Phil Bete Has Anniversary Of Founding

Baxter Discusses Post-War Plans

By NANCY EASLEY

Phila Bete, the oldest sorority in the country, celebrated its 75th anniversary last Saturday night, December 4, with the initiation of new members and the recognition of its founder. The event included an address by James P. Baxter, 3rd, president of Williams College and the College of William and Mary in America in the field of liberal education, and the reading of the republication of the well-known poem "Peter Pan" by J.M. Barrie.

History Used As Background For Kingsley's "The Patriots"

Yule Concert Given Sunday

3 Choirs Combine! Composer Featured

Featuring two numbers by a choirmaster, the College Choir, Chorale, and the Chaplain's Choir, the annual Christmas Concert will be given in Phi Beta Kappa auditorium, December 4, at 8 P.M.

Cast Of 17 Shows Struggle Of Nation

Actor Howe Comes Dec. 13

As the third number in the William and Mary Concert series sponsored by the Friends of the College, Minnie Howe will give a performance of her original character sketches titled "Characters and Criticisms" on December 13, at 8 P.M.

Phil Delta Pi Gives Christmas Dance

The annual Tuberculosis Sale drive on campus has been opened by Phi Delta Pi. Other organizations are taking part in the drive, and the sale will continue until Friday, November 1.

Newsdesk | The College of William and Mary | DECEMBER 7, 1943

Copyright © 2023 The College of William and Mary

All rights reserved.
Greek Letters

By RUTH WINTER

Gomma Phi Beta, Chi Omega, Kappa Delta, Delta Tau Delta, Kappa Kappa Gamma had their fledging ceremonies on December 29.

Saturday, December 4th.

A high school contest in the Colonial City.

SUNDAY — NOT A SOUND,

duets in the forthcoming issue of Magazine Digest, all royalties for the winning song.

SPECIAL RATES TO STUDENTS

Now, it's not only the Happy Bunk but it's the Educational Department that is bullying me. I've always been a bit strong and dignified and...
Army Trainees Are Eligible For Professional Schooling

Aptitude Tests Will Be Given

A recent announcement by the War Department affects trainees of the A.S.T.P. who are interested in professional schooling. Under the A.S.T.P. who are interested in professional training under the Army Specialist Training Program. The new plan provides for qualifying examinations to be given to all Basic Engineering trainees in Term I, and to those in Term II who wish to apply.

Men selected from this list of eligibility will begin their professional training in February, 1944. Previous quotas of men referred under the old ruling, will not permit entry of newly selected trainees for professional training until January, 1945.

Advantage acceptance to the medical school is no longer required. A qualifying grade on a medical aptitude test will be sufficient. The examinations are supervised by the American Medical Association.

Under the Army program, pre-professional training will occupy the first fifteen months of the course. The final work will take thirty-six months by the College Choir.

Cade Officers

Cade Officers

- Major
  - John Calvin Phillips and Training Officer.
- Captain
  - Haisen, Edwin Adjunct.
- Company
  - John.

Company Cade

- Commanders: Peabody, Donald Lee.
- Adjutants: Noyes, Otis; Lattman, Richard.
- Band Directors: Pope, Louis; Ursini, Nicholas; Hovland, Lloyd; McCalla, Roger.

Cadet Officers

- Company A
  - Commanders: Peabody, Lloyd Lee.
  - Adjutants: Noyes, Otis; Lattman, Richard.
  - Band Directors: Pope, Louis; Ursini, Nicholas; Hovland, Lloyd; McCalla, Roger.

Seniors

- Bill Britton:
  - Major and Cadet Officer.
  - Bill Britton:
  - Cadet Captain.

FEBRUARY

THE FLAT HAT PAGE THREE

Ritter Majors In English; Plans Career Of Writing

By Constance Conway

As Editor of the forthcoming Royalist, Junior Norma Ritter is an important figure on campus.

Norma came to William and Mary from Randolph-Macon College, where she was the editor of the college literary magazine. She is now in charge of the musical background for the current drama, "The Persians".

