Maben Jones Papers

Correspondence re descendants of Charles Lee Jones, with Essie Lee Jones, etc.

1932-1933
Mr. Maben Jones,
1207 Taylor Street,
Columbia, S. C.

Dear Sir:

We are in receipt of your letter of December 3rd, relative to Dr. Moses S. Jones.

Through Dr. C. D. Ball of this city, we have learned that Dr. Jones first lived in Los Angeles; was married there; and the two children mentioned in your letter were born there; then he married a second wife and lived in Santa Ana for several years, where he died, June 24, 1908.

Dr. Ball is trying to locate the two children, and if you desire, you may write direct to Dr. Ball who will furnish you with any information he may be able to secure concerning them.

We do not have a late copy of the Los Angeles Directory, but we find listed in the 1930 issue:

Essie L. Jones - teacher city schools
3050 Inez St., Los Angeles, Calif.

George R. Jones - clerk P.O.
1200½ E. 43rd, Los Angeles.

Of course these may not be the ones you are trying to locate, but Essie is rather an unusual name. She was at that same address in 1928, so it is possible she may still be there. If not a letter would probably be forwarded. Or, you might get in touch with her through the Los Angeles Schools.

Very truly yours,

CHAIRMAN OF COMMERCE
December 15, 1938.

Mr. George Emerson Jones,
Tolleson, Arizona.

Dear Cousin:

Through the kindness of Miss Jeannette McFadden, Librarian, Santa Ana, your address has been sent to me.

I have before me a letter written by your father in 1897 to my father, the late Louis Librell Jones of Virginia, and in this letter your father gave the name of children and grand children of Charles Lee Jones and Elizabeth Lock Spencer. There were [Courteo] in this family, your father being the youngest.

I am making an effort to locate as many of the descendants of Michael Jones (father of Charles Lee Jones) as possible and I shall be pleased to know that family records you have and whether you can place me in touch with any of your cousins. Your sister's address has been given me as Jamestown, R. I. Is this correct?

There is an effort on the part of the descendants of Anthony Librell to compile a record of his descendants. I have quite a lot of Librell information and shall be glad to send you copies of it if you wish it. There are a number of Librell families in Texas and I have the promise of a number of family records from Texas.

I hope you can find it convenient to write me and give me all the information you have regarding the family of your father and of his brothers and sisters. I especially wish to communicate with those who have family papers.

My grandfather was William Librell Jones who was a son of Michael Jones. William had six children and I am one of Louis Librell Jones who was the father of 15 children, three died in infancy and six have died since maturity. There are two girls and four boys living, I being next to the youngest having been born in 1881. We were all born in Buckingham county, Virginia and they all live in Virginia except myself.

I shall be looking forward to a letter from you.

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. Jevenia A. Hayfield,

Santa Ana, California.

Dear Mrs. Hayfield:

Your name and address were given me through the kindness of Miss Sawney A. McKee, librarian in our city. She tells me that you can furnish information regarding the family of Mr. Jonas Spencer Jones. I judge from information I have that you were the second wife of Mr. Jones, as I have some records that were sent by Mr. Jones to my father, the late Louis Mibrell Jones of Virginia.

During the past year I have made an effort to gather information regarding the descendants of Michael Jones and I shall be more than pleased to hear from you regarding any records you may have on the descendants of Charles Lee Jones.

I have been in touch with a number of Mibrell families—descendants of Charles Lee Mibrell and Anthony Mibrell II. I have very little information on the descendants of Michael Jones and Louisa Mibrell, or David Patterson and Judith Mibrell.

I shall be pleased to hear from you at your convenience and shall gladly send you copies of records I have.

There were six children in the family of William Mibrell Jones, and my father, Louis Mibrell Jones, had fifteen children, twelve living to maturity. There are only six of us left now, I being next to the youngest, born in 1881. I have two sisters and three brothers living in Virginia. I am the only one of the family that never married. There are many grandchildren.

Sincerely yours,

Maben Jones.
Dear Mr. Jones,

Your letter of inquiry reached me at the Christmas holiday time, which I spent with my nephews in San Pedro. So throwing everything at home a week to think. I remember well Dr. Jones' visit in 1907 to Lewis Dittrick Jones, of the many pleasant features he loved to tell me of it, he lived less than a year after it. Died June 25th, 1907.

