GREETINGS

To you we extend a hearty welcome, As you enter the College of William and Mary come with an unbiased mind, free to receive and cherish the love of your Alma Mater. In all that you do, ever holdfast the principles of the Christian faith. You trespass on ground sacred to the alumni, student body and faculty of this institution; guide your footsteps so that they shall never bring harm nor disrepute to that which you will learn to cherish.

The college has a past whose glory is unblemished, a present whose achievements are many and honored; the future lies in your hands,—you have been entrusted with its safeguarding and upbuilding. The past and present challenge you to mount higher on the stairway of achievement,—Will you accept the challenge or idly lay it aside?

Again we bid you welcome with the sincere wish that you may become a true and loyal William and Mary man or woman.
ALMA MATER

Hark, the student's voices swelling,
Strong and clear and true,
Alma Mater's love they're telling,
Ringing far and near.

Chorus

William and Mary loved of old
Hark, upon the gale,
Hear the thunder of our chorus,
Alma Mater—hail.

All thy sons are faithful to thee
Through their college days,
Singing out from hearts that love thee
Alma Mater's praise.

Iron shod and golden sandaled
Shall the years go by,
Still our hearts shall weave about thee
Love that cannot die.

God, our Father, hear our voices,
Listen to our cry.
Bless the college of our boyhood,
Let her never die.

— J. S. Wilson, '02.

PRESIDENT J. A. C. CHANDLER
GREETINGS FROM THE PRESIDENT

You are about to become students of the College of William and Mary in Virginia for the session 1925-'26. In the name of the College, the oldest in the Southland, I welcome you. May the memories that cling around this institution and the thought that in its halls were educated such men as Jefferson, Monroe, and Marshall, and that here Washington and Henry and many of Virginia's famous men often visited and were in one way or another closely associated with it, inspire you to great endeavors, and may these endeavors be guided by lofty religious ideals, love of Alma Mater, and true patriotism. My young friends, the State is offering you a rare privilege and a wonderful opportunity. Remember that you are the architects of your own fortunes. Value highly the privilege that you have of attending college, and seize with avidity the great opportunity that is now in your grasp. If the privilege is cherished and the opportunity is used to prepare you for real service to humanity, the faculty of this time honored institution will rejoice, and the people of Virginia will feel that the provisions made here for your education are a benefit to the State. God grant you success.

J. A. C. CHANDLER.
Show your christian character—go to church!

"The stars govern men, but God governs the stars."
THE HONOR SYSTEM

The Honor System was inaugurated in America in 1779, at the College of William and Mary. From that time to this, the system has been in successful operation at the College. The Honor System emphasizes two things in particular: First, that the student is answerable at all times under all circumstances for every one of his actions; and, second, that he must recognize his personal responsibility for the well-being of the college in every phase of life in which he touches her existence. The Honor System is to the College what the Constitution is to the United States. To the Honor System must be attributed no little of the success of the leaders in the past who attended this ancient seat of learning, and its maintenance and faithful observance can but make for thinkers who will, like the statesmen of the past, lead men into light and order out of these dark days of world confusion and universal dissatisfaction. It is not always an easy or the most pleasant thing to adhere closely to the provisions of the Honor System, but such a course is the only one for men of honor, and those who would reject it or refuse to abide by the rules of the Honor System, are undesirable students. Those things for which the Honor System stands have always and ever shall prevail at the grand old College of William and Mary.

It is a William and Mary custom that when passing a man on the street you greet him whether you know him or not. The phrase "Gentlemen," and a smile with it go a long way to increasing the spirit of co-operation among the students. Above all don't be snobbish, nothing makes against a man any more than snobbishness. "Smile and the world smiles with you, frown and you frown alone."
The first American college to receive a charter from the crown: this was dated 1693, under seal of the Privy Council.

The first and only college to be granted a coat of arms from the Herald's college, 1694.

The first American college to have a full faculty of president, six professors, writing master and usher.

The first medals awarded in America as collegiate prizes were those donated by Lord Botetourt, 1771.

The first Greek letter fraternity was founded at William and Mary on December 5, 1776. This fraternity, the Phi Beta Kappa, is the great honor society of the foremost institutions of learning in America.

The first honor system.

The first elective system of studies 1779.

The first school of Modern Languages and of Law were established in 1779, under the influence of Jefferson.

The first college to teach political economy was William and Mary, in 1784.

The first school of history was founded here in 1803.

Student government means student honor.
GENERAL INFORMATION

The College of William and Mary received its charter in 1693 from William and Mary, Sovereigns of England. Its colors, of which it is particularly proud, were also derived from these sovereigns who granted its charter, orange for William of Orange, and white for Mary of York. William and Mary is the only American college to be granted a coat of arms from the Herald’s College of England.

The College Bell

The college bell sounds a warning five minutes before the meeting of each class. The bell is rung also for all student meetings and chapel services. It is important that each student should find out why the bell is being rung, and if there is a meeting at which he should be present, he should go at once. There is little excuse for lateness.

"Initiative is the starting point on the road to success."—Colgate Handbook.
Bulletin Boards

A bulletin board will be found at the entrance of the Main Building, another inside at the rear entrance, and special bulletin boards will be found in the halls of the women's dormitories. The board inside the Main Building is reserved for use by the faculty. Other bulletin boards are free for student use. The Y. M. C. A. board is found inside at the rear entrance.

Text books may be secured at the College Shop, located on Duke of Gloucester Street, to the left at the entrance of the college campus.

The Y. W. C. A. will conduct during the first few weeks, a second-hand book store on the second floor of the Main Building. If you wish to buy or sell any second-hand books, patronize the Y. W. C. A. Book Store.

Bible and Mission Study

Bible study groups are led by student instructors. A faculty instructor meets these leaders once a week in a normal training class. The instructors are thus prepared to lead their classes, which meet at such time and places as are most convenient for the group.
The Honor System

Of its many priorities, William and Mary is justly proud that it was the first college to have an honor system, which was established at this college in 1779. The Honor System can only be sustained by every student knowing what it is and making it a part of himself. It is essential that every student should read and understand the constitution and working of the Honor System. A complete discussion appears on page 81 and any old student will be glad to tell you about the Honor System.

Information Bureau

The Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. will maintain during the opening days of the session on the first floor of the Main Building a bureau of general information. Students wishing information should avail themselves of this service. Ask the Y's.