Norma also finds time for membership in both the Glee Club and the Phi Beta Kappa, and she is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta.

In regard to her policy for the Royalist, Norma says the magazine is to be purely literary in its aspects. Although there will be no photographs, several illustrations will be included. The name of the A.S.T.P. U. as well as the college students, will be mentioned in the notices of men who will be writing in the included, and she expects the magazine to have a wide circulation.

Norma asks that students who can and have not contributed to place do so. On Ferdinand, Norma, the editor's deadline might be met.

New Editor Of Royalist Interested In Dramatics

By Constance Conway

As Editor of the forthcoming Royalist, Junior Norma Ritter is an important figure on campus.

Norma came to William and Mary from Randolph-Macon College, where she was the editor of the college literary magazine. She is now in charge of the musical background for the current drama, "The Persians".

Norma also finds time for membership in both the Glee Club and the Phi Beta Kappa, and she is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta.

In regard to her policy for the Royalist, Norma says the magazine is to be purely literary in its aspects. Although there will be no photographs, several illustrations will be included. The name of the A.S.T.P. U. as well as the college students, will be mentioned in the notices of men who will be writing in the included, and she expects the magazine to have a wide circulation.

Norma asks that students who can and have not contributed to place do so. On Ferdinand, Norma, the editor's deadline might be met.
New Red Cross Chapter Organized On Campus

W.S.C.G.A. Elects Harvey Chairman

The new William and Mary chapter of the American Red Cross is now in the process of being recognized by the national organization. Its petition for formal recognition was sent in last week. College students will be entirely responsible for the workings and success of this new chapter, because it will work independently of the community chapter.

At the meeting of the Women Student's Cooperative Government Association last week officers of the new chapter were elected as follows: Eleanor Harvey, Chairman; Sunny Trumbo, Vice-Chairman; Nancy Carriage, Secretary; and Peggy Points, Treasurer. According to the newly elected chairman, a meeting was held last week with the James City County officials of the Red Cross. A college representative was also sent to the Fort Eustis Camp Hospital Council to make plans for local war work. This meeting resulted in plans for the William and Mary chapter to aid in wrapping candy to be sent to Camp Patrick Henry.

The Red Cross also plans to aid the War Council in sending boxes to the men at Camp Patrick Henry at Christmas.

Essay On History

Open To Students

Colonial Dames Society Will Give Award April 1

For many years the Society of Colonial Dames in the State of Virginia has offered a prize of $100 to the young men and women of the accredited colleges of Virginia for the most hopeful and scholarly essay upon some phase of Colonial History in Virginia. Again this year the award is being offered. The choice of a subject is left to the writer.

The following rules govern the contest:

1. The essay must not exceed 2,500 words in length.
2. Registration size paper, 15” x 23” with writing on one side only, must be used. The script must be typed and placed in a folder.
3. All questions and references must be annotated in footnotes.
4. A list of books from which material was obtained must be appended.
5. The writer's name must be placed in a sealed envelope.
6. The paper shall become the property of the Colonial Dames. 34th Street, New York, New York, and must become part of the permanent collection of the organization.
7. The essay must be in the hands of the committee by April 1, 1944, and should be addressed to Miss Lucy Taliaferro, Chairman of Prize Essay Committee.

Any student interested in Virginia history of Colonial period who would like to enter this contest, should see either Dr. R. L. Morton or Dr. Jen H. Jackson.

NATIONAL BARBER SHOP

Best Shop in Town With Good Barbers
PROF. J. A. REID

FOR PRINTING

See The Virginia Gazette, Inc.
PHONE 192
Rear of Post Office

Barclay & Sons
Jewellers
CERTIFIED GEMOLOGISTS

Gala Chaplains' Aide Party Sponsored By War Council

ClubNotes

Kappie Galatarios Phi held its pledge ceremony on Tuesday, November 29, at 4 o'clock. The new pledges are as follows: Norma Bradshaw, Margaret Carey, Virginia Durr, Virginia Dunham, Betty Freeman, Joan Morgan, Frances Lewis, Janet Miller, Roselle Miller, Janet Stanclark, and Carol Steinbach.

