College of William and Mary

1921-1922

Ninth Edition

COMMITTEE:
Irving H. White  Lynne B. Mead  Emily M. Hall
To the new student we extend our hearty welcome to the College of William and Mary. The session 1921-1922 marks the two hundred and twenty-ninth year of the usefulness of the college. The college is the heritage of the Nation. The college is an ancient seat of learning. The college is a hallowed spot dear to the hearts of all its alumni. The past of the College of William and Mary rests on a foundation firmly established by men who made the American Union. William and Mary is proud of her past. It rests with you, the new student, to make for William and Mary a future that will equal the past. We greet you upon your entrance at the College of William and Mary.

THE HONOR SYSTEM

The Honor System was inaugurated in America in 1779 at the College of William and Mary. From that day to the present time the system has been in successful operation at the college. The Honor System emphasizes two things in particular: First, that the student is answerable at all times under all circumstances for every one of his actions; and, second, that he must recognize his personal responsibility for the well-being of the college in every phase of life in which he touches her existence. But in order that the Honor System may function properly, two conditions are essential: first, there must be a communal sense of honor; and, second, there must be sufficient communal bravery to enforce the regulations of the student government organizations. The Honor System is a priceless jewel put into our keeping, the keeping of each single one of us, by men who knew no shadow of stain in thought or deed. Shall we not hand it on to those who come after us as pure and burning a flame as when it was kindled a hundred years ago, the first torch of its kind in the New World?
ALMA MATER

Hark! the students' voices swelling,
Strong and clear and true,
Alma Mater's love they're telling,
Ringing far and near.

CHORUS

William and Mary loved of old,
Hark, upon the gale,
Hear the thunder of our chorus,
Alma Mater—hail.

All thy sons are faithful to thee
Through their college days,
Singing out from hearts that love thee
Alma Mater's praise.

Iron shod and golden sandaled
Shall the years go by,—
Still our hearts shall weave about thee
Love that cannot die.

God, our Father, hear our voices,
Listen to our cry,
Bless the college of our boyhood,
Let her never die.

—J. S. Wilson, '02.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The College of William and Mary received its charter in 1693 from William and Mary, of England. The college is particularly proud of its colors, orange and white, which it derived from the sovereigns who granted its charter, orange for William of Orange, and white for Mary of York.

The College Bell

The clock in the tower of the main building strikes the hours and a warning bell is rung five minutes before each class. The bell is rung for all student meetings and chapel services. It is very important that each student find out why the bell is being rung, and if it is a meeting at which he is to be present, he should come promptly.

Meal Hours

Breakfast—8:00 a. m.
Lunch—1:15 p. m.
Dinner—6:30 p. m.

Library Hours

The library will be open daily from 9:00 a. m. to 10:00 p. m., except on Sundays. The library hours on Sunday will be from 2:00 p. m. to 6:00 p. m.

Bulletin Boards

A bulletin board will be found at the entrance of the main building, another inside at the entrance to the office, and special bulletin boards in the Women’s Dormitory Halls.
Text Books

Text books may be secured at the College Shop, located on Duke of Gloucester street, to the left at the entrance of the college campus.

Bible and Mission Study

A faculty instructor meets the Bible study volunteers once a week in a normal class. These students then serve as leaders in Bible study groups, meeting at such time and places as are most convenient for their groups. Bible study will be discussed more fully on pages 16 and 19.

Honor System

Of its many priorities, William and Mary is justly proud that the Honor System was first established at the college in 1779. The Honor System can only be sustained if every student knows just what it is. On page 46, the Honor System is discussed at length. A member of the Student Council will acquaint each new student at the time of registration with the purpose and the working of the Honor System.

Information Bureau

The Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. will maintain during the opening days of the session on the first floor of the main building a bureau of general information. New students wishing information should avail themselves of this service.
Employment Bureau

The Y: M. C. A. will maintain throughout the school session an employment bureau. This bureau will be instrumental in securing employment for those students desiring work while at college. On page 17 the working of the employment bureau is discussed at greater length.

DIRECTORY OF CHURCHES

Sunday school at Presbyterian church at 10:45 a.m., following the church services at 10:00 a.m.

Morning services at all but the Presbyterian church at 11:15 a.m. At Presbyterian church at 10:00 a.m.

Evening services at all churches at 8 p.m.

The pastors are as follows:

Episcopal (Bruton Parish) church—Rev. E. Ruffin Jones.

Remember there can be no Honor System without honor.
CAMPUS AND BUILDINGS

Main Building

The large ivy-covered building in the middle of the campus is the Main Building and lecture hall of the college. The original building was erected in 1694, having been designed by Sir Christopher Wren, the great English architect who designed St. Paul's Cathedral in London. This building has been burned three times but rebuilt on the same spot, using the same bricks.

Brafferton

On the front Campus to the left of the Main Building is the Brafferton, erected in 1723, and used as the first Indian school in America. The building was a gift from the estate of the famous English chemist, Hon. Robert Boyle, and was named in honor of his estate in Yorkshire, England. The building now contains the offices of the registrar, the college physician, the dean, and the students' publication office.

President's House

Across the campus from the Brafferton is the house in which the presidents of the college have lived since 1732. This house was used by Lord Cornwallis as his headquarters before his surrender at Yorktown in 1781, after which the house was occupied by French soldiers.
Lord Botetourt

In the center of the front campus stands the statue of Norborne Berkeley, Baron de Botetourt, who was one of the most beloved of the royal governors of Virginia.

Spotswood Cannon

Near the statue of Lord Botetourt stands an old cannon which was used at Fort Christanna, Brunswick county. This fort was established by Governor Spotswood in 1712 for the defense of the frontier against Indian attacks.

Science Hall

To the right of the Main Building is the Science Hall, which, though built in recent years, is to be replaced by a handsome new building when practicable.

Library

To the rear of the Science Hall is the library, which contains many treasures of Colonial history. The splendidly equipped building was made possible by the generosity of Andrew Carnegie and other friends of the college.

Gymnasium

To the left of the Main Building, in a position corresponding to that of the Science Hall, is the gymnasium for men. The women's gymnasium is in the basement of Jefferson Hall.
Jefferson Hall
Back of the gymnasium and fronting on the Jamestown road is the handsome new dormitory for women which has just been completed. In this building may be found the office of the Social Director of Women.

Ewell Dormitory
Across the Jamestown road from the Brafferton is the Ewell dormitory for men.

Taliaferro Dormitory
To the right of the Ewell is the Taliaferro, which is also a dormitory for men.

