own records.

Sec. 2. The student council shall have general supervision and control over the student body. It shall be its duty to make laws and rules for the student body. It shall cooperate with the women's student government and hold joint meetings with it for discussion and planning. It shall be its duties to try students accused of committing acts which reflect on the well-being of the student body, such as: gambling, drinking, hazing, and such other acts that interfere with good order and the promotion of the proper college spirit, and such other specific acts as from time to time may be added to its duties by a two-thirds vote of the student body, and if the accused be found guilty, to determine what punishment shall be inflicted.

Sec. 3. The council shall have a regular meeting once each month, date to be decided by the council or the president.

Sec. 4. The student council shall sit at least once each term (date to be determined by a vote of itself) as a grand jury to investigate general student affairs, conduct, complaints, and suggestions. Students and faculty shall be invited to attend these meetings and give views and suggestions.

Sec. 5. The conviction or punishment of any student shall require a two-thirds vote of the council. In case of a tie, the chairman shall vote, but not otherwise. When the chairman so votes, four of the seven votes cast shall determine conviction or punishment. Punishment may extend to the expulsion of the offender from college, but in such case the decision shall be subject to appeal to the president of the college. In the consideration of a fraternity man or of a matter affecting any particular fraternity the members of that fraternity serving in the student council shall not have a vote, but their seats shall be temporarily filled by the choice of the council and the accused from the student body.

Sec. 6. All other powers and duties not herein provided for which may be necessary for the proper operation of the student government shall be exercised by the chairman thereof until further provisions have been made.

Article IV—Honor Council

Sec. 1. The student body shall elect an Honor Council in the same manner as provided for the election of the Student Council. The organizing of the Honor Council shall be the same as provided for the organization of the Student Council. All cases of stealing, or defrauding, of cheating on examinations or other scholastic work, and of violation of one's pledged word shall fall under the supervision of this Council. Every student is honor bound to report for immediate action all such cases of violations against the honor system. The honor system assumes that every student is a man of truthfulness and honesty, and that any such student is honor bound to procure the permanent removal from the student body of all those who, by violating in any degree this accepted code of honor, prove that they cannot be safely trusted. From the decisions of the Honor Council there is no appeal.

Article V—President of Student Body

Sec. 1. There shall be a president of the student body whose duties it shall be to handle matters pertaining to the student body or relating in any way to the revision of the regulations regarding student government or the honor system, and to hold, at such times as seems best, a joint meeting of the student body for the election of officers as provided in this constitution, or for the transaction of other business for which provision has not been made in this constitution.

Sec. 2. The president of the student body shall be elected at a joint meeting of the Student Council and the Honor Council. These two councils meeting jointly may select some one from the student body at large, or a member from the Student Council or the Honor Council. In the event that the president of the student body is elected from the membership of either the Student Council or the Honor Council, he thereby vacates his membership in said Council, and the student body must be assembled to fill the vacancy thus caused if he is a member at large. If a class member is selected, the class which he represents shall meet and fill the vacancy thus caused.

PART II

Student Supervision and Educational Training in Self-Government and Honor System

Article I—Education

The Student Council and the Honor Council shall see that the meaning and responsibility of the student government and Honor System is presented to the students early in and throughout the college year by means of lectures, addresses, articles in college publications, and individual instruction to students, and in other ways as may be convenient or necessary. Every student shall be made familiar with this constitution, its meaning, and his duty in supporting it.
Article II—Supervision and Educational Training

The chairman of the Student Council shall, at his discretion, appoint with the advice and consent of the Council, committees for the supervision and educational training of students in proper student conduct and attitude. Members of such committees shall seek to affect the attitude and conduct of students by personal influence and advice, shall investigate the conduct of students on complaint of the other students or on their own initiative, and shall recommend action on such investigations to the Student Council in case they are unable to effect desired changes by advice and instruction of offending students, and shall carry out the orders of the Council regarding punishment of such students.

Article III—Initiative, Referendum, and Recall

Upon request of two members of the Student Council or of the Honor Council, or petition signed by twenty-five men of the student body, the president of the student body shall call a vote of the student body upon the enactment of specified new legislation or rules, the repeal of existing laws or rules, amendments to or changes in this constitution, the recall of the occupant of any student office, or any other matter affecting the student government, with the exception of judicial decisions of the Student Council which are reviewable by the president of the college only.
In voting upon matters arising under this article, a two-third majority shall be required to take action on the subject of original petition.

ATHLETICS—WOMEN

The year 1922-23 was probably the criterion of the women's fame in athletics. This is, without question, true of their basket-ball team.

Under excellent coaching and leadership, the William and Mary Co-ed co-horts vanquished all challengers, including Sweet Briar, Swarthmore, and George Washington.

It is hoped and expected that this year the women branches of athletics will attain even greater glory than heretofore. With an excellent array of coaches and players, success is inevitable.

We recommend to the patronage of William and Mary students the firms whose advertisements appear in this book. Care has been taken to admit no advertisements except of firms in every way reliable and trustworthy, and students dealing with the houses advertised are sure to find their treatment both courteous and satisfactory.
It is a pleasure to serve educated women—women who appreciate the better things of life—broad-minded, charming women, we dedicate this page to the versatile Co-Ed.

We trust that we may number her among our friends and have the great pleasure of serving her. And when we serve we trust that the slightest over-sight on our part will be brought to our attention in order that we may learn to serve in the bigger, better way.

YOUNG MAN, LISTEN!

Live of great men do more than remind us that we can make our lives count for more than we imagine, for they give us the principles of conduct and action which we may and should follow in order to make our own lives worth while.

Franklin, the printer, philosopher, and diplomat, said: "Save, young man, and become respectable and respected."

The big men of the future will be picked from the money savers of today, which suggests the importance of a savings account to the young man who desires to acquire a cash capital and "become respectable and respected."
