President John E. Pomfret,
Twenty-first president of the College of William and Mary in Virginia.
TO THE CLASS OF 1948

In behalf of the Faculty and Administration of the College I am privileged to extend to the Class of 1948 a cordial welcome.

During the past three years well over a thousand undergraduates have left the Campus to enter the armed services. The College itself participated in the Army training program, and for more than a year the Navy Chaplains School has been quartered here. More and more the students have tended to center their interest upon the war effort. War Bond drives, Red Cross work, and similar activities have been substituted for the social programs of normal years.

Despite the many readjustments that have taken place, the traditional spirit of friendliness and cooperation has been maintained. The Honor Councils and the Student Government organizations have carried on with changes in personnel so frequent that they have been hard to keep abreast of. The Choir and the Theatre have managed to perform regularly and the student publications have shown surprising virility. This year the intercollegiate athletic program will be revived to a limited extent.

The primary activity of every student has to do with learning and intellectual mastery. Unless each for himself accepts this as axiomatic the whole purpose of college training falls to the ground. In other words, unless the student fulfills his academic obligations the college experience will be singularly hollow and unrewarding.

The other activities have much to offer, however, and any student with a little thoughtful planning will find time to take part in one or two of them. Every member of the freshman class is at once confronted with the task of accommodating himself to the requirements of his course of study. Having done this, he is then free to participate in the activities that he feels will contribute to his development. If selection is made on this basis, the student will, in effect, be making a contribution to the college community.

John E. Pomfret, President.
TRADITIONS AT WILLIAM AND MARY

There are many traditions here. They will undoubtedly be pointed out to you many times in the course of your college life. We ask, however, that you consider only five traditions, five customs which are not limited to past glories but which are applicable to your present day life as a college student and to your future life as an alumnus of this College.

The first tradition is the tradition of belonging. You will have the feeling of ownership the minute you enter the College yard, seeing for the first time the quiet dignity of the Wren Building, the tall, majestic trees, the cool sweep of the Sunken garden. Who comes here belongs here. This is the first tradition.

The second tradition is the tradition of fellowship. There is a custom here of the universal greeting, to professors, to fellow students, to visitors on our campus—all of whom may be strangers. Here we speak because we want to, because we feel a common ownership, a common bond closely related to the tradition of belonging.

The tradition of scholarship is the third tradition. Great scholars have gone before you here and great scholars will undoubtedly follow. The choice of study is yours, and you can gain much or you can gain little, depending upon you. College serves only as a means of stimulation, but the desire to learn must come from the individual.

The fourth tradition is the tradition of honor. This tradition is perhaps William and Mary’s most revered for it is a tradition of thought and conduct. In another part of this book, you will find a clear statement of the principles, purposes, and ideals of the honor system. It is enough to say here that fundamentally your life is governed by your own sense of honor and by it you will be judged.

The fifth and most important tradition, to which all the others contribute is the tradition of service. Only through a deep appreciation of the traditions of belonging, fellowship, scholarship, and honor fostered during the period of College residence can the real understanding of service be attained—service not only to the College and community, but to the broad principles of democracy, for which the College of William and Mary has long been known.

HISTORICAL FACTS ABOUT THE COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY

1693—On February 8th, a charter was granted by King William and Queen Mary of England, for the establishment of the College of William and Mary in Virginia. In this Charter the Rev. James Blair was named president.

1705—The Wren Building was destroyed by fire. It was rebuilt with the original walls and was completed about 1716.

1723—The Brafferton Building was erected.

1750—The Flat Hat Club, the first college club at William and Mary of which there is a record, was established.

1776—Phi Beta Kappa, the first Greek letter fraternity, was founded by students of the College.

1779—The College became a university, introducing into the United States the elective system and establishing schools of Modern Languages, Law, and Medicine.

1781—The British campaign in Virginia caused a suspension of classes.

1801—The statue of Lord Botetourt, which originally stood at the Capitol, was purchased by the faculty and placed in the center of the College Yard.

1824-1825—An attempt to remove the College to Richmond, as a means of increasing enrollment, failed.

1859—On the 166th anniversary of the founding of the College, the interior of the Wren Building was burned a second time when some early documents, including the original charter, all of the library, and the chemical laboratory were destroyed.