Practice House
To the right of the Taliaferro is a small frame building which is used as the Practice House in Home Economics.

Power House
To the rear of the Practice House and the Taliaferro Dormitory is the power plant which supplies heat, light and, water to all the college buildings. Here electric light bulbs may be obtained.

Dining Hall
To the rear of the Ewell and Taliaferro buildings is the college Dining Hall.

Deanery
On the left side of the Dining Hall is the house in which the manager of the boarding department and the dietitian live. This building is also used as a women's dormitory.

Tyler Hall

On the extreme corner of the left side of the campus is the women's dormitory known as Tyler Hall.

Tyler Annex

The women's temporary dormitory known as Tyler Annex is located to the rear of Tyler Hall on the left side of the Deanery.

Penniman Dormitory

To the rear of the Dining Hall is a temporary building used as a men's dormitory.

Scotland Street Dormitory

The only dormitory not located on the campus is the men's dormitory on Scotland street, about four blocks from the college.

Do not depend on any student officer to hold up your standard. You are responsible.

Work of the Y. M. C. A.
The work of the Y. M. C. A. is done in a broad, Christian, non-sectarian spirit with the end of bringing students into useful service for Jesus Christ and with a personal knowledge of the joy of His service, that they may thereby serve themselves, their fellow students, their college, and their country better.

The support of every student is necessary if the work of the Y. M. C. A. is to be effective. Every man must be willing and anxious to do his Christian duty.

Y. M. C. A. Meetings
One night each week the Y. M. C. A. will conduct a meeting in the recreation room in the gymnasion. The program of these meetings is religious discussions and devotion. In connection with these meetings, a number of short talks will be given during the year by members of the faculty and other available speakers.

Y. M. C. A. Recreation Room

On the second floor of the gymnasium for men is a large, well-lighted room for the exclusive use of the Y. M. C. A. This room is furnished comfortably for the use of the men students, with a victrola, chess and checker boards, current reading matter, etc. The Y. M. C. A. Recreation Room is open at all times and the men students are invited to make free use of it.

Y. M. C. A. Bible Study

As has been the custom for the past two years, the Y. M. C. A. will conduct Bible study classes. The instructors for these classes will be selected from members of the upper classes by the committee in charge of this work.

The instructors of these classes are required to attend a normal class once a week, which is taught by a faculty member, to enable them to conduct their classes properly.

The Bible classes are open to all men students and are held in the dormitories on such nights as are most convenient to the members. These classes meet an hour once a week for a period of eighteen weeks, and upon the satisfactory completion of the course, the student will be given one college credit.
In the past such a course has proved interesting and valuable to those who have taken advantage of it. It is hoped and heartily suggested that all students take part in this work.

For further information, consult any of the committee.

U. L. Fifer
Carter H. Harrison,

Employment Bureau

In connection with the information bureau, for the first few days, and independently throughout the year the Y. M. C. A. will conduct an Employment Bureau through its secretary for the benefit of students who desire self-help positions either temporarily or permanently throughout their college residence. A list of available positions will be kept and applicants directed to the sort of work they prefer. This work will be in and around town and on nearby farms. Students not already given employment through the college office, should register with this bureau, stating form and conditions of employment desired. The success of this service to the students will depend on the faithfulness of the students in fulfilling the work which they undertake. Only serious, persistent, dependable students who will hold themselves responsible for work attempted are desired as applicants. Any others would soon destroy the usefulness of the bureau.

Big Sisters
The Y. W. C. A. endeavors first of all to make all new girls feel at home and it does help when you are homesick and lonely to have a "big sister" to fall back on. Each new girl has an old girl to look out for her for several weeks after her arrival, to show her about, to initiate her into our college life; in fact, to be to her everything that a real sister could. And it is fun! One of the best parts of the Y. W. C. A.

Weekly Program Meetings
The regular weekly meetings of the Y. W. C. A. will be held every Wednesday night at 7 p. m. in the college chapel. Each program offered will be one of general interest to every college girl. Your support will determine the value of the Y. W. C. A. in student life at William and Mary.

Bulletin Board
Watch the Y. W. bulletin board for attractive posters, interesting events, and things a college girl ought to know!

Main board in Jefferson Hall.
Small board in Tyler Hall.

Bible Study
The Y. W. C. A. offers Bible study classes for small groups of students conducted by student leaders under the direction of a member of the faculty. The object of these classes is to develop:

First—A knowledge of the facts of the Bible.
Second—Its bearing on modern problems.
Third—Its value in the individual life.

The course consists of eighteen meetings during the session and either an examination or a written essay on some phase of the year's work. The student is given one college credit for the successful completion of the course.

The committee in charge will be glad to receive the names of all who want to take this course. Hand in your name to a member of the Bible Committee: Emily Hall, Virginia Thomson, Beverley Ruffin.

The Work of the Y. W. C. A.

The work of the Young Women's Christian Association at William and Mary is divided among several committees.

The committee which seems most important to girls who are just entering college is the membership committee. Its work begins when most work stops, right at the beginning of summer. All during the summer months the girls who are on this committee write to the girls who are just entering college. The new girls are urged to ask any questions they wish about the college, the rules, and so on. This committee also meets all the new girls at the train when they arrive, shows them around the campus, and helps them to make friends during their first days at college.

Then, there is the social committee which livens things up by giving little parties throughout the year, planning hikes, picnics, and all the outings which help girls to get together and make friends.

The more serious work of the Young Women's Christian Association is shown by the work in mission study and Bible classes. Last year a large number of students enrolled in the Bible class and worked with an earnestness worthy of their task.

The meetings committee has charge of all meetings of the association, religious or otherwise. The spiritual side of life, which is so apt to be neglected in the rush of a new life, is here cared for.

The Y. W. C. A. is not, however, only concerned with campus affairs. The social service committee does work in a large field. It works with the charitable organizations of the country to allay pain and suffering wherever they are found.

The Y. W. is an energetic and healthy-minded organization. In it you will find the girls who stand for something in college. Every girl is urged to take part in its work, and she will make no mistake if she does so as soon as she arrives.

CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

The students asked for a Student Activities Fee of $15.00 during the latter part of May, 1921, which, for purposes of administration, will be collected by the treasurer of the college and used as follows:

$5.00 for the Colonial Echo.

$3.00 for the Flat Hat.

$3.00 for the Literary Magazine.

$2.00 (Men) for the Y. M. C. A.

$2.00 (Women) for the Y. W. C. A.

