GREETINGS

To the Class of 1930:

To you we extend a most hearty welcome to the College of William and Mary, the college which is to be your Alma Mater, and which is now beginning its two hundred thirty-fourth year of successful and fruitful existence.

In entering a college with such a noble past, successful present, and brilliant future, you can but be inspired to make a success of your stay here.

Resolve at the very beginning to be conscientious in your studies, to enter all forms of student activities, and above all, to lead a good Christian life. Put your best in everything which you do.

If you follow these few suggestions, at the end of your four years here you will be a graduate of whom the college will be duly proud.

Again we wish to greet you, and we hope that you will soon feel perfectly at home, and will catch the old William and Mary Spirit.
ALMA MATER

Hark, the student's voices swelling,
Strong and true and clear,
Alma Mater's love they're telling,
Ringing far and near.

Chorus
William and Mary, loved of old,
Hark, upon the gale,
Hear the thunder of our chorus,
Alma Mater—hail.

All thy sons are faithful to thee
Through their college days,
Singing out from hearts that love thee
Alma Mater's praise.

Iron shod and golden sandaled
Shall the years go by,
Still our hearts shall weave about thee
Love that cannot die.

God, our Father, hear our voices,
Listen to our cry.
Bless the college of our boyhood,
Let her never die.

—J. S. Wilson, '02.

PRESIDENT J. A. C. CHANDLER
GREETINGS FROM THE PRESIDENT

You are about to take upon yourselves the obligations of students of the College of William and Mary for the session 1926-1927. In the name of the Board of Visitors and the Faculty, I extend to you a cordial greeting and most earnestly hope that your stay at the College will be pleasant and profitable. Some of you have had the privilege of being students in former years, others are entering college for the first time. To all I extend best wishes for a most pleasant session.

May I, at this time, call to your mind a basic fact that should govern you in your student life? Scholastic attainment, accompanied by happiness and contentment, is the fundamental ideal of every student. Only by consistent work from day to day and by conduct for which no excuses have to be offered will you reach this goal. For two hundred and thirty-three years this college has been in existence and its great ideal during all that time has been to train its students in "good letters and manners" (to quote its ancient charter), so that they would be qualified to render the highest type of service. In the name of the Faculty I assure you that our ideal is to maintain the traditional honor of the college and to that end we beg of you hearty cooperation.

May we work together as one unit in a spirit of friendship and loyalty to the great purpose for which this college was established. In your student career may God grant you success, thereby giving you happiness and enabling you to add to the sum total of good in the world.

J. A. C. CHANDLER.
THE HONOR SYSTEM AT THE COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY

Among her many priorities, William and Mary justly claims that of leading the way in formulation and the adoption of the Honor System. It was inaugurated here in 1779. Early in college days when no other idea of college government prevailed throughout America than that the student should be watched like a suspected criminal for offenses, either actual or potential, the faculty of William and Mary appointed a committee, whose head was the distinguished jurist, Beverly Tucker, to draw up a statement of the spirit and content of an honor system by which the conduct of the students of the old college was to be guided. At once put into operation, this system has continued in actual and successful working without interruption until the present day.

But glorious and inspiring as is the historical origin of the Honor System, it is with its operation now and in the future that the men and women of the new day at the old college are primarily concerned. In the first place, it is of vital importance that every new student enrolling in September, should clearly understand what the Honor System really is and what it means in his life and in the corporate life of the college. Ignorance of it may bring the possibility—even the probability of breaking it, and at once there follows a well nigh irreparable injury to the character, the reputation, and the future of the individual student and an equally grave lowering of the morale of the student body, for this must always suffer by the disgrace of any of its members. It is in this spirit that the present serious attempt is made to set forth, especially for the benefit of the new students, just what the Honor System is and what is required of each in order to translate it into his life. The Honor System may be defined in a word as individual responsibility. It brings home to the individual man or woman who would stay at the noble old college and get the advantages she offers, his personal responsibility for her fair name and honor. It emphasizes two things; first, that the student must recognize that he is answerable in the very fullest degree for every one of his actions and dealings with the members of the faculty and with his fellows, in his or their rooms, in the dining halls, the athletic fields, the social centers, and in the class rooms, and second, that he must recognize his personal responsibility for the well-being of the college in every phase of life in which he touches her existence.

Such phases, in the large, will at once suggest themselves to every one. They include, primarily, everything which touches the securing of aid, assistance, or profit in scholastic work of whatsoever kind, whether in term class work, periodical tests, or in the work handed in to the instructor, though it is to be regretted that in the formal examinations, as well as in all latter respect, students otherwise most sensitive to the Honor System do not seem to feel its demands so keenly as in regard to the others. A slight reflection, however, will convince one that work of this kind should also be included in the scope of the Honor System. It is a source of pride to all lovers of the college that public opinion of the students is now, and has always been, most healthy, vigorous, and uncompromising in its condemnation of all infractions of the Honor System falling under the heads just enumerated.

As to all offenses touching the taking of property which is not one's own, in any form, it goes without saying that these come most completely under the condemnation of the Honor System, and find swift and deserved punishment at the hands of the student body itself.
To the Students of the College of William and Mary:

In order that there may be a thorough understanding of the Honor System as it is interpreted and applied in the College of William and Mary in Virginia, the following statement is set forth:

Our entrance into the College places upon each one of us the responsibility of maintaining the Honor System and of rigidly living up to its requirements ourselves. It is therefore necessary that there should be a complete understanding of just what the System is.

The Honor System is the very foundation of student life in the College of William and Mary. This must be understood by every student at the outset. The Honor System is not merely a name nor is it a convenient means of escaping spying by the Faculty. The College of William and Mary has the distinction of having first originated and introduced the Honor System into American collegiate life, the System having been established here in 1779, and has been in continued existence here ever since. The Honor System has always been and must be maintained as the working principle of student life and as the indispensable expression of the spirit of the College of William and Mary. The Honor System simply requires that a student should act honorably, no more, no less.

As applied to scholastic work the following interpretations of the Honor System are set forth by the Student Honor Council.

1. All scholastic work, whether it be in the lecture room, the library, the student's room, or elsewhere, is under the Honor System. All cheating, whether in work pledged or unpledged, whether in tests, assignments, or examinations is a violation of the Honor System. Giving aid to any student or receiving aid from any student, without the consent of the professor, in tests, assignments, or examinations, is cheating.

2. All written tests and examinations given in the classroom will require a formal pledge.

3. For any forms of scholastic work other than written examinations and tests in which the professor desires the use of a pledge the professor or instructor will prescribe the form of pledge to be used and will make clear the scope of the pledge and the responsibility of the individual under the pledge.

4. The pledge is required not for the purpose of creating the obligation, but to remind the student of the obligation already existing under the Honor System.

Originally the Honor System was limited in its scope and application to dishonorable practices in the classroom and to cheating on examinations and quizzes, but it has since been extended to cover the wider phases of student life. If any student is detected in doing a distinctly dishonorable act and is found guilty by the Honor Council, he must leave the College of William and Mary immediately.

