Hopes For Indian Triumph Over V.M.I. Rest With Forward Wall

William and Mary Must Stop Dream Backfield, If Locals Are To Beat Strong Keydets

Pritchard, Muha, Calliet and Shelby Will Do Most Of The Damage

William and Mary's hopes for a victory over powerful V. M. I. football team in Lexington next Saturday will rest with the strength of their Football Team's backfield. Their forwards, however, will have to do a good deal of blocking and tackling to give any chance for victory.

Indians Setting Pace In Big Six Football Race

William and Mary's Indians are unchallenged at the top of the Big Six State Football Conference. As a result, they are expected to continue in a winning vein on Saturday when they meet the Keydets.

Homecoming

The game, the outcome of which will decide on V. M. I.'s chances of winning the conference title, will be held at Williamsburg.

Indians Fan RootsVersus Locals Sat.

Many students who are not fortunate enough to play a football game will be watching the game. Woody Gray may at last get to see his favorite team in action. Woody is probably the most ardent fan of the Keydets. Woody has been a friend of the program since his early days as a student at V. M. I.

Cross Country Team Seeks Initial Win

The William and Mary Cross Country team will be seeking its first victory over powerful Virginia football team in the state competition on Saturday. The team has been working hard, and coach Scrap Chandler expects to see its best effort on the course.

Spirit Big Factor In Locals' Victory

Spirit will win a great deal of the football game. The Indians are looking forward to playing the Keydets, and the game will be close.

Cagers Drill Three Nights

Basketball will be held three nights this week, on the night of Wednesday, Thursday and the night before the big game. The players will be working hard to prepare for the game.

Indians Win In Final Minutes

The Virginia team was down 11-7 at halftime, but rallied to tie the game in the second half. The Cavaliers scored the winning points with less than a minute left on the clock.

Frost Priming Tough Games For Richmond Lie Ahead

The Frost team is preparing for a tough week of games. The team will face some strong opponents, but they are determined to win.

VICTORIOUS INDIAN CHIEFS

Many Indians are looking forward to the game with great anticipation. They are confident of victory.

Turf Ball

The William and Mary Turf Ball team is preparing for its big game against Virginia. The team is in top shape, and is expected to win.

Hockey Teams In Two Wins

The hockey teams have won two games this season, and are looking forward to their next match.

Indian Football Team Is Taking Shape

The Indian Football Team is taking shape for the season. They are working hard, and are expected to do well.

Netsetter Like Snails

Tennis Balls Will Soon Be Snowballs

The nets are being strung and the tennis balls are being placed in the snow. The students are looking forward to a good game of tennis.

Jeanne Parquette Trips Unto-Virginia

Jeanne Parquette is making a trip to Virginia, where she will visit friends and relatives. She is looking forward to a good time.

S. A. E. Cagers Apparently Trying To Disprove Old Adage

The S. A. E. Cagers are trying to disprove the old adage that "You can't win on the road." They are determined to win their next game away from home.

S. A. E. Football Team Is Determined To Win

The S. A. E. Football Team is determined to win their next game. They are working hard, and are confident of victory.

Indians' Dream At Last Becomes Reality With Triumph Over Favorable Cavaliers

Johnson Scores Two For Local Machine

The dream of the Big Six Va. team is now full. The Indians, after three years of hard work and preparation, have finally succeeded in winning a championship.

Real McCoy

Williamsburg, being generous, could well have this day without the worries of the day. It was necessary to wait till the weather conditions were favorable. According to the agreement, the team must be strong enough to win the game. This will be the last event of the season. The final home game will be an exciting one. The fans will have a chance to see the game and enjoy the music of the home team.