All of the churches extend a hearty welcome to the students of the college to all services. It is especially desired that the students co-operate with the young peoples' meetings held in the evenings at the various churches.
Confronted with the absence of a Catholic Church in town, and realizing the need of some place where Catholic students could gather together and express their devotion to God, there was organized last year, by the Catholic students in college, the Gibbons Club. The purpose of this club is to help, in its way, the Catholic students worship God. It is the purpose of this club to hold mass every two weeks of the college year. The time and place of meetings and mass are posted in time for every one to attend. All Catholic students are urged to be present.

IT IS NOT ALWAYS EASY

To apologize,
To begin over,
To admit error,
To be unselfish,
To take advice,
To be charitable,
To be considerate,
To keep on trying,
To profit by mistake,
To forgive and forget,
To think and then act,
To shoulder a deserved blame,
BUT IT ALWAYS PAYS.
—The Hallegram.
Main Building

The large ivy-covered building in the center of the campus is the Main Building and lecture hall of the college. The original building was erected in 1694, having been designed by Sir Christopher Wren, the great English architect who designed St. Paul's Cathedral in London. This building has been burned three times but rebuilt each time on the same spot, for the most part on the same foundation and walls.

Brafferton

The second oldest building at the college is the Brafferton, located on the front campus to the left of the Main Building. It was built in 1723 and was used as the first Indian school in America. The Brafferton was a gift from the estate of the famous English chemist, Honorable Robert Boyle, and was named after his estate in Yorkshire, England. The building now contains the offices of the dean, the registrar, the secretary of the alumni, the college President, and the treasurer.
President's House

Across the campus and facing the Brafferton, is the house in which the presidents of the college have lived since 1732. This house was used by Lord Cornwallis as his headquarters before his surrender at Yorktown in 1781, after which the house was occupied by French soldiers. While thus occupied the house was accidentally burned, but was restored from the personal funds of King Louis XVI.

Lord Botetourt

In the center of the front campus stands the statue of Norborne Berkley, Baron de Botetourt, who was one of the most beloved of the royal governors of Virginia. This is the first statue in America to be erected by an act of a General Assembly.

Spotswood Cannon

Near the statue of Lord Botetourt stands an old cannon which was used at Fort Christina, Brunswick county. This fort was established by governor Spotswood in 1712 for the defense of the frontier against Indian attacks.

Science Hall

To the right of the Main Building is the Science Hall in which are located the physics, home economics and philosophy and psychology departments, the biological laboratories and lecture rooms.

Chemistry Building

Situated to the rear of the Main Building is a temporary, tin structure known as the Chemistry Building. All chemical laboratories and lecture rooms are located in this building.
Library
To the rear of the Science Hall is the library, which contains many treasures of colonial history. The splendidly equipped building was made possible by the generosity of Andrew Carnegie and other friends of the college. The building has been recently enlarged by funds from the Carnegie Foundation.

Citizenship Building
The old gymnasium to the left of the Main Building has been converted into class rooms. In this building are housed the Marshall-Wythe school of Government and Citizenship, the School of Law, the School of Economics and Business Administration, and the Department of Journalism. The "Flat Hat" and "Colonial Echo" offices are also in this building.

Jefferson Hall
Fronting on Jamestown Road and back of the old gymnasium is situated the handsome new dormitory for women. In this building is located the offices of the Social Director of Women, the women's swimming pool and gymnasium, social rooms, and rooms for 150 women.

Gymnasium
To the left of Monroe Hall is the George Preston Blow Memorial Gymnasium for men, which was completed last spring. The building is fully equipped with basketball courts, handball courts, swimming pool, etc. The Monogram Club Trophy Room and the Y. M. C. A. Room are in this building.
Monroe Hall

Fronting on the Richmond road and back of the library is the handsome new dormitory for men which was just completed last fall a year ago. It is a modern fire proof structure built along plans of Jefferson Hall. It contains memorials to many distinguished alumni and has accommodations for 168 men.

Practice House

To the rear of the President's house on the Richmond road is an attractive residence which is used for a practice house in Home Economics.

Ewell Dormitory

Across the Jamestown road from the Brafferton Building is the Ewell Dormitory and Annex for men.

Taliaferro Dormitory

To the right of Ewell is Taliaferro, also used as a men's dormitory. Taliaferro was built with funds appropriated by Congress in payment of damages done the college by Federal soldiers in the War between the States.

Infirmary

To the right of the Taliaferro, is a two-story frame building which is the men's infirmary and dispensary for medicines.

The women's infirmary is located in room seven, first floor, of Jefferson Hall.

Power Plant

To the rear of the infirmary is the power plant which supplies heat, light, and water to all the college buildings. Electric light bulbs may be secured there.
Dining Hall

The Main Dining Hall of the college is situated to the rear of the Taliaferro and Ewell Dormitories. Another dining hall is on the second floor of the Penniman Building, directly behind the Main Dining Hall.

Penniman Building

To the rear of the dining hall is a temporary building used as a men's dormitory. In this building are also situated a dining hall, and the biological department.

Deanery

On the left side of the dining hall is the house formerly occupied by the Dean, now used as a women's dormitory.

Tyler Hall

On the corner of the left front campus is the women's dormitory known as Tyler Hall.

Tyler Annex

To the rear of Tyler Hall and on the left of the Deanery is a temporary dormitory for women known as Tyler Annex.

Located on Boundary Street, not far from the campus, are two temporary dormitories for men. The Institute is another men's dormitory located about four blocks from the campus on Scotland Street.

Plans for several new buildings are under way, including a Science Hall, a new dining hall, and a new dormitory. The Phi Beta Kappa building behind the Citizenship Building is now under construction.
THE MAIN IDEA

Play your game and do your stuff,
Life's too brief for any more;
There's no time to throw a bluff
In the shadow of the score;
I'll admit there's little sweet
In the dust and mire and muck,
Yet the short road to defeat
Is to sit and curse your luck:
Give them all you have—and then
If it doesn't cash a bet
By to-morrow start again,
Fate has whipped no fighter yet!

—Grantland Rice.
"Whatever I have tried to do in life, I have tried with all my heart to do well; whatever I have devoted myself to, I have devoted myself to completely; in great things and in small, I have been thoroughly in earnest."

—Charles Dickens.

THINGS "WORTH WHILE" IN MR. HUGHES' VIEW

The "Christian character or balanced life," he declared, means "faith without credulity; conviction with bigotry; charity without condescension; courage without pugnacity; self-respect without vanity; humility without obsequiousness; love of humanity without sentimentality; and meekness with power."