For willfully breaking pledges, such as athletic or drinking pledges, for being drunk at pledged dances, for willfully cashing worthless checks, for cheating under any circumstances, for obtaining money under false pretenses, for stealing and for willfully lying, and for other similar dishonorable practices, students will be subject to the discipline of the Honor Council.

The Honor System is supported and handled by the students themselves and they are wholly responsible for it. Violations of the Honor Code are reported, not to the Faculty, but to the Student Honor Council. The duty of the students to uphold this System must be clearly recognized. It is the duty of every student to report to the Honor Council when he sees another student in suspicious circumstances. Loyalty to the student body demands it. This is not spying or tale-bearing, for the Honor Committee are the representatives of the students themselves. They are not a separate body from the students, as the faculty would be. Any one, therefore, believing that a breach of the Honor System has been committed, shall request such person to report to the Honor Council and confess. In case the student fails to do this then the student shall be reported to the Honor Council, but no student will make any accusation involving the violation of the Honor System to any other person or persons than to the Honor Council. Upon report being made to the Honor Council a thorough investigation shall be made.

If, after hearing the explanation of the student accused, or after he has refused to make explanation, the Honor Council is convinced of the student's guilt, the Honor Council of the student body shall thereupon demand that he leave College at once.

Reread this article carefully and keep it for reference. The System will be explained by representatives of the Honor Council in all classes at the opening of the College. We ask you to help make it perfectly clear that in the College of William and Mary in Virginia there is not place for the liar, the thief, or the cheat.

It is a William and Mary custom that when passing a man on the street you greet him whether you know him or not. The phrase "Gentlemen," and a smile with it go a long way to increasing the spirit of co-operation among the students. Above all don’t be snobbish, nothing makes against a man any more than snobbishness. "Smile and the world smiles with you, frown and you frown alone."

GENERAL INFORMATION

The College of William and Mary received its charter in 1693 from William and Mary, Sovereigns of England. Its colors, of which it is particularly proud, were also derived from these sovereigns who granted its charter, orange for William of Orange, and white for Mary of York. William and Mary is the only American college to be granted a coat of arms from the Herald’s College of England.

The College Bell

The college bell sounds a warning five minutes before the meeting of each class. The bell is rung also for all student meetings and chapel services. It is important that each student should find out why the bell is being rung, and if there is a meeting at which he should be present, he should go at once. There is little excuse for lateness.

What To Learn

1. Learn to laugh. A good laugh is better than medicine.

2. Learn how to tell a helpful story. A well-told story is as welcome as a sunbeam in a sick-room.

3. Learn to keep your troubles to yourself. The world is too busy to linger over your ills and sorrows.

4. Learn to stop croaking. If you cannot see any good in this world, keep the bad to yourself.

5. Learn to greet your friends with a smile. They carry too many frowns in their own hearts to be bothered with any of yours.—St. Paul Rotary.

GIBBONS CLUB

Herbert Ganter, President
Confronted with the absence of a Catholic Church in town, and realizing the need of some place where Catholic students could gather together and express their devotion to God, there was organized in 1923, by the Catholic students in college, the Gibbons Club. The purpose of this club is to help, in its way, the Catholic students worship God. It is the purpose of this club to hold mass every two weeks of the college year. The time and place of meetings and mass are posted in time for every one to attend. All Catholic students are urged to be present.
Main Building

The large ivy-covered building in the center of the campus is the Main Building and lecture hall of the college. The original building was erected in 1694, having been designed by Sir Christopher Wren, the great English architect who designed St. Paul’s Cathedral in London. This building has been burned three times but rebuilt each time on the same spot, for the most part on the same foundation and walls.

Brafferton

The second oldest building at the college is the Brafferton, located on the front campus to the left of the Main Building. It was built in 1723 and was used as the first Indian school in America. The Brafferton was a gift from the estate of the famous English chemist, Honorable Robert Boyle, and was named after his estate in Yorkshire, England. The building now contains the offices of the dean, the registrar, the secretary of the alumni, the college President, and the treasurer.

President’s House

Across the campus and facing the Brafferton, is the house in which the presidents of the college have lived since 1732. This house was used by Lord Cornwallis as his headquarters before his surrender at Yorktown in 1781, after which the house was occupied by French soldiers. While thus occupied the house was accidentally burned, but was restored from the personal funds of King Louis XVI.
Lord Botetourt

In the center of the front campus stands the statue of Norborne Berkley, Baron de Botetourt, who was one of the most beloved of the royal governors of Virginia. This is the first statue in America to be erected by an act of a General Assembly.

Spotswood Cannon

Near the statue of Lord Botetourt stands an old cannon which was used at Fort Christina, Brunswick county. This fort was established by Governor Spotswood in 1712 for the defense of the frontier against Indian attacks.

Science Hall

To the right of the Main Building is the Science Hall in which are located the physics, home economics and philosophy and psychology departments, the biological laboratories and lecture rooms.

Chemistry Building

Situated to the rear of the Main Building is a temporary, tin structure known as the Chemistry Building. All chemical laboratories and lecture rooms are located in this building.

Library

To the rear of the Science Hall is the library, which contains many treasures of colonial history. The splendidly equipped building was made possible by the generosity of Andrew Carnegie and other friends of the college. The building has been recently enlarged by funds from the Carnegie Foundation.
Citizenship Building

The old gymnasium to the left of the Main Building has been converted into class rooms. In this building are housed the Marshall-Wythe school of Government and Citizenship, the School of Law, the School of Economics and Business Administration, and the Department of Journalism. The "Flat Hat" and "Colonial Echo" offices are also in this building.

Jefferson Hall

Fronting on Jamestown Road and back of the old gymnasium is situated the handsome new dormitory for women. In this building is located the offices of the Social Director of Women, the women's swimming pool and gymnasium, social rooms and rooms for 150 women.

Gymnasium

To the left of Monroe Hall is the George Preston Blow Memorial Gymnasium for men, which was completed last spring. The building is fully equipped with basketball courts, handball courts, swimming pool, etc. The Monogram Club Trophy Room and the Y. M. C. A. Room are in this building.

Monroe Hall

Fronting on the Richmond Road and back of the library is the handsome new dormitory for men which was just completed last fall a year ago. It is a modern fire proof structure built along plans of Jefferson Hall. It contains memorials to many distinguished alumni and has accommodations for 168 men.
Practice House

To the rear of the President's house on the Richmond Road is an attractive residence which is used for a practice house in Home Economics.

Ewell Dormitory

Across the Jamestown Road from the Brafferton Building is the Ewell Dormitory and Annex for men.

Taliaferro Dormitory

To the right of Ewell is Taliaferro, also used as a men's dormitory. Taliaferro was built with funds appropriated by Congress in payment of damages done the college by Federal soldiers in the War Between the States.

Infirmary

To the right of the Taliaferro is a two-story frame building which is the men's infirmary and dispensary for medicines. The women's infirmary is located in room seven, first floor, of Jefferson Hall.

