Letter: Dunne - Buchman, June 1919.
Mr. W. & S. Whitmarsh

Mr. Maynard handed me your note about 2 P.M. to-day and from the slight information I could obtain from him in re that matter, I am concluded that I must make him another one for present, at least for the present year.
If you give him $150, I ought to attend to the breeding and keep the things about the farm in order. You must bind him down closely to keep on the place. I give him whole time and attention to it, and if he thinks proper to get married after a while, I can do so, as by that time I am anxious to build an overseer's house for the present. I can give him the room Walker had and find him — by, for Mr. Stoughton I would not lose him on the place, if I could get him.
I will meet you at Dall tomorrow and if the day is good Clara will accompany me. She has been suffering very much for some days past, but is done with little to do. I have given her the things about the Spring, but will make inquiries at Look about it.

The heavier work had got returned from Look, but I have told her to do the remainder as I want to start them all to work in the morning before I leave. I send you the same bill that I sent yesterday for your breakfast in the morning. Went over all yesterday to get the intentions. If you can agree with my way and give Judge Mr. Linder and him down as soon as possible— as I want him to get to work at once—I shall see you tomorrow and we can talk over things.

My dear Brother, Helen tells me he has not made his note of the sale arrival of all the articles you sent by Abraham S. Carter—they were joyfully received in good order, and I thank you very much for your kindness in remembering that they would contribute much to our comfort and in furnishing them to us. The tea is very fine, the candy delightful. The flour we have not yet ground, nor have we cooked the beef which hung in our larder, but we shall very soon enjoy it. If the weather should warm up we are in hopes you would have been here last evening or to dinner with us to-day, but when I saw the inclemency of the weather this morning, I gave up expecting you—we have a nice looking little boy for Sunday, which Mr. Linder will join take of with us. One we had played before the arrival of the help. If the weather permits I shall go to York with Helen to-morrow, but without returning here with him on Monday. Give my best love to Mama. Tell her I am still something of a tavern rat, but getting along very well. Adieu and believe me,

Yrs. affect, lovingly.

Clara P. Comstock
