GREETINGS

We bid you welcome to the College of William and Mary in Virginia. You are on the threshold of the two hundred thirty-second session of the college and as you begin to penetrate the clouds of experiences that lie beyond, ever hold in mind the love of your Alma Mater and the principles of the Christian faith. You are standing on a spot sacred in the hearts of the alumni.

Rich in the glories of the past and basking in the sunshine of present achievement, the college looks to you to establish a future even greater than the past. In your hands have been placed the plans of a great future. Will you build a mansion of glory and achievement in the name of your Alma Mater or will you idly lay aside these plans? The foundation has been firmly established, you must erect a house upon the foundations. This is the challenge that you must face as we bid you welcome.
Hark, the student's voices swelling,
Strong and clear and true,
Alma Mater's love they're telling,
Ringing far and near.

Chorus
William and Mary loved of old,
Hark, upon the gale,
Hear the thunder of our chorus,
Alma Mater—hail.

All thy sons are faithful to thee
Through their college days,
Singing out from hearts that love thee
Alma Mater's praise.

Iron shod and golden sandaled
Shall the years go by,
Still our hearts shall weave about thee
Love that cannot die.

God, our Father, hear our voices,
Listen to our cry,
Bless the college of our boyhood,
Let her never die.

—J. S. Wilson, '02.

"The stars govern men, but God governs the stars."

"May the man be condemned and never grow fat that wears two faces under one hat."
PRESIDENT J. A. CHANDLER

GREETING FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE COLLEGE
THE HONOR SYSTEM

The Honor System was inaugurated in America in 1779, at the College of William and Mary. From that time to this, the system has been in successful operation at the College. The Honor System emphasizes two things in particular: First, that the student is answerable at all times under all circumstances for every one of his actions; and, second, that he must recognize his personal responsibility for the well-being of the college in every phase of life in which he touches her existence. The Honor System is to the College what the Constitution is to the United States. To the Honor System must be attributed no little of the success of the leaders in the past who attended this ancient seat of learning, and its maintenance and faithful observance can but make for thinkers who will, like the statesmen of the past, lead men into light and order out of these dark days of world confusion and universal dissatisfaction. It is not always an easy or the most pleasant thing to adhere closely to the provisions of the Honor System, but such a course is the only one for men of honor, and those who would reject it or refuse to abide by the rules of the Honor System, are undesirable students. Those things for which the Honor System stands have always and ever shall prevail at the grand old College of William and Mary.
Don’t forget that letter home.
Don’t be a quitter.
Remember that you reap only those things that you sow.

It is a William and Mary custom that when passing a man on the street you greet him whether you know him or not. The phrase "Gentlemen," and a smile with it go a long way to increasing the spirit of co-operation among the students. Above all don't be snobbish, nothing makes against a man any more than snobbishness. "Smile and the world smiles with you, frown and you frown alone."
The first American college to receive a charter from the crown: this was dated 1693, under seal of the Privy Council.

The first and only college to be granted a coat of arms from the Herald's college, 1694.

The first American college to have a full faculty of president, six professors, writing master and usher.

The first medals awarded in America as collegiate prizes were those donated by Lord Botetourt, 1771.

The first Greek letter fraternity was founded at William and Mary on December 5, 1776. This fraternity, the Phi Beta Kappa, is the great honor society of the foremost institution of learning in America.

The first honor system.

The first elective system of studies, 1779.

The first school of Modern Languages and of Law were established in 1779, under the influence of Jefferson.

The first college to teach political economy was William and Mary, in 1784.

The first school of history was founded here in 1803.

Student government means student honor.
GENERAL INFORMATION

The College of William and Mary received its charter in 1693 from William and Mary, Sovereigns of England. Its colors, of which it is particularly proud, were also derived from these sovereigns who granted its charter, orange for William of Orange, and white for Mary of York. William and Mary is the only American college to be granted a coat of arms from the Herald's College of England.

The College Bell

The college bell sounds a warning five minutes before the meeting of each class. The bell is rung also for all student meetings and chapel services. It is important that each student should find out why the bell is being rung, and if there is a meeting at which he should be present, he should go at once. There is little excuse for lateness.

The board inside the Main Building is reserved for use by the faculty. Other bulletin boards are free for student use.

Text Books

Text books may be secured at the College Shop, located on Duke of Gloucester Street, to the left at the entrance of the college campus.

The Y. W. C. A. will conduct during the first few weeks, a second-hand book store on the second floor of the Main Building. If you wish to buy or sell any second-hand books, patronize the Y. W. C. A. Book Store.

Laundry

The college laundry is done by the Williamsburg Steam Laundry. The laundry will be taken from the rear of the Deanery every Monday morning and can be secured from the same place by the following Thursday or Friday.

Bible and Mission Study

Bible study groups are led by student instructors. A faculty instructor meets these leaders once a week in a normal training class. The instructors are thus prepared to lead their classes, which meet at such time and places as are most convenient for the group. Bible study is discussed more fully on pages 34 and 39.
The Honor System

Of its many priorities, William and Mary is justly proud that it was the first college to have an honor system, which was established at this college in 1779. The Honor System can only be sustained by every student knowing what it is and making it a part of himself. It is essential that every student should read and understand the constitution and working of the Honor System. A complete discussion appears on page 65 and any old student will be glad to tell you about the Honor System.

Information Bureau

The Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. will maintain during the opening days of the session on the first floor of the Main Building a bureau of general information. Students wishing information should avail themselves of this service. Ask the Y’s.

College Orchestra

The college orchestra is made up from the students and furnishes music on informal occasions and for the informal dances.

Herbert L. Ganter, President

Confronted with the absence of a Catholic Church in town, and realizing the need of some place where Catholic students could gather together and express their devotion to God, there was organized last year, by the Catholic students in college, the Gibbons Club. The purpose of this club is to help, in its way, the Catholic students worship God. It is the purpose of this club to hold mass every two weeks of the college year. The time and place of meetings and mass are posted in time for everyone to attend. All Catholic students are urged to be present.

IT IS NOT ALWAYS EASY

To apologize,
To begin over,
To admit error,
To be unselfish,
To take advice,
To be charitable.
To be considerate,
To keep on trying,
To think and then act,
To profit by mistake,
To forgive and forget,
To shoulder a deserved blame,
BUT IT ALWAYS PAYS.

—The Hallegram.
CAMPUS AND BUILDINGS

Main Building

The large ivy-covered building in the center of the campus is the Main Building and lecture hall of the college. The original building was erected in 1694, having been designed by Sir Christopher Wren, the great English architect who designed St. Paul's Cathedral in London. This building has been burned three times but rebuilt each time on the same spot, for the most part on the same foundation and walls.