Power Plant

To the rear of the infirmary is the power plant which supplies heat, light, and water to all the college buildings. Electric light bulbs may be secured there.

Dining Hall

The Dining Hall of the college is situated to the rear of the Taliaferro and Ewell Dormitories. This building has just been remodelled and greatly enlarged. It is one of the finest buildings of its kind in the south.
Phi Beta Kappa Building

The Phi Beta Kappa Building which is located directly behind the Citizenship Building will be completed this year. It will supply the much needed auditorium for the college. It will also contain a replica of the Apollo Room in Raleigh Tavern, and guests' rooms for visiting members of the fraternity.

Deanery

On the left side of the Dining Hall is the house formerly occupied by the Dean, now used as a women's dormitory and office and residence of the Dean of Women.

Tyler Hall

On the corner of the left front campus is the women's dormitory known as Tyler Hall.

Tyler Annex

To the rear of Tyler Hall and on the left of the Deanery is a temporary dormitory for women known as Tyler Annex.

Located on Boundary Street, not far from the campus, are two temporary dormitories, the one on the left for men and the one on the right for women. The Institute is another men's dormitory located about four blocks from the campus on Scotland Street.

Plans for two new dormitories are under way, and work has already been begun on the John Barton Rogers Science Hall.

REPORT OF THE JOINT COMMITTEE FOR THE INVESTIGATION OF CONDITIONS PERTAINING TO SCHOOL SPIRIT AND SUGGESTIONS FOR THEIR REMEDY

The committee feels that the only way to remedy this condition is to inculcate into every student in the institution a feeling of respect for the college and its ideals. This can only be done by impressing on the newcomer the fact that William and Mary is an institution worthy of his most profound respect. To carry out such a plan the belief of every student in the College must be assumed and the cooperation of every student is therefore presumed in the drafting of this plan.

I.

General College Spirit

For the purposes of administration the College is to be divided into brother classes, the Sophomore and Senior and the Freshman and Junior classes working together. However, the Seniors must be recognized as the College leaders and must assume responsibility for the preservation of the system both as to administration and as to traditions.

Before the beginning of the year (in September) each Junior will be assigned a proportionate number of Freshmen so that every one of the new men will be assigned to some one who shall look after him for the first few days. This position will be fiduciary and binding as such. The first Monday night after the return to College a reception is to be held for the whole College. This shall be under the auspices of the Seniors as represented on the Council to be hereinafter provided.
program is to be prepared to consist of talks by the president of the student body, the president of the College, prominent alumni, and others. Athletic cards, such as boxing matches, gymnastic exhibitions, and other attractive forms of entertainment are to be provided and the evening may be concluded if time and space permit with a dance. Each Junior shall bring to this reception his Freshmen and see that they are introduced to the other students.

Occasional athletic rallies and stunt nights should be held, as for example on every other Monday night all under the direction of the Senior Council.

II. Class Spirit

Interclass contests between the Freshmen and the Sophomores should be held and should be refereed by the members of the Senior Council. Each of these classes should adopt a pennant. A certain number of points should be assigned to each of the contests to be hereinafter provided and the class scoring the highest number of points should be allowed to fly its pennant in the Colonial Echo or wherever else it may appear aright. The other class should always be forced to fly its pennant inverted. The suggested series of contests are:

1. In their respective seasons, a game each of baseball, basketball, football, and a track meet.

2. The second Saturday after the return in September a tug o' war across one of the shallower parts of the Lake, by a team of one hundred men from each class. Every member (male) of the losing class must pass through the lake.

3. The second Saturday after the return for the second semester a mud or flour rush up some hill, the whole Sophomore class defending the summit and the whole Freshman class trying to displace them.

4. On the day set for the discarding of duc caps as the ducs leave the Chapel a cap rush, the members of the Sophomore class trying to get from the ducs their caps. If at the end of ten minutes the Sophomores are in possession of a majority of the caps the caps shall be burned with considerable notice to the Freshmen that they have lost their caps; if the ducs retain a majority of their caps they shall gain possession of them as a memo that they defeated the Sophomores.

For these events the following points should be awarded:

(1) For the games two points each,
(2) For the rushes one point each.

Some method of recognizing the Seniors must be developed. This may consist of the wearing of a pin, such as a replica of the College seal in gold on the lapel or the adoption of class colors by all three of the upper classes and the wearing of the colors worked into a necktie.

III.

Freshman Discipline

There is to be a Sophomore court with a name something like "The Tomahawk." It will be composed of seven members, one of whom shall be chairman. The members of the court shall be elected by the members of the preceding court from among the members of the Freshman class at the end of their Freshman year. It shall be composed of the men who best typify William and Mary's traditions. The body will be self perpetuating.

There is to be also a Senior Court of review to be composed of nine men, with the president of the student body and ex-officio member acting as chairman. This council will be a court of appeals and a directing body for all matters pertaining to college spirit. Either the defendant or the Sophomore court may appeal a case to this court, who shall be charged with the duty of meting out justice on equitable terms and with seeing that no irregularities are permitted. The court must of necessity be composed of men of absolute trustworthy character, knowledge of the college’s traditions, and a sense of justice and propriety.

Freshman discipline shall consist of the application of the duc rules and the overseeing of the Freshmen so that they maintain proper attitudes of respect for the College, upperclassmen, and professors. It is superfluous to add that the upperclassmen shall respect the traditions as well as the Freshmen.

The duc rules shall be:

1. All Freshmen shall wear a regulation cap. This cap shall be made of alternating colors of gold and silver with a small green visor. The letters “W M” shall appear on the cap in contrasting colors to the background. This cap can be bought only from the Monogram Club and no other cap or hat may be worn except that described above. The cap shall be worn at all times except Sundays and holidays. On these days Freshmen may wear caps or hats but they shall not go bareheaded. Duc caps shall be worn inside at basketball games and all dances except private and formals.

2. All Freshmen shall wear a standard four-in-hand bright green tie. This shall be worn on every day except Sundays and holidays.

3. Freshmen must stay on the sidewalks at all times when on the campus. Old men have no power or authority to take ducs across the campus with them.
4. Freshmen shall attend all class meetings, all general meetings of the Student Body, all rallies, all celebrations, and all home games. No Freshman shall participate in deliberations of any of these meetings except the class meetings until called upon.

5. Freshmen must stay in the grandstands, bleachers, or other place set apart for them during the entire game and they shall not attend athletic contests with co-eds.

6. Freshmen shall use no tobacco on the campus and shall carry at all times matches for the convenience of the upper-classmen.

7. All Freshmen shall attend the Supreme Court to be held at a time and place designated by the Senior Class. Freshmen shall attend all other courts upon due notice.

8. All Freshmen shall learn the College songs and yells before the second Tuesday in October, and they may be called upon at any time to illustrate compliance with this rule.

9. All the foregoing rules shall be in force until the first Friday in May, at which time the cap rush will be held.

10. No men shall wear belts and monograms of other schools or of high schools. This is forbidden by a ruling of the William and Mary Monogram Club.

