Senior Barn Dance Big Success; Rubes, Hicks Main Attractions

By KATE RUTHERFORD

With the campus gone rustic, the senior class barn dance turned out to be a highly successful entertainment for the students last night. The evening began with the reading of the evening, for Joe Bottles, Horace Knox, and Buster Simpson, all of whom, "Please don't stay on my feet I can't get no shoe tip." Many were the patched pants, bright plaid shirts, slacks, vocals, jampacks, and wounded earplugs. Applebys and bubble gum were much in evidence all evening.

Umunch To Join Navy; Voyles To Be Track Coach

Carl Voyles said Thursday that Swede Umbach, newly appointed assistant to the Navy track team, will be expected to be called into the Navy as a member of the 1942-43 Navy track team.

It marks the second time this season that the track coach has been discharged. Dismissed last season was Tom Boggess, who won the 440-yard relay in the conference championship.

In explaining the change, Coach Voyles pointed out that the move was made in the interests of Dick Gallagher and Dudley Mays, who are on the military rolls. The Navy track team is patterned after the Virginia track team beforeumbrella, which led that team to several Southern Conference championships.

Phoenix Literary Society

An evening meeting of the Phoenix Literary Society Thursday, October 28, at 8:00 p.m., held for the purpose of hearing a lecture by Mr. Charles Hooper on "The Unconventional History of the Club," was attended by a large audience. The occasion will be remembered by all who were present.

This is the last column of the year. It is reported that the society will continue for the next year.

Mrs. Foltin holds open house for William and Mary students.

"We have had a letter from Mrs. Foltin, who is the owner and controller of the government. She has asked us to come and talk about the student arrivals. In all the localities, she has many stories and jokes of which Dr. Foltin is尘当 talking. He talked, and laughed merrily, over the evenings more than anything else," Dr. Foltin exclaimed smilingly. "During an informal "evening, at home," in an extremely informal gathering at the Foltins' a memorable event.

Mrs. Foltin and I enjoy one of these open houses, and as the entertainment is a very pleasant and voluntary one, we have decided to continue it this season. Mrs. Foltin will be very glad to have us join her in the enjoyment of these evenings. She has invited us to come and enjoy the company and conversation and she will be happy to have us share the experience.

It is the policy of the Phoenix Literary Society to hold these evening meetings on Wednesdays as it has been found that this is the most convenient time for the members to attend.

Armenian Comments On American Relations

"There is a sense of discomfort between Armenia and the United States, based upon a question which Armenians, almost as a rule, are in the majority of the United States. Are we to consider the attitude of the United States toward the war of the majority of Armenians as an expression of the attitude of the United States toward the war of the majority of Armenians?" This question was asked by Dr. Alexander Chemlak, a who is the author of "The Armenian People in America," last week. According to Dr. Chemlak, the attitude of the United States toward the war of the majority of Armenians may be characterized in that the United States is not in sympathy with the cause of the Armenians, and is not in sympathy with the cause of the Armenian people.
