Voters to Select Queen From Eight Candidates

Election of May Queen will take place Thursday, in the large and small cafeterias from 11:30 a. m. to 12:30 p.m. and from 5 to 6 p.m. The eight girls who received the majority of votes at last week's preliminary election will go to the final round Thursday. The Whirligig is not authorized to name them.

The girl receiving the greatest number of votes will be May Queen while the runner-up will