endeavor in academic performance

strategies for the curriculum and in that manner all of our students to greater Gaels. Certainly, however, they can be recognized as a deterrent step in in a number that creates they drop short of desired requirements, there is another that performs far less than politics. Whereas there is one view that the greatest problem is in change in the high school curriculum. This action was taken after nine months

December 11, 1996, approved needed

The State Board of Education on December 11, 1996, approved needed and some of the "bubble" rise in professional education requirements.

and those in professional teacher education, require a number of school

general education requirements were increased and foreign language, specific content requirements were added to endorsing mathematics, biology, chemistry, physics, general science, history, government,

improvement in school planning for teachers.

improvement in school planning for teachers.

education in Virginia.

education in Virginia.

actual more constructive role in the part of those administrations the region where the end result of the education was to provide more freedom of the school building regulations, which had incurred increasing concerns.

In this sense of representation, I respectfully invite your attention

made in times of crises

depicted by the achievement of overwhelming increases, our greatest gains are otten

I do believe us to reflect at this season on the history proven fact that,

December 31, 1996

Commonwealth of Virginia

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

CHIEF,

December 96.
Members of the General Assembly

Copy to:

D/D

Superintendent of Public Instruction

Respectfully yours,

With very best wishes for the New Year, I am

[Signature]

Andrew Hendrick

..., December 31, 1998