$2.00 for the Literary Societies.
Each student will be entitled, without additional charge, to a copy of the Colonial Echo, a subscription to the Flat Hat and Literary Magazine, and membership in the Y. M. C. A. or Y. W. C. A., as the case may be, and to membership in the Literary Society which the student may choose.

The Colonial Echo

Robert C. Harper, Editor-in-Chief.
J. F. Wilson, Business Manager.
The Colonial Echo is the College Annual, giving an artistic presentation of the academic year, the classes, and events in all lines of activity.

The Flat Hat

William T. Christian, Editor-in-Chief.
P. W. Ackiss, Business Manager.
The Flat Hat is the college weekly newspaper, giving student life, news, and student opinion.

The Literary Magazine

Irving H. White, Editor-in-Chief.
R. G. Davis, Business Manager.
The Literary Magazine is published by the students and alumni of the college. The magazine is issued six times during the school session: The first day of October, November, December, March, April, and May.

Y. M. C. A.
The work and the aims of the Y. M. C. A. are discussed on page 15.
The work and the aims of the Y. W. C. A. are discussed on page 18.

Students' Handbook
It speaks for itself.

Literary Societies
The men students of the college have two literary societies, the Phoenix and the Philomathean. The women students also have two literary societies, the Whitehall and the J. Lesslie Hall.

These societies hold weekly meetings, having for their programs orations, declamations, and debates. Several joint contests between the men's and women's literary societies are held during the year.

The Annual Freshman Contest is held on the first Friday evening in December. This contest between the freshmen representatives of the Phoenix and Philomathean societies is a competition for a silver cup given to the society winning the most points in declamation, oration, and debate.

The Annual Celebration of the Phoenix and Philomathean Societies is held the first night of commencement. Each society is represented by a declaimer, an orator, and two debaters. Each of the winners is presented with a handsome medal.

The English Department of the college recognizes the literary society work and offers one credit in English for required attendance and literary society work. Each student is not only urged but is expected to join and attend regularly one of the literary societies. There is no greater accomplishment than the ability to deliver an eloquent and persuasive address.

The Inter-Collegiate Debate Council

The Debate Council under the auspices of the Philomathean and Phoenix societies arranges for a series of inter-collegiate debates with the leading colleges and universities.

The debating teams are chosen after two preliminary contests have been held, in which all students are eligible to participate. These contests are under the direction and supervision of the faculty representatives on the Debate Council.

The college offers no greater honor to her students than the honor of representing her in debate or oration. This is a much coveted honor and every new student should strive to attain such distinction. The literary societies give medals to all the debating teams.

State Oratorical Association

The State Oratorical Association, composed of representatives from all the colleges in Virginia, holds an annual contest. During the session 1921-1922, this contest will be held at Washington and Lee University. William and Mary anticipates a good representation at this contest.
DUC RULES—MEN

Every freshman shall wear a distinctive cap, commonly known as "duc hat." This rule does not apply on Sunday, while out of town, or during stormy weather.

Social hour for freshmen will be from four to six only; this rule does not apply to Saturday night dances or Sundays.

Every freshman will be required to attend all athletic rallies, athletic celebrations, and games on the home field; sickness the only exception.

No freshman shall sit at table ends in the dining hall, but freshmen shall be responsible for pouring water, tea and coffee.

All freshmen shall attend football practice once a week.

Freshmen shall know all college songs and yells by October 15.

Freshmen shall not remain on the porch of the College Shop for a period longer than two minutes.

Freshmen may smoke pipes only in their rooms.

Freshmen shall tip hats or caps to all professors.

Freshmen shall remain in the grandstand during games.
DUC RULES—WOMEN

All new girls must attend all athletic rallies, celebrations, games (on home field) and chapel.

No new girl shall sit at the end of a table, but shall serve all drinks such as tea, coffee, water, etc.

All new girls must attend at least one football practice a week.

All new girls must learn all college "yells" and songs by October 15; on that night they shall gather at a stated place, which will be known later.

All new girls must powder their faces in rooms only.

All new girls must remain in the grand stand during games.

For the first three days wear hair drawn back in very simple lines with no "rats," no "spit curls," and no puffs of any kind.

At tables, no new girl shall be seated until at least one upper classman is seated.

All new girls who can play on an instrument of any kind must do so when requested.

For the first two days new girls must carry an umbrella, or wear over shoes and a rain coat.

All new girls must not get up before 7:30 in the morning.

New girls must sit in the first rows of chapel and must lead the way wearing the expression of decorum expected of them at this time.

All new girls must step off the walk to let old girls pass.
DO’S FOR DUCS

Forget that you came from any particular preparatory school. You are a William and Mary student now.

Do all the good you can and keep the knowledge of it under your hat.

Take off your hat when “Alma Mater” is sung.

Be honest with yourself and always keep in mind that you are here for a life purpose.

Do all your work on week days; you need one rest day in every seven.

Do things in the right proportion; don’t be a “grind.”

Remember that the faculty members are your friends; upon request they will gladly give advice.

Be a mixer and a credit to the college.

Take part in student activities; action speaks louder than words.

Learn the songs and yells and join in the “rooting.”

Attend all contests on Cary Field. It is your duty.

Get out for some form of athletics and stick to it.

Remember that money does not buy time, so don’t waste either.

Keep your mind, body, and soul clean.

Remember that you will never “find” time for anything; if you want time, you must make it.

Remember that you will find true and noble friends, if you want them among both faculty and students.
ATHLETICS

When the new student has properly adjusted himself to his studies for the year, there is nothing to which he should determine his correct attitude sooner than to athletics. As an individual he should do two things: He should determine the best manner in which to keep himself physically fit, and he should strive to do everything in his power to contribute to maintaining what is known as college spirit. Without the proper college spirit college life is worthless.

The individual may contribute to this spirit by participating to his fullest capacity, whether a member of the first team or not, in the athletics of the college and by cultivating an ardent but correct attitude in his support of the teams representing the college, he should remember that by these teams and no less by the support given them, the college will inevitably be judged on the outside. He should remember that the college takes a just pride in its hard playing and winning teams. He should remember that the college takes a greater pride in the spirit which renders it unwilling to win at any price and in its reputation for teams composed of clean sportsman-like gentlemen. His every act should be based on a wish to increase this just pride and to enhance this reputation.
MASS ATHLETICS

Beginning with the 1919-1920 session there was introduced a system of mass athletics which has been adopted by all the leading colleges. Under this system it is possible for every student physically able to receive some form of physical training and education. This training is compulsory for all freshmen and may be required of all degree applicants who have not previously had such training. This applies to both men and women. There are courses arranged in the college for both men and women who desire to become physical directors in the public school system. Full details of these courses may be found in the college catalogue.