Brafferton

The second oldest building at the college is the Brafferton, located on the front campus to the left of the Main Building. It was built in 1723 and was used as the first Indian school in America. The Brafferton was a gift from the estate of the famous English chemist, Honorable Robert Boyle, and was named after his estate in Yorkshire, England. The building now contains the offices of the dean, the registrar, the secretary of the alumni, the college President, and the treasurer.
President's House

Across the campus and facing the Brafferton, is the house in which the presidents of the college have lived since 1732. This house was used by Lord Cornwallis as his headquarters before his surrender at Yorktown in 1781, after which the house was occupied by French soldiers. While thus occupied the house was accidentally burned, but was restored from the personal funds of King Louis XVI.

Lord Botetourt

In the center of the front campus stands the statue of Norborne Berkley, Baron de Botetourt, who was one of the most beloved of the royal governors of Virginia. This is the first statue in America to be erected by an act of a General Assembly.

Spotswood Cannon

Near the statue of Lord Botetourt stands an old cannon which was used at Fort Christina, Brunswick county. This fort was established by governor Spotswood in 1712 for the defense of the frontier against Indian attacks.

Science Hall

To the right of the Main Building is the Science Hall in which are located the physics, home economics and philosophy and psychology departments. The biological laboratories and lecture rooms are located in the Penniman Building.

Chemistry Building

Situated to the rear of the Main Building is a temporary, tin structure known as the Chemistry Building. All chemical laboratories and lecture rooms are located in this building.
Library

To the rear of the Science Hall is the library, which contains many treasures of colonial history. The splendidly equipped building was made possible by the generosity of Andrew Carnegie and other friends of the college. The building has been recently enlarged by funds from the Carnegie Foundation.

Citizenship Building

The old gymnasium to the left of the Main Building has been converted into class rooms. In this building are housed the Marshall-Wythe school of Government and Citizenship, the School of Law, the School of Economics and Business Administration, and the Department of Journalism. The "Flat Hat" and "Colonial Echo" offices are also in this building.

Gymnasium

At present both men and women are obliged to use the women's gymnasium in the basement of Jefferson Hall. The George Preston Blow Memorial Gymnasium which is to the left of Monroe Hall is now in the course of construction and early in the year it will be ready for use by the men.

Jefferson Hall

Fronting on Jamestown Road and back of the old gymnasium is situated the handsome new dormitory for women. In this building is located the offices of the Social Director of Women, the women's swimming pool and gymnasium, social rooms, and rooms for 150 women.
Monroe Hall

Fronting on the Richmond road and back of the library is the handsome new dormitory for men which has just been completed. It is a modern fireproof structure built along plans of Jefferson Hall. It contains memorials to many distinguished alumni and has accommodations for 168 men.

Practice House

To the rear of the President's house on the Richmond road is an attractive residence which is used for a practice house in Home Economics.

Ewell Dormitory

Across the Jamestown road from the Brafferton Building is the Ewell Dormitory and Abbex for men.

Taliaferro Dormitory

To the right of Ewell is Taliaferro, also used as a men's dormitory. Taliaferro was built with funds appropriated by Congress in payment of damages done the college by Federal soldiers in the War between the States.

Infirmary

To the right of the Taliaferro, is a two-story frame building which is the men's infirmary and dispensary for medicines.

The women's infirmary is located in room seven, first floor, of Jefferson Hall.

Power Plant

To the rear of the infirmary is the power plant which supplies heat, light, and water to all the college buildings. Electric light bulbs may be secured there.
Dining Hall

The Main Dining Hall of the college is situated to the rear of the Taliaferro and Ewell Dormitories. Another dining hall is on the second floor of the Penniman Building, directly behind the Main Dining Hall.

Penniman Building

To the rear of the dining hall is a temporary building used as a men's dormitory. In this building are also situated a dining hall, and the biological department.

Deanery

On the left side of the dining hall is the house formerly occupied by the Dean, now used as a women's dormitory.

Tyler Hall

On the corner of the left front campus is the women's dormitory known as Tyler Hall.

Tyler Annex

To the rear of Tyler Hall and on the left of the Deanery is a temporary dormitory for women known as Tyler Annex.

Located on Boundary Street, not far from the campus, are two temporary dormitories for men. The Institute is another men's dormitory located about four blocks from the campus on Scotland Street.

Plans for several new buildings on the campus are under consideration, namely, a Science Hall, the Phi Beta Kappa Building, a new dormitory and dining hall for girls.
IF

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing their's and blaming you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting, too.
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated, don't give away to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise.

If you can dream, and not make dreams your master,
If you can think, and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster,
And treat those two imposters just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you have spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build them up with worn-out tools.

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breathe a word about your loss.
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone
And so hold on when there's nothing in you,
Except the Will which says to them, "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings—nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Your's is the Earth and everything that's in it.
And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son!

—Rudyard Kipling.

WHAT YOU SHOULD LEARN

1. Learn to laugh. A good laugh is better than medicine.

2. Learn to tell a helpful story.

3. Learn to keep your troubles to yourself.

4. Learn to stop croaking.

5. Learn to greet your friends with a smile.

—Missouri Freemason, St. Louis.
DUC RULES—MEN

1. All freshmen shall wear a regulation cap. This cap shall be one of alternating colors of gold and green with a small green visor on it; the button and letters shall be silver. This cap shall be worn at all times, except Sundays and holidays. It must be worn until May 1, 1925. On the night of May 1 a bonfire shall be held at which time all freshmen shall burn their "duc" hat in celebration of their freedom.

2. Men from other schools who have attended that school for at least one year will be allowed the privileges of old men until abused, except that they shall wear their hats at all times.

3. All freshmen must stay on the sidewalks at all times while on the campus.

4. Freshmen must attend all class elections, all general meetings, all celebrations, and all home games.

5. Freshmen must stay in the grand stand during games and they must not have dates.

6. Freshmen shall not talk to girls except after four P. M. on any day except holidays and Sundays.

7. For violation of these rules the offender shall be reported to a Freshman Tribunal composed of the vice-presidents of the three upper classes. For the first offense the offender must wear a coat composed of silver, gold and green cloth; on the back of this coat shall be placed a sign: "I am ashamed of myself." The tribunal shall determine how long the freshman offender shall wear the coat and shall determine the punishment for the second offense.
DO'S FOR DUCS

Forget that you came from any particular preparatory school. You are a William and Mary student now.

Do all the good you can and keep the knowledge of it under your hat.

Take off your hat when "Alma Mater" is sung.

Be honest with yourself and always keep in mind that you are here for a life purpose.

Do all your work on week days; you need one rest day in every seven.