1861—The College was suspended in May on account of the Civil War. In 1862 the Wren Building, while occupied by Federal soldiers, suffered a third fire.
1865—The College reopened; but it was not until 1869 that the Wren Building was entirely rebuilt, the fourth building on the original foundation and with the original walls.

1881—The College was forced to suspend on account of financial difficulties.

1893—The United States Congress indemnified the College partially for its losses in the Civil War.

1906—The property belonging to the College was transferred to the State of Virginia. Since 1906 the College has been under the direction of a Board of Visitors appointed by the Governor of Virginia.

1918—Women were admitted to the College by act of the General Assembly.

1919-1934—Fifteen new buildings were erected on the campus. Many new courses were added. The enrollment increased from 150 to 1,300 students.

1928-1932—The three earliest buildings of the College were restored to their original appearance through the generosity of John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

1943—With simple ceremonies, appropriate to wartime, the College, on February 8, celebrated its two hundred and fiftieth anniversary, inaugurated John Edwin Pomfret as its twenty-first president, and invested John Stewart Bryan as its fourth American chancellor.
PRIORITIES

In this day when "priorities" mean so much to a world at war, here are some interesting priorities to note about the College of William and Mary:

The first American college to receive a charter from the crown; this was dated 1693, under seal of the Privy Council.

The first and only American college to be granted a coat of arms from the Herald's College, 1694.

The first American college to have a full faculty of president, six professors, writing master, and usher.

The first medals awarded in America as collegiate prizes were those donated by Lord Botetourt, 1771.

The first Greek letter fraternity was founded at William and Mary on December 5, 1776. This fraternity, the Phi Beta Kappa, is the great honor society of the foremost institutions of learning in America.

The first honor system.

The first elective system of studies, 1779.

The first schools of Modern Languages and of Law were established in 1779, under the influence of Jefferson.

The first college to teach Political Economy was William and Mary in 1784.

The first school of History was founded here in 1803.
COLLEGE SONGS

Alma Mater

Hark, the students' voices swelling,
   Strong and true and clear,
Alma Mater's love are telling
   Ringing far and near.

CHORUS

William and Mary, loved of old,
   Hark, upon the gale
Hear the thunder of our chorus,
   Alma Mater—hail!

All thy sons are faithful to thee
   Through their college days,
Singing loud from hearts that love thee
   Alma Mater's praise.

Iron shod or golden sandaled
   Shall the years go by;
Still our hearts shall weave about thee
   Love that cannot die.

God, our Father, hear our voices,
   Listen to our cry,
Bless the college of our fathers,
   Let her never die!

J. S. Wilson, '02.
William and Mary Hymn

Beneath thy trees, within thy halls,
We come, dear school, with praise for thee,
To pledge ourselves, whate'er befalls—
To pledge unfailing loyalty.
Our hearts are with thee, dear William and Mary,
However far we stray.
Our noble college, hear us now—
Thy children sing to thee today!

Dear school, thou'rt old in years and fame,
And richly old in honors, too.
Time shall not dull the shining name
Whose gleam our songs will e'er renew.
And as years go by, dear William and Mary,
Thy fame will never cease,
But each new year rejoice to see
Thy children's praise to thee increase.

We honor thee, not for our gain
But to make known thy majesty,
Thy truth and courage that remain
However harsh the fates may be.
As through troubulous years, dear William and Mary,
Our country fought, so thou hast fought and won,
And lived to hear thy children singing to thee now.

O thou, our guardian and our guide,
Renew our courage every hour,
And keep thy spirit by our side
To aid us with its watchful power.
Throughout all our lives, dear William and Mary,
We pledge our loyalty.
Dear college, now and evermore thy children cry
"All Hail to Thee!"

Jeanne Rose, '33.

FOOTBALL SONGS

Fight, Fight, Fight for the Indians

Oh, we will fight, fight, fight for the Indians
When the Indian Team appears;
We will pull like hell for the Indians
When they hear our mighty cheers.
    Wah-Hoo-Wah!
We will circle the ends for the Indians,
And we'll romp right down the field—
Touchdown! Touchdown! Indians!
And —————————————————— line will surely yield.

