

Dear Lillian and all

I want you all
to know that I certainly haven't ceased
to think of all of
you, you included.

It is so sad and
hard to try to get back to normal
things with the vacancy. As I told you I have no word
of comfort - it is

just something we can't understand.
We just have to accept what happens
and go ahead as best
we can knowing
the ~~the~~ Higher Power does protect as well as take as has been so aptly illustrated
in your family.

Kathleen and I
were talking yesterday and she so
want to nerve down

for an afternoon soon. She says she can't go before Thurs.
so that is the day
we have in mind.
He'll try to drop
you a card the first of week - we'll also drop you a card
since we want to see her.

If we do get down
and you have any more chickens I'd like to get some

and some more feed. I'm having my next to last
chicken for supper
tonight.

I do hope that Bobbie G. will be at home to stay
soon. He looks for well.

Much love for all
Ada