Do things in the right proportion; don't be a "grind."

Remember that the faculty members are your friends; upon request they will gladly give advice.

Be a mixer and a credit to the college.

Take part in student activities; action speaks louder than words.

Learn the songs and yells and join in the "rooting."

Attend all contests on Cary Field. It is your duty.

Get out for some form of athletics and stick to it.

Remember that money does not buy time, so don't waste either.

Keep your mind, body, and soul clean.

Remember that you will never "find" time for anything; if you want time, you must make it.

Remember that you will find true and noble friends, if you want them among both faculty and students.
During the latter part of May, 1921, the students asked for a Student Activities Fee, to which the faculty and the Board of Visitors consented. For purpose of administration it will be collected by the treasurer of the college, and by vote of the students is divided as follows:

9-27 to the Colonial Echo.
5-27 to the Flat Hat.
5-27 to the Literary Magazine.
4-27 to the Y. M. C. A. or the Y. W. C. A. as the case may be.
4-27 to the literary societies.
The fee is $4.50 per quarter.

In addition the Men's Literary Societies give one-half of their fees to athletics and the Women's Literary Societies give one-fourth of their fees to athletics.

Each student will be entitled without extra charge to a copy of the Colonial Echo, a subscription to the Flat Hat and the Literary Magazine, to membership in the Y. W. C. A. or Y. M. C. A., as the case may be, and to membership in the literary society of his choice; and all women are entitled to active membership and vote in the Women's Student Government Association.

The Colonial Echo
Laurie Green, Editor-in-Chief.
Thomas Evans, Business Manager.
The Colonial Echo is the college annual, giving an artistic presentation of the academic year, the classes, and events in all phases of activity. It is a handsome and valuable souvenir of the college and of the year's life on the campus.
The Flat Hat
MacDonald Bridges, Editor-in-Chief.
Frank Nat Watkins, Business Mgr.
The Flat Hat is the weekly newspaper of the college. It consists of eight pages and is issued every Friday. The Flat Hat gives an account of student life, news, opinions, and events.

The Literary Magazine
Bailey Tucker, Editor-in-Chief.
James Campbell, Business Manager.
The Literary Magazine is issued six times a year by the students and alumni. The dates of issue are: the first day of October, November, December, March, April, and May. Valuable prizes are given by the Literary Magazine for the best essays, poems, and short stories published.

Students' Hand Book
This is it.

Literary Societies
The men students of the college have two literary societies, the Phoenix and the Philomathean. The women students also have two literary societies, the Whitehall and the J. Leslie Hall.
These societies hold weekly meetings in their respective halls, having for their main programmes orations, declamations, and debates. This year the professor of public speaking will coach the members of the societies and co-operate with the societies in developing a high standard of literary work.

In December of each year the Phoenix and Philomathean Societies hold a Freshman Contest. The contest is for the possession of a banner given to the society winning the most points in declamation, oration, reading, and debate. The men who win their points in this contest are presented with gold medals. Winner last year, Phoenix.

The Annual Celebration of the Phoenix and Philomathean Societies is held the first night of commencement. Each society is represented by an orator, a declamer, and two debaters. It is a high honor to appear in this contest and the winners are presented with handsome medals. Winner last year, Phoenix.

The work of the societies has been of such a satisfactory nature that the college offers one credit for good attendance and literary work. Each student is urged and expected to join a literary society and attend its meeting regularly. There is no greater accomplishment than the ability to deliver an eloquent and powerful address.

State Oratorical Association

The State Oratorical Association is composed of the eight leading colleges of Virginia. Every year in May it holds an annual contest. The contest last year was held at Washington and Lee University. Although William and Mary did not win first place, she was ably represented. The winner of first place is presented with a handsome fifty dollar gold medal; however, the college gives its representative a fine medal even though he does not win first honors.

Inter-Collegiate Debate Council

The Inter-Collegiate Debate Council elected by and from the four literary societies, arranges a series of inter-collegiate debates with leading colleges and universities in the East and South.
The debating teams are chosen after two preliminary contests have been held in which all students are eligible to participate. It has been the policy of the Council for men to debate against men's colleges, and for the women to meet with women's colleges. The college offers no higher honor than that of representing her in debate or oration. This is a much coveted honor, and one for which every new student, and every old student should work. Handsome medals are given to the men who represent the college in the debates.

During the past session the college entered two debates. Of these, William and Mary was victorious in one. This record, not so good upon its face, is nevertheless an incentive to strive for greater success. Inter-collegiate debating is in a process of development and, it is expected that with the establishment of a department of public speaking the debating standards will be greatly raised. During the past year William and Mary was represented by Messrs. George, Winder, Johnston, and Reilly.

Dramatics

With the beginning of this year, dramatics at this college will assume a position of greater prominence than heretofore.

The presentation of dramas and other plays will be under the supervision and direction of a dramatic committee. With the existence of this committee it is believed that the production of plays will be greatly enhanced. The college has recently become a member of the Peninsular Dramatic League. The formation of this league has tended to promote dramatics in the cities nearby. Membership in this league will enable the college to present its productions in the cities that are members of this league.

Professor Gwathmey and Dr. Montgomery, who as play producers, are recognized to be inferior to none, urge that all students possessing any stage talent present themselves to the Dramatic Committee. Professor Gwathmey excels in the production of romances; Dr. Montgomery produces to the satisfaction of his audience a popular classic play every spring.

Minstrels

The William and Mary "Minstrel Night" is a glad night in Williamsburg. Under the able leadership of "Snuck" Elliott, last year's show was the best seen in Williamsburg for some time. The show is produced every year for the benefit of the Monogram Club.

Women's Debate Team

In 1924 the first Women's Debate Team was chosen by a faculty committee from a large field of contestants. The schedule for 1925 will contain some worthy opponents. The members of the first women's team of this kind representing William and Mary vs. Westhampton were Josephine Barney, Margaret Jeter, Mary L. Parker and Fearn Cabell. The Women's Debate Council is as follows: Frances Riley, Chairman; Fearn Cabell, Manager; Mary L. Parker and Josephine Barney.

The chairmen of the various committees are appointed by the cabinet at the beginning of the year.
Purpose of the Y. M. C. A.

The work of the Y. M. C. A. is done in a broad, Christian, non-sectarian spirit with the purpose of:

1. Leading the students to faith in God through Jesus Christ.

2. Leading them into membership and service in the Christian Church.

3. Promoting their growth in Christian faith, especially through the study of the Bible and prayer.

4. Influencing them to devote themselves in united effort with all Christians to make the will of Christ effective in human society, and to extending the Kingdom of God throughout the world.