"That is our ideal," he said.
DUC RULES—MEN

1. All freshmen shall wear a regulation cap. This cap shall be of alternating colors of gold and green with a small green visor and with a button and letters of silver. On these days freshmen shall wear caps or hats and shall not go bareheaded. Duc caps shall be worn inside at basketball games, Saturday night dances and all others except formals.

Men from other institutions who have attended said school for at least one year shall be allowed the privileges of old men until abused, except that they shall wear their hats at all times, until the night of May 1. Men from other schools who do not have enough credits to entitle them to a Sophomore standing, unless they have attended that school for the period of one college year, shall be rated as Ducs.

14. No man shall wear belts and monograms of other colleges or of high schools. This is forbidden by a ruling of the William and Mary Monogram Club.

15. For violation of these rules the offender shall be reported to, and tried by a Freshmen Tribunal composed of six men elected from the Sophomore class and a chairman elected from the Junior class. These men shall be elected not later than two weeks after the opening of college in the fall. The punishment inflicted by this Tribunal shall not conflict with the regulations of the College.
Forget that you came from any particular preparatory school. You are a William and Mary student now.

Do all the good you can and keep the knowledge of it under your hat.

Take off your hat when "Alma Mater" is sung.

Be honest with yourself and always keep in mind that you are here for a life purpose.

Do all your work on week days; you need one rest day in every seven.

Do things in the right proportion; don’t be a "grind."

Remember that the faculty members are your friends; upon request they will gladly give advice.

Be a mixer and a credit to the college.

Take part in student activities; action speaks louder than words.

Learn the songs and yells and join in the "rooting."

Attend all contests on Cary Field. It is your duty.

Get out for some form of athletics and stick to it.

Remember that money does not buy time, so don’t waste either.

Keep your mind, body, and soul clean.

Remember that you will never "find" time for anything; if you want time, you must make it.

Remember that you will find true and noble friends, if you want them among both faculty and students.
CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

During the latter part of May, 1921, the students asked for a student Activities Fee, to which the faculty and the Board of Visitors consented. For purpose of administration it will be collected by the treasurer of the college, and by vote of the students is divided as follows:

- 9-27 to the Colonial Echo.
- 5-27 to the Flat Hat.
- 5-27 to the Literary Magazine.
- 4-27 to the Y. M. C. A. or the Y. W. C. A. as the case may be.
- 4-27 to the literary societies.

The fee is $4.50 per quarter.

In addition to the Men's Literary Societies give one-half of their fees to athletics and the Women's Literary Societies give one-fourth of their fees to athletics.

Each student will be entitled without extra charge to a copy of the Colonial Echo, a subscription to the Flat Hat and the Literary Magazine, to membership in the Y. W. C. A. or Y. M. C. A., as the case may be, and to membership in the literary society of his choice; and all women are entitled to active membership and vote in the Women's Student Government Association.

The Colonial Echo.

R. Lomax Wells, Editor-in-Chief
Stirling King, Business Manager

The Colonial Echo is the college annual, giving an artistic presentation of the academic year, the classes, and events in all phases of activity. It is a handsome and valuable souvenir of the college and of the year's life on the campus.
The Flat Hat
George W. Reilly, Editor-in-Chief
L. Q. Hines, Business Manager
The Flat Hat is the weekly newspaper of the college. It consists of eight pages and is issued every Friday. The Flat Hat gives an account of student life, news, opinions, and events.

The Literary Magazine
James Barnes, Jr., Editor-in-Chief
Fred Andrews, Business Manager
The Literary Magazine is issued six times a year by the students and alumni. The dates of issue are: the first day of October, November, December, March, April, and May. Valuable prizes are given by the Literary Magazines for the best essays, poems, and short stories published.

Students' Handbook
This is it.

Literary Societies
The men students of the college have two literary societies, the Phoenix and the Philomathean. The women students also have two literary societies, the Whitehall and the J. Leslie Hall.
These societies hold weekly meetings in their respective halls, having for their main programmes orations, declamations, and debates. This year the professor of public speaking will coach the members of the societies in developing a high standard of literary work.
In December of each year the Phoenix and Philomathean Societies hold a Freshman Contest. The contest is for the possession of a banner given to the society winning the most points in declamation, oration, reading, and debate. The men who win their points in this contest are presented with gold medals. Winner last year, Phoenix.
The Annual Celebration of the Phoenix and Philomathean Societies is held the first night of commencement. Each society is represented by an orator, a declaimer, and two debaters. It is a high honor to appear in this contest and the winners are presented with handsome medals. Winner last year, Phoenix.

The work of the societies has been of such a satisfactory nature that the college offers one credit for good attendance and literary work. Each student is urged and expected to join a literary society and attend its meeting regularly. There is no greater accomplishment than the ability to deliver an eloquent and powerful address.

State Oratorical Association

The State Oratorical Association is composed of the eight leading colleges of Virginia. Every year in May it holds an annual contest. The winner of first place is presented with a handsome fifty dollar gold medal; however, the college gives its representative a fine medal even though he does not win first honors.

Inter-Collegiate Debate Council

The Inter-Collegiate Debate Council elected by and from the four literary societies, arranges a series of inter-collegiate debates with leading colleges and universities in the East and South.

The debating teams are chosen after two preliminary contests have been held in which all students are eligible to participate. It has been the policy of the Council for men to debate against mens' colleges, and for the women to meet with women's colleges.
The college offers no higher honor than that of representing her in debate or oration. This is a much coveted honor, and one for which every new student, and every old student should work. Handsome medals are given to the men who represent the college in the debates.

During the past session the college entered two debates; both resulted in a tie. This record, not so good upon its face, is nevertheless an incentive to strive for greater success. Inter-collegiate debating is in a process of development and, it is expected that with the establishment of a department of public speaking the debating standards will be greatly raised. During the past year William and Mary was represented by Messrs Stewart, Winder, Reilly, Adams, and Wright.

Dramatics

With the beginning of this year, dramatics at this college will assume a position of greater prominence than heretofore.

The presentation of dramas and other plays will be under the supervision and direction of a dramatic committee. With the existence of this committee it is believed that the production of plays will be greatly enhanced.