Indian Warrior Song
Wa-Hoo

(Chorus)
Sing a song to our fighting men,
A song of victory
Sing along while they win again
For William and Mary.
The brave of the bravest, fleet and strong,
They're going to win, it won't take long, so
Sing a song and our praise renew
To our fighting men and Wa-Hoo
THE LIBRARY

The Library of the College contains about 185,000 catalogued volumes, and receives regularly 1,252 periodicals. Students are allowed to go freely to the stack rooms to select the books they need, or to browse at leisure.

The Library is open on week days from 8:00 a. m. until 10:00 p. m. except from 6:00-7:00 p. m. On Saturdays, it is closed after 6:00 p. m.; Sunday hours are 2:00-6:00 p. m. and 7:00-10:00 p. m.

Freshmen should become acquainted with The War Memorial Book Shelf and The Musical Records Collection. The first contains all recently published books of significance and the second a fine collection of recordings of classical music. Both collections were established by The Friends of the College of William and Mary for student use.

The principles of the Honor System are to be observed in the Library. The stealing of books from the Library is considered an offense similar to the theft of other property on the campus. Lying or any form of deceit in regard to the use of the reserved books or to the borrowing of books is considered an infraction of the Honor System and will be reported to the Honor Councils.

1. The Student Government of the College requires that a student in the Library rooms, should forbear unnecessary and loud talking, in order that he may not attract attention and disturb others.

2. All books borrowed from the Library except reserved books must be charged at the circulation desk.

3. A book may be kept out for two weeks, subject to a fine of two cents per day for every day over that time, if the book has not been renewed. If necessary, a book may be recalled by the librarian at any time.

4. Books which are on reserve may be borrowed from the Library at 9:00 p. m., to be returned by 9:15 a. m. the next morning. A fine of twenty-five cents for each book will be charged if it is not returned on time and an additional charge of five cents per hour until it is returned.

5. Books in the reference department must not be taken out of the building at any time.
6. Current numbers of periodicals may be borrowed from the Library between 9 p. m. and 10 p. m. to be returned by 9:15 a. m. the following morning. A fine of fifty cents will be charged on each periodical which is returned after 9:15 a. m. and ten cents per hour for each additional hour until it is returned to the periodical desk. Not more than three periodicals or three issues of a single periodical may be borrowed by one person overnight.

Mail is delivered to all fraternity and sorority houses. Students not residing in these buildings may either rent post office boxes or receive their mail at the General Delivery window. Mail addressed to those buildings having delivery service should be marked with the name of the dormitory. Lock boxes may be rented in advance by mail at seventy-five cents per quarter.

Lost and Found Office

The Lost and Found Office is located in the Office of the Registrar, 116 Marshall-Wythe Hall. Students are requested to turn in all articles found to this office where they may be identified and recovered by their owners.
The Wigwam

Text books, both new and used, and other student supplies may be obtained at The Wigwam. This store was established three years ago by the Board of Visitors for the use and convenience of the students. Net profits from The Wigwam and the Coca-Cola Concession are used for scholarships to students.

Student Emergency Loan Fund

Small sums of money, up to $10.00, may be borrowed at any time from the Work Study Office or from the Office of the Assistant Dean of Women. No interest is charged, but students should repay these loans as soon as possible in order that others may have the use of the money. Students having need of larger sums should consult the Auditor. The Student Emergency Loan Fund was established by The Friends of the College of William and Mary.
The College assumes that men and women of college age are able and willing to maintain standards of self-discipline appropriate to membership in a college community. Therefore, the College purposefully refrains from promulgating a rigid code of discipline. However, it reserves the right to take disciplinary measures compatible with its own best interests.

The discipline of the College is vested in the President by action of the Board of Visitors. Cases involving minor infractions of discipline are handled through the offices of the Dean of Men and the Dean of Women respectively. Serious infractions are considered by the Discipline Committee, which represents administration, faculty, and students.

Aside from cheating, lying, and stealing which fall under the Honor System, and infractions of the rules set down by the Women's Student Government Association and enforced by the Judicial Committee, the fundamental test for disciplinary action by the College authorities is whether the behavior complained of tends to throw discredit on the name of the College of William and Mary, or to manifest ungentlemanly conduct on the part of students.