I think John V. Jones, son of Michael Cane, has more family records than I can, so am writing his address on the other side of this sheet. I gave to his daughter, after his death, some written family records (her address is on other side). If I can help you more will be glad to do so.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Cousin:

Your address has been given me through the kindness of Mrs. Rayfield of Santa Ana, California.

I am making an effort to gather information regarding the descendants of Michael Jones, who was your great grandfather and also mine. Among my papers I have a letter written by your father to my father in June 1907. Your father gave the names of the 14 children of Charles Lee Jones and Elizabeth Lock Spencer, and the names of their children. Some local addresses were given in this letter but this was 35 years ago and I fear I would not be able to locate many of them through letters. I am trying to form contact with as many members of this family as possible, especially those who may have some family records.

If you have any records at all I shall be delighted to have the loan of them so that I may make copies. If you can put me in touch with any of your uncles and aunts or cousins I shall be grateful for the information.

I wonder if you know who was the father of MICHAEL JONES. I have never known where he came from. Michael Jones married Lecenna Didrell and they had eleven children. I wish if possible to secure information regarding the descendants of all those who had descendants. If you know where there are any old records please let me know.

My grandfather was William Didrell Jones, a brother to Charles Lee Jones. He had six children, my father being the youngest.

I hope to have the pleasure of hearing from you and I shall be glad to send you copies of any of the records I have, or may secure.

Sincerely yours,

Maben Jones.

Dear Mrs. Hayfield:

I assure you your letter of January 4th was read with pleasure and I thank you for the addresses of Mrs. Beatie H. Jones and Mr. John W. Jones. I have written to both of them and shall be looking forward to their replies.

Compiling family records is a duty that we are all too prone to put off to a more convenient time, or to let somebody else do it. My father was greatly interested in gathering family records but he did not follow it in a systematic way. His papers are all in Virginia and my sister, Mrs. Matthew J. Cox, of Shapard's, Va., sent me the letter that Mr. Jones Jones wrote to my father 35 years ago. Thus I am taking up, after these long years, a line of research that should have been followed long ago.

There are so many foreigners coming into this country and blending with our old stock that it is becoming more essential every year that we establish the records of our ancestry. The Bibrell family (French Huguenot) is an interesting one to follow. I have acquired more information on the descendants of the two Bibrell sons than I have of the two daughters.

Mrs. Hayfield, if you possibly can do so, kindly give me the names and addresses of any of Dr. Jones' brothers and sisters who may be living, or of any of their children. Here are the 14 children as given in Dr. Jones' letter of 1897:

Sarah Selvina Jones b. 1818, m. John F. Hoppin
Judith Alyss Jones b. 1826, m. William H. Black (Tonti, Ill)
Emma Jane Jones b. 1847. Dead
James Enosick Jones b. 1851. Dead
Melissa A. Jones b. 1852 m. George Smith (Effingham, Ill)
Lyatt Spencer Jones b. 1852 m. Phoebe Huya (San Marcos, Texas)
Michael Lee Jones b. 1863 m. 1st: Jane Haysfield, 2nd: Betsy Minson, 3rd: Mrs. Faulkner 1863.
Elizabeth Lee Jones b. 1866, m. James F. Huya.
Martha Ann Felith Jones b. 1869 m. Joseph H. Huya.
Charles Lee Jones b. 1877, m. Alviva Quick (Centralia, Ill)
Mrs. Lavenia Mayfield.

Margaret Dibrell Jones b. 1833, m. Seaborn Wedsworth (Tarkio, Mo.)
James William Dibrell Jones b. 1836 m. Mrs. Rebekah Quick.
John Milton Jones b. 1838 m. Jane Phillips 2nd: Emma Quick
   (A son, Edwin Spencer Jones, was living at Tustin, Cal. 1897)
Moses Spencer Jones b. 1842 m. 1st: Cordelia J. Peterson, 2nd: Lavenia Ayres.

I shall be pleased to have any information you can give me regarding Dr. Jones—where he was born, where educated, his professional career. I shall also be pleased to have all information regarding his children. Can you give me the address of George Peterson Jones?

I trust that I am not imposing on your time in asking this information, but I feel that time is rapidly passing and there is much to be done in perfecting these records. I hope you will find it convenient to write me fully.

Charles Lee Jones had a brother, Anthony D. Jones, born September 2, 1790, and married Martha Ann Woodson of Prince Edward County, Virginia. They went to Kentucky in 1818, and there were five or six children. I wish to secure information regarding the descendants of Anthony Dibrell Jones, and I hope some of Dr. Jones' family may have records.

