Born 10 June, 1810; died Tuesday, 19 June, 1894.

Graduated from West Point Military Academy, 1832.

Professor of Mathematics in the College of William & Mary.

President protem. 1843; President 1854-1888.

President Emeritus, 1888-1894.

President Virginia Alpha, Society of Phi Beta Kappa.

In announcing the death of her venerable and beloved President, Virginia Alpha of Phi Beta Kappa desires to bring to the notice of the Sister Chapters an interesting fact.

In the revival of the parent Chapter of the Society here in 1850, under the auspices of William Short Esq. of Philadelphia, the last survivor of the original members, President Ewell was an initiate. In the last revival, on the 9th of December, 1893, President Ewell was the presiding officer. Thus two lives cover the history of the parent Chapter of the Society from its foundation on the 5th of December, 1776, to the present day.

Resolutions on the Death of President Escola

Whereas Col. Benjamin Escola, Escola, D.D.,
late President Emeritus of the College and William and Mary, and President of our University, has passed from this life to the light and better life, we take this first opportunity to express our grief at his loss and our appreciation of his kind and helpful words.
Resident 1. That we recognise in Him the wise and thoughtful gentleman, in whom the mean thing was the object of scorn and deserved abhorrence. The wise and constant friend, whose tender sympathies and unselfish affections were displayed in every just and proper occasion, who was ever ready to any cry for aid and assistance from the needy
when he could relieve, one of nature's own noble men whose heart was ever in his hand, whose broad forehead was ever one of care, and whose tongue was ever戎 gaining some promise for the youth even of the simple and untaught.

Resident 2. That we recognise in Him the good educator and kindly leader, who saw the needs of men in every man and sought to bring them to who in his wealth of information seemed equally at home with the good and great of all ages, bringing out of his learned things new and old,
and adapting himself with ready facility to all Residential 3. That we recognize in him one who, though educated at least point, yet feeling the citizen above the soldier, drew his sword loyalty and unyielding for his native state, and when the aristocratic power had decided against the conspiracy, he stood forth resolute without a murmur, adopting himself as a good citizen to the new order of things, even as he did to the old.

Residential 4. That we recognize in him the able college professor, who was even in contact with his students, to whom they readily confided all they thought and said and did as to a bosom friend, whose college days were so then after made bright to their memory by the light of his presence, one whose knowledge

he was officially an abiding and profound, and who yet was ever in nearly expeditious will the word passed and every professor, who was content, whether or Congress or as President, to spread and be spread for the College which he loved with a right royal care, who walked cold in gory and unwavering on the stones of his devotion, until the time came that in the clouds broke away, the sun came jest in the greatness of his strength, and the College took once more, his queenlike place in the Kingdom of Eden.

Preserved 7. That we miss and shall ever miss his presence in our humanity, which he so dearly and admirably and admirably and we pay him special honors as the grand old man in our grand old humanity.

Preserved 6. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of President Steele and that they be signed after the minutes of the Society.

The secretary read a letter from Prof. T. H. Norton, secretary of the chapter recently established at the University of Birmingham.
ordinati, outlining the policy of said chapter, and asking for aid and fraternal cooperation from this chapter. No action was taken; but it was understood that the secretary would send the greetings of Virginia Alpha, and would give such information as would, in his opinion, be of assistance in the thorough organization of the Cincinnati chapter.

A committee of three — T. E. Garrett, C. E. Bishop, and H. D. Bird — were appointed to make arrangements for the annual reunion in Feb 27, 1899. In this connection it was resolved:

The president then before the society a letter received from Col. W. L. Lamb, giving an account of the visit to Saratoga Springs, N.Y., as delegate of the chapter to the National Council. Col. Lamb stated that thirty-four colleges were represented by forty-eight available accredited delegates, many of them prominent educators and literary men; that it was resolved to be inexpedient to establish chapters in col. leges not granting the degree of A.B. in course, that the resolution to confine membership, to graduates taking the degree of A.B. was defeated; that ten charters were granted, one of them to Princeton University; that a resolution was passed recommending that the chapters of Phi Beta Kappa establish at William and Mary College a free scholarship paying all expenses, in honor of Elisha Parmelec, who carried Phi Beta Kappa to New England; and finally, that the central reception welcomed him as representative of the mother chapter and regarded well for no reverence college.

Col. Lamb enclosed a letter from Mr. W. Walker, clerk of the county court of Shenandoah, in regard to the proposed cleaning of the grave of Elisha Parmelec. This being a matter of very great interest in the whole county, the letter was ordered to be read when the records, and is as follows:

Woodstock, Va. Oct. 21, 1898

Col. W. Smith,

My dear Colonel:

Your letter of some months since in regard to Edward Parmalee, duly received, and in reply thereto have now located the homestead of Col. Abraham Biss.

It is located on the Shenandoah River about nine miles south of Woodstock, on the Valley Turnpike, near the village of Hankinson, and is known as the "Red Banks" farm, and is now owned by Mr. T. Allen, Jr., whose P.O. is Hankinstown.

I visited there yesterday, and on it is an old graveyard, which is now a potato patch, about from a farm to a half acre in size, and found in it some old tombs, from one to five feet in length and from six to twelve inches wide, made of rough limestone and sandstone, very crudely made and lettered, most of them only had the initials, as “A.C.” died Sept. 1759. There are only some ten or fifteen uncovered and their date ranges from 1759 to 1811, but the owner says in plowing the lot he frequently struck obstructions which he is now certain were gravestones, and he made a thorough examination of the land to hunt for the Edward Parramore stone, which cost from $10 to $15. I am glad that the place has been located and I will cheerfully assist you or the authorities of Yale College in any manner that I may be able.

Yours truly,

(Signed) L. H. Walker