11. Men entering William and Mary at the beginning of the second semester shall wear duc caps and go by the foregoing rules until the end of the College year. Attending the previous summer school shall not constitute an excuse for the disobedience of this rule.

12. Men entering from other institutions who have attended the other school for at least one year shall be allowed the privileges of old men until abused, except that they shall wear hats at all times until the night of May 1. Men from other schools who do not have enough credits to entitle them to a Sophomore standing, unless they have attended the other school for a period of one year, shall be rated as ducis.

13. Freshmen must tip their caps or hats to Seniors and professors whenever they meet them on the campus. Seniority in the Student Body shall be respected at all times, and due respect shall be at all times exhibited towards the members of the faculty.

14. For violations of these rules the offender shall be reported to or apprehended by the Sophomore Court and shall be tried by them in accordance with recognized rules of procedure. As hereinbefore provided, appeal shall lie to either party to the Senior Court. The punishments inflicted shall not conflict with the rules of the College.

Enforcement

The Sophomore Court is empowered to inflict as punishment for violations of the duc rules, or for any other breach over which they have jurisdiction, punishment to consist of:

1. Ludicrous wearing apparel,
2. Appropriate public performances such as solos, or speeches at athletic contests or in other places,
3. Necessary menial duties for the good of the College at large,
4. Harmless horse play.

All performances are to be within the bounds of propriety as to be determined by the Senior Council. In the case of a recalcitrant duc the Council may publish his name on a black list.

All decisions and actions shall be viewable by the Senior Council.
DO'S FOR DUCS

Forget that you came from any particular preparatory school. You are a William and Mary student now.

Do all the good you can and keep the knowledge of it under your hat.

Take off your hat when "Alma Mater" is sung.

Be honest with yourself and always keep in mind that you are here for a life purpose.

Do all your work on week days; you need one rest day in every seven.

Do things in the right proportion; don't be a "grind."

Remember that the faculty members are your friends; upon request they will gladly give advice.

Be a mixer and a credit to the college.

Take part in student activities; action speaks louder than words.

Learn the songs and yells and join in the "rooting."

Attend all contests on Cary Field. It is your duty.

Get out for some form of athletics and stick to it.

Remember that money does not buy time, so don't waste either.

Keep your mind, body, and soul clean.

Remember that you will never "find" time for anything; if you want time, you must make it.

Remember that you will find true and noble friends, if you want them, among both faculty and students.
During the latter part of May, 1921, the students asked for a student Activities Fee, to which the faculty and the Board of Visitors consented. For purpose of administration it will be collected by the treasurer of the college, and by vote of the students is divided as follows:

9-27 to the Colonial Echo.
5-27 to the Flat Hat.
5-27 to the Literary Magazine.
4-27 to the Y. M. C. A. or the Y. W. C. A., as the case may be.
4-27 to the literary societies.

The fee is $6.75 per term.

In addition, the Men's Literary Societies give one-half of their fees to athletics and the Women's Literary Societies give one-fourth of their fees to athletics.

Each student will be entitled without extra charge to a copy of the Colonial Echo, a subscription to the Flat Hat and the Literary Magazine, to membership in the Y. W. C. A. or Y. M. C. A., as the case may be, and to membership in the literary society of his choice; and all women are entitled to active membership and vote in the Women's Student Government Association.

The Colonial Echo

James Barnes, Editor-in-Chief
Anthony Britton, Business Manager

The Colonial Echo is the college annual, giving an artistic presentation of the academic year, the classes, and events in all phases of activity. It is a handsome and valuable souvenir of the college and of the year's life on the campus.
The Flat Hat
Carl Andrews, Editor-in-Chief
Cotton Rawls, Business Manager

The Flat Hat is the weekly newspaper of the college. It consists of eight pages and is issued every Friday. The Flat Hat gives an account of student life, news, opinions, and events.

The Literary Magazine
Frank Hopkins, Editor-in-Chief
Cotton Rawls, Business Manager

The Literary Magazine is issued six times a year by the students and alumni. The dates of issue are: the first day of October, November, December, March, April, and May. Valuable prizes are given by the Literary Magazines for the best essays, poems, and short stories published.

Students' Handbook

This is it.

Literary Societies

The men students of the college have two literary societies, the Phoenix and the Philomathean. The women students also have two literary societies, the Whitehall and the J. Leslie Hall.

These societies hold weekly meetings in their respective halls, having for their main programmes orations, declamations, and debates. This year the professor of public speaking will coach the members of the societies in developing a high standard of literary work.

In December of each year the Phoenix and Philomathean Societies hold a Freshman Contest. The contest is for the possession of a banner given to the society winning the most points in declamation, oration, reading, and debate. The men who win their points in this contest are presented with gold medals. Winner last year, Philomathean.
The Annual Celebration of the Phoenix and Philomathean Societies is held the first night of commencement. Each society is represented by an orator, a declaimer, and two debaters. It is a high honor to appear in this contest and the winners are presented with handsome medals. Winner last year, Philomathean.

The work of the societies has been of such a satisfactory nature that the college offers one credit for good attendance and literary work. Each student is urged and expected to join a literary society and attend its meetings regularly. There is no greater accomplishment than the ability to deliver an eloquent and powerful address.

State Oratorical Association

The State Oratorical Association is composed of the eight leading colleges of Virginia. Every year in May it holds an annual contest. The winner of first place is presented with a handsome fifty dollar gold medal; however, the college gives its representative a fine medal even though he does not win first honors.

Inter-Collegiate Debate Council

The Inter-Collegiate Debate Council elected by and from the four literary societies, arranges a series of inter-collegiate debates with leading colleges and universities in the East and South.

The debating teams are chosen after two preliminary contests have been held in which all students are eligible to participate. It has been the policy of the Council for men to debate against men's colleges, and for the women to meet with women's colleges. The college offers no higher honor than that of representing her in debate or oration. This is a much coveted honor, and one for which every new student, and every old student should work. Handsome medals are given to the men who represent the college in the debates.
During the past session the college entered two debates; both resulted in a tie. This record, not so good upon its face, is nevertheless an incentive to strive for greater success. Inter-collegiate debating is in a process of development and, it is expected, that with the establishment of a department of public speaking the debating standards will be greatly raised. During the past year William and Mary was represented by Messrs. Mars- ton, Adams, Andrews, Elliott, and Born.

Dramatics

With the beginning of this year, dramatics at this college will assume a position of greater prominence than heretofore.

The presentation of dramas and other plays will be under the supervision and direction of a dramatic committee. With the existence of this committee it is believed that the production of plays will be greatly enhanced.

The college has recently become a member of the Peninsular Dramatic League. The formation of this league has tended to promote dramatics in the cities nearby. Membership in this league will enable the college to present its productions in the cities that are members of this league.

Dr. Montgomery, who as a play producer, is recognized to be inferior to none, urges that all students possessing any stage talent present themselves to the Dramatic Committee. Dr. Montgomery produces to the satisfaction of his audience a popular classic play every spring.