The college has recently become a member of the Peninsular Dramatic League. The formation of this league has tended to promote dramatics in the cities nearby. Membership in this league will enable the college to present its productions in the cities that are members of this league.
Dr. Montgomery, who as a play producer, is recognized to be inferior to none, urges that all students possessing any stage talent present themselves to the Dramatic Committee. Dr. Montgomery produces to the satisfaction of his audience a popular classic play every spring.

Minstrels

The William and Mary "Minstrel Night" is a glad night in Williamsburg. Under the able leadership of "Snuck" Elliott, last year's show was the best seen in Williamsburg for some time. The show is produced every year for the benefit of the Monogram Club.

WOMEN'S DEBATE TEAM

In 1924 the first Women's Debate Team of this college was chosen by a faculty committee from a number of contestants. The schedule for 1926 promises to be a worthy one. Out of three debates in 1925 the William and Mary team won two. The Women's Debate Council from which the teams are selected is as follows: Frances Riley, chairman; Fearn Cabell, Manager; Mary L. Parker, Treasurer; Minnie Rob Phaup, Program Chairman; Lillian Berlin, Secretary; Frances Thompson, Ruth Yeamans, Gertrude Adkins, Sara Joyner, and Ophelia Harrell, Freshman try-outs are held each year and members elected to the council. If you are interested in debating, make this one of your major activities. If you are not interested, then get so at once.
To the Students of the College of William and Mary:

In order that there may be a thorough understanding of the Honor System as it is interpreted and applied in the College of William and Mary in Virginia, the following statement is set forth:

Our entrance into the College places upon each one of us the responsibility of maintaining the Honor System and of rigidly living up to its requirements ourselves. It is therefore necessary that there should be a complete understanding of just what the System is.

The Honor System is the very foundation of student life in the College of William and Mary. This must be understood by every student at the outset. The Honor System is not merely a name nor is it a convenient means of escaping spying by the Faculty. The College of William and Mary has the distinction of having first originated and introduced the Honor System into American collegiate life, the System having been established here in 1779, and has been in continued existence here ever since. The Honor System has always been and must be maintained as the working principle of student life and as the indispensable expression of the spirit of the College of William and Mary. The Honor System simply requires that a student should act honorably, no more, no less.

As applied to scholastic work the following interpretations of the Honor System are set forth by the Student Honor Council:

1. All scholastic work, whether it be in the lecture room, the library, the student's room, or elsewhere, is under the Honor System. All cheating, whether in work pledged or unpledged, whether in tests, assignments, or examinations is a violation of the Honor System. Giving aid to any student or receiving aid from any student, without the consent of the professor, in tests, assignments, or examinations, is cheating.

2. All written tests and examinations given in the classroom will require a formal pledge.

3. For any forms of scholastic work other than written examinations and tests in which the professor desires the use of a pledge the professor or instructor will prescribe the form of pledge to be used and will make clear the scope of the pledge and the responsibility of the individual under the pledge.

4. The pledge is required not for the purpose of creating the obligation, but to remind the student of the obligation already existing under the Honor System.

Originally the Honor System was limited in its scope and application to dishonorable practices in the classroom and to cheating on examinations and quizzes, but it has since been extended to cover the wider phases of student life. If any student is detected in doing a distinctly dishonorable act and is found guilty by the Honor Council, he must leave the College of William and Mary immediately.

For willfully breaking pledges, such as athletic or drinking pledges, for being drunk at pledged dances, for willfully cashing worthless checks, for cheating under any circumstances, for obtaining money under false pretences, for stealing and for willfully lying, and for other similar dishonorable practices, students will be subject to the discipline of the Honor Council.
The Honor System is supported and handled by the students themselves and they are wholly responsible for it. Violations of the Honor Code are reported, not to the Faculty, but to the Student Honor Council. The duty of the student to uphold this System must be clearly recognized. It is the duty of every student to report to the Honor Council when he sees another student in suspicious circumstances. Loyalty to the student body demands it. This is not spying or tale-bearing, for the Honor Committee are the representatives of the students themselves. They are not a separate body from the students, as the faculty would be. Any one, therefore, believing that a breach of the Honor System has been committed shall request such person to report to the Honor Council and confess. In case the student fails to do this then the student shall be reported to the Honor Council, but no student will make any accusation involving the violation of the Honor System to any other person or persons than to the Honor Council. Upon report being made to the Honor Council a thorough investigation shall be made.

If after hearing the explanation of the student accused, or after he has refused to make explanation, the Honor Council is convinced of the student's guilt, the Honor Council of the student body shall thereupon demand that he leave College at once.

Reread this article carefully and keep it for reference. The System will be explained by representatives of the Honor Council in all classes at the opening of the College. We ask you to help make it perfectly clear that in the College of William and Mary in Virginia there is not place for the liar, the thief, or the cheat.

Purpose of the Y. M. C. A.

The work of the Y. M. C. A. is done in a broad, Christian, non-sectarian spirit with the purpose of:

1. Leading the students to faith in God through Jesus Christ.

2. Leading them into membership and service in the Christian Church.

3. Promoting their growth in Christian faith, especially through the study of the Bible and prayer.

4. Influencing them to devote themselves in united effort with all Christians to make the will of Christ effective in human society, and to extending the Kingdom of God throughout the world.

The support of every loyal Christian student is necessary if there is to be a realization of these high ideals, adopted by the National Convention of the Y. M. C. A. Every man must be willing and anxious to do his Christian duty.

Y. M. C. A. Meetings

It has been the policy of the Y. M. C. A. to hold a meeting on one night each week. The programmes of these meetings are religious and devotional for the most part. However, discussions of vital problems are frequently held, as social and racial problems. In connection with these meetings the State Association (College) has arranged to have a number of lecturers of national fame visit the colleges of Virginia. On other nights, members of the faculty and speakers from nearby cities will address the Association. During the year, on appropriate and special seasons, early morning prayer services are held before breakfast by the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. These services are short and inspirational, and do much towards developing and keeping alive the proper Christian attitude in the students.

However, the meetings of the Association are not all of a serious nature. A number of socials and get-together entertainments are given by the Y's to which, of course, all the students are invited.

Y. M. C. A. Bible Study

As has been the custom for the past several years, the Y. M. C. A. will conduct the Bible study classes for men. The instructors for these classes will be selected from members of the upper classes by the committee in charge of this work. For the most part these instructors will be men who are studying for the ministry, or for some special Christian work.

The instructors are required to meet once a week in a normal training class taught by a member of the faculty. The work to be taken up in the classes is outlined in these normal classes and the instructors are thus prepared to lead their groups.

