

The Purport of the General order Said to be admiral Boscawen's, was that Each and every Vessel of his Squadron Should demand and take by force if they could not be obtained by other means any British deserters who could be found on board the Chipsheats and that the Commanders of the Ships of his Squadron Should allow a Search on board their Ships for ~~any~~ any deserters thus as well as my ^{Recollection} ~~memory~~ I was the bearer of the Paper handed me by the Vigniting officer and said to be admiral Boscawen's General order

There were several names mentioned in the body of the order ~~mentioned~~ of which were known to us