Minstrels

The William and Mary "Minstrel Night" is a glad night in Williamsburg. Under the able leadership of "Snuck" Elliott, last year's show was the best seen in Williamsburg for some time. The show is produced every year for the benefit of the Monogram Club.
Freshman year is not a period of triumph or reward, but of preparation. As such, it is the most important of the four. Build your foundation solid. A reputation for ability to take responsibility and to do conscientious work will last throughout college and help you later.

Make sure of your curriculum work. Do not, however, become one-sided. A well-rounded education is not acquired from books alone. Try for every team or a managership. You have nothing to lose, but everything to gain. Your contact with the coaches and athletes is a course in itself.

Do not allow any pressing fraternity invitation to force you to make a hasty decision. Although most pledges are made during the autumn quarter, men are always invited to join fraternities later in their course. Belonging to a fraternity will not make you of any more importance to the college.

Attend as many College Dances as you can financially stand. A good College Dance is a long cherished memory.

Do not let a new environment upset too quickly the ideals you bring with you.

Attend all your class meetings.

In your attitude toward others be natural and sincere. Reserve and deference toward upper classmen show an appreciation of College precedents, but cringing servility is a self-evident sham.

Editor of the Handbook

The Young Men’s Christian Association is an organization of the students, administered by the students, and existing solely for the students of the college. Throughout the years, the sons of William and Mary who are devoted to the cause of humanity and unselfish service have been affiliated with this association.

The OBJECT of the Association is to create a fellowship of students vitally interested in the highest meanings of life, and thereby to develop the highest type of Christian character in the men who are to represent the College, and to influence them to devote themselves to the Christianizing of all relationships. The Association aims to be the expression of practical Christianity. It is for those who believe not in knowledge for the sake of knowledge alone but for what it can do in creating deep moral convictions of right and personal standards of worth.
MEMBERSHIP in the Association may be either active or associate. Every man who pays his regular student activities fee, of which one dollar each semester is given to the work of the Association, becomes a member. Those who go farther and sign the "active members' declaration card," signifying their desire to cooperate actively in the promotion of the local program, become active members with the right to vote and hold office. All others become associate members with all other privileges, except those above stated. Membership cards are given each one at the beginning of the year.

In the VARIOUS ACTIVITIES of the organization, every man can find something to suit his natural interests. The work is departmentalized and placed under the direction of the various committees named above. Here is opportunity for every man to realize the call of some altruistic motive.

EXTENSION. This part of the Association's work should appeal to men who are interested in Boys' Club work, in deputation work in the neighboring towns, work with Boy Scouts and Hi-Y clubs, and in other expressions of practical social service. This part of our work is just being developed and it promises to become the largest interest in the Association. This last year a class was conducted under Prof. Faithful and Mr. Tucker Jones in Boy leadership, and work was begun with the Scouts of the local high school. The task is to be enlarged to include work with boys in the whole vicinity, social service in the local community, deputations to nearby churches, coaching of teams in small high schools. There are numerous opportunities to serve if there are men who are willing for it.

SOCIAL. The Association aims to provide social entertainment which otherwise would not be provided for the students.
The little informal parties in the "Y" room for this and that group have made many students feel more at home in the college. The Freshman Reception for both men and women is an annual affair, held the first week of the year. On Sunday afternoon, frequently teas are held under various auspices, and to which hundreds of the studes and co-eds come. Other parties are held at intervals throughout the year, and the "Y" room becomes the social center for an ever increasing group of men. The Annual Banquet for all the active members of the Association is held at the end of March. Anything in a social way in which the organization can serve the students, is the thing she seeks to do.

The "Y" Room itself, located in the Blow Memorial Gymnasium, is a gift of Mrs. George Preston Blow, of Yorktown. It is by her kindness that we not only possess the room but have it most attractively furnished and carpeted. There is further provided games, magazines and a new Orthophonic Victrola, all at the free disposal of the students. The latest books on the moral and religious problems of our day, and especially on those relating to student life, are there. Here is a place you can spend your leisure hours in quiet, and profitably.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION. Believing the students desire to keep abreast in the movements of thought on all serious problems of the day, an ever increasing program of religious education is being prepared. Men of fame out in the world such as Dr. Robert E. Speer, Dr. J. Stitt Wilson, Dr. Allyn K. Foster, and Dr. W. Taliaferro Thompson were among our speakers at special meetings the past year. Regularly on Wednesday night, the "Fireside" meetings are held at which men of affairs from nearby cities, our professors of the college, and often students themselves speak. This is the only regular voluntary religious meeting for and by students on the campus. It is short, informal, as thoroughly interesting as possible. Besides this, last year a series of five lectures on the "Problems of Religion," was conducted by various members of the faculty, under the auspices of the Association, in the "Y" Room Sunday afternoons. There was a total of fifty-nine religious meetings, regular and special, of various kinds throughout the year. The total number of students who attended these meetings was approximately 3,950. This does not include the compulsory chapel attendance, only volunteer student meetings.

The Association recognized the great value of the study of the fundamental truths of the Bible in the light of modern perplexing problems. Opportunities are therefore offered each one for voluntary study in such matters. Often the "bull sessions" will be utilized, and informal groups that gather regularly can profitably spend time in serious consideration of life. We urge men to especially consider attendance at the Sunday morning Bible Classes in the four local churches and in the Young People Societies. Groups for the close study of various problems will be formed as interest about them develops during the year. Such subjects as "Choosing a Vocation," "Prayer," "Science and Religion," "The New Social Gospel," etcetera are always of vital concern to many men. Some of these are the subjects chosen by the Sunday Bible Class teachers. The classes of Dr. Geiger, Prof. Krebs, Dr. Goodwin, and Mr. Waller will always be of a high and stimulating character. A Young People's Interdenominational Committee sees to it that a fine spirit of cooperation is brought about among the Young People's Societies of the four churches. Those who were active in their home churches in this work are urged to ally themselves with it here. Early in the year, socials are held for the new students under these auspices, and twice a year there is a union meeting of all groups for a general service of worship. The Association believes, also, that the finest and highest development in life at college age can come through worship of God. The local church services are for all who desire to grow in that way.

In GENERAL, the Association seeks to serve the students in every way that they are not being served. In the office of the General Secretary (which is to be on the first floor of Monroe Hall this year) are kept files, with the home and school address of students, their denominational preference, etc. Freshmen especially will find the office a good source for general information. A Student Aid Bureau, aiming to find students work, and a second hand book depot, are just getting under way. At the beginning of each semester, the Freshmen are met at the station and helped with their trunks and shown their rooms. The Freshman Committee also tries to find volunteer tutors for those first year men who are having difficulty with their studies. Any further information about the work of the Association can be had from the general office of the Association in the first floor parlor of Monroe Hall.

Purpose of the Y. W. C. A.

The purpose of the Young Women's Christian Association is:

To lead students to faith in God through Jesus Christ.

