Commodore Trunnion & L. Hatchway engaged in a Fox-chace.
London: Published by J. Sibbald 1798.
Fire at the Inn—Peregrine rescues Emilia &c.

London. Published by J. Sibbald 1796.
Rod. Random joins a party of French Soldiers
Feast after the manner of the Antients.

London. Published by J. Sibbald 1796.
Lieut. Bowling visits Rod: Random in prison

London Publish'd as the Act directs by J. Sibbald Augt 10 1783.
Pollet's odd scheme of revenge against his Jewish rival.
Tom Jones rescues Mrs. Waters from the violence of Northerton
Narcissa contemplates the picture of Rod. Random
Sophia's modesty shocked by a fall from her horse.
Peregrine relieves a distressed family and meets Lady V.

London. Published by J. Bybald, 1790.
Partridge interrupts Tom Jones in his protestations to Lady Bellaston
Lord Tullamar rudely dismissed by Squire Western Cadwallader assumes the Character of a Fortune-teller.

London: Published by J. Sayer, 1736.
Peregrine purchases a Gypsy Girl from her Mother.
Published as the Act directs by J. Sibbald 1792.

Lady Booby attempts to seduce the immaculate Joseph.
Published as the Act directs by J. Sibbald 1792.

Parson Adams & Fanny examined as culprits before the country Justice.
Parson Adams engaged in a perilous hunting Adventure.
Joseph hastens to rescue Fanny from imminent danger.
Published as the Act directs by J. Sibbald 1792

Parson Adams discovered in a suspicious situation with Mrs. 'Lipslop!'
The infant Jones found in the bed of Mr. Allworthy.