Seven Beauties To Vie For Queenship In May Day Balloting On Thursday

May Queen to reign over the OSCA-sponsored festivities next week end will be chosen in elections at noon on Thursday, May 1.

Barbara Duborg, Tocker Ewart, Martha Lamborn, Betty Littlefield, Jean Myers, Fran Moore and Robie Robinson were nominated by balloting in the courtyard on Thursday, Apr. 24.

All of the nominees are junior members of the honors council.

President Join E. Puntili will crown the queen at ceremonies on Saturday, May 7, from 3 to 5 p.m. in the amphitheatre of the Sunken Garden. After the crowning, the queen and her court will sail over the annual intramural song contest, in which, as usual, and women's dormitories will participate. The contest will mark the presentation of the college song and a spring song. Orchestra, the modern dance group and the band will entertain with a dance presentation.

The May Day week-end festivities will begin with a semi-formal dance on Friday from 8 p.m. to 12 a.m. in Blow gymnasium. The queen and her court will participate in a formal dance on Saturday at the college's end of the season program.

Red Overton and his orchestra, the band, will play at the dance. Tickets will be on sale at the door.

Informal dance, with the college dance band, will conclude the week end and Saturday.

The three councils of Women students' Cooperative Government association have charge of the event, with the Executive council in charge of publicity and invitations, the Student council in charge of refreshments and entertainment.
Neglect on the part of the circulation staff has resulted in the withdrawal of information from student government offices. This neglect is taking place of two fraternities on either social or disciplinary problems.

All statements have come from the office of the dean of men or the dean of women of the college's Disciplinary Committee.

These fraternities and the student government have had only two meetings this semester, when they did arrive at dormitories have had difficulty obtaining information. I believe this is a serious concern to rate mention?

BRAVES With 33 Straight To Meet Virginia, Duke

Having run their consecutive-victory total to 33 by virtue of three straight wins, including yesterday's triumph, the William and Mary tennis squad will be looking for two more this week. They must meet the University of Virginia in Charlottesville Thursday and play host to Duke at 3:30 p.m. Saturday.

Virginia's squad has a fair record for the season though they have been defeated twice already, both within the last two weeks. Last Saturday, they absorbed an 8-1 trimming at the hands of John Kennedl's North Carolina outfit. Other results include a pair of 5-4 losses to Michigan Michigan, 8-1, constituent Washington and Lee.

SAS, Sigma Rho, and Kappa Alpha have jumped into the lead in the fraternity softball league with three wins and no losses. SAS captured two of its wins during the past week by trouncing Phi Delta Alpha, 21-0, and then running all over Lambda Chi Alpha, 31-2.

In the former contest the hitting of Hubert Adamson and Bob Longacre, and Jack Cloud showed the way. Cloud, batting in the cleanup spot, hit a single, double, triple, and home run. In the latter game the first triple play of the season was pulled off, from Holley to Davis to Ward.

Sigma Rho kept pace with them by beating Sigma Pi, 19-3. Sigma Mu allowed the losers only three runs of the six scored by their best hitter, Marvin Graham for 11.

Frank O'Field, with a double and a home run, led the batters. Wait. did eight, two, one, and one for the9 F. Hite. Sigma Rho also beat Phi Nu, 16-0.

Kappa Alpha kept its record clean by beating Phi Kappa Tau, 15-2, and Lambda Chi Alpha, 23-2. Other scores of the week were Kappa Sigma 29, Theta Delta Chi 22; Kappa Sigma 9, Phi Lambda Psi 6; and Phi Kappa Alpha 11, Lambda Chi Alpha 9.

In the Dorm and Independent league only four teams were able to play a full schedule of games. The games were played in the Dorm on Thursday night in the gym. The teams were: Bob Longacre, Lou Hoitsma and "Rubber Guts" got one home run each.

The horserace tournament is in full swing with the Darletts leading the pack. Deadline for the playoffs of rounds three to five is May 3. Round 5, May 15; round 4, May 5; round 3, May 2; and final on May 23 and 24.

Bot-E-Talk

Spring, as usual, has brought its problems: high spirits at Chownings, overeating of pancakes, waking lions in the S. G., and it shouldn't be long before the usual smoothing out is handled at the R.T.P. We also hear that lack of self-control has led the students open to much criticism from the tourists, we dunno, but we almost agree with the fact that the D. of G. street isn't easy enough.

Flash! 30 Randolph-Mason Phi Pi's down for the week end. and found Phi Phi's putting pressure on boy friends to corral the "specials" dates or other local girls, with the frilly backgrounds customarily inflicted on invading tourists.

German Club Members

Elected Officers

Lyra Griggs was elected the new president of the German club and Thursday, April 24, at 7:45 p.m. in Washington 260.

Other officers elected are Joan Mayers, vice-president; Virginia Lee Meyers, treasurer; and Fred Aron, secretary.

Miss Rachel Hinderlite of Assem- bly, Virginia, the college library has an exhibit of rare books and manuscripts concerning the history and horticulture according to R. H. Land, associate librarian.

The selection of the exhibit is devoted to early printed works dealing with botany and science. These volumes were brought over from England and were from the Virginia colonists of the 17th centu- ry. One of the curators of the purely American treasure was from the pen of the colonial climen. John Randolph of Williamsburg.

Further manuscript material in- cludes 16th century notes on gar- dening from Sepulcher papers. A large percentage of the rare gardening books were pre- sented to the library by the Gard- en club of Virginia in memory of the late Mrs. Fairfax Harrison of Belvoir.

Fencing Club Elects

Senetion To Presidency

Jane Seaton was elected new pre- sident of the Fencing club at the meeting held Apr. 24. At the meeting the club held an informal tournament in Jefferson gym. The varsity victor, Jane Ann Hoge, and the winner of the club, Ann Anders- son, played in the finals in which the winner was Tommie Smith.

Tommie Smith was awarded the award for winning the most bouts in first year fencing. Miss Caro- lyn D. Sinclair, coach, was given a present in gratitude for her serv- ice for the club.

"Waren Rockwell and Ralph Press have been voted as the captains this semester," stated Ralph Campell, president.