To lead them into membership and service in the Christian Church.

To promote their growth in Christian faith and character, especially through the study of the Bible.

To influence them to devote themselves, in united effort with all Christians, to making the will of Christ effective in human society, and to extending the Kingdom of God throughout the world.

At the biennial meeting of the National Student Assembly held in New York City in May, 1924, the following was adopted as the national objective for all Student Associations; for the next two years:

“We unite in the determination to live unreservedly Jesus' law of love in every relationship and so to know God.”

Membership in the Y. W. C. A.

Every girl who matriculates at William and Mary has the privilege of becoming a member of the Y. W. C. A. providing she is in sympathy with its purpose and declares her acceptance in the following words:
"It is my purpose to live as a true follower of the Lord Jesus Christ."

The paying of a fee through the Student Activities Fee, which is collected by the college treasurer, does not constitute membership therefor. This fee is paid by every girl and so is regarded as a contribution to the support of the Association, unless the membership declaration is made, in which case the fee is really a membership fee.

The certificate of membership entitles a girl to vote in all Association proceedings at William and Mary and to the privileges of any student or city association of the National Board of the Young Women's Christian Association of the United States.

By her membership in the Y. W. C. A. a student also becomes a member of the World's Student Christian Federation, which is composed of many student movements of forty different countries of the world.

Employment Bureau

Girls desiring to do sewing, stenographic work, coaching, and the like have the opportunity of securing work through the Y. W. C. A.'s Employment Bureau.

"Big Sister" Plan

The Y. W. C. A. has organized a "Big Sister" plan on the campus, whereby the big sister is responsible for the little sister in every way. The upper classman as a big sister is always ready and willing to help her little sister at all times. The new year girl must not feel any hesitancy in calling upon her big sister for anything.
Meetings

On the first and third Wednesday nights of every month there will be a regular, interesting program for the entire membership of the Y. W. C. A. in the College Chapel. On the other Wednesday nights there will be committee meeting. Every girl who belongs to the "Y" will be a member of one of the committees. At the beginning of the year each girl will be given the opportunity to join the committee in whose work she is most interested.

Watch the Y. W. C. A. bulletin boards for attractive posters, interesting events, and things you ought to know;

Main board in Jefferson Hall.
Notices are posted in every other dormitory and the Main Building.

Devotionals

Morning Watch under auspices of Y. W. C. A. is held in Chapel every Friday morning at 7:35 o'clock. The Y. W. C. A. also conducts vesper services in each dormitory one night a week. Every Tuesday afternoon during the winter in the Chapel from 5:30 to 6:00 o'clock is a vesper service at which time soft music is played, candles are lighted and girls may come in to listen and to meditate. Not a word is spoken during the entire time.

Blue Ridge Conference

BLUE RIDGE: What happy memories that name brings to everyone that has ever been there. Ten lovely days on the mountain tops of North Carolina. Here in June of each year gather several hundreds of college girls from all over the South in order to work and play together. There is real inspiration to be gained from thinking out problems together, singing together, and making new friendships.

52
William and Mary has as many representatives as possible attending the conference in order that they might bring back to the Association a broader outlook and a wider knowledge of the work and purpose of Y. W. C. A. The delegates for 1926 were:

Ruth Yeamans
Minnie Rob Phaup
Elizabeth Lam
Eugenia Portlock
Mary Via
Phyllis Logan

Information Bureau

During the first few days of the college session the Y. W. C. A. will conduct an information bureau in the hall of the Main Building. The object of this bureau is to serve the new student in any way possible. If the girl in charge cannot give you the desired information, she will gladly find out about it for you.
FOLLOW THE GLEAM

To the knights in the days of old
Keeping watch on the mountain heights
Came a vision of Holy Grail
And a voice thru the waiting night.

Follow, follow, follow the gleam,
Banners unfurled, o'er all the world;
Follow, follow, follow the gleam
Of the chalice that is the Grail.

(3)
And he who would serve the King
And loyally Him obey,
In the consecrate silence know
That the challenge still holds today.

(4)
Follow, follow, follow the gleam,
Standards of worth, o'er all the earth,
Follow, follow, follow the gleam
Of the light that shall bring the dawn.

CLUBS AND FRATERNITIES

Clubs

The new student will soon find after entering William and Mary that there are numerous loosely organized clubs on the campus. There are a number of territorial clubs of which the following are representative: Southwest, Eastern Shore, Rappahannock, Norfolk, Newport News, Richmond, Petersburg, Toano, and Williamsburg. Others with a little more definite aim in view are: Flat Hat Club, 7 Club, Cotillion, 13 Club, B. B. Club, Lox Quixotescos, Wythe Law Club, Chess Club, Gibbons Club, Glee Club, Monogram Club, and Biology Club. The women's clubs are: Alpha Club, Edith Baer Club, German Club, K. O. B., H2E, G. G. G., Monogram Club, Women's Glee Club, and New Voters' League.

Of the various clubs, the Flat Hat Club is recognized as the greatest in point of service and seniority. This club represents some of the best literary ability among the faculty and students. Its primary purpose is to foster and maintain a high standard of literary work at the college.

Fraternities

The American Greek letter fraternity system originated at William and Mary in 1776 with the founding of Phi Beta Kappa (now honorary). The Greek letter fraternities are national organizations represented by local chapters in the various colleges and universities. Their purpose is fraternal, and as secret brotherhoods they seek to ally men of one type—men who are congenial, and who, by close association, will mutually benefit one another. The chapters own or rent houses, in which many of the members live.

Because the aim of the fraternity is to bring together in close bond of brotherhood such men who have similar tastes, talents, or ambitions, it must necessarily follow that none can join except on invitation by the members. If an invitation is extended you, do not decide hastily. You will be no better or worse for having declined or accepted an invitation. A fraternity may be a distinct help or it may be a hindrance. It will not raise you to sudden eminence among your fellows; the best it can do is to inspire you to greater endeavors, manliness, and higher achievements. There is a possibility of mutual helpfulness in the intimate association of like-minded men, but be sure to retain your individuality. Before joining be certain you understand the following facts: First, the character, reputation, and ideals of the national organization; second, the object and general purpose or policy of the local chapter; third, the character of the men in the local chapter, and fourth, the dues, assessments, room rent, initiation fee, etc.

Do not allow your membership to interfere with your personal ideals. Do not place your fraternity before the college that is to become your Alma Mater. If you narrow your college life to an intimacy with none but your fraternity brothers, you will lose much of the best that the life at William and Mary holds for you. You will find that some of your warmest friends will be made among non-fraternity men. Be broad and generous, non-partisan, and democratic.

There are highly organized fraternities of social and honorary nature at William and Mary. Of the honorary fraternities, Phi Beta Kappa is the first and the greatest. It was the first fraternity established in America and is composed of eminent and distinguished scholars. Other honor fraternities are Omicron Delta Kappa, composed of both graduates and undergraduates; Tau Kappa Alpha, an honor fraternity for orators and debaters; and Sigma Upsilon, the literary fraternity. There are eleven social fraternities, six sororities, and sixteen professional fraternities at the college.