Hazing or the subjection of a student to any form of humiliating treatment is forbidden. The hazing of students in a state supported institution is a violation of the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia. The College regards any evidence of the misuse of alcohol as a serious breach of accepted standards of deportment, and such abuse is punishable by probation or dismissal. By regulation of the Board of Visitors students are not allowed to have automobiles. Firearms may not be kept in the dormitories. They should be deposited in the office of the Dean of Men.

In general the College strongly disapproves of all forms of vandalism and disturbance. Students who deface property or destroy fixtures will be dealt with summarily. The defacement or destruction of state property is a violation of the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia. Students who through noisiness or other disturbance continually annoy their neighbors will be asked to withdraw.
Manners and behavior that would not be tolerated in the student's home cannot be tolerated in the classrooms, the dining halls, or the dormitories. The College highly approves of regular habits of living, and these include hours of rising and retiring that are compatible with regular classroom appointments and regular study habits. Long experience has shown a striking correlation between irregular and slovenly habits of living and lack of adequate performance in the classroom. Students are expected to keep their rooms reasonably clean and tidy at all times. It is important that the students' rooms be as presentable as the College grounds, the classrooms, and the dining halls.

Any undergraduate who marries without the full knowledge and consent of his or her parents will be required to withdraw. Such consent must be submitted to the College in writing by the parents prior to the marriage. Information concerning the regulations governing the admission and residence of married undergraduates may be obtained from the office of the Registrar.

Students are expected to be present at all their regularly scheduled classroom appointments. This rule applies especially to the periods just preceding and following the Thanksgiving, Christmas, and spring Holidays. Absence at such times interferes with the orderly progress of academic work and is contrary to collective interests of the College. Students who do not conform to the catalogue regulations respecting attendance at such times will be placed on Absence Probation. Students also who fail to meet a registration date will be placed under such probation. For a second offense a student will be required to withdraw from the College.

This regulation replaces the system of absence fines previously imposed. Attendance rules do not apply to students on the Dean's List.

Students desiring to have overnight guests in the dormitory, or sorority houses are required to make arrangements in advance and to register their guest at the office of the Assistant Dean of Women or Assistant Dean of Men, as the case may be.

The College reserves the right at any time to suspend or dismiss a student whose conduct or academic standing is in its judgment unsatisfactory.

Registration as a student of the College of William and Mary implies that the student will familiarize himself with these general regulations governing the conduct of students, and that he will abide by such regulations so long as he remains a student at the College.

TO THE CLASS OF 1948

No group of individuals can long exist without government in some measure. The adequacy of this government depends not so much on structure and form as it does on participation by the individuals in the group.

The Student Government of the College of William and Mary is yours. Just how well this body will function depends upon the activeness and seriousness of you.

You will become an integral part of the College, it is your second home, therefore the type of government to which you are subjected depends upon your part in shaping it.
Remember that your role is important. It is an obligation—discharge it well.

TO THE CLASS OF 1948 FROM THE JOINT HONOR COUNCILS

As new students on the campus of William and Mary this fall you will be introduced to many fine old traditions, the most cherished of which is the Honor System.

Inaugurated in 1779 this System has been proudly upheld by the students for 165 years. It is a system based entirely on the honor of each individual student, and is enforced by the students through the Men’s and Women’s Councils elected from and by the Student Body.

Upon entering William and Mary you are automatically a member of the Honor System. You will be instructed in the principles of the Code, and you will then be asked to sign a pledge stating that you understand it and promise to uphold it. This will bring new responsibilities and equally important privileges. For example, during examinations there are no proctors, and you are free to leave the examination room at any time.

Breaches of the Honor Code are stealing, cheating, lying, and failure to report an offense, and as such they are punishable by dismissal from College. It will therefore be your duty to become thoroughly acquainted with the Code, so that you may not violate it through ignorance, for violation causes injury to the character, the reputation, and the future of the student, and causes an equally grave lowering of the morale of the Student Body, which must always suffer by the disgrace of any of its members.