ATHLETIC MANAGEMENT

General supervision over athletics is exercised by the Faculty committee on Athletics. Direct control is in the hands of the Athletic Council of the Athletic Association. Every student by the payment of an athletic fee becomes a member of the Athletic Association. The officers of the association, president, vice-president, and secretary are elected by the members of the student body. These officers, together with the director of athletics and the managers of the football, baseball, basketball, track, and tennis teams, compose the Athletic Council. The Director of Athletics is James G. Driver. The football coach for the 1921 season is Mr. W. E. Fincher, of Georgia Tech. Members of the faculty assist the coaches where possible. The women have separate athletic organizations, which, however, are planned similar to those of the men students.

GAMES

Schedules of interesting inter-collegiate contests are arranged for all of the first teams representing the college and wherever possible for teams other than the first team.

The 1921 football schedule, as announced by Manager W. F. Young, is as follows:

Oct. 1—Virginia Polytechnic Institute, at Blacksburg.
Oct. 8—Trinity College, at Durham, N. C.
Oct. 15—George Washington University, at Norfolk.
Oct. 22—Wake Forest, at Norfolk.
Oct. 29—Randolph Macon College, at Williamsburg.
Nov. 5—Catholic University, at Newport News.
Nov. 12—Theological Seminary, at Williamsburg.
Nov. 24—Richmond University, at Richmond.

Be an active supporter of the Y. M. C. A. or Y. W. C. A.
RALLIES AND CELEBRATIONS

Every student should attend every game on the home field at least and as many others as possible, and not only attend, but attend and cheer. All new students are expected, in so far as possible, to attend all rallies and celebrations and learn and use the songs, cheers, and yells printed in this book. Rallies, celebrations, and bonfires raise the spirit and "pep" of both the team and the students. The songs, yells, and cheers should be learned, both words and the manner of rendering and used freely - on appropriate occasions.

Team, Team, Bully for Team
William and Mary, Rah!

6 Give 'Em the Axe
Give 'em the axe, axe, axe,
Give 'em the axe, axe, axe,
Where? Where? Where?
In the neck, neck, neck,
In the neck, neck, neck,
There! There! There!

32
What's the Matter With Our Team?
What's the matter with our team?
(Cheer leader).
They're all right. (Answer, students).
Who's all right?
Our team.
Who said so?
Everybody.
Who's everybody?
William and Mary.

We've Got Your Goat
We've got your goat, goat, goat,
We've got your goat, goat, goat,
Rah! Rah! Rah!
We've got your goat, goat, goat,
B-A-H.

Pep Born In Us
Tune: Old Time Religion
It's the pep born in us,
It's the pep born in us,
It's the pep born in us,
And it's good enough for us;
It will win for dear old Indians,
It will win for dear old Indians,
It will win for dear old Indians,
And it's good enough for us.

With a vevo, with a vevo, with a vevo,
vivo, vum.
Johnny get your rat trap bigger than a cat trap.
Boom! Get another one bigger than the other one.
Cannibal! Cannibal! Sis boom, Ah!
Indians! Indians! Rah Rah Rah!

Roll up the score—Oh William and Mary,
Roll up the score—Oh William and Mary,
Roll up the score—You have done it before.
You can do it some more,
So roll up the score—Oh! William and Mary.

Tinty, pinty—Punch and Judy,
Orange and black will do their duty.

11 Victory
Victory, Victory is our cry!
V—I—C—T—O—R—Y!
Are we in it? Well I guess,
William and Mary! Yes! Yes! Yes!

12 Boomalaca, boomalaca, bow, wow, wow,
Chicalaca, chicalaca, chow, chow, chow.
Boomalaca, chicalaca, who are we?
We’re the fellows of W. M. C.!

13 Oh! Indians; Oh! Indians, how you can fight,
Oh! Indians; Oh! Indians, with all your might,
You make my glad heart jump with joy;
And when you score I just can't keep still a minute.
Oh! Indians; Oh! Indians; please tell me why you fight them so,
You are not heavy it's true, but when we look at you
It's just: Oh Indians, Oh Indians, Oh!

14

(Tune: Bonny Blue Flag)

Three cheers for William and Mary,
We're going to win the game.
Three cheers for our football team,
Which wins for us our fame.
And here's to our Coach Driver
Who boldly takes his stand.
And here's to the orange and black,
The colors of our band.

Chorus

Hurrah, hurrah,
For the orange and black, hurrah,
Three cheers for our colors so dear,
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah.
(Yell the last line)

(To the tune of "Tramp, Tramp, the Boys are Marching")

Three times three for William and Mary,
Three times three for William and Mary;
On the gridiron we're the stuff,
And we never get enough;
If you are looking for a contest, so are we.
William Mary, you're the place for me,
William Mary, full of pep and glee.
Every time we see the dear old colors fly
We know the orange and the black will never die;
Old famous William Mary, you're the school for me;
In no other college would I be.
And we never will forget you
Or cease our praises of you,
Alma Mater, to thee we sing.

There was a college had a team,
Such a team as never was,
Whenever it plays it wins the game,
You bet your life it does!
You bet your life it does, my dear,
You bet your life it does,
It always wins the game, my dear,
O! William and Mary does!

Come, all you fellows on the football team, and fight, fight, fight,
All William and Mary's here to root for you, play with all your might,
What's the use of losing, you've licked them oft before,
So put all the pep you have into the game and score, score, score.
Win a Game
(To the tune of Jada)
Win a, win a, win a little game today,
Win a, win a, win a game and walk away,
'Taint no use to moan or cry,
'Taint no use to weep or sigh,
Cause we're gonna
Win a, win a, win a little game today.

Indian Song
(Tune: Carolina)

We're Indians born;
We're Indians bred;
And when we die
We're Indians dead.

Chorus
Ray! Ray! old Indians, Indians,
Ray! Ray! old Indians, Indians,
Ray! Ray! old Indians,
Ray!! Ray!! Ray!!

William and Mary's Pep is high;
We'll win this game today, or die.

Chorus

Orange and Black Are out today,
And with this game We'll walk away.

Chorus
21
William and Mary Is Going To Shine
William and Mary's going to shine, tonight,
William and Mary's going to shine;
William and Mary's going to shine, tonight,
William and Mary's going to shine, tonight,
When the Sun goes down,
And the moon comes up,
William and Mary's going to shine.