The support of every loyal Christian student is necessary if there is to be a realization of these high ideals, adopted by the National Convention of the Y. M. C. A. Every man must be willing and anxious to do his Christian duty.

Y. M. C. A. Meetings

It has been the policy of the Y. M. C. A. to hold a meeting on one night each week. The programmes of these meetings are religious and devotional for the most part. However, discussions of vital problems are frequently held, as social and racial problems. In connection with these meetings the State Association (College) has arranged to have a number of lectures of national fame visit the colleges of Virginia. On other nights, members of the faculty and speakers from nearby cities will address the Association. During the year, on appropriate and special seasons, early morning prayer services are held before breakfast by the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. These services are short and inspirational, and do much towards developing and keeping alive the proper Christian attitude in the students.

However, the meetings of the Association are not all of a serious nature. A number of socials and get-together entertainments are given by the Y's to which, of course, all the students are invited.

Y. M. C. A. Bible Study

As has been the custom for the past several years, the Y. M. C. A. will conduct the Bible study classes for men. The instructors for these classes will be selected from members of the upper classes by the committee in charge of this work. For the most part these instructors will be men who are studying for the ministry, or for some special Christian work.

The instructors are required to meet once a week in a normal training class taught by a member of the faculty. The work to be taken up in the classes is outlined in these normal classes and the instructors are thus prepared to lead their groups.

The Bible classes are open to all men students and are held in the dormitories on such nights as are most convenient to the members of the classes and the instructors. These classes meet for an hour once each week, and upon completion of eighteen weeks' work of satisfactory nature, the student will be given college credits.
The Bible study classes have proved both interesting and valuable to those who have taken them and it is hoped that as many students as possible will enter one of these classes.

Information Bureau

The Y. M. C. A. will conduct during the first few days of college an information bureau in the hall of the Main Building. Students desiring information or help of any kind should ask the "Y" for assistance.

Blue Ridge Student's Conference

The Y. M. C. A. holds a division conference every year during the latter part of June at Blue Ridge, N. C. Every year hundreds of college men from all over the South gather here for ten days to discuss their campus problems and to endeavor to find a way to better their service to their fellowmen. To serve God in the light of His Truth is the ultimate end.

William and Mary was represented for the first time in several years at the last conference. It is hoped that in the future our Alma Mater may take her place among the colleges of the South as a leader in Y. M. C. A. work. It is an enlightenment to attend one of these conferences and if any are interested, they should ask the president of the "Y" concerning it. It will be a pleasure and a source of great inspiration.

Purpose of the Y. W. C. A.

The purpose of the Young Women's Christian Association is:
To lead students to faith in God through Jesus Christ.
To lead them into membership and service in the Christian Church.
To promote their growth in Christian faith and character, especially through the study of the Bible.
To influence them to devote themselves, in united effort with all Christians, to making the will of Christ effective in human society, and to extending the Kingdom of God throughout the world.

At the biennial meeting of the National Student Assembly held in New York City in May, 1924, the following was adopted as the national objective for all Student Associations; for the next two years:

"We unite in the determination to live unreservedly Jesus' law of love in every relationship and so to know God."

Membership in the Y. W. C. A.

Every girl who matriculates at William and Mary has the privilege of becoming a member of the Y. W. C. A. providing she is in sympathy with its purpose and declares her acceptance in the following words:

"It is my purpose to live as a true follower of the Lord Jesus Christ."

The paying of a fee through the Student Activities Fee, which is collected by the college treasurer, does not constitute membership therefor. This fee is paid by every girl and so is regarded as a contribution to the support of the Association, unless the membership declaration is made, in which case the fee is really a membership fee.

The certificate of membership entitles a girl to vote in all Association proceedings at William and Mary and to the privileges of any student or city association of the National Board of the Young Women's Christian Association of the United States.

By her membership in the Y. W. C. A. a student also becomes a member of the World's Student Christian Federation, which is composed of many student movements of forty different countries of the world.
“Big Sister” Plan

The Y. W. C. A. has organized a “Big Sister” plan on the campus. By this system, each new student meets an older student who acts as her “big sister” during the new girl’s first year at college, helping her to adjust herself to new conditions and to make new friends.

Weekly Program Meetings

The regular weekly meetings of the Y. W. C. A. will be held every Wednesday night in the college chapel. Each program presented will be of interest to every college girl. Your support will determine the value of the Y. W. C. A. in the student life at William and Mary.

Bulletin Boards

Watch the Y. W. C. A. bulletin boards for attractive posters, interesting events, and things you ought to know!

Main board in Jefferson Hall. Notices are also posted in Tyler Hall, Tyler Annex, and on the board at the entrance to the Main Building.

Bible Study

The Y. W. C. A. offers a Bible study course for groups of students, conducted by student leaders under the direction of a faculty member. The object of this course is to develop:

First, a knowledge of the Bible.

Second, its bearing on modern problems.

Third, its value in the individual life.
The committee on Bible Study—Frances Reilly, Chairman—will be glad to receive the names of all who are interested in this course.

Blue Ridge Conference

Blue Ridge! The very name sends a thrill through the person who has been fortunate to spend ten long, lovely days up on the mountain-tops of North Carolina at a Student Conference. Here, in June of each year, gather several hundreds of college girls from all over the South in order to work and play together for those ten days. There is real inspiration to be gained from thinking out problems together, from singing together, from making new discoveries in friendship together. William and Mary has as many representatives as possible attend the conference in order that they may bring back to the Association a broader outlook and a wider knowledge of the work and purpose of the Y. W. C. A. The delegates for 1924 were:

Louise Sale          Edna Taft
Mary C. Foster       Mary O. Parker
Anita Rucker         Frances Reilly
Gertrude Adkins

The Book Store

Second-hand text books may be bought at half price from the Y. W. C. A. book store on the first floor of the Main Building. Any students having text books for sale may sell them in this way, by paying a slight commission charge.

Information Bureau

During the first few days of the college session the Y. W. C. A. will conduct an information bureau in the hall of the Main Building. The object of this bureau is to serve the new student in any way possible. If the girl in charge cannot give you the desired information, she will gladly find out about it for you.

Employment Bureau

Girls desiring to do sewing, stenographic work, coaching, and the like have the opportunity of securing work through the Y. W. C. A.'s Employment Bureau.
The new student will soon find after entering William and Mary that there are numerous loosely organized clubs on the campus. There are a number of territorial clubs of which the following are representative: Southwest, Eastern Shore, Rappahannock, Norfolk, Richmond, Newport News, Petersburg, Toano and Williamsburg. Other clubs, the purpose of which is not very well known, follow: Doctor's, Biology, Monogram, B. I. C., T. N. T., S. O. S., and Overseas. Others with a little more definite aim in view are: Rough Ashlers, Cotillion, 13, Los Quizotescos, Wythe Law Club, Chess and Mah Jongg, and Gibbons Club. The women's clubs are: Alpha Club, Edith M. Baer Club, German Club, K. O. R., H2E, and G. G. G.

