James Bannan begu on a Leutenant in the Royal Navy of the US and did order him to proceed with her to the Mediterranean Sea and wherever the Frigate of War and was on her way up to the Sea, a revenue cutter by a British vessel of War to which vessel of War she was surrender'd without their having been made which might have been expect'd from the Known Valor of American Men.

which by the accompanying Papers twenty six being a copy of a Letter from the Secretary of the Navy to J. Bannan Esq. dated 15 March 1807, being the copy of a Letter from J. Bannan Esq. to the Secretary of the Navy dated 23rd of June 1807 with a copy of the Papers which transmitted by J. Bannan Esq. to the Secretary of the Navy dated June 23rd, 1807. Being the copy of a Letter from J. Bannan Esq. to the Secretary of the

Sailing Master of the Frigate Philadelphia to the Secretary of the Navy dated 23rd June 1807. Being the copy of a Letter from J. Bannan Esq. to the Secretary of the Navy dated 29th of June 1807. With a copy of the Papers which transmitted by J. Bannan Esq. to the Secretary of the Navy will more fully appear Concerning the Cause of which Surrender we think it necessary that Enquiry should be made in order that we may have a faithful Report made to us of the Cause thereof for our better information. The President of the US has therefore ordered me to Set a Court of Enquiry for the Purposes aforesaid and to enquire accordingly, orders to proceed
To the Right Honorable the Governor and Company of the Province of Pennsylvania,

A petition from the inhabitants of the town of Philadelphia, praying for the speedy execution of the laws of the province, and for the appointment of a proper person to take charge of the public printing office.

The petitioners state that they have been long accustomed to the use of the printed word, and that they are willing to contribute towards the support of the public printing office, provided that a proper person be appointed to superintend it.

They further state that they are willing to contribute towards the support of the public printing office, provided that a proper person be appointed to superintend it.

The petitioners request that the Governor and Company of the Province of Pennsylvania will consider their petition, and take such steps as may be necessary to carry it into effect.

Given under my hand this 20th day of October, 1770.

[Signature]

Copy of Petition.