Poor Old Richmond
(Tune: Soloman Levi)
Poor Richmond College, you're up against it now,
We've got the hunch, you lack the punch,
So we will show you how.
We'll smash your line; we'll circle your end;
We'll smear up every play; we'll beat you back with our attack,
And win this game today.

Chorus
Poor old Richmond College, what are you going to do?
Poor old Richmond College, just wait 'till we get through.
So it's poor old Richmond College,
You're up against it now.
We'll Lick Them Again

We'll lick them again,
We'll lick them again,
We'll lick them all over,
And over again.

Chorus

Hallelujah, poor Spiders,
Hallelujah, Amen,
Hallelujah, poor Spiders,
We'll lick them again.

Poor Richmond College

Poor Richmond College will be buried in the ground,
Poor Richmond College will be buried in the ground,
Poor Richmond College will be buried in the ground.
While we go marching on.

Chorus

Glory be to William and Mary,
Glory be to William and Mary,
Glory be to William and Mary,
As we go marching on.

We'll hang the Spiders to the sour apple tree,
We'll hang the Spiders to the sour apple tree,
We'll hang the Spiders to the sour apple tree,
While we go marching on.

Chorus
25 Roll Up the Score, Boys
(Tramp, Tramp)
Roll, roll, roll up the score, boys,
You have got the punch and
Fight, Fight, Fight,
When the old ball game is over,
And the battle has been won
We'll celebrate our victory tonight.

Every student is individually responsible for the student government.

"Honor" is a relative term, but at William and Mary honor means the good and the true and the just.

The Honor System cannot live in dishonor. Set your standards high.

Student government means student honor.
CLUBS AND FRATERNITIES

There are various temporary, loosely organized clubs at the college. Of these clubs, the following territorial clubs are representative: Southwest, Northern Lights, Tidewater, Southside, Rappahannock, Newport News, Richmond, and Williamsburg. There are interest clubs, of which the following are representative: Doctors', Monogram, Brothers', Press, B. I. C., S. O. S., Cotillion, Oversea, and Pony. The women have four clubs: Alpha Club, Edith M. Baer Club, German Club, and Walking Sticks.

Of the various clubs, the Flat Hat Club is recognized as the greatest in point of service and seniority. This club represents some of the best literary ability among the faculty and students. Its primary purpose is to foster and maintain a high standard of literary work at the college.

There are many highly organized fraternities of social and honorary nature. Of the honorary fraternities, Phi Beta Kappa is the first and greatest, composed of eminent and distinguished scholars. Omicron Delta Kappa, an honorary fraternity of both undergraduates and graduates, was established at the college last year. A chapter of Tau Kappa Alpha, an honorary fraternity for orators and debaters, was also established at the college last year. Sigma Upsilon, a literary fraternity of honor, which had died out in recent years, was revived during the summer of 1921.

There are six social fraternities on the campus among the men: Sigma Phi Epsilon, Theta Delta Chi, Kappa Sigma, Pi Kappa Alpha, Kappa Alpha, and Phi Tau Beta (local).

There are five social sororities among the women: Gamma Omega, Chi Omega, Upsilon Delta Beta, Delta Phi Kappa, and Kappa Zeta.

At present there are three professional fraternities: Phi Alpha Zeta for ministerial students, the Alpha Kappa Psi for students of business and commerce, and Chi Beta Phi for students of science.

DRAMATIC CLUB

The William and Mary Dramatic Club, organized in 1920 after the successful production of “Lady Windermere’s Fan,” by the students under the direction of Dr. Cary F. Jacob, Professor of English, aims to promote the dramatic side of literary ability and for that line of endeavor is equally as important as the literary societies, intercollegiate contests, and college publications are in their respective lines. In the spring of 1921 the Dramatic Club presented “Nothing but the Truth” in Williamsburg and other cities. These productions have attracted wide-spread interest throughout the State. Opportunity is offered to every student who wishes to try out for a place in the plays. Those interested should see Dr. Jacob.

NOTED RESIDENCES

Blair House

The Blair House was the home of John Blair, Jr., associate justice of the United States. It is a long frame structure, one and a half stories high, with two entrances, situated on the Duke of Gloucester street.

Wythe House

The Wythe House is a square brick structure of two stories, situated on the east side of Palace Green, next to Bruton Parish Church yard. This was the home of George Wythe, signer of the Declaration of Independence, chancellor of Virginia, first professor of law in William and Mary College, and the designer of the beautiful seal of Virginia, as well as the seal of the chancery court. This house was also occupied by George Washington and Rochambeau during the Yorktown campaign.

Tucker House

The Tucker House was the home of St. George Tucker, step-father of John Randolph, of Roanoke, and second professor of law in the College of William and Mary. This house is situated on Nicholson street, near Palace Green.

Peyton Randolph House

The Peyton Randolph House is situated on the south side of Francis street in the eastern part of the town. This was the residence of Peyton Randolph, president of the first Continental Congress.

Bassett Hall

Bassett Hall, a beautiful residence, adjoining the Peyton Randolph lot, was formerly the property of Burwell Bassett, a nephew of Mrs. Washington. In the summer of 1804, Williamsburg had for its visitor the distinguished Irish poet, Thomas Moore, who was so impressed with the beautiful lawn of Bassett Hall that he was inspired to pen a few lines “To the Firefly.” In 1841 it was the residence of John Tyler, President of the United States.

Audrey House

The Audrey House, typical of an eighteen century structure, is located on the east side of Palace Green. This house was made famous by Mary Johnston as the residence of Audrey, in her novel of that name.

Site of the House of Burgesses

At the end of the Duke of Gloucester street opposite the college gate, is the site of the old House of Burgesses. It was here that Patrick Henry stirred the people of Williamsburg and the students of the College, among whom was Thomas Jefferson, with his eloquent, patriotic speeches.

Site of Governor’s Palace

Facing Palace Green on Duke of Gloucester street is the site of the Co-
Colonial Governor's Palace built in 1705 and burned following the surrender of Cornwallis. The "Mattey Grammar School," originally established in 1706, stands on this site at present.

Bruton Parish

Powder Horn

Opposite the court house is the old Powder Horn, built as a powder magazine by Governor Spotswood in 1714. From this magazine Governor Dunmore took the powder, April 20, 1775, precipitating revolutionary hostilities in Virginia.

Debtors' Prison

Debtors' Prison, situated on Nicholson street, was the prison in which were incarcerated the crew of the pirate Blackbeard and Governor-General Hamilton, the Detroit "scalp buyer."

