"Copy of letter to Detroit. Extract.

As to the Nov. election the question is simply whether they will vote for those who would hang, draw and quarter, or for the party which has consistently and steadfastly granted and maintained all the rights and privileges which foreigners are allowed to possess and participate in when naturalized and which has sealed its legacy to Irish citizens by electing for its standard bearer James Buchanan—

I should have felt some hesitation about endorsing him fully in consequence of his farewell speech in leaving England. Had I not had it fully and entirely explained to me direct from himself."
as being a mere empty compliment perhaps on leaving the country under the anticipation that war would soon occur, he felt embarrassed as to what to say and thought it most politic before the world to say something as civil as possible.

It would take more than that speech, to make one vote against a Democratic nominee is to place a weapon in the hand of a Thrown thing, by my vote, to knock out my own trains etc.

By this additional - No, standing on the loftiest peak of the snow-capped (in cold weather) mountains which overhang in gloomy majesty the crowded thoroughfares of the metropolis of Bristol, the Back points to its mineral springs as the fittest
Emblems of his own ferruginous predictions and of the spontaneous outjumps of the great will of the mighty, and unbendid Democracy—Norah—Norah—Norah—

C. R. Woodruff, Secretary.

5TH WARD.—AT A LARGE AND HIGHLY ENTHUSIASTIC
General meeting of the democratic republican’s electors of the 5th Ward, held at Lakin’s 5th Ward Hotel, on Monday evening, the 9th inst., it was Resolved, That the meeting at once proceed to organize an association, to be called the Fifth Ward Buchanan and Breckinridge Club. After a complete enrollment of those present, it was unanimously resolved that A.manual B. Hart, be elected President.

An election was then ordered for two Vice-Presidents, Secretaries, and Treasurer, which resulted in the choice of Moses, James Wright, and Joseph A. Jackson, for Vice-Presidents; C. R. Woodruff and William Francis, Secretaries, and Lymon Condor, for Treasurer.

The following resolutions were then unanimously adopted—
*Resolved, That we hail with unanimous satisfaction the nomination of James Buchanan, of Pennsylvania, as the democratic candidate for President of the United States, recognizing in our chosen standard bearer a democrat of the school of Jefferson, Madison, Monroe and Jackson; and a statesman, whose great experience, ability, unimpeachable integrity and devotion to the constitution, unimpeachably qualify him, at this crisis in our national affairs for the exalted position to which he is destined to be elected, and to the attainment of which we hereby pledge ourselves to use all honorable efforts.

Resolved, That we also cordially approve of the nomination of John G. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, for Vice President—a gentleman, whose eloquence, ability and sound democracy enable him to the confidence and unanimous support of his fellow citizens.

Resolved, That with peculiar gratification we adopt and endorse the chivalrous and sound democratic platform laid down by the Cincinnati Convention, recognizing in the sentiments which it embodies the long cherished and gallantly defended principles of the great radical democratic party.

Resolved, That we congratulate the democracy of the country upon the union of our party, as added and cemented at Cincinnati and pledged from that union a return of the glorious era when the democratic party, moving in solid and united phalanx, was always victorious.

The association was most eloquently addressed by A. Jackson Plumb, J. W. Allen and Dr. J. J. Kohlman. It was a fit occasion.

Resolved, That this club meet on Wednesday evening, at 7 o’clock at the Fifth Ward Hotel, for the purpose of presenting in procession to the ratification meeting to be held in the Park.

The following resolutions, offered by A. J. Plumb, Esq., was adopted—
*Resolved, That we recommend to the democracy of the city the daily news, as a good and sound democratic paper.

M. S. Hart, President.

JAMES WRIGHT, Vice President.

J. A. JACKSON, Vice President.

W. FRANCIS, Secretary.