Of the various clubs, the Flat Hat Club is recognized as the greatest in point of service and seniority. This club represents some of the best literary ability among the faculty and students. Its primary purpose is to foster and maintain a high standard of literary work at the college.

Fraternities

The American Greek letter fraternity system originated at William and Mary in 1776 with the founding of Phi Beta Kappa (now honorary). The Greek letter fraternities are national organizations represented by local chapters in the various colleges and universities. Their purpose is fraternal and as secret brotherhoods they seek to ally men of one type—men who are congenial, and who, by close association, will mutually benefit one another. The chapters own or rent houses, in which many of their numbers live.

Because the aim of the fraternity is to bring together in a close bond of brotherhood such men who have similar tastes, talents, or ambitions, it must necessarily follow that none can join except on invitation by the members. If an invitation is extended you, do not decide hastily. You will be no better or worse for having declined or accepted an invitation. A fraternity may be a distinct help or it may be a hindrance. It will not raise you to sudden eminence among your fellows; the best it can do is to inspire you to greater endeavors, manliness, and higher achievements. There is a possibility of mutual helpfulness in the intimate association of like-minded men, but be sure to retain your own individuality. Before joining be certain you understand the following facts: First, the character, reputation, and ideals of the national organization; second, the object and general purpose or policy of the local chapter; third, the character of the men in the local chapter; and fourth, the dues, assessments, room rent, initiation fee, and so forth.

Do not allow your membership to interfere with your personal ideals. Do not place your fraternity before the college that is to become your Alma Mater. If you narrow your college life to an intimacy with none but your fraternity brothers, you will lose much of the best that the life at William and Mary holds for you. You will find that some of your warmest friends will be made among non-fraternity men. Be broad and generous, non-partisan, and democratic.

There are highly organized fraternities of social and honorary nature at William and Mary. Of the honorary fraternities, Phi Beta Kappa is the first and the greatest. It was the first fraternity established in America and is composed of eminent and distinguished scholars. Other honor fraternities are Omicron Delta Kappa, composed of both graduates and undergraduates; Tau Kappa Alpha, an honor fraternity for orators and debaters; Sigma Upsilon, the literary fraternity. There are eight social fraternities, five sororities, and three professional fraternities.

THIRTEEN ADVANTAGES OF A SMUTTY STORY

1. It advertises a man's ignorance.
2. It displays a lack of a sense of propriety.
3. It indicates an undesirable state of inner character.
4. It shows that a man's better self is not in control.
5. It means meagerness of resources of entertainment.
6. It proclaims coarseness of one's idea of humor.
7. It is the poorest sort of excuse for fun.
8. It proves a disappointment to every right thinking friend.
9. It will soil the inner life of every hearer.
10. It provokes men who prefer purity in word as well as in deed.
11. It makes no friends, but loses many.
12. It accomplishes nothing more surely than one's own undoing.
13. It convinces none that you are a good man to do business with.

STAND FOR CLEAN SPEECH.

N. C. State Handbook.
Freshman year is not a period of triumph or reward, but of preparation. As such, it is the most important of the four. Build your foundation solid. A reputation for ability to take responsibility and to do conscientious work will last throughout college and help you later.

Make sure of your curriculum work. Do not, however, become one-sided. A well-rounded education is not acquired from books alone. Try for every team or a managership. You have nothing to lose, but everything to gain. Your contact with the coaches and athletes is a course in itself.

Do not allow any pressing fraternity invitation to force you to make a hasty decision. Although most pledges are made during the autumn quarter, men are always invited to join fraternities later in their course. Belonging to a fraternity will not make you of any more importance to the college.

Attend as many College Dances as you can financially stand. A good College Dance is a long cherished memory.

Do not let a new environment upset too quickly the ideals you bring with you.

Attend all your class meetings.

In your attitude toward others be natural and sincere. Reserve and deference toward upper classmen show an appreciation of College precedents, but cringing servility is a self-evident sham.
When the new student has properly adjusted himself to his studies for the year, there is nothing to which he should determine his correct attitude sooner than to athletics. As an individual he should do two things. He should determine the best manner in which to keep himself physically fit, and he should strive to do everything in his power to contribute to maintaining what is known as college spirit. Without the proper college spirit college life is worthless.

The individual may contribute to this spirit by participating to his fullest capacity, whether a member of the first team or not, in the athletics of the college and by cultivating an ardent but correct attitude in his support of the teams representing the college. He should remember that by these teams and no less by the support given them, the college will inevitably be judged on the outside. He should remember that the college takes a just pride in its hard playing and winning teams. He should remember that the college takes a greater pride in the spirit which renders it unwilling to win at any price and in its reputation for teams composed of clean sportsman-like gentlemen. His every act should be based on a wish to increase this just pride and to enhance this reputation.
Mass Athletics

The college uses a system of mass athletics which has been adopted by all the leading colleges. Under this system every student is given some form of athletic training, unless he is physically unable to receive it. This training is compulsory for freshmen and is required of all degree applicants. This applies to both men and women. Besides the college teams there are classes in gymnastics and physical education which are adapted to the needs of those who wish to become directors of physical education in the public schools. Full details of these courses may be found in the college catalogue.

Athletic Management

General supervision of athletics is exercised by the 3-3 or Athletic Committee, which is composed of the President of the college and two members of the faculty appointed by the President; and three students elected by the student body, one from each of the upper classes. This committee determines and directs the general athletic policy of the college, authorizes the expenditure of money, and selects the coaches and the athletic director. The athletic director has general charge of athletics under the committee. He arranges for the entertainment of visiting teams, and for trips, umpires, etc., and has charge of the athletic buildings, equipment, and general affairs. The coaches exercise absolute authority over the players, substitutions, and tactics.
Every student, by paying the college athletic fee, becomes a member of the Athletic Association and is entitled to a vote in the election of officers and the members of the Athletic Committee.

Schedules of interesting inter-collegiate games are arranged for all of the first teams representing the college and wherever possible for the scrub teams. There is probably no better advertisement for a college than a successful, hard-fighting athletic team.

The 1924 football schedule as announced by Manager Russell Stuart is as follows:

September 27—Pending.

October 4—Navy at Annapolis.

October 11—Syracuse University at Syracuse, N. Y.

October 18—Randolph-Macon at Williamsburg.

October 25—Trinity at Norfolk.