Because of the last minute occurrence of Fromm's Triumphant, the November meeting of Spanish Club was postponed until after rush week. Those who have paid or will bring their dues, will be initiated Wednesday, December 8, at 10, in Barrett east living room. A varied program of music and entertainment, including songs with everyone singing Spanish Christmas carols, will comprise the evening's program. Refreshments will be served.

CALL 127
For Your Winter Needs Coal and Fuel Oil
Williamsburg Coal Co., Inc.

A Complete Variety of GROCERIES - MEATS FRESH PRODUCE

Costume Jewelry

for Christmas Gifts

Give glamour and gaiety this Christmas! Come in and choose from our sparkling selection of fascinating styles in Costume jewelry - bracelets, beads, pins and earing sets - dramatic fabled pinnips. You'll find real inspiration for your gifts this giving here in early, while our selections are still at their peak.

.00 to 15.95

C A S E Y ' S, Inc.
Williamsburg, Va.

As You Were Saying...

By MAURREN GOTHIN

The women's dormitories recently have received aid on a lot of things. It seems that everything is getting pretty slip-shod. There are a lot of new ideas on the college system which is not working out so well for some reason or other. As the tales have it, frats come and go, telephones ring, and there is a plentiful amount of novelty by everyone except the Saddlemaker, the callgirl, and as a result so one goes together. There's room for a lot of experimentation there. Incidentally, there's usually a little dirt on both sides of the road.

Suggestion have floated in the effect that when the A.A.T.U. orchestra is not in session on Saturday night, it might be awfully nice if good use were made of the second strings, or at the Sadie Hawkins dance, in old time. Twelve o'clock is still twelve Wednesday, December 8, in Barrett east living room. A varied program of music and entertainment, including songs with everyone singing Spanish Christmas carols, will comprise the evening's program. Refreshments will be served.

Toward the end of the party, "Daddy" was dedicated to one of the specifics because he had just become the proud papa of a new Delta Gamma legacy. Refreshments consisting of cider and cookies were served in the Dodger Room.

The War Council was responsible for the party with Ray Leavy and Ruth Schmitz as co-chairmen. Dorm Fireplaces was in charge of decorations. Midge Mitchell, food; Ann James, invitations; Elaine Lewis, entertainment; and Frances Butler was head of the cleanup committee.

The Boston Transcript pronounced her "A veritable genius for this form of sport."}

Tuesday, December 7, 1943
By BILLY GEIGER

drawn up for both freshman and 150-elevens since the days of the Fabulous Pounders, and after two weeks of practice, the Green, Gold and Silver wind spiked the Indians' only offensive weapon and again ground to a halt.

A crowd of 3,000 jammed Builder Field Tuesday, December 7, 1943 to see the Battle of the Blue and Gold. It was a battle of wits rather than power that commanded the attention of the 3,000 fans. The play was fast in the first half, with both teams displaying good ball control and excellent passing and kicking. Bill Albert, the William and Mary varsity hockey columnist, said "the play was fast in the first half, with both teams winning and losing by inches." The Indians took the ball on their own 30 yard line to the William and Mary 40 yard line. On the next play, the Indians took the ball and after dodging a couple of Indian backs and quick passes by the Indian line, the Indians took the ball and moved it to the William and Mary 40 yard line. The play was fast in the first half, with both teams displaying good ball control and excellent passing and kicking.

The following week, the Braves used Ben Raimondi's

The play was fast in the first half, with both teams displaying good ball control and excellent passing and kicking. Bill Albert, the William and Mary varsity hockey columnist, said "the play was fast in the first half, with both teams winning and losing by inches." The Indians took the ball on their own 30 yard line to the William and Mary 40 yard line. On the next play, the Indians took the ball and after dodging a couple of Indian backs and quick passes by the Indian line, the Indians took the ball and moved it to the William and Mary 40 yard line. The play was fast in the first half, with both teams displaying good ball control and excellent passing and kicking.