With sincere appreciation for your good letter, I am

Sincerely yours,

Maben Jones.

I think when you were born enough to risk claiming cousinship with my "right uncle," I should tell you what a real thrill it gave me to see myself addressed as "Dear Cousin." When I first a little postmarked Columbia, S.C. after wondering who in the world could be writing to one from there!

Since then I have heard through my mother (Mrs. Mayfield, my stepmother) of your writing to her and I am dreadfully sorry to have to confess I saw the 2 mo.

woman - a cousin in my own mother's.

Some years ago while living in Montgomery Ala. I was invited to join the local chapter of the D.A.R.'s and made some futile attempt to look up records. Found a friend there was from the same family in Virginia and she gave me the families genealogy and I left Montgomery before I even completed any records at all and I lost the entire affair drift.

Since starting this letter I remembered a clipping in my pocket book which a friend cut from a Philadelphia paper and sent me over a year ago. Perhaps it may have some interest for you as it may belong to one of those Virginia families. I should like to think when you are through with it of.

With keen regret that I cannot be of more help in your family search and wish success in your success. I am

Dear Cousin Essie:

Your letter was read with the greatest pleasure and I cannot tell you how happy I am to locate another Jones cousin. Just two days earlier I had a letter from Cousin John, as I wrote him about the same time I wrote you. You and he both used the same expression: "I'm sorry I am unable to furnish you with any information." I don't understand this. Even if you had not given me an item of information (but you gave me lots) it would have been an accomplishment to form contact with you and Cousin John when, until a few weeks ago, I did not know even of your existence. This is a big undertaking—tracing family records—but it is interesting and I think well worth while. I get discouraged with it at time, as I receive no replies to nine tenths of my letters, but the thrill comes when I receive letters like yours.

You can help me, and I believe you will. You referred to some very old letters in Rhode Island. I'd give my right eye to see these and make copies of them. Can you have them sent to me by registered mail? Unless copies of old papers are made there is danger of total loss. These papers should eventually be placed in the State Library at Richmond where they have facilities for keeping them. I know that your father must have had many valuable papers. Where are they? He visited my father, Louis Dibrell Jones, many years ago. I do not remember him, but have heard him mentioned in our family many times.

You mentioned that you had planned to join the D.A.R. on the Spencer line. I have been wanting to secure the Spencer genealogy. This is a splendid family. Have you the records? You can join the D.A.R. on Michael Jones' war record. I have it if you want it.

There were twelve children in our family, four girls and eight boys. Six have died. I am next to the youngest, born in 1881, an old bachelor, the only one of the family that never married. I came here in 1905 to become associated with my brother, William Hatcher Jones, in the Southern Teachers Agency which he organized and built to great success. For twenty years I have had my own business. My brother was killed in an automobile accident on November 5th last. He left a widow and four children.

Thank you for the Jones item. I've seen this somewhere, and I have a copy of one of the numerous coats of arms said to belong to the Jones family. What I want more than anything else is to learn the ancestry of Michael Jones who married Lecanna Dibrell. I have very little information on the Jones family--have only been interested in this work about a year and have really only scratched the surface. I hope to get in touch with several families of your line, and I want to locate some of the descendants of Anthony Dibrell Jones who went to Kentucky about the time that Charles Lee Jones went.

During the past several months I have located a number of Dibrell families and they are all splendid people. You know the original Anthony Dibrell (born Jean Antoine DuBreuil, son of Dr. Christoffer DuBreuil the Huguenot Emigrant) married Elizabeth Lee, a daughter of Thomas Lee, who was a son of Charles Lee (founder of the Cobb's Hall line) who was a son of Col. Richard Lee the Emigrant and the ancestor of General Robert E. Lee.

Anthony Dibrell and Elizabeth Lee had four children:
1. Charles Lee Dibrell m. 1: Martha Burton, 2: Miss Patteson
2. Lecanna Dibrell m. Michael Jones
3. Judith Dibrell m. David Patteson
4. Anthony Dibrell, II, m. Wilmeth Watson

You will see they all had large families, and at this time there must be millions of descendants. Of the eleven children of Michael, there were four sons: Anthony Dibrell Jones m. Martha Ann Woodson and went to Kentucky; William Dibrell Jones (my grandfather) m. Judith Baker LeGrand and lived in Buckingham county, Virginia. He was a merchant, large slave owner and planter. Michael Jones was never married. Charles Lee Jones (1792-1860) m. Eliza Leek Spencer. If I can find the descendants of Michael who bear the name of JONES, I'll be mighty lucky.