The success of the Honor System depends upon the support of each student. We are confident that you will share our respect for this System, and can be entrusted to continue the maintenance of its high ideals.

Sincerely yours,

SUNNY MANEWAL, Chairman,
Women’s Honor Council.

A WELCOME TO THE NEW STUDENTS FROM THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Women Students' Cooperative Government Association is happy to welcome the class of 1948 and all new students. Upon entrance, all women students become members of this organization, and we hope that you will feel, as we do, pride in its ideals, standards, and potentialities.

The association was organized because women students wanted a greater voice and responsibility in the conduct of their affairs. The aim was to make the college community a better and happier place in which to live. Women Students' Government still works toward this goal. The work of the organization is carried on by the three councils with the aid and advice of the Faculty and the Administration.

Since aims involving a large group cannot be accomplished without the cooperation of every member, each woman student, as a member, must assume a definite responsibility. We hope that each of you will realize the important role you have to play in Student Government and that you will have a real interest in the work of the Association. The greatest asset this organization can have is a student body with an appreciation of the ideals and principles of student government, with a genuine belief in its value; a student body with a sense of individual and group responsibility, and of personal dignity and integrity. We hope to find these qualities in you, who are now members and prospective leaders of the Women Students' Cooperative Government Association.

ELEANOR HARVEY,
President of the Executive Council.

A MESSAGE TO THE CLASS OF 1948 FROM THE JUDICIAL COMMITTEE

For the Judicial Committee I should like to extend a welcome to you as a new student of the College of William and Mary. It is of the greatest importance that you who are coming under its system of student government understand and abide by its rules. We of the Judicial Committee have as our function the interpretation of these rules and the responsibility of dealing with any violations of them.

But this is not our sole purpose. During each year the Committee makes a thorough study of the current regulations and suggests certain changes in them to meet changing conditions, to eliminate any undue restraint, and to clarify as far as possible the meaning of the rules. If approved by the administration, these revisions are voted upon by the students and are then embodied in the rulebook for the next year. The Judicial Committee in this way attempts to see that each rule has a clear reason for existence and that the regulations are made as simple and as fair as possible.

During your first week of college in the orientation period upperclassmen will conduct meetings for the purpose of explaining these social, house, and park regulations to you so that you may fully understand them. After passing an examination covering this material, you are then expected to conform not only to the letter, but to the spirit of these rules. It is only with the hearty cooperation of every woman student that the Judicial Committee can work successfully, and this can best be done if all students feel a real responsibility towards student government and see that others, as well as themselves, uphold the high standards of the college at all times.

Virginia Lee,
Chairman of the Judicial Committee.
Fraternities and Sororities

A WORD ABOUT GREEK LETTERS

Until May, 1943, there were eleven fraternities and nine sororities on the campus. At that time it was unanimously decided by the Fraternity Association, composed of representatives of all men's fraternities, to suspend all activities for the duration.

The sororities continue their rushing practices as before.

PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL MESSAGE

Dear Freshman,

I know you must be a bit bewildered, as we all were, as Freshmen, to be suddenly thrust into a confusing maze of Greek letters, rushing rules, and sorority lingo. Possibly you know more than I did when I arrived at W. and M., but perhaps with two years of experience behind me, I can probably help you a little by telling you what I have learned about sororities.

I didn't know, but perhaps you do, that sororities are groups of girls organized for the purpose of fostering a definite and lasting friendship and mutual service among their members. There are nine nationals here, that is, sororities with chapters at other colleges.

Including their pledges, the membership of these organizations ranges from 30 to 60 girls. New members are chosen mainly from among the newly enrolled women after a period of natural association and about 10 days of formal rushing—a system by which sororities become acquainted with the girls, and are, in turn, judged by the new students who accept their invitations. An invitation to a sorority comes unsought and is not applied for.

There will be free association for you with sorority women until formal rushing begins. This is so we can all get together for fun and good times, but it is not to be considered as a period expressly created for upperclass and underclass gals to get to know each other. College is for learning and, by the way, one of the chief aims of all the sororities is high scholarship. If at any time you have a visitor when you have to study, feel free to ask her to postpone her visit. And don't forget, the best way to get to know people on campus is through campus activities!