The Bible classes are open to all men students and are held in the dormitories on such nights as are most convenient to the members of the classes and the instructors. These classes meet for an hour once each week.
The Bible study classes have proved both interesting and valuable to those who have taken them and it is hoped that as many students as possible will enter one of these classes.

Information Bureau

The Y. M. C. A. will conduct during the first few days of college an information bureau in the hall of the Main Building. Students desiring information or help of any kind should ask the "Y" for assistance.

Blue Ridge Student's Conference

The Y. M. C. A. holds a division conference every year during the latter part of June at Blue Ridge, N. C. Every year hundreds of college men from all over the South gather here for ten days to discuss their campus problems and to endeavor to find a way to better their service to their fellowmen. To serve God in the light of His Truth is the ultimate end.

William and Mary was represented by a large group for the first time in several years at the last conference. It is hoped that in the future our Alma Mater may take her place among the colleges of the South as a leader in Y. M. C. A. work. It is an enlightenment to attend one of these conferences and if any are interested, they should ask the president of the "Y" concerning it. It will be a pleasure and a source of great inspiration.

Purpose of the Y. W. C. A.

The purpose of the Young Women's Christian Association is:

To lead students to faith in God through Jesus Christ.

To lead them into membership and service in the Christian Church.

To promote their growth in Christian faith and character, especially through the study of the Bible.

To influence them to devote themselves, in united effort with all Christians, to making the will of Christ effective in human society, and to extending the Kingdom of God throughout the world.

At the biennial meeting of the National Student Assembly held in New York City in May, 1924, the following was adopted as the national objective for all Student Associations; for the next two years:
“We unite in the determination to live unreservedly Jesus’ law of love in every relationship and so to know God.”

Membership in the Y. W. C. A.

Every girl who matriculates at William and Mary has the privilege of becoming a member of the Y. W. C. A. providing she is in sympathy with its purpose and declares her acceptance in the following words:

“It is my purpose to live as a true follower of the Lord Jesus Christ.”

The paying of a fee through the Student Activities Fee, which is collected by the college treasurer, does not constitute membership therefor. This fee is paid by every girl and so is regarded as a contribution to the support of the Association, unless the membership declaration is made, in which case the fee is really a membership fee.

The certificate of membership entitles a girl to vote in all Association proceedings at William and Mary and to the privileges of any student or city association of the National Board of the Young Women’s Christian Association of the United States.

By her membership in the Y. W. C. A. a student also becomes a member of the World’s Student Christian Federation, which is composed of many student movements of forty different countries of the world.
"Big Sister" Plan

The Y. W. C. A. has organized a "Big Sister" plan on the campus. By this system, each new student meets an older student who acts as her "big sister" during the new girl's first year at college, helping her to adjust herself to new conditions and to make new friends.

Weekly Program Meetings

The regular weekly meetings of the Y. W. C. A. will be held every Wednesday night in the college chapel. Each program presented will be of interest to every college girl. Your support will determine the value of the Y. W. C. A. in the student life at William and Mary.

Bulletin Boards

Watch the Y. W. C. A. bulletin boards for attractive posters, interesting events, and things you ought to know!

Main board in Jefferson Hall.
Notices are also posted in Tyler Hall, Tyler Annex, and on the board at the entrance to the Main Building.

Devotionals

Morning watch under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. is held every Friday morning at 7:40 o'clock in the college chapel. The Y. W. C. A. also conducts vesper services in each dormitory one night a week. Your college life includes attendance upon all of these services.

Blue Ridge Conference

Blue Ridge! The very name sends a thrill through the person who has been fortunate to spend ten long, lovely days up on the mountain-tops of North Carolina at a Student Conference. Here, in June of each year, gather several hundreds of college girls from all over the South in order to work and play together for those ten days. There is real inspiration to be gained from thinking out problems together, from singing together, from making new discoveries in friendship together. William and Mary has as many representatives as possible attend the conference in order that they may bring back to the Association a broader outlook and a wider knowledge of the work and purpose of the Y. W. C. A. The delegates for 1925 were:

Mary L. Parker
Mary Custis Foster
Anna Whitehead
Anna Withers
Sara Joyner
Minnie Rob Phaup
Margaret Holman
Clara Louise Miller

Information Bureau

During the first few days of the college session the Y. W. C. A. will conduct an information bureau in the hall of the Main Building. The object of this bureau is to serve the new student in any way possible. If the girl in charge cannot give you the desired information, she will gladly find out about it for you.

Employment Bureau

Girls desiring to do sewing, stenographic work, coaching, and the like have the opportunity of securing work through the Y. W. C. A.'s Employment Bureau.

Yet both, without a touchstone, may deceive thee.”
—Randolph.

Happiness

“All who joy would win,
Must share it—happiness was born a twin.”

Clubs

The new student will soon find after entering William and Mary that there are numerous loosely organized clubs on the campus. There are a number of territorial clubs of which the following are representative: Southwest, Eastern Shore, Rappahannock, Norfolk, Richmond, Newport News, Petersburg, Toano and Williamsburg. Others with a little more definite aim in view are: Rough Ashles, Cotillion, 13, Los Quizotescos, Wythe Law Club, Chess and Mah Jongg, and Gibbons Club, Monogram Club and Biology Club. The women's clubs are: Alpha Club, Edith M. Baer Club, German Club, K. O. B., H2E, G. G. G., and Monogram Club.

Of the various clubs, the Flat Hat Club is recognized as the greatest in point of service and seniority. This club represents some of the best literary ability among the faculty and students. Its primary purpose is to foster and maintain a high standard of literary work at the college.

Fraternities

The American Greek letter fraternity system originated at William and Mary in 1776 with the founding of Phi Beta Kappa (now honorary). The Greek letter fraternities are national organizations represented by local chapters in the various colleges and universities. Their purpose is fraternal and as secret brotherhoods they seek to ally men of one type—men who are congenial, and who, by close association, will mutually benefit one another. The chapters own or rent houses, in which many of their numbers live.

Because the aim of the fraternity is to bring together in a close bond of brotherhood such men who have similar tastes, talents, or ambitions, it must necessarily follow that none can join except on invitation by the members. If an invitation is extended you, do not decide hastily. You will be no better or worse for having declined or accepted an invitation. A fraternity may be a distinct help or it may be a hindrance. It will not raise you to sudden eminence among your fellows; the best it can do is to inspire you to greater endeavors, manliness, and higher achievements. There is a possibility of mutual helpfulness in the intimate association of like-minded men, but be sure to retain your own individuality. Before joining be certain you understand the following facts: First, the character, reputation, and ideals of the national organization; second, the object and general purpose or policy of the local chapter; third, the character of the men in the local chapter; and fourth, the dues, assessments, room rent, initiation fee, and so forth.

