Doctor Thomas Chisum died in 1798 or 1799, leaving an only child, a daughter who married Robert Welsh, and died leaving 3 children.

One daughter who intermarried with Levi, Morgan, and 2 sons, Robert and William.

Mrs. Morgan died in 1828, leaving an only child, who died in 1835, under age, unmarried intestate.

Since the death of one, Morgan died child, the government has been paid by the heirs of Chisum for military services, and warrant, and also for commutation of forts.

1. What lien, or security any interest in the land warrant.

3. See Receipt in Or. L. 4 Rev. 1 36 S.

Land Law 849, 2 Rev. Code 1 332.

$7 of same act. Not located.

When makes it personal. State.

2. What it is. The personal act.