GLOUCESTER C. H. A., NOVEMBER 13, 1884.

TO THE EDITOR,

SIR:—

I am writing to you, first of all, to announce that I have been elected mayor of the city of New Bedford, and that I am now on my way to take possession of the office.

I am also sending you a copy of the city charter, which I have been studying carefully.

Yours truly,

MANIFESTO OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

[Text of the Manifesto]

SIGNED BY ALL THE MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

[Signatures]

Theodore Roosevelt, Chairman.

Garfield, McCulloch, Sherman, and others.

[End of Document]
Dreadful Suspense.
NO RESULT YET REACHED.

DEPENS OF THE COUNT
OF THE NEW YORK CITY.

We are yet unable to inform our readers that the election of President and Vice President to this day has been decided. The returns are in, and the New York State is completed as to all the counties in the State except one. The Democratic ticket, which has the greater number of votes, is leading, but the returns are not yet in from the city of New York. The returns from the city of New York are the most important, as the city vote will affect the result of the election. The returns from the city of New York are to be published immediately.

Washington, Oct. 6th.

The campaign of 1888 has come to an end, and the results show that our country has been governed by one party for a year. The results may be seen in the final count of the votes, which is not yet complete. The Republicans have the lead, and the Democrats are a close second. The returns from the city of New York are the most important, as the city vote will affect the result of the election. The returns from the city of New York are to be published immediately.