Do not allow your membership to interfere with your personal ideals. Do not place your fraternity before the college that is to become your Alma Mater. If you narrow your college life to an intimacy with none but your fraternity brothers, you will lose much of the best that the life at Wil-
William and Mary holds for you. You will find that some of your warmest friends will be made among non-fraternity men. Be broad and generous, non-partisan, and democratic.

There are highly organized fraternities of social and honorary nature at William and Mary. Of the honorary fraternities, Phi Beta Kappa is the first and the greatest. It was the first fraternity established in America and is composed of eminent and distinguished scholars. Other honor fraternities are Omicron Delta Kappa, composed of both graduates and undergraduates; Tau Kappa Alpha, an honor fraternity for orators and debaters; Sigma Upsilon, the literary fraternity. There are eleven social fraternities, five sororities, and fifteen professional fraternities.

Freshman year is not a period of triumph or reward, but of preparation. As such, it is the most important of the four. Build your foundation solid. A reputation for ability to take responsibility and to do conscientious work will last throughout college and help you later.

Make sure of your curriculum work. Do not, however, become one-sided. A well-rounded education is not acquired from books alone. Try for every team or a managership. You have nothing to lose, but everything to gain. Your contact with the coaches and athletes is a course in itself.

Do not allow any pressing fraternity invitation to force you to make a hasty decision. Although most pledges are made during the autumn quarter, men are always invited to join fraternities later in their course. Belonging to a fraternity will not make you of any more importance to the college.

Attend as many College Dances as you can financially stand. A good College Dance is a long cherished memory.

Do not let a new environment upset too quickly the ideals you bring with you.

Attend all your class meetings.

In your attitude toward others be natural and sincere. Reserve and deference toward upper classmen show an appreciation of College precedents, but cringing servility is a self-evident sham.
When the new student has properly adjusted himself to his studies for the year, there is nothing to which he should determine his correct attitude sooner than to athletics. As an individual he should do two things. He should determine the best manner in which to keep himself physically fit, and he should strive to do everything in his power to contribute to maintaining what is known as college spirit. Without the proper college spirit college life is worthless.

The individual may contribute to this spirit by participating to his fullest capacity, whether a member of the first team or not, in the athletics of the college and by cultivating an ardent but correct attitude in his support of the teams representing the college. He should remember that by these teams and no less by the support given them, the college will inevitably be judged on the outside. He should remember that the college takes a just pride in its hard playing and winning teams. He should remember that the college takes a greater pride in the spirit which renders it unwilling to win at any price and in its reputation for teams composed of clean sportsman-like gentlemen. His every act should be based on a wish to increase this just pride and to enhance this reputation.
The college uses a system of mass athletics which has been adopted by all the leading colleges. Under this system every student is given some form of athletic training, unless he is physically unable to receive it. This training is compulsory for freshmen and is required of all degree applicants. This applies to both men and women. Besides the college teams there are classes in gymnastics and physical education which are adapted to the needs of those who wish to become directors of physical education in the public schools. Full details of these courses may be found in the college catalogue.

Athletic Management

General supervision of athletics is exercised by the 3-3 or Athletic Committee, which is composed of the President of the college and two members of the faculty appointed by the President; and three students elected by the student body, one from each of the upper classes. This committee determines and directs the general athletic policy of the college, authorizes the expenditure of money, and selects the coaches and the athletic director. The athletic director has general charge of athletics under the committee. He arranges for the entertainment of visiting teams, and for trips, umpires, etc., and has charge of the athletic buildings, equipment, and general affairs. The coaches exercise absolute authority over the players, substitutions, and tactics.
Every student, by paying the college athletic fee, becomes a member of the Athletic Association and is entitled to a vote in the election of officers and the members of the Athletic Committee.

Schedules of interesting inter-collegiate games are arranged for all of the first teams representing the college and wherever possible for the scrub teams. There is probably no better advertisement for a college than a successful, hard-fighting athletic team.

GET THE PROPER SPIRIT!

GET THE PROPER SPIRIT!

Every old student knows what is expected of him. Every new student has this to learn. Remember that you are at William and Mary; not simply at college, but at William and Mary College. Once knowing that, there are certain responsibilities and obligations incumbent upon you. In your athletics these things are paramount: First, support your coach in every way; second, support your team from the ground up; third, attend every game, rally, and bonfire working to make it a success.

The best way in which the student body can show the teams that the college is behind them is through the songs and yells. In hearing the songs and yells, the morale of the team is raised and the punch that counts is put across.

These suggestions will lead to good cheering:

Keep your eyes on the Cheer Leader during all songs and yells.

Learn the songs and yells.

When a yell or song is called for work on it hard.

Do not use a "cat call" on anyone at any time.

Show appreciation for opponent's good plays.

Stay in the stands until the end of the game.

The Indian War Cry

I

The Indians are taking the war path to-day,
Old Green, Gold and Silver plunge into the fray.
The fight may be hard and the game may be long,
We'll rally against them and sing the old song: RAY!

Chorus

William and Mary forever and aye!
Cheer her again boys, we'll yet win the day—RAY!
Tri-color's waving, it floats there on high,
An emblem of vict'ry, touching the sky.
So shout out the war cry and fight to the end,
They'll never, no never beat W. & M.!

II

Their line's shot to pieces, their backs can not gain,
Just watch the old Indians romp 'way with this game.
We've got them all going, there's nothing to fear,
So rally again now and give the old cheer: RAY!

III

When the fight goes against us, struggling in vain,
When all of their efforts seem surely to gain,
When hope seems to leave us, the chances all gone,
We'll rally against them and sing the old song: RAY!

—Carl Andrews, '27.

Blair House

The Blair House was the home of John Blair, Jr., associate justice of the United States. It is a long frame structure, one and a half stories high, with two entrances, situated on the Duke of Gloucester street. This old home has been bought for preservation by Professor Pollard.

