1824, November 26

G. W. LAFAYETTE, Esq.

COMMO. JAMES BARRON, Philadelphia, Pa.

"Longely illegible, but begins, "My letter gives me the agreeably thought of assuring your letter..."
Baltimore, November the 26th, 1844

My dear Commodore,

My father gives me the agreeable task of answering you for having called on me. I shall be obliged to you for a letter stating that the committee have had a letter, stating that the committee will be ready for the laying of the cornerstone. My father has not yet answered to him, till tomorrow and indeed will not answer to him, till tomorrow. When will the meeting of Congress be? I shall be glad to know when they are. If you see Mr. Sergeant, will you be so good as to let him know my father wishes to communicate with him immediately.

Your very assiduous, kind, and unfortunate, yet very gratifying, and very respectful, and most cordial, and most respectful, and most truly, with the greatest affection and regret of its having been so short, permit me to hope that the expression of devasers's, and my best regards will be acceptable to you.

C. W. D. Sergeant

Commodore Barron