Please write me something of your father. Where was he born, where educated, etc. Don't you have a brother? Where is he? Any information you care to give me will be deeply appreciated.

I shall be delighted to see you when you come through Columbia. I cannot promise you much information on our ancestors but I'll be delighted to show you what I have.

With best of wishes, I am

Sincerely your cousin,

Mr. Maben Jones,

Dear Mr. Walker Jones,

Several matters—some of small moment, have delayed my reply to your questions—and I feel John H. Jones will tell you more than I know. None of the brothers or sisters are living. I never saw any brother but Prof. Spencer Jones (surnamed "Tin"), he died in N.Y. More than twenty years ago, left one daughter, Annie Jones Steele, now dead. I know nothing of the family she left. I am sure Mr. Jones of Berkeley will tell you more of the family than anyone else. I do not know the family, he grew up in Illinois when the family settled. Dr. Moses Spencer Jones was born June 15, 1842, in Clinton County, Illinois, educated at McCormick College, Lebanon, Ill, completing his medical education at St. Louis, having special privilege under Dr. William Nelson, of that city. A special course in ophthalmology and rural surgery under Dr. R.B. St. John Price of New York. All this I gather from our family history. Mr. Jones tells me he talked much of a medical school in St. Louis. The M.D. will something—founded by Ephriam McDouell or Dr. John M'Dowell, his son, the College of a martial failure. He graduated in 1869; in 1870 he went to Shreveport La. because of poor health. Two years in Shreveport his health so improved he returned to St. Louis.
In January 1874 he came to California, is residence, in good health until the last year of his life. His children: Mrs. Enid A. Jones than I do. Sorry I can't help you more than this.

Dear Cousin Nellie:

I have given you proof of the truth of the accusation of friends and relatives that I am the most untrustworthy person imaginable when it comes to answering letters!

But I hope John and Minnie gave you the information you asked for in the way I have mislaid your hand letter while I find carefully just about the time I am already answered. However John wrote the hand written and as his information is apt to be much more authentic than mine I don't feel so dreadfully over my remissness.

He does not seem to feel the old letter I have would be of any value or interest to a relative but because they are so very April 25, 1933

Dear Cousin Essie:

Your letter of the 23rd has just been received and while I am delighted to hear from you again I am distressed that you will be unable to come through Columbia this trip. I told Laura (my sister-in-law) that you were planning to pay us a visit and naturally she was pleased to think that we might meet one of our newly discovered cousins. I certainly hope you can come by to see us another time.

Cousin John has been most generous and helpful. He sent me a fine lot of family data but I have not had much time to give to the study of it since it was received. However, he sent me very little information on his own family. Maybe you can help me get more details about him. I have had quite a number of letters from other Jones families in the West, and have also located some of Anthony Dibrell Jones' people in Kentucky. Just give me time! I'll have lots of Jones history before I stop. I do not have as much time for genealogy as I would like, but when I do have time to write a number of letters I am always well repaid with some additional data.

Charles H. Jones, of Denver, Colorado, who is a grandson of Charles Lee Jones, Jr., sent me some old data on the Jones family and also a few notes on the Spencer family. I am enclos- ing a copy of the Spencer data so you may check up on it when you get to Montgomery. If Mrs. Janney has any information on other families in Buckingham county, Virginia, I would like to know of it.

As stated in a former letter, I am very much interested in the old papers you have in Rhode Island and I shall be looking forward to them with keen interest. I shall carefully preserve them, of course, and they will be held in trust for you. Be sure to send them by registered or insured mail.

I'll send you copies of what I have secured when I get it all assembled and in some kind of order.

With best of wishes, I am Sincerely your cousin,
June 3, 1933

Dear Cousin Essie:

You did not give me your Rhode Island address so I am sending this to Daytona Beach with the hope that it will reach you.

I just want to remind you of those old papers you promised to send me. You can imagine the pleasure I'll derive from them.

If you succeeded in securing any additional Spencer data you might send it, if entirely convenient, however I do not think I especially need this.

Splendid response has been coming in from the families of Mary Jones who married William Flood, and Anthony Dibrell Jones who married Martha Ann Woodson. I have not had much correspondence with the Charles Lee Jones families recently. Cousin John has sent me fine information.