When the new student has properly adjusted himself to his studies for the year, there is nothing to which he should determine his correct attitude sooner than to athletics. As an individual he should do two things. He should determine the best manner in which to keep himself physically fit, and he should strive to do everything in his power to contribute to maintaining what is known as college spirit. Without the proper college spirit college life is worthless.

The individual may contribute to this spirit by participating to his fullest capacity, whether a member of the first team or not, in the athletics of the college and by cultivating an ardent but correct attitude in his support of the teams representing the college. He should remember that by these teams and no less by the support given them, the college will inevitably be judged on the outside. He should remember that the college takes a just pride in its hard playing and winning teams. He should remember that the college takes a greater pride in the spirit which renders it unwilling to win at any price and in its reputation for teams composed of clean sportsman-like gentlemen. His every act should be based on a wish to increase this just pride and to enhance this reputation.

Mass Athletics

The college uses a system of mass athletics which has been adopted by all the leading colleges. Under this system every student is given some form of athletic training, unless he is physically unable to receive it. This training is compulsory for freshmen and is required for all degree applicants. This applies to both men and women. Besides the college teams there are classes in gymnastics and physical education which are adapted to the needs of those who wish to become directors of physical education in the public schools. Full details of these courses may be found in the college catalogue. There are also inter-dormitory, inter-fraternity and inter-class teams.

Athletic Management

General supervision of athletics is exercised by the 3-3-3 or Athletic Committee, which is composed of the President of the college and two members of the faculty appointed by the President; and three students elected by the student body, one from each of the upper classes, and three alumni appointed by the President. This committee determines and directs the general athletic policy of the college, authorizes the expenditure of money, and selects the coaches and the athletic director. The athletic director has general charge of athletics under the committee. He arranges for the entertainment of visiting teams, and for trips, umpires, etc., and has charge of the athletic buildings, equipment, and general affairs. The coaches exercise absolute authority over the players, substitutions, and tactics.

Every student, by paying the college athletic fee, becomes a member of the Athletic Association and is entitled to a vote in the election of officers and the members of the Athletic Committee.

Schedules of interesting inter-collegiate games are arranged for all of the first teams representing the college and wherever possible for the scrub teams. There is probably no better advertisement for a college than a successful, hard-fighting athletic team.

YELLS AND SONGS

GET THE PROPER SPIRIT!
GET THE PROPER SPIRIT!

Every old student knows what is expected of him. Every new student has this to learn. Remember that you are at William and Mary; not simply at college, but at William and Mary College. Once knowing that, there are certain responsibilities and obligations incumbent upon you. In your athletics these things are paramount: First, support your coach in every way; second, support your team from the ground up; third, attend every game, rally and bonfire working to make it a success.

The best way in which the student body can show the teams that the college is behind them is through the songs and yells. In hearing the songs and yells, the morale of the team is raised and the punch that counts is put across.

These suggestions will lead to good cheering:

Keep your eyes on the Cheer Leader during all songs and yells.

Learn the songs and yells.

When a yell or song is called for work on it hard.

Do not use a "cat call" on anyone at any time.

Show appreciation for opponent's good plays.

Stay in the stands until the end of the game.
The Indian War Cry

I
The Indians are taking the war path to-day,
Old Green, Gold and Silver plunge into the fray.
The fight may be hard and the game may be long,
We'll rally against them and sing the old song: RAY!

Chorus
William and Mary forever and aye!
Cheer her again, boys, we'll yet win the day—Ray!
Tri-color's waving, it floats there on high,
An emblem of vict'ry, touching the sky.
So shout out the war cry and fight to the end,
They'll never, no never beat W. & M.!

II
Their line's shot to pieces, their backs can not gain,
Just watch the old Indians romp 'way with this game.
We've got them all going, there's nothing to fear,
So rally again now and give the old cheer: RAY!

III
When the fight goes against us, struggling in vain,
When all of their efforts seem surely to gain,
When hope seems to leave us, the chances all gone,
We'll rally against them and sing the old song: RAY!

NOTED RESIDENCES

Blair House

The Blair House was the home of John Blair, Jr., associate justice of the United States. It is a long frame structure, one and a half stories high, with two entrances, situated on the Duke of Gloucester street. This old home has been bought for preservation by Professor Pollard.

Wythe House

The Wythe House is a square brick structure of two stories, situated on the east side of Palace Green, next to Bruton Parish Churchyard. This was the home of George Wythe, signer of the Declaration of Independence, chancellor of Virginia, first professor of law in William and Mary College and the designer of the beautiful seal of Virginia, as well as the seal of the chancery court. This house was also occupied by George Washington and Rochambeau during the Yorktown campaign.

Tucker House

The Tucker House was the home of St. George Tucker, stepfather of John Randolph, of Roanoke, and second professor of law in the College of William and Mary. This house is situated on Nicholson street, near Palace Green.

Peyton Randolph House

The Peyton Randolph House is situated on the south side of Francis street in the eastern part of the town. This was the residence of Peyton Randolph, president of the first Continental Congress.
Bassett Hall

Bassett Hall, a beautiful residence adjoining the Peyton Randolph lot, was formerly the property of Burwell Bassett, a nephew of Mrs. Washington. In the summer of 1804, Williamsburg had for its visitor the distinguished Irish poet, Thomas Moore, who was so impressed with the beautiful lawn of Bassett Hall that he was inspired to pen a few lines "To the Firefly." In 1841 it was the residence of John Tyler, President of the United States.

Audrey House

The Audrey House, typical of an eighteenth century structure, is located on the east side of Palace Green. This house was made famous by Mary Johnstone as the residence of Audrey, in her novel of that name.

Site of the House of Burgesses

At the end of the Duke of Gloucester street, opposite the college gate, is the site of the old House of Burgesses. It was here that Patrick Henry, with his eloquent, patriotic speeches, stirred the people of Williamsburg and the students of the College, among whom was Thomas Jefferson.

Site of Governor's Palace

Facing Palace Green on Duke of Gloucester street, is the site of the Colonial Governor's Palace, built in 1705 and burned following the surrender of Cornwallis. The "Mattey Grammar School," originally established in 1706, stands on this site at present.
Bruton Parish

Powder Horn

Opposite the court house is the old Powder Horn, built as a powder magazine by Governor Spotswood in 1714. From this magazine Governor Dunmore took the powder, April 20, 1775, precipitating revolutionary hostilities in Virginia.

Debtors' Prison

Debtors' Prison, situated on Nicholson street, was the prison in which were incarcerated the crew of the pirate Blackbeard and Governor-General Hamilton, the Detroit "scalp-buyer."

Eastern State Hospital

On Francis street is found the Eastern State Hospital, the first Insane Asylum established in America (1768).

Raleigh Tavern

The site of the old Raleigh Tavern, now occupied by Lane & Christian's store, is on the Duke of Gloucester street. The tavern was burned in 1859.