The following week, the Braves used Ben Raimondi's

The play was fast in the first half, with both teams displaying good ball control and excellent passing and kicking. Bill Albert, the William and Mary varsity hockey columnist, said "the play was fast in the first half, with both teams winning and losing by inches." The Indians took the ball on their own 30 yard line to the William and Mary 40 yard line. On the next play, the Indians took the ball and after dodging a couple of Indian backs and quick passes by the Indian line, the Indians took the ball and moved it to the William and Mary 40 yard line. The play was fast in the first half, with both teams displaying good ball control and excellent passing and kicking.

The following week, the Braves used Ben Raimondi's

The play was fast in the first half, with both teams displaying good ball control and excellent passing and kicking. Bill Albert, the William and Mary varsity hockey columnist, said "the play was fast in the first half, with both teams winning and losing by inches." The Indians took the ball on their own 30 yard line to the William and Mary 40 yard line. On the next play, the Indians took the ball and after dodging a couple of Indian backs and quick passes by the Indian line, the Indians took the ball and moved it to the William and Mary 40 yard line. The play was fast in the first half, with both teams displaying good ball control and excellent passing and kicking.

The following week, the Braves used Ben Raimondi's

The play was fast in the first half, with both teams displaying good ball control and excellent passing and kicking. Bill Albert, the William and Mary varsity hockey columnist, said "the play was fast in the first half, with both teams winning and losing by inches." The Indians took the ball on their own 30 yard line to the William and Mary 40 yard line. On the next play, the Indians took the ball and after dodging a couple of Indian backs and quick passes by the Indian line, the Indians took the ball and moved it to the William and Mary 40 yard line. The play was fast in the first half, with both teams displaying good ball control and excellent passing and kicking.

The following week, the Braves used Ben Raimondi's

The play was fast in the first half, with both teams displaying good ball control and excellent passing and kicking. Bill Albert, the William and Mary varsity hockey columnist, said "the play was fast in the first half, with both teams winning and losing by inches." The Indians took the ball on their own 30 yard line to the William and Mary 40 yard line. On the next play, the Indians took the ball and after dodging a couple of Indian backs and quick passes by the Indian line, the Indians took the ball and moved it to the William and Mary 40 yard line. The play was fast in the first half, with both teams displaying good ball control and excellent passing and kicking.

The following week, the Braves used Ben Raimondi's

The play was fast in the first half, with both teams displaying good ball control and excellent passing and kicking. Bill Albert, the William and Mary varsity hockey columnist, said "the play was fast in the first half, with both teams winning and losing by inches." The Indians took the ball on their own 30 yard line to the William and Mary 40 yard line. On the next play, the Indians took the ball and after dodging a couple of Indian backs and quick passes by the Indian line, the Indians took the ball and moved it to the William and Mary 40 yard line. The play was fast in the first half, with both teams displaying good ball control and excellent passing and kicking.
Hockey

(Continued from Page 5)

Many backfield then took the ball on the fifty and broke it to the goal for a touchdown. This, the first touchdown, caused the score to be 7-0 and the game was a great success.

Lookout

(Continued from Page 5)

of the Indians, coming out on the third of a 15-0 shutout victory. The Indians were led by (in the best game of the season) and, a memorable victory. Closing the season Thanksgiving Day, Cathedral Greyhounds captured the title as their record was heard out a 72-9-shutdowning the Norfolk Fliers Marion Co.

The season record stands: 150-105. The season record stands: 150-105.
Rhode Island Wranglers, W-M Team Debate On International Police Force

Grube, Gill Define, Outline Force; Visitors Oppose As Destructive

For the first time in its history, the Women’s Debate Council debated with a men’s team last Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. The visiting team, the Wranglers, came from Rhode Island State College. The topic was “Is the creation of an International Police on the defeat of the Axis.” The Williams and Mary team, comprised of Nancy Grube and Winifred Gill, upheld the affirmative side. The Rhode Island speaker, replacing the entire side of the question were Edgar Barwood and Robert Arentger, manager and secretary of the Rhode Island Wranglers. They were accompanied by their president, Kenneth Rehem. Nancy Grube, in her constructive negative-speech, outlined the definition of the term and explained exactly what an International Police Force should be. Mr. Barwood, the first of two speakers on the negative side, approached the problem from the negative side, approached the problem from the negative side, approached the problem from the negative side, approached the problem from the negative side. In his words, an International Police Force would not work because it would not be able to enforce the War Council’s resolutions. The War Council, he surmised, “was not unidimensional.” To support his point, Mr. Barwood gave a quote, “The water pipes burst.”