Eastern State Hospital

On Francis street is found the Eastern State Hospital, the first Insane Asylum established in America (1768).

Raleigh Tavern

The site of the old Raleigh Tavern, now occupied by Lane & Christian's store, is on the Duke of Gloucester street. The tavern was burned in 1859.
Among her many priorities, William and Mary justly claims that of leading the way in formulation and the adoption of the Honor System. Early in the nineteenth century, in the days when no other idea of college government prevailed throughout America than that the student should be watched like a suspected criminal for offenses, either actual or potential, the faculty of William and Mary appointed a committee, whose head was the distinguished jurist, Beverley Tucker, to draw up a statement of the spirit and content of an honor system by which the conduct of the students of the old college was to be guided. At once put into operation, this system has continued in actual and successful working without interruption until the present day.

But glorious and inspiring as is the historical origin of the Honor System, it is with its operation now and in the future that the men and women of the new day at the old college are primarily concerned. In the first place, it is of vital importance that every new student, enrolling in September, should clearly understand what the Honor System really is and what it means in his life and in the corporate life of the College. Ignorance of it may bring the possibility—even the probability—of breaking it, and at once there follows a well nigh irreparable injury to the character; the reputation, and the future of the individual student and an equally grave lowering of the morale of the student body, for this must always suffer by the disgrace of any of its members. It is in this spirit that the present serious attempt is made to set forth, especially for the benefit of the new students, just what the Honor System is and what is required of each in order to translate it into his life.

The Honor System may be defined in a word as individual responsibility. It brings home to the individual man or woman who would stay at the noble old college and get the advantages she offers, his personal responsibility for her fair name and honor. It emphasizes two things: first, that the student must recognize that he is answerable in the very fullest degree for every one of his actions and dealings with the members of the faculty and with his fellows, in his or their rooms, in the dining halls, the athletic fields, the social centers, and in the class rooms; and, second, that he must recognize his personal responsibility for the well-being of the college in every phase of life in which he touches her existence.

Such phases, in the large, will at once suggest themselves to every one. They include, primarily, everything which touches the securing of aid, assistance, or profit in scholastic work of whatsoever kind, whether in term class work, periodical tests, or in the formal examinations, as well as in all work handed in to the instructor, though it is to be regretted that in the latter respect, students otherwise most sensitive to the Honor System do not seem to feel its demands so keenly as in regard to the others. A slight reflection, however, will convince one that work of this kind should also be included in the scope of the Honor System. It is a source of pride to all lovers of the college that public opinion of the students is now, and has always been, most healthy, vigorous, and uncompromising in its condemnation of all infractions of the Honor System falling under the heads just enumerated.

As to all offenses touching the taking of property which is not one's own, in any form, it goes without saying that these come most completely under the condemnation of the Honor System, and find swift and deserved punishment at the hands of the student body itself. It is gratifying to record that this form of dishonesty has not occurred at the college for many years.

Preamble to Constitution

Whereas, William and Mary has always stood for Truth, Honor and Gentlemanly Conduct, and still stands for them; and

Whereas, at William and Mary the Honor System had its beginning, and its spirit still prevails in such force that disorder and ungentlemanly conduct are not countenanced; and

Whereas, the present system of Student Government and application of the Honor System to college life at William and Mary is manifestly inadequate to the present and future needs of the college; and

Whereas, we believe that democratic student self-government emphasizing and based upon student honor, is both possible and desirable, but that its successful operation requires a high degree of active individual and group honor on the part of a large majority of the student body so governed and must be carefully safeguarded and prompted by wise selection of its officers and by the progressive education of students in the principles of student honor;

Therefore, we, the Student Council of the College of William and Mary, hereby submit the following constitution for the reorganization and re-enforcement of the student government and honor system in accordance with these principles:

PART I

Article I

The legislative, executive and judicial powers of this government shall be vested in a president and student council composed of seven members.

Article II

The members of the student council and the president shall be chosen as follows:

Section 1. Members at large. Not less than one month previous to the end of the academic year the student council shall elect seven men in their judgment best fitted to compose the succeeding council. The names of these men shall be announced, published and posted as nominees. Not less than one week after the announcement of these nominees has been made the student body shall select by secret, signed ballot, three of them as members at large of the student council for the following year.

Sec. 2. Class Members. Following the election of the members at large, each of the three lower classes shall meet and choose one representative.

Sec. 3. Choice of President and Council Chairman. When the above indicated six members have been elected they shall meet and choose one of their number for president of the student government and chairman of the council. They shall also select their other officers and organize for the following year’s work. This meeting shall take place not less than ten days previous to the end of the session and shall be called by the chairman of the existing council.

Sec. 4. Freshman Members. The following academic year, not less than two months after the organization of the freshman class, its members shall choose one of their number for membership of the Student Council.

Article II—Powers and Duties

Sec. 1. The student council shall adopt its own rules of procedure, elect its own officers and define their duties and keep its own records.

Sec. 2. The student council shall have general supervision and control over the student body. It shall be its duty to make laws and rules for the student body. It shall co-operate with the women’s student government and hold joint meetings with it for discussion and planning. It shall be its duty to try students accused of committing acts which reflect on the honor and well-being of the student body, particularly stealing or defrauding, gambling, drunkenness, cheating on examinations or other scholastic work, hazing and such other specific acts as from time to time may be added to this list by two-thirds vote of the student body and if the accused be found guilty, to determine what punishment shall be inflicted.

Sec. 3. The council shall have a regular meeting once each month, date to be decided by the council or the president.

Sec. 4. The student council shall sit at least once each term (date to be determined by a vote of itself) as a grand jury to investigate general student affairs, conduct, complaints and suggestions. Students and faculty shall be invited to attend these meetings and give views and suggestions.

Sec. 5. The conviction or punishment of any student shall require a two-thirds vote of the council. In case of a tie the president shall vote, but not otherwise. When the president so votes, four of the seven votes cast shall determine conviction or punishment. Punishment may extend to the expulsion of the offender from college, but in such case the decision shall be subject to appeal to the president of the college. In the consideration of a fraternity man or of a matter affecting any particular fraternity the members of that fraternity serving in the student council shall not have a vote, but their seats shall be temporarily filled by the choice of the council and the accused from the student body.

Sec. 6. All other powers and duties not herein provided for which may be necessary for the proper operation of the student government shall be exercised by the president thereof until further provisions have been made.