November 1—King College at Richmond.

November 8—Allbright College at Williamsburg.

November 15—Roanoke College at Richmond.
YELLS AND SONGS

GET THE PROPER SPIRIT!
GET THE PROPER SPIRIT!

Every old student knows what is expected of him. Every new student has this to learn. Remember that you are at William and Mary; not simply at college, but at William and Mary College. Once knowing that, there are certain responsibilities and obligations incumbent upon you. In your athletics these things are paramount: First, support your coach in every way; second, support your team from the ground up; third, attend every game, rally, and bonfire working to make it a success.

The best way in which the student body can show the teams that the college is behind them is through the songs and yells. In hearing the songs and yells, the morale of the team is raised and the punch that counts is put across.

These suggestions will lead to good cheering:

Keep your eyes on the Cheer Leader during all songs and yells.
Learn the songs and yells.
When a yell or song is called for work on it hard.
Do not use a "cat call" on anyone at any time.
Show appreciation for opponent's good plays.
Stay in the stands until the end of the game.

NOTED RESIDENCES

Blair House

The Blair House was the home of John Blair, Jr., associate justice of the United States. It is a long frame structure, one and a half stories high, with two entrances, situated on the Duke of Gloucester street. This old home has been bought for preservation by Professor Pollard.

Wythe House

The Wythe House is a square brick structure of two stories, situated on the east side of Palace Green, next to Bruton Parish Church yard. This was the home of George Wythe, signer of the Declaration of Independence, chancellor of Virginia, first professor of law in William and Mary College and the designer of the beautiful seal of Virginia, as well as the seal of the chancery court. This house was also occupied by George Washington and Rochambeau during the Yorktown campaign.

Tucker House

The Tucker House was the home of St. George Tucker, stepfather of John Randolph, of Roanoke, and second professor of law in the College of William and Mary. This house is situated on Nicholson street, near Palace Green.
Peyton Randolph House

The Peyton Randolph House is situated on the south side of Francis street in the eastern part of the town. This was the residence of Peyton Randolph, president of the first Continental Congress.

Bassett Hall

Bassett Hall, a beautiful residence adjoining the Peyton Randolph lot, was formerly the property of Burwell Eassett, a nephew of Mrs. Washington. In the summer of 1804, Williamsburg had for its visitor the distinguished Irish poet, Thomas Moore, who was so impressed with the beautiful lawn of Bassett Hall that he was inspired to pen a few lines "To the Firefly." In 1841 it was the residence of John Tyler, President of the United States.

Audrey House

The Audrey House, typical of an eighteenth century structure, is located on the east side of Palace Green. This house was made famous by Mary Johnstone as the residence of Audrey, in her novel of that name.

Site of the House of Burgesses

At the end of the Duke of Gloucester street opposite the college gate, is the site of the old House of Burgesses. It was here that Patrick Henry, with his eloquent, patriotic speeches, stirred the people of Williamsburg and the students of the College, among whom was Thomas Jefferson.

Site of Governor's Palace

Facing Palace Green on Duke of Gloucester street, is the site of the Colonial Governor's Palace, built in 1705 and burned following the surrender of Cornwallis. The "Mattey Grammar School," originally established in 1706, stands on this site at present.

Bruton Parish

Powder Horn

Opposite the court house is the old Powder Horn, built as a powder magazine by Governor Spotswood in 1714. From this magazine Governor Dunmore took the powder, April 20, 1775, precipitating revolutionary hostilities in Virginia.

Debtor's Prison

Debtor's Prison, situated on Nicholson street, was the prison in which were incarcerated the crew of the pirate Blackbeard and Governor-General Hamilton, the Detroit "scalp burner."
Eastern State Hospital
On Francis street is found the Eastern State Hospital, the first Insane Asylum established in America (1768).

Raleigh Tavern
The site of the old Raleigh Tavern, now occupied by Lane & Christian's store, is on the Duke of Gloucester street. The tavern was burned in 1859.

Jamestown
Seven miles west of Williamsburg is Jamestown, the site of the first permanent settlement of English colonists in America. On the island are a number of relics which call to mind the trials of these early colonists. Of especial interest is the old church.

Yorktown
Twelve miles southeast of Williamsburg is Yorktown, the site of the surrender of Lord Cornwallis to George Washington at the close of the Revolutionary War. Here also are a number of old buildings which are famous in American history. An eighteen hole golf course has just been completed at Yorktown and it is hoped that the course will be open to the students of the college for a nominal sum.

William and Mary deserves the best you have in you.
Among her many priorities, William and Mary justly claims that of leading the way in formulation and the adoption of the Honor System. Early in when no other idea of college days when no other idea of college government prevailed throughout America than that the student should be watched like a suspected criminal for offenses, either actual or potential, the faculty of William and Mary appointed a committee, whose head was the distinguished jurist, Beverly Tucker, to draw up a statement of the spirit and content of an honor system by which the conduct of the students of the old college was to be guided. At once put into operation, this system has continued in actual and successful working without interruption until the present day.

But glorious and inspiring as is the historical origin of the Honor System, it is with its operation now and in the future that the men and women of the new day at the old college are primarily concerned. In the first place, it is of vital importance that every new student enrolling in September, should clearly understand what the Honor System really is and what is means in his life and in the corporate life of the College. Ignorance of it may bring the possibility—even the probability—of breaking it, and at once there follows a well night irreparable injury to the character, the reputation, and the future of the individual student and an equally grave lowering of the morale of the student body, for this must always suffer by the disgrace of any of its members. It is in this spirit that the present serious attempt is made to set forth, especially for the benefit of the new students, just what the Honor System is and what is required of each in order to translate it into his life.

The Honor System may be defined in a word as individual responsibility. It brings home to the individual man or woman who would stay at the noble old college and get the advantages she offers, his personal responsibility for her fair name and honor. It emphasizes two things; first, that the student must recognize that he is answerable in the very fullest degree for every one of his actions and dealings with the members of the faculty and with his fellows, in his or their rooms, in the dining halls, the athletic fields, the social centers, and in the class rooms, and second, that he must recognize his personal responsibility for the well-being of the college in every phase of life in which he touches her existence.

Such phases, in the large, will at once suggest themselves to every one. They include, primarily, everything which touches the securing of aid, assistance, or profit in scholastic work of whatsoever kind, whether in term class work, periodical tests, or in the work handed in to the instructor, though it is to be regretted that in the formal examinations, as well as in all latter respect, students otherwise most sensitive to the Honor System do not seem to feel its demands so keenly as in regard to the others. A slight reflection, however, will convince one that work of this kind should also be included in the scope of the Honor System. It is a source of pride to all lovers of the college that public opinion of the students is now, and has always been, most healthy, vigorous, and uncompromising in its condemnation of all infractions of the Honor System falling under the heads just enumerated.