Wythe House

The Wythe House is a square brick structure of two stories, situated on the east side of Palace Green, next to Bruton Parish Church yard. This was the home of George Wythe, signer of the Declaration of Independence, chancellor of Virginia, first professor of law in William and Mary College and the designer of the beautiful seal of Virginia, as well as the seal of the chancery court. This house was also occupied by George Washington and Rochambeau during the Yorktown campaign.

Tucker House

The Tucker House was the home of St. George Tucker, stepfather of John Randolph, of Roanoke, and second professor of law in the College of William and Mary. This house is situated on Nicholson street, near Palace Green.
Peyton Randolph House

The Peyton Randolph House is situated on the south side of Francis street in the eastern part of the town. This was the residence of Peyton Randolph, president of the first Continental Congress.

Bassett Hall

Bassett Hall, a beautiful residence adjoining the Peyton Randolph lot, was formerly the property of Burwell Bassett, a nephew of Mrs. Washington. In the summer of 1804, Williamsburg had for its visitor the distinguished Irish poet, Thomas Moore, who was so impressed with the beautiful lawn of Bassett Hall that he was inspired to pen a few lines “To the Firefly.” In 1841 it was the residence of John Tyler, President of the United States.

Audrey House

The Audrey House, typical of an eighteenth century structure, is located on the east side of Palace Green. This house was made famous by Mary Johnstone as the residence of Audrey, in her novel of that name.

Site of the House of Burgesses

At the end of the Duke of Gloucester street opposite the college gate, is the site of the old House of Burgesses. It was here that Patrick Henry, with his eloquent, patriotic speeches, stirred the people of Williamsburg and the students of the College, among whom was Thomas Jefferson.
Site of Governor's Palace

Facing Palace Green on Duke of Gloucester street, is the site of the Colonial Governor's Palace, built in 1705 and burned following the surrender of Cornwallis. The "Mattey Grammar School," originally established in 1706, stands on this site at present.

Seven miles west of Williamsburg is Jamestown, the site of the first permanent settlement of English colonists in America. On the island are a number of relics which call to mind the trials of these early colonists. Of especial interest is the old church.

Yorktown

Twelve miles southeast of Williamsburg is Yorktown, the site of the surrender of Lord Cornwallis to George Washington at the close of the Revolutionary War. Here also are a number of old buildings which are famous in American history. An eighteen hole golf course has just been completed at Yorktown and it is hoped that the course will be open to the students of the college for a nominal sum.

William and Mary deserves the best you have in you.

"If sinners entice thee, consent thou not."

Among her many priorities, William and Mary justly claims that of leading the way in formulation and the adoption of the Honor System. Early in college days when no other idea of college government prevailed throughout America than that the student should be watched like a suspected criminal for offenses, either actual or potential, the faculty of William and Mary appointed a committee, whose head was the distinguished jurist, Beverly Tucker, to draw up a statement of the spirit and content of an honor system by which the conduct of the students of the old college was to be guided. At once put into operation, this system has continued in actual and successful working without interruption until the present day.

But glorious and inspiring as is the historical origin of the Honor System, it is with its operation now and in the future that the men and women of the new day at the old college are primarily concerned. In the first place, it is of vital importance that every new student enrolling in September, should clearly understand what the Honor System really is and what it means in his life and in the corporate life of the College. Ignorance of it may bring the possibility—even the probability—of breaking it, and at once there follows a well nigh irreparable injury to the character, the reputation, and the future of the individual student and an equally grave lowering of the morale of the student body, for this must always suffer by the disgrace of any of its members. It is in this spirit that the present serious attempt is made to set forth, especially for the benefit of the new students, just what the Honor System is and what is required of each in order to translate it into his life.

The Honor System may be defined in a word as individual responsibility. It brings home to the individual man or woman who would stay at the noble old college and get the advantages she offers, his personal responsibility for her fair name and honor. It emphasizes two things; first, that the student must recognize that he is answerable in the very fullest degree for every one of his actions and dealings with the members of the faculty and with his fellows, in his or their rooms, in the dining halls, the athletic fields, the social centers, and in the class rooms, and second, that he must recognize his personal responsibility for the well-being of the college in every phase of life in which he touches her existence.

Such phases, in the large, will at once suggest themselves to every one. They include, primarily, everything which touches the securing of aid, assistance, or profit in scholastic work of whatsoever kind, whether in term class work, periodical tests, or in the work handed in to the instructor, though it is to be regretted that in the formal examinations, as well as in all latter respect, students otherwise most sensitive to the Honor System do not seem to feel its demands so keenly as in regard to the others. A slight reflection, however, will convince one that work of this kind should also be included in the scope of the Honor System. It is a source of pride to all lovers of the college that public opinion of the students is now, and has always been, most healthy, vigorous, and uncompromising in its condemnation. of all infractions of the Honor System falling under the heads just enumerated.

As to all offenses touching the taking of property which is not one's own, in any form, it goes without saying that these come most completely under the condemnation of the Honor System, and find swift and deserved punishment at the hands of the student body itself.

CONSTITUTION OF THE MEN’S STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Preamble

Whereas, William and Mary has always stood for Truth, Honor, and Gentlemanly Conduct, and still stands for them, and

Whereas, at William and Mary the Honor System had its beginning, and its spirit still prevails in such force that disorder and ungentlemanly conduct are not countenanced, and

Whereas, we believe that democratic student self government, emphasizing and based upon student honor, is both possible, and desirable, but that its successful operation requires a high degree of active individual and group honor on the part of the large majority of the student body so governed, and must be carefully safeguarded and prompted by a wise selection of its officers and by the progressive education of students in the principles of student honor.

Therefore, we, the committee appointed by the Student Body to revise our present constitution, do hereby submit the following revise for the re-organization and re-enforcement of the Honor System in accordance with the above principles:

PART I

Article I

The executive and judicial powers of this government shall be vested in an Honor Council composed of seven members.
Section 1. Election of members: Not less than one month previous to the end of the academic year the freshman, sophomore, and junior classes, in assembly, shall nominate four men from each of their respective classes, in their judgment best fitted to compose the succeeding council. The names of these men shall be announced, published and posted as nominees. Not less than one week after the announcement of these nominees has been made, the student body shall elect, by plurality vote, by secret signed ballot, two of said nominees from each class to compose the Honor Council for the following year.

Section 2. In case of a tie vote in the above election the officers shall be decided as provided in PART III, Article I, Section 3.

Section 3. Choice of the President and Council Chairman: When the above six members have been elected they shall meet and choose one of their number as chairman of the council. They shall also select their officers and organize for the following year's work. This meeting shall take place not less than ten days previous to the close of the session, and shall be called by the chairman of the existing council.