There are several terms you'll learn to use:

Active—A fraternity girl who has been regularly initiated.

Chapter—Greek letter names given to the individual groups of the national fraternity organization.

Pledge—Newly elected member of a fraternity who has not yet been initiated.

Rushing—The system by which fraternities select and pledge new members.

Silence Day—The day between preferentials and acceptance day when there is to be no correspondence, spoken or otherwise, between freshmen or transfers and sorority women. This day is to give you a chance to do some good hard thinking and actually make up your mind what you want to do.

Rushing during the week is informal, and it isn't necessary to change from your classroom clothes. For the Sunday and Monday parties it is customary to wear a hat and carry gloves. And always remember that in this job of selling yourself, neatness and genuineness are all-important. Be yourself. It is your self that fraternities are interested in. The sorority women realize that unless your likes and general personality fit in with theirs, neither you nor they will be happy in the group. If you disguise your personality before you join the organization, circumstances afterwards may be unhappy.

If you cannot accept an invitation to a house, do not fail to decline by telephone or by a note put in the boxes in Barrett Hall.

All of the recognized sororities on campus are members of the College Panhellenic Association and choose two of their members to represent them on the Panhellenic Council. The Council draws up the rushing code, sponsors the faculty reception, sponsors discussion groups and mass meetings, and mixers for freshmen, transfers, and sorority women.
Sorority life like family life is successful only when it is a mutual experience of “give and take”. Your good name and achievements will reflect favorably on your sorority just as its prestige will reflect on you. In the same way your shortcomings will discredit the organization.

Let me suggest to you that you read carefully this year’s rushing rules printed in the Indian Handbook. Sorority girls are required to know them backward and forward, and it’s an excellent idea for new girls to know them thoroughly too. Responsibility for adherence to these rules is partly yours too.

I think you’ll enjoy “rushing”, for it gives you such a good opportunity to meet many new upperclasswomen and freshmen. Maybe, in your visits to the various sororities, you’ll find one where you feel “at home”. But, on the other hand, you may find that although you have friends in most of the houses, no one of them really stands out in your mind as the one you want to join. You can have an extremely happy and a most successful college career without joining a sorority.

Just think it all over carefully before you choose a sorority. Make a special effort to know all the girls before you pledge, especially underclass girls, for they will be the ones you will live with. First impressions are often deceiving, and your decision may affect the four best years of your life.

Whether you decide to go sorority or not, may you have a very happy, eventful college life.

Sincerely,

Jan Mori,

PAN-HELLENIC RUSHING RULES
1944-1945

A. Free Association:

1. There shall be a free association of freshmen and transfers with sorority women until closed rushing begins, including orientation week. The following exceptions must be observed on or off campus:
   a. There is to be no sorority talk by any sorority woman. Information about each sorority will be found in the Indian Handbook, and short histories of each sorority will be available at the respective houses when formal rushing begins. Literature, publications, and periodicals of the sororities will also be available at all times in the College Library.
   b. Absolutely no money shall be spent on freshmen or transfers or gifts sent to them by sorority women; nor shall freshmen or transfers spend money on sorority women or send them gifts.
   c. No dates shall be arranged by sorority women for freshmen and transfers, or by freshmen and transfers for sorority women.
   d. There shall be no overnight visiting between freshmen or transfers and sorority women at any time.
   e. New women are not allowed in sorority houses until formal rushing begins, with the exception of open house on Sunday, September 24.

2. Town women will be under the same rules as all other freshmen, transfers, and sorority women.

3. Y. W. C. A. "big sisters" who are sorority women will be under the same restrictions as all other sorority women.

4. Alumnae shall be under the same restrictions as undergraduate sorority women in all cases.

5. Sorority women may wear their pins at all times.

6. The Pan-Hellenic Council will hold mass meetings for freshmen and transfers at intervals throughout the period of free association at which problems concerning rushing and rush rules will be freely discussed. Those interested are urged to attend.

7. The Pan-Hellenic Council will sponsor "mixers" for freshmen, transfers, and sorority women at intervals throughout the period of free association. All girls will be invited to attend at least one of the parties.