With best of wishes, I am

Sincerely your cousin

Dear Cousin,

A combination of circumstances delayed my getting these old letters to you but I am mailing them today. I enclosed in an old photo also a letter and my own mother which I thought you might like to see. Now I the letters are interesting except one curious. The last letter of which I could be termed in those days, which grand father wrote to grandmother while she was at school and because it was not proper to read it direct had to read in ear & that he wrote to her an eratic and the poetry he wrote to her an erratic and the poetry he wrote to me. The letter John's father wrote in 1837 to my father after grand father's death also shows how very religious the family were.

The old letter is valuable because of Andrew Jackson's signature. I don't know how it happened to be with these old
I was filled with Grandfather as he seems I have been sent to go helmen for various things besides being the post master of the town in Illinois.

I can imagine how these few existing letters happened & he kept some you see were sent while Grandfather's family were in Christian Ky. before the move to Iowa. That scrap with copies of old signatures on it is very intriguing and the old religious papers of no particular interest except as relics of that time & style.

I do not know how or when these things came into Father's possession but think it must have been before he left Illinois.

and he went South to Shreveport.

Dear Cousin Essie:

Can you forgive me for my failure to acknowledge and thank you for the old papers which you were kind enough to send me. I can truthfully say that nothing has given me more pleasure than these old letters and papers. I read each one of them many times and made copies of most of them. I was especially pleased with the letter written by our great grandmother. I was glad to see the pictures of your father and mother. This is a little chapter of genuine Virginia history and because of the fact that the court house of Buckingham county was burned with all the records, these old papers are among the few records of those early days that are left. I hope you will arrange to leave them with the State Library at Richmond where they have facilities for keeping such records in trust, or will accept them as a gift.

During the summer I have done very little work on the family records. When the weather is a little more bearable I'll resume where I left off and try to gather a more complete records of the western branch of the Jones family. Just recently I have discovered some items of information that may lead to the discovery of our Jones ancestors. I am having some court records in Campbell and Bedford counties searched now.

The War Department will prepare, free of cost, a grave stone for Revolutionary soldiers. I applied for a stone for the grave of Michael Jones who was buried, I feel certain, at the old Jones place known as Travelers Rest in Buckingham county, but I do not know the date of Michael's death. This item of information is required. It is strange that nobody seems to have this date.

I think I owe a letter to Cousin John. I'll write him soon. He has given me most helpful information. Clifford Jones from Denver was in to see me a few weeks ago. He is a son of the late Edward Moses Jones.

Again thanking you for the pleasure you gave me and with all good wishes, I am

COPY OF LETTER FROM GEORGE JONES

Mr. Maben Jones,
Dear Cousin:

Hope you will please pardon my long delay in answering your letter, no excuse except a distaste for writing.

Sorry to say I have no information regarding my father's family.

Two cousins I know: James W. S. Wadsworth, Laguna Beach, California, son of one of father's sisters; and Mrs. George Nicholson, Cabool, Missouri, daughter of another of father's sisters.

Gentlemen; Att: Mr. Joe Williams.

I hasten to reply to your letter of the 14th in which you ask for information regarding George Rierson Jones, of Tolleson, Arizona, who has just passed away.

I am sending such information as I can gather from an old file and trust it may serve your purpose. At the time, 1933, I was interested in compile a Jones genealogy but because of poor response to my letters and lack of time I gave up the plan, however I did contact a number of the descendants of Charles Lee Jones and I am giving their names and latest addresses herewith. In order to place their relationship I enclose a list of the children of Charles Lee Jones.

Dr. Moses Spencer Jones, the father of George Rierson Jones, was twice married and his widow, Mrs. Lavinia Mayfield, was living in Santa Ana in 1933 and it was she who gave me the addresses of George, and his sister, Mrs. Essie Lee Jones. The latter married her cousin, John W. Jones, of Berkeley, California, but for many years she lived in Rhode Island and Florida. As I understand it, she was a traveling companion for a family in Jamestown, R. I. This is the last address I have for her.

Will you kindly acknowledge receipt of this letter and at the same time give me full information regarding the death of George Rierson Jones, when he died, what he was doing as occupation, where he will be buried, etc. Some of these days I may resume my effort to compile a family record so shall appreciate this information.

Cordially yours,

Maben Jones