PART II
Student Supervision and Educational Training in Self-Government and Honor System

Article I—Education

The student council and president shall see that the meaning and responsibility of the student government and Honor System is presented to the students early in and throughout the college year by means of lectures, addresses, articles in the college publications and individual instruction of students and in other ways as may be convenient or necessary. Every student shall be made familiar with this constitution, its meaning and his duty in supporting it.

Article II—Supervision and Educational Training

The president shall, at his discretion, appoint, with the advice and consent of the council, committees for the supervision and educational training of students in proper student conduct and attitude. Members of such committees shall seek to affect the attitude and conduct of students by personal influence and advice, shall investigate the conduct of students on complaint of the other students or on their own initiative and shall recommend action on such investigations to the student council in case they are unable to effect desired changes by advice and instruction of offending students and shall carry out the orders of the council regarding punishment of such students.

Article III—Initiative, Referendum and Recall

Upon request of two members of the student council or petition signed by twenty-five men of the student body the president shall call a vote of the student body upon the enactment of specified new legislation or rules, the repeal of existing laws or rules, amendments to or changes in this constitution, the recall of the occupant of any student office or any other matter affecting the student government, with the exception of judicial decisions of the student council which are reviewable by the president of the college only.

In voting upon matters arising under this article, a two-third majority shall be required to take action on the subject of original petition.

Article IV—Student Offices

Sec. 1. Definition: Student offices shall include besides membership of the student council all those positions filled by students elected by vote of the students of this college acting as a student body, but shall not include offices filled by vote of organizations other than the student body.
Sec. 2. Nominations: All nominations for student offices shall be publicly announced and posted not less than one week previous to the date of elections which shall be similarly announced at least ten days in advance.

Sec. 3. Qualifications for Eligibility: No student who has been in this college for more than one term and who for the term in which elections are held and the one previous has not maintained passing grades on ten credit hours shall be eligible to any student office. No student in his first term in this College who has not maintained passing grades on ten credit hours for two months previous to the elections shall be eligible to any student office. Students who have failed to make such grades owing to enforced absence from classes shall be exempt from this qualification. Special students taking less than fifteen hours' work shall be required to make two-thirds of the work which they are taking in order to be eligible to any student office. The secretary of the student council shall obtain from the office records of the College at the end of every two months a list of men disqualified under this section, which list shall be consulted before voting on any nomination.

Article V—Miscellaneous

Sec. 1. Student Body. Definitions: The term student body as used in this constitution means those governed by the government hereby established, i. e.: the men students of the College of William and Mary.

Sec. 2. The jurisdiction of the student government shall extend over the students in and about Williamsburg within a radius of four miles and wherever they may be under the authority of this college or in the capacity or guise of students of William and Mary College.

Sec. 3. This constitution shall become operative immediately upon its ratification by two-thirds of the student body and shall supersede the former constitution.

Sec. 4. The provisions as to length of notice of nominations or of the time of elections shall not be operative for the first election which shall take place at any time called for by the president of the student council previous to June 5, 1920.

*Amendment I

To amend Sec. 2, Article III, Part I, taking the place of and superseding the last sentence of this section, the sentences preceding not being affected.

The supervision and control which the student council shall exercise shall be divided into: first, matters of honor, which shall include the following: Cheating on examination or other scholastic work, stealing or defrauding, breaking the pledged word. Every student is under the strictest obligations of honor not to drink any spirituous liquor during a period of twelve hours previous to any dance and ending at nine o'clock of the morning of the following day. Every student is honor bound to report at once to the Student Council any violation of this code of honor as defined in this section.

Second, matters of discipline. Matters of discipline shall include the following vices, namely, drinking, except in connection with dances as stated in part one of this amendment, gambling, hazing, destruction of property, and all disorderly and ungentlemanly conduct in the dormitories or on the campus. Discipline in regard to these vices shall be in the hands of the Student Council. All students are urged to recognize these vices as such and to co-operate with the Student Council in condemning and eradicating the same.

This amendment shall become operative twenty-four hours after having been adopted by the student body, provided for by Article Three of Part Two of the Constitution of the Student Government.

Agreement concerning government of the women students of the College of William and Mary:
To the Women's Student Government Organization is intrusted the enforcement of rules made by the authorities of the college and the power to legislate in all matters that do not fall under the direct jurisdiction of the said authorities.

The degree of power intrusted to the organization is dependent upon the efficiency of its members. If at any time the organization or any of its officers should fail to uphold the standards of the Constitution, the President of the College reserves the right, after investigation, to modify or revoke this grant of student government.
Constitution and By-Laws of the Women's Student Government Organization of the College of William and Mary

CONSTITUTION

Article I—Name
The name of the organization shall be the Women's Student Government Organization of the College of William and Mary.

Article II—Purpose
The purpose of this organization shall be to represent and to further the best interests of the women students, to regulate their conduct under the authority of the College, and to promote personal responsibility and a high sense of honor.

Article III—Membership
Upon matriculating, each woman student shall automatically become a member of this organization.

Article IV—Officers
Sec. 1. The official power of the organization shall be vested in a council composed of the president of the organization, the vice-president, a secretary, a treasurer, a representative from the freshman class, a town representative, and two student members.

Sec. 2. The officers of each dormitory shall be a house-president and two vice-house-presidents, who shall form the house committee; and as many proctors as the house-presidents shall deem necessary in their respective dormitories.

Article V—Meetings
Sec. 1. There shall be a meeting of the organization each month, the first of which meetings shall be within the first two weeks of the school year.
Sec. 2. Meetings shall be called at the discretion of the president or at the written request of the members of the organization.
Sec. 3. The council shall meet once a week, and at such other times as the discretion of the president shall dictate.

Article VI—Elections
Sec. 1. All the members of the council, except the freshman representative, shall be elected in April of each college year according to the provisions in the by-laws.
Sec. 2. All officers elected in April shall be installed on the first Wednesday in May and shall serve until their successors take office.
Sec. 3. The representative from the freshman class shall be elected annually by the freshman class in the third week in October. The council shall nominate two candidates for this office. Nominations by members of the class may be made at the time of the election.

Article VII—Duties
Sec. 1. It shall be the duty of the president of the organization:
1. To preside over all meetings of the organization and of the council.

2. To appoint all committees and their chairmen when not otherwise provided for.

3. To make necessary decisions in the intervals between meetings of the council and of the organization.

4. To call together all the new students within the first two weeks of the college year, and to explain to them the meaning and purpose of the Women's Student Government Organization, its rules, and the agreement between the organization and the college authorities.

