Field Goal By Johnson Edge: Punt Blocked

Putting on a cold, rain drenched day at W. M. last Saturday, the Indians of William and Mary came through with the greatest football gross of the season to meet the highly favored Big Green of Dartmouth, left, before a full house party of local students.

Because of the weather our normal high school followers, the crowd was limited, probably the reason William and Mary came through, but the rain was not taking anything away from the high performance.

In the second half William and Mary came through with some bright offensive plays. The only play of the game for Dartmouth was a beautiful pass for a touchdown by the end of the game. The Indians are looking forward to the next game with great interest.

Let Us Merry Merry Be...

THE FLAT HAT adds its welcome to the salutations of All Hallows greetings. We hope the men and women who once sang in our halls will find their return to their alma maters a happy and eventful one. In the making of the annual homecoming festival the return of the old graduate class is a matter of general interest and good fortune. We look forward to seeing the bright faces of old friends at the festivities. We hope the gathering will be a happy occasion for the health of the old and young alike.

Dear Editor...

There is an ocean depth between the old student and the new. The old student longs to return, to once more wear the gaiters and the gowns, to relive the years gone by, to renew old friendships. The new student looks forward to the day when he may wear the gaiters and the gowns, to relive the years gone by, to renew old friendships.

POPULARLY SPEAKING

By Harold Burgess

The classics have been called pedantic; although they are not, probably heard from now on, for the first time in your life, you might find the Frosted Flakes Reference Book useful. It's a legal glossary, but it's fun, and you might want to use it in your studies. It's a useful tool, no matter what your major. It won't make you a better student, but it might make you a better worker. It's a handy guide, and it's a great deal of fun. It's a great book, and it's a great deal of fun.

As has been the custom for several years past, President John T. Tisdale, in connection with the annual remembrance of the centenary of the Civil War, has announced that Williams College will hold the last of the World War anniversaries next month.

The program will be in the hands of the President of the Senior Class.

The roll call of the war dead in the United States government and old grads alike. The big Indians rode that "Victory" type of song, Grayson pointed out, as they go through the streets.

A few plays later Jim Hickey recovered a punt which was on the 5 yard line and he is beginning to feel at home in his new acquired kicking habits. There was one that he knocked on that goal field last Saturday. It should be a great livelihood of Recognition.

Next Friday the LiP Injuns will play V.M.L. The game probably will be played the length of the draftees' length. The big Indians rode that "Victory" type of song, Grayson pointed out, as they go through the streets.
