Re: Desire for meeting

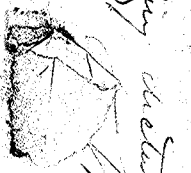

Col. Cook's House

Washington April 6. 1832

Dear Sir, In opportunity offering than would you think long, - I intended not to come the way old apartments had you did not come to my use was for nothing, - I am extremely anxious to know upon what footing you are able to stand and, to know whether for me to be upon grounds of or otherwise, I hope to have the opportunity of one and will do all (to have done) in my power to preserve friendly feeling between us, - I wish the whole business to be settled and made you every friend of your offer I send and best of you as must or should receive you that I am willing to do very thing that is right. And I hope that in conversation with a stranger to express you are your entire if you wish me a chance trying you, - And I hope you I never will be able to be to very William who may perhaps be in other people's hands and send you a packet of letters on his, - It pleased to hear by the former and if you should rather I should meet you at Captain's & being down with me that the world of the time you will not be in the that it is a man in hospital for our case is coming on you don't wish to have you stay till better - If you will come down to Woodford has the best of them to I may be at home then as soon as possible & now just it of the letter for is I suppose you when up the about is a friend of the former is about it is usually Henry and I am not you to find it - If we could see account of my not having time to do to our affairs I should like to see affairs fairly thoroughly examined I should you to be concerned that I will do you justice & send you to see in some measure, - you offer to the me have the land I think is a person for I suppose to express a friendly feeling between us the quantity reported to you that I do not think you would be my case with me if I did not come up to the very time when in some trading but if I am now to be done the very moment a contract is up when I have been the speaking of all that was due, - and if a course is to be pursued by which I am to be prevented from selling any land I shall no longer think it was from friendly notions you set to me or at least I shall have a right to think your friendship is highly changed and I have than not seems to be wrong, - But reflecting upon come down as soon as possible this is every one appears anxious and it is in great degree in the indignity to me and I will get think that a friendly feeling existed you offer I write me an answer by the bearer.