As to all offenses touching the taking of property which is not one's own, in any form, it goes without saying that these come most completely under the condemnation of the Honor System, and find swift and deserved punishment at the hands of the student body itself.

President of the Student Body, Frank Nat Watkins.
Vice-President, Bailey Tucker.
Secretary-Treasurer, Vincent Sexton.
CONSTITUTION OF MEN'S STUDENT GOVERNMENT

FRANK NAT WATKINS
President Student Body

Preamble

Whereas, William and Mary has always stood for Truth, Honor, and Gentlemanly Conduct, and still stands for them, and
Whereas, at William and Mary the Honor System had its beginning, and its spirit still prevails in such force that disorder and ungentlemanly conduct are not countenanced, and

Whereas, we believe that democratic student self-government, emphasizing and based upon student honor, is both possible and desirable, but that its successful operation requires a high degree of active individual and group honor on the part of the large majority of the student body so governed, and must be carefully safeguarded and prompted by a wise selection of its officers and by the progressive education of students in the principles of student honor.

Therefore, we, the committee appointed by the Student Body to revise our present constitution, do hereby submit the following revised for the re-organization and re-enforcement of the Honor System in accordance with the above principles:

PART I

Article I

The executive and judicial powers of this government shall be vested in an Honor Council composed of seven members.

Article II

Section 1. Election of members: Not less than one month previous to the end of the academic year the freshman, sophomore, and junior classes, in assembly, shall nominate four men from each of their respective classes, in their judgment best fitted to compose the succeeding council. The names of these men shall be announced, published and posted as nominees. Not less than one week after the announcement of these nominees has been made, the student body shall elect, by plurality vote, by secret signed ballot, two of said nominees from each class to compose the Honor Council for the following year.

Section 2. In case of a tie vote in the above election the offices shall be decided as provided in PART III, Article I, Section 3.

Section 3. Choice of the President and Council Chairman: When the above six members have been elected they shall meet and choose one of their number as chairman of the council. They shall also select their officers and organize for the following year's work. This meeting shall take place not less than ten days previous to the close of the session, and shall be called by the chairman of the existing council.

Section 4. Freshman member: The following academic year, not less than two months after the organization of the freshman class, its members shall choose one of their number for membership on the Honor Council.

Article III

Powers and Duties: All cases of stealing or defrauding or cheating on EXAMS, or other scholastic work, and violation of one's pledged word shall fall under the supervision of this council. Every student is honor bound to report for immediate action all such cases of violations against the honor system. The honor system assumes that every student is a man of truthfulness and honesty and that any such student is honor bound to procure the permanent removal of all those, who, by violating in any degree this accepted code of honor, prove that they cannot safely be trusted... The proceedings of the honor council will be conducted under the honor code established at William and Mary College since 1792, and from its decision, under a recent action of the Board of Visitors, an appeal may be made. The said resolution is made a part of this article and reads as follows:

1. “That the Board of Visitors of William and Mary is appreciative of the purposes and ideals of the student government plan, but it cannot recognize an action taken by the body as final.”

2. “Student government properly conceived is a co-operative adjunct to the President and Faculty, not an independent body with summary powers.”

3. “Any action of the student government body must be subject to the review of the President and Faculty, and no action will be considered by the Board of Visitors until so reviewed.”

Article IV

Section 1. There shall be a president of the student body whose duties it shall be to handle matters pertaining to the student body or relating in any way to the revision of the regulations regarding the honor system, and to hold, at such times as seems best, a joint meeting of the student body for the election of officers as provided in this constitution, or for the transaction of other business for which provision has not been made herein.

Section 2. There shall be a vice-president of the student body who shall perform the duties of the president of the said body during the absence of the said president, and who shall succeed to the office of the president of the student body upon said president's resignation or removal.

In such assembly, if more than two men are nominated for the office of president, or vice-president, or secretary-treasurer of the student body, then said student body so assembled shall vote upon said nominees, and the two receiving the highest number of votes for the above said offices shall be deemed to be the two nominees for each of the offices. Said president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer to be elected at the general election by majority vote, etc., as provided by Part III, Art. I, Sec. III of this Constitution. The president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer of the student body shall not hold a seat on the honor council, nor take part in meetings of said honor council, while they are acting in such capacities.

Section 7. This constitution shall become operative upon its ratification by TWO-THIRDS of the student body and shall supercede the former constitution.
ATHLETIC WOMEN

Year by year the women's teams have gradually forged to the front in the athletic world. In the intercollegiate world William and Mary girls have only been represented by basketball and tennis teams, but the success of these, especially basketball, points to a great future. The system of mass athletics used, however, enables every girl to participate in some sport, intercollegiate or not.

Under excellent coaching and leadership the women's basketball team has justly acquired fame throughout the east in conquering during the season of 1923-24, Adelphi, University of Penn, George Washington and other strong teams.

Likewise, tennis is assured of a successful schedule next year.

With time and increased facilities other sports will be added to the intercollegiate list.

Agreement Concerning Government of the Women Students of the College of William and Mary

To the Women's Student Government Organization is intrusted the enforcement of the rules made by the authorities of the college and the power to legislate in all matters that do not fall under the direct jurisdiction of the said authorities.

The degree of power entrusted to the organization is dependent upon the efficiency of its members. If at any time the organization or any of its officers should fail to uphold the standards of the Constitution, the President of the College reserves the right, after investigation, to modify or revoke this grant of student government.

WOMEN'S STUDENT GOVERNMENT

In the theory that every college owes to its students the opportunity for development in a propitious environment, the Women's Student Government Organization finds the reason for its existence.
The aim of the organization, therefore, is not restriction merely for the sake of rigidity, but the creation of an atmosphere favorable to student growth. Ultimately, social freedom for each individual is the goal.

The nucleus of the Organization is the honor system—a method by which each student, upon her honor as a woman, is made responsible, first of all, for her own conduct and, then, for the conduct of those of her college mates who have lost the vision of their responsibility. Under the honor system, if a student falls down in any particular, of primary importance is the fact that she has been untrue to herself. However, because she has failed to measure up to the group standard of citizenship, the recreant student must answer to the group for her offense.

The Women’s Student Council, with the assistance of the Discipline Committee, elected by and representing the women students, acts as an honor court, determining the degree of offense and the consequent penalty. Penalties range from the simplest form of reprimand to expulsion from college.