B. Pledging and Repledging:
   1. There shall be no pledging or bidding of any student, freshman, transfer, or old student, during the period beginning with the last day of class of the winter school session until the Pan-Hellenic pledge day terminating formal rushing in November.
   2. Repledging and the initiation of women may take place at any time, according to the discretion of the individual sorority.

C. Open House:
   1. In conjunction with the Freshman Orientation Program each sorority house shall be open to freshmen on Sunday, September 24. The purpose of this invitation is to create better feeling of understanding and democracy. No entertainment or refreshments may be provided.

D. Formal Rushing:
   1. Eligibility rules: No woman shall be rushed unless she has attained an average of .4 at the first mid-semester grading period she is in college, and .5 at every grading period thereafter. Old students of the College of William and Mary must have attained a .5 at their most recent grading period. At all times the student must have completed the required number of hours. Upon entering the college at any time a transfer cannot be rushed until she has been in the college for at least one marking period and has at that time received a .5 average.
   2. There shall be no association of freshmen and transfers with sorority women during the period termed closed rushing outside set rushing hours.
   3. There shall be no sorority talk during the period by any sorority member, patroness, or alumna. “Sewing up” at any time before the end of rushing is sorority talk. Scrapbooks and publications may be used without comment from the members in the sorority houses. Songs may be sung.
   4. Rushing shall be confined to the William and Mary campus. There shall be no driving of rushees in cars except of rushees not living in dormitories. These girls may be brought to and from dates at the sorority houses.
   5. There shall be no outside entertainment at either of the rushing parties or at the open house, and no men may attend either party or the open house, or be in evidence during any time when rushing is going on in the houses. No sorority may request men to rush for them.

6. There shall be no telephone messages or conversations of freshmen or transfers with sorority women during the period of closed rushing except concerning an invitation from a sorority.

7. The following program of rushing has been adopted by the Council for 1944-45:
   a. Rushing in the houses will begin on Monday, November 13, and is by invitation only. Dates for all girls shall be arranged by the council.
      (1) Monday, November 13, 4-6 P. M.—Invitations will be issued to those rushees whose last initials are A-H.

      (7) Tuesday, November 21—Silence day. Bids must be returned by 7 P. M.
      (8) Wednesday, November 22—Acceptance.

8. Expenditures:
   a. The Council has fixed fifty dollars as the maximum sum to be spent on rushing. This includes all food, favors, invitations, and any other expense incurred from the entertainment.
   b. The amount in excess of $10 in payment for the histories must be deducted from the $50 maximum.
   c. Note paper and cigarettes will not be deducted from the fifty dollars.

9. If a freshman or transfer cannot accept an invitation, she must notify the sorority inviting her upon receipt of the invitation. If she does not decline the invitation and does not go to the house, she will probably be dropped by that sorority. Decline by telephone or by note in each sorority box in Barrett Hall.

Athletics

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

All students are required to take physical education.

The physical education program is organized and conducted to give every student skilled instruction in a number of activities. The policy of the Department is to allow students the opportunity to select activities. Each activity is of eight weeks' duration. Special emphasis is placed on golf, swimming, and tennis, and students may take advanced work in these activities. Instruction is provided in the following activity courses: apparatus, badminton, basketball, boxing, dancing, fencing, touch football, golf, handball, individual activities, riding, softball, swimming, tennis, track and field, tumbling, volleyball, and wrestling. The men's program this year also included a program in commando gym.

Intramural Sports

Provision is made for participation in the following intramural sports: badminton, horseshoes, touch football, tennis, track and field athletics, boxing, wrestling, and swimming. Because of the body building, social, and character-forming values of competitive sport, every encouragement is made to have students enter into one or more forms of intramural athletics. Schedules are arranged for dormitory, fraternity, and independent competition.

Women's athletics are conducted at William and Mary with the aim of giving to every student an opportunity to participate in chosen activities. Intramural activities offer to all some form of competition and opportunity to win recognition for participation and skill. The awards open to all are the Intramural Emblem for representing organizations in intramural competition and the Honor Award for athletes who participate in a variety of sports both intramural and extramural.

During the war varsity athletics are limited. Honorary varsity awards are given in sports where the type of competition makes a choice feasible.