5. To explain to the freshmen the election of their representative, and to conduct the said election in the third week in October.

6. To appoint, with the approval of the council, a substitute for the freshman representative until her election.

7. To fill temporary vacancies in the council.

8. To uphold the constitution and to exercise authority and supervision over all the other officials of the organization.

Sec. II. It shall be the duty of the vice-president:

1. To perform all the duties of the president in the absence of the latter, or at her request.

2. To act as chairman of the campus committee.

Sec. III. It shall be the duty of each house-president:
1. To supervise all conduct in her dormitory.
2. To exercise authority over vice-house-presidents and proctors.
3. To make decisions concerning house matters which do not require the attention of the house committee or council.
4. To represent the students of her dormitory before the council.
5. To call and to preside over meetings of the house committee.
6. To call the meetings of and to present to the students of her dormitory such questions as she may deem necessary for their welfare.
7. To keep a record of all cases of non-conformity to house regulations.
8. To appoint vice-house-presidents with the approval of the council.
9. To appoint and install proctors with the approval of the house committee.
10. To approve all social functions which require an exception to dormitory regulations.

Sec. IV. The duties of the vice-house-president shall be determined by the council.

Sec. V. It shall be the duty of the proctors to regulate quiet and order in their respective dormitories.

Sec. VI. It shall be the duty of the secretary:
1. To record and read the minutes of each meeting of the organization and of the council.
2. To keep a separate record of all resolutions concerning student government.

3. To keep a list of the members of the organization.

4. To keep a record of the officers of the organization and of the members composing all committees.

5. To post all necessary notices.

6. To report to the authorities of the college all amendments to the constitution or to the by-laws.

Sec. VII. It shall be the duty of the treasurer:

1. To collect all dues and fines of the organization.

2. To care for the funds of the organization, to pay all bills authorized by the council, and to spend the surplus moneys according to the will of the organization.

3. To present a report of finances to the organization in November and in May of each college year.

Sec. VIII. It shall be the duty of the town representative to bring before the council matters pertaining to the interests of the women students residing off the campus.

Sec. IX. It shall be the duty of the freshman representative to bring before the council matters pertaining to the interests of the freshman class.

Sec. X. It shall be the duty of the council:

1. To uphold the standards of the college and to make honor the basis of all procedure.
2. To make such regulations as are needful for the welfare of the women students.

3. To deal with infringements of rules or with dishonorable conduct on the part of any members of the organization.

4. To supervise the fire department according to the provisions made in the by-laws.

5. To represent the organization before the college authorities.

6. To act as guardian of the privilegee of self-government granted by the college authorities.

Article VIII—By-Laws

The qualifications, elections, dues, standing committees, fire department, and any other matters not contrary to this constitution shall be set forth in a body of by-laws.

Article IX—Amendments

An amendment may be made to this constitution by a two-thirds vote of all the members of the organization, provided the amendment has been posted on the bulletin board in each dormitory at least two weeks before the regular meeting, and provided the said amendment has been approved by the college authorities.
BY-LAWS

Article I—Qualifications

Sec. 1. The president shall be, at the time of her election, a member of the sophomore or of the junior class, in full academic standing.

Sec. II. The vice-president and each house-president shall have the same qualifications as the president.

Sec. III. The secretary and the treasurer shall be at the time of their election, freshmen in full academic standing.

Article II—Election of Officers

Sec. I. All voting shall be by secret ballot and every member of the women’s student government organization of the College of William and Mary is eligible to vote for all officers except where otherwise designated.

Sec. II. The president shall be nominated by secret ballot. The three nominees receiving the largest number of votes shall be voted upon for president.

Sec. III. The house-president for each dormitory shall be elected by the students residing in that dormitory. This election shall be held after the election of regular officers of the council. Each house-president shall be ex-officio a member of the council.

Sec. IV. The spring election of officers shall be in the following order: (1) President, (2) Vice-President, (3) Secretary, (4) Treasurer, (5) Two student members. After these elections the town students will hold a meeting and elect a town representative, and the students of each dormitory will hold separate meetings and elect their respective house-presidents.

Article III—Pledges

Sec. I. Each officer of the organization shall take the following pledge:

I hereby pledge myself to promote in this college the highest ideals of honor, both in my personal conduct and by fulfilling to the best of my ability the duties of my office.

Sec. II. Every woman student shall at the beginning of each college year take the following honor pledge:

I hereby promise upon my word of honor:

1. To uphold the constitution and the regulations of the Women's Student Government Organization, and,

2. To report myself to a member of the student council, if at any time I fail to abide by the regulations of this organization.

Article IV—Dues

Sec. 1. Each member of the organization shall pay at the time of her matriculation a fee of one dollar.

Sec. II. A fine of fifty cents shall be imposed upon any member who fails to attend a regular meeting of the organization. The only excuses which will be accepted are illness or absence from the city upon due authority of the college.
Article V—Standing Committees

Sec. I. Social Committee.

1. The social committee shall be composed of the president of the organization, the president of the Y. W. C. A., the president of the German Club, and the president of the Pan-Hellenic Council.

2. The duty of the social committee shall be to report to the council the social conditions of the college and social needs therein.

Sec. II. Campus Committee.

1. The campus committee shall be chosen by the vice-president after her election in April.

2. It shall be the duty of the campus committee to supervise all conduct on the campus, and to report to the council campus conditions.

Sec. III. House Committees.

1. The house committee for each dormitory shall be composed of the house president and two vice-house-presidents. The vice-house-presidents shall be chosen in April by the house-president-elect with the approval of the council then in office.

2. It shall be the duty of each house-committee to regulate problems in its dormitory not requiring the attention of the council.
Article VI—Fire Department

Sec. I. In each dormitory there shall be organized fire drills.

Sec. II. The fire chief and a captain for each dormitory shall be appointed by the council at the beginning of each college year.

Sec. III. All other necessary officers shall be appointed by the chief and the captains.

Article VII—Amendments

An amendment to these by-laws may be made by a two-thirds vote of all the members of the organization, provided the said amendment has been posted on the bulletin board in each dormitory at least three days before the meeting of the organization.

Lives of great men do more than remind us that we can make our lives count for more than we imagine, for they give us the principles of conduct and action which we may and should follow in order to make our own lives worth while.

Franklin the printer, philosopher and diplomat said: "Save, young man, and become respectable and respected."

The big men of the future will be picked from the money savers of today, which suggests the importance of a savings account to the young man who desires to acquire a cash capital and "become respectable and respected."