Jamestown

Seven miles west of Williamsburg is Jamestown, the site of the first permanent settlement of English colonists in America. On the island are a number of relics which call to mind the trials of these early colonists. Of especial interest is the old church.
Yorktown

Twelve miles southeast of Williamsburg is Yorktown, the site of the surrender of Lord Cornwallis to George Washington at the close of the Revolutionary War. Here also are a number of old buildings which are famous in American history. An eighteen-hole golf course has just been completed at Yorktown and it is hoped that the course will be open to the students of the college for a nominal sum.

CONSTITUTION OF THE MEN'S STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Preamble

Whereas, William and Mary has always stood for Truth, Honor, and Gentlemanly Conduct, and still stands for them, and

Whereas, at William and Mary the Honor System had its beginning, and its spirit still prevails in such force that disorder and ungentlemanly conduct are not countenanced, and

Whereas, we believe that democratic student self government, emphasizing and based upon student honor, is both possible, and desirable, but that its successful operation requires a high degree of active individual and group honor on the part of the large majority of the student body so governed, and must be carefully safeguarded and prompted by a wise selection of its officers and by the progressive education of students in the principles of student honor.

Therefore, we, the committee appointed by the Student Body to revise our present constitution, do hereby submit the following revise for the re-organization and re-enforcement of the Honor System in accordance with the above principles:

PART I

Article I

The executive and judicial powers of this government shall be vested in an Honor Council composed of seven members.
Article II

Section 1. Election of members: Not less than one month previous to the end of the academic year the freshman, sophomore, and junior classes, in assembly, shall nominate four men from each of their respective classes, in their judgment best fitted to compose the succeeding council. The names of these men shall be announced, published and posted as nominees. Not less than one week after the announcement of these nominees has been made, the student body shall elect, by plurality vote, by secret signed ballot, two of said nominees from each class to compose the Honor Council for the following year.

Section 2. In case of a tie vote in the above election the officers shall be decided as provided in PART III, Article I, Section 3.

Section 3. Choice of the President and Council Chairman: When the above six members have been elected they shall meet and choose one of their number as chairman of the council. They shall also select their officers and organize for the following year’s work. This meeting shall take place not less than ten days previous to the close of the session, and shall be called by the chairman of the existing council.

Section 4. Freshman member: The following academic year, not less than two months after the organization of the freshman class, its members shall choose one of their number for membership on the Honor Council.

Article III

Powers and Duties: All cases of stealing or defrauding or cheating on EXAMS, or other scholastic work, and violation of one's pledged word shall fall under the supervision of this council. Every student is honor bound to report for immediate action all such cases of violations against the honor system. The honor system assumes that every student is a man of truthfulness and honesty and that any such student is honor bound to procure the permanent removal of all those, who, by violating in any degree this accepted code of honor, prove that they cannot safely be trusted. The proceedings of the honor council will be conducted under the honor code established at William and Mary College since 1792, and from its decision, under a recent action of the Board of Visitors, an appeal may be made. The said resolution is made a part of this article and reads as follows:

1. "That the Board of Visitors of William and Mary is appreciative of the purposes and ideals of the student government plan, but it cannot recognize an action taken by the body as final."

2. "Student government properly conceived is a co-operative adjunct to the President and Faculty, not an independent body with summary powers."

3. "Any action of the student government body must be subject to the review of the President and Faculty, and no action will be considered by the Board of Visitors until so reviewed."

Article IV

President of the Student Body

Section 1. There shall be a president of the student body whose duties it shall be to handle matters pertaining to the student body or relating in any way to the revision of the regulations regarding the honor system, and to hold, at such times as seems best, a joint meeting of the student body for the election of officers as provided in this constitution, or for the transaction of other business for which provision has not been made herein.

Section 2. There shall be a vice-president of the student body who shall perform the duties of the president of the said body during the absence of the said president, and who shall succeed to the office of the president of the student body upon said president's resignation or removal.

Section 3. There shall be a secretary-treasurer of the student body whose duty it shall be to take and keep minutes of all meetings of said student body, and to handle all funds and records which may come into his hands as such officer.

Section 4. ATHLETICS—WOMEN

Year by year the women's teams have gradually forged to the front in the athletic world. In the intercollegiate world William and Mary girls have only been represented by basketball, tennis and hockey teams, but the success of these, especially basketball, points to a great future. The system of mass athletics used, however, enables every girl to participate in some sport, intercollegiate or not.

Under excellent coaching and leadership the women's basketball team has justly acquired fame throughout the east in conquering during the season of 1925-26, Adelphi, University of New York, George Washington, Temple and other strong teams.

Likewise, tennis is assured of a successful schedule next year.

With time and increased facilities other sports will be added to the intercollegiate list.

Agreement Concerning Government of the Women Students of the College of William and Mary

To the Women's Student Government Association is intrusted the enforcement of the rules made by the college and the power to legislate in all matters that do not fall under the direct jurisprudence of the said authorities.
The degree of power intrusted to the Association is dependent upon the efficiency of its members. If at any time the Association or any of its officers should fail to uphold the standing of the constitution, the President of the college reserves the right, after investigation, to modify or revoke this grant of student government.

The Executive Council of the Women's Student Government Association, elected by the women students, handles all official business of the Association and acts upon problems concerning the welfare of the women students.

The Judicial Council, elected by the Association, deals with infringement of rules on the part of women students.

The Honor Council, composed of the Junior and Senior members of the Executive and Judicial Councils, deals with all dishonorable conduct on the part of the Women Students.

The Freshman Commission consists of not less than fifteen members chosen from the sophomore class. This commission is appointed each year by the Executive Council, the chairman of the Commission being a sophomore member of the Council. The purpose of the Commission is the instructing of freshmen in the ideals and application of the honor system and of student government rules as they are understood at the College of William and Mary. Women Students, on arrival at the college or previously, are assigned to groups—each one of which is under the direction of a member of the Commission. The groups meet for an hour once a week for the purpose stated above, and after four meetings a written examination on Student Government rules is given.

Lodge

The Executive Council of the Women's Student Government has built, and maintains, a lodge on Lake Matoaka.
This lodge belongs to all of the women students of the College of William and Mary.

In order to keep the lodge from being over-crowded permission must be obtained from the President of the Women's Student Government, or the Social Director, for its use.

IT IS NOT ALWAYS EASY

To apologize,
To begin over,
To admit error,
To be unselfish,
To take advice,
To be charitable,
To be considerate,
To keep on trying,
To profit by mistake,
To forgive and forget,
To think and then act,
To shoulder a deserved blame,
BUT IT ALWAYS PAYS.

Young Man
Listen!

Lives of great men do more than remind us that we can make our lives count for more than we imagine, for they give us the principles of conduct and action which we may and should follow in order to make our lives worth while.

Franklin, the printer, philosopher and diplomat, said: "Save, young man, and become respectable and respected."

The big men of the future will be picked from the money savers of to-day which suggests the importance of a savings account to the young man who desires to acquire a cash capital and "become respectable and respected."
