The Pursuit of the General order Said to be admirals Dorkeys, was that Each and every Ship of his Squadron Should demand and battle by force if they could not be obtained by other means any British subjects who could be found onboard the Ship and that the Commanders of the Ships of his Squadron Should allow a Search onboard their Ships for known enemies two as well as any necessary Goods and that the honor of the Sailor handed me by the Captain of one of his Ships and Said to be admiral Dorkeys
General order

There was General name mentioned in the Body of The order mention of which was unknown to us