Section 4. Freshman member: The following academic year, not less than two months after the organization of the freshman class, its members shall choose one of their number for membership on the Honor Council.
Powers and Duties: All cases of stealing or defrauding or cheating on EXAMS, or other scholastic work, and violation of one's pledged word shall fall under the supervision of this council. Every student is honor bound to report for immediate action all such cases of violations against the honor system. The honor system assumes that every student is a man of truthfulness and honesty and that any such student is honor bound to procure the permanent removal of all those, who, by violating in any degree this accepted code of honor, prove that they cannot safely be trusted... The proceedings of the honor council will be conducted under the honor code established at William and Mary College since 1792, and from its decision, under a recent action of the Board of Visitors, an appeal may be made. The said resolution is made a part of this article and reads as follows:

1. "That the Board of Visitors of William and Mary is appreciative of the purposes and ideals of the student government plan, but it cannot recognize an action taken by the body as final."

2. "Student government properly conceived is a co-operative adjunct to the President and Faculty, not an independent body with summary powers."

3. "Any action of the student government body must be subject to the review of the President and Faculty, and no action will be considered by the Board of Visitors until so reviewed."
President of the Student Body

Section 1. There shall be a president of the student body whose duties it shall be to handle matters pertaining to the student body or relating in any way to the revision of the regulations regarding the honor system, and to hold, at such times as seems best, a joint meeting of the student body for the election of officers as provided in this constitution, or for the transaction of other business for which provision has not been made herein.

Section 2. There shall be a vice-president of the student body who shall perform the duties of the president of the said body during the absence of the said president, and who shall succeed to the office of the president of the student body upon said president's resignation or removal.

Section 3. There shall be a secretary-treasurer of the student body whose duty it shall be to take and keep minutes of all meetings of said student body, and to handle all funds and records which may come into his hands as such officer.

Section 4. ELECTION: The president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer, of the student body shall be elected as follows: Not less than TEN days previous to the date of the general election, as hereinafter provided, the student body assembled, shall nominate from the floor not less than TWO men for the office of president, not less than TWO for the office of vice-president; not less than TWO for the office of secretary-treasurer of the student body. In such assembly, if more than two men are nominated for the office of president, or vice-president, or secretary-treasurer of the student body, then said student body so assembled shall vote upon said nominees, and the two receiving the highest number of votes for the above said offices shall be deemed to be the two nominees for each of the offices. Said president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer to be elected at the general election by majority vote, etc., as provided by Part III, Art. I, Sec. III of this Constitution. The president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer of the student body shall not hold a seat on the honor council, nor take part in meetings of said honor council, while they are acting in such capacities.

PART II

Student supervision and educational training in honor system.

Article I—Education

Every student shall be made familiar with this constitution, its meaning, and his duty in supporting it.

Article II—Discipline

All matters of discipline shall be under the supervision and control of the president of the college, who shall regulate same in any manner he may deem necessary. The president of the student body is authorized by the student body to co-operate with the pres-

Stand for Clean Politics!
Vote your convictions!
Year by year the women's teams have gradually forged to the front in the athletic world. In the intercollegiate world William and Mary girls have only been represented by basketball and tennis teams, but the success of these, especially basketball, points to a great future. The system of mass athletics used, however, enables every girl to participate in some sport, intercollegiate or not.

Under excellent coaching and leadership the women's basketball team has justly acquired fame throughout the east in conquering during the season of 1923-1924, Adelphi, University of Penn, George Washington and other strong teams.

Likewise, tennis is assured of a successful schedule next year.

With time and increased facilities other sports will be added to the intercollegiate list.

Agreement Concerning Government of the Women Students of the College of William and Mary

To the Women's Student Government Association is intrusted the enforcement of the rules made by the authorities of the college and the power to legislate in all matters that do not fall under the direct jurisdiction of the said authorities.

The degree of power entrusted to the organization is dependent upon the efficiency of its members. If at any time the association or any of its officers should fail to uphold the standards of the Constitution, the President of the College reserves the right, after investigation, to modify or revoke this grant of student government.
The Executive Council of the Women's Student Government Association, elected by the women students, handles all official business of the Association and acts upon problems concerning the welfare of the women students.

The Judicial Council, elected by the Association, deals with infringement of rules on the part of women students.

The Honor Council, composed of the Junior and Senior members of the Executive and Judicial Councils, deals with all dishonorable conduct on the part of the Women Students.

The Freshman Commission consists of not less than fifteen members chosen from the sophomore class. This commission is appointed each year by the Executive Council, the chairman of the Commission being a sophomore member of the Council. The purpose of the Commission is the instructing of Freshmen in the ideals and application of the honor system and of student government rules as they are understood at the College of William and Mary. Women Students, on arrival at the college or previously, are assigned to groups—each one of which is under the direction of a member of the Commission. The groups meet for an hour once a week for the purpose stated above, and after four meetings a written examination on Student Government rules is given.
The Commission for this year is composed of:

If you can keep your head when all about you
   Are losing their's and, blaming you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
   But make allowance for their doubting, too.
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
   Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated, don't give away to hating,
   And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise.

If you can dream, and not make dreams your master,
If you can think, and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster,
   And treat those two imposters just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you have spoken
   Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
   And stoop and build them up with worn-out tools.

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
   And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
   And never breathe a word about your loss.
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone
And so hold on when there's nothing in you,
Except the Will which says to them, "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings—nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds worth of distance run,
Your's is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son!
—Rudyard Kipling.

The trouble with profanity is not so much that it is wicked, as that it is just plain dirty.

Nowadays anyone that swears is set down as being coarse and vulgar.

Swearing means that you don't know how to talk. Your vocabulary is limited. It is the sign of ignorance.

Swearing means weakness. You will notice that forceful men, whose words carry weight, use simple, plain words.

Altogether, swearing is a useless, unclean, and offensive habit.'
Quit it. —Dr. Frank Crane.

Young Man
Listen!

Lives of great men do more than remind us that we can make our lives count for more than we imagine, for they give us the principles of conduct and action which we may and should follow in order to make our lives worth while.

Franklin, the printer, philosopher and diplomat, said: "Save, young man, and become respectable and respected."

The big men of the future will be picked from the money savers of to-day which suggests the importance of a savings account to the young man who desires to acquire a cash capital and "become respectable and respected."