WAMs Pledge To Give Blood

Christmas activities for the WAMs are already in progress. Number One on the list is the Christmas boxes. The Day Student’s Room is open from 3 to 5 and 2 to 6 every day. This week has seen many of the students who are filling Christmas boxes for the soldiers of Camp Perry, Ohio. Articles in the boxes must be chosen here. WAMs will be given items (not more than four) amounting to fifty cents and wrapping paper and ribbon will be furnished. These boxes can be purchased by Miss Barkdale with funds donated by various town groups. The other items for the boxes are fixed (fifty cents) can be purchased in town. Suggested items are: cards, handkerchiefs, funny books, magazines, etc. Must be turned in at the same time. Student Religious Union. Wren 100. 8 P.M.

Student Musicians

On Tuesday, November 30, the students of the college gave a piano recital in the Music Building. The program included the following:

30 Years Ago

In the Flat Hat

By CONNIE CONWAY

Spelling classes inaugurated several years ago, made it possible for excellent grammar instruction of the professors were evidently of little use. The first mention of the lead article on page one said, quite, “The water pipes burst.” The following week, the Ed Editor gave a profuse and red-faced apology for the “crimes which took place on page one.” What, should it be said the book, Prof. Stover, was held—to whom the name of our German Circus—gave the man out in the Waves. The attendant seemed rather irate. In fact the number of chanceplus exceeded the number of names given—yes, but there was a chance that night. Do what? Oh, stop listing, brother.

“Christmas comes but once, a year, it comes bringing good cheer,”... But that was the truth, Christmas Cheer was getting harder and harder. Such were the worries of students in those days. Now we have to think about where we can get the money to procure—well, that is, to buy presents for the family. And there, the first of two speakers on the negative side, approached the problem from the negative side. In his words, an International Police Force would not work because it would not be able to enforce the War Council’s resolutions. The War Council, he surmised, “was not unidimensional.” To support his point, Mr. Barwood gave a quote, “The water pipes burst.”

White Optical Co.

Medical Arts Building
Newport News, Va.
Letter to Editor

Dear Editor,

What is the outlook of the average student on this campus towards college life, in all respects, during a time of change and confusion that is to come? College is the place that the students are qualified and are willing to apply themselves to. It is in the post-war period after the armistice that their respective fields are going to be needed in order to assure our children that there will be never again an apocalypse in the future, such as some of us have seen and are, and that they are qualified to see in the present, now, but what in the future, is what is our responsibility for the future. Is it our definitive responsibility to meet our obligations on this campus, to do our studies well, to enter into a career of work which is going to be our responsibility in the future. Are boys lying in fox holes at this moment trying to live for the future of our country? For them, it is their future to leave home, ones that may be young and soon to leave home. They are not in college but a lot of them are doing the same thing that is being done on this campus. We have to do our studies or fail. It is in our hands to make the right decisions. These boys are not in college but a lot of them are doing the same thing that is being done on this campus. They are not in college but a lot of them are doing the same thing that is being done on this campus.

Sincerely,

K. R.

Holiday Spirit Lacking Without Yule Ceremony

Have William and Mary changed? One hesitates to mention the College days without specifying by means of an adjective, i.e., Warlike Williams and Mary.

Some may think it unnecessary to mention again the things we now miss as a part of campus life. However, we would like to mention a few things that are most precious to the memories of those of the old school. The freshman orientation picnics and banquets, the athletic teams we support, the devoted pupils that went with our conversation, the homecoming week and its parade and other festivities, fashionably dressed, pimply in Montana, the colorful Yule Log ceremony, the Yule Log executives who are not in college.