Under the jurisdiction of the honor system should come those ideas, actions, or standards which the majority of the students consider most valuable to the welfare of the college. Thus conceived, the honor system is conducive to change. However, of permanent establishment within its confines are the offenses of lying, cheating, stealing, the breaking of one's pledged word, and the breaking of college or student regulations. These offenses are self-explanatory, cheating, perhaps, may bear explanation.

By cheating (in the college world) is meant the comprehensive giving or receiving, either directly or indirectly, of assistance on scholastic work, when this work is understood to be strictly one's own. Receiving help of any kind, either written or spoken, in daily recitations, or written lessons, in composition work, or monthly tests, and final examination is considered cheating. Help in any case may be secured only if the teacher so designates, stating that this certain work is not to be pledged. A student who copies work verbatim, or comparatively verbatim, from the library is considered guilty of cheating unless the teacher concerned has stated that, on the special work, to copy is permissible.

Student government cannot be only a name. It must be government by the students. It depends for its life upon the comprehension by at least the majority of the students that THEY and THEY ALONE are responsible for the success or failure of their organization. The women who attempt to prove the failure of her government by recounting offenses "gotten by with" is fostering the failure of that government. Indeed, she is the unit of that failure. Who is responsible if it is not the citizen that knows? Who is to remedy if not the citizen that knows?

William and Mary depends upon the students that love her to understand and to accept their responsibility. A challenge? Yes.

Note: The Women's Student Government Constitution has been omitted in this book because the Student Government Handbook contains a copy of the same for the benefit of the women and the editor did not think the repetition necessary.
PROFANITY

The trouble with profanity is not so much that it is wicked, as that it is just plain dirty.

It is not so much that you shock religious people as it is that you disgust decent people, that we object to it.

Swearers are behind the times. They are holdovers from a former century.

Nowadays anyone that swears is set down as being coarse and vulgar.

The young man that wants to succeed wants to take advantage of everything that may help him on. And swearing will be a black mark against him in any job that he may have.

And if he wants to associate with the right sort of girls he must keep his talk clean.

Nobody wants a swearer in the office, nor in the workshop, nor on the train, nor in the hotel. The only place swearing fits is the saloon.

Swearing means that you don't know how to talk. Your vocabulary is limited. It is the sign of ignorance.

Swearing means weakness. You will notice that forceful men, whose words carry weight, use simple, plain words.

When you swear its shows your impotence. It is the petty refuge of the helpless. If you can help a thing, help it; if not, keep still; anyway don't swear.
William and Mary Students' Hand Book
Swearing has bad kin. It goes with ignorance, brutality, cruelty, drunkenness, licentiousness, viciousness, and anger. And you can tell a habit by the company it keeps.

Swearing that is the sudden, impulsive exclamation is not so bad compared with swearing that has become a vile habit. And when a man gets the habit of sprinkling oaths through his speech constantly he ought to be tied out in the barn with the pigs.

To abstain from swearing does not mean that you are a sissy. It simply means that you are decent.

To show you are manly you don't have to have a dirty face, nor black finger nails, nor greasy clothes, nor tousled hair. You can be manly though clean.

Even if you want to hurt anybody's feelings, or insult anyone the worst way, use plain English; it hurts much more than curses.

Altogether, swearing is a useless, unclean, and offensive habit.
Quit it.

—Dr. Frank Crane.
PROMISE YOURSELF

To be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind.

To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every one that you meet.

To make all your friends feel that there is something in them.

To look on the sunny side of everything and to make your optimism come true.

FAMOUS WORDS BY FAMOUS MEN

EMERSON—

"Insist on yourself; never imitate."
"Beauty is the mark God set upon virtue."

"A foolish consistency is the hobgoblin of little minds."

"Nothing can bring you peace but the triumphs of principles."

LOWELL—

"Not what we give, but what we share, For the gift without the giver is bare."

"'Tis heaven alone that is given away, 'Tis only God may be had for the asking."

"Talent is that which is in a man's power; genius is that in whose power man is."

"The foolish and the dead alone never change their opinion."

HOLMES—

"Knowledge and timber shouldn't be much used till they are seasoned."
Even a goat tries to use his head.
Life never seems tangled to the fellow who goes straight.

Apologies to "Nuggets."

Kindness: A language the dumb can speak and the deaf can understand.

—Japanese Saying.

GIVING HIM THE FACTS

The fresh young traveling man put on his most seductive smile as the pretty waitress glided up to his table in the hotel dining room to get his order, and remarked:

"Nice day, little one."

"Yes, it is," she replied, "and so was yesterday, and my name is Ella, and I know I'm a little peach and have lovely blue eyes, and I've been here quite a while, and I like the place, and don't think I'm too nice a girl to be working here. If I did I'd quit the job. My wages are satisfactory, and I don't think there is a show or dance in town tonight, and if there was, I wouldn't go with you. I'm from the country and I'm a respectable girl, and my brother is the cook in this hotel and he is a college football player and weighs two hundred pounds. Last week he pretty nearly ruined a twenty-five-dollar-a-week traveling man who tried to make a date with me. Now, what'll you have—roast beef, roast pork, Irish stew, hamburger, or fried liver?"

—Nuggets.

To the Students of the College of William and Mary

We extend to you a most hearty welcome, and trust that your connection with the college will prove to be one of great happiness and profit. The Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. of the college of William and Mary have presented to you this handbook, outlining the relation of students to faculty and students, and giving much valuable information with reference to the College and its customs. I commend to you the work of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A., and the other organizations for the promotion of the interests of the College.

If the student government regulations (found in this handbook) prepared and agreed upon by the students themselves, are followed by all, the College will be a happy community. By authority of the Board of Visitors, discipline of the College is placed in the hands of the President, with the advice and assistance of the faculty, and the President and faculty in turn have granted many rights of government to the students themselves.

Our desire is to promote student government, and just so long as that government is conducted in accordance with the ancient traditions of the College and for the promotion of its good name, the student government organizations will exercise unhampered jurisdiction in control of the student body in all matters that do not fall under the direct jurisdiction of other authorities. If at any time, however, the organizations, or any of the officers, shall fail to uphold the standards of the College, the President of the College, as a representative of the Board of Visitors, reserves the right, after investigation, to modify or revoke the regulations of the students.

In welcoming you to the college for the session 1924-1925, we receive you with assurance that you are thoroughly qualified for college work and that it is your purpose to make excellent use of the opportunities which the State has so generously provided for you at this ancient institution. All students are expected to affiliate with the work of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A., the literary societies and the athletic associations.

With unbounded confidence in the possibilities of our student body, in the name of the Board of Visitors of the College of William and Mary, I confer upon you all the privileges as well as responsibilities which belong to you as members of the College community.

Cordially yours,

J. A. C. CHANDLER,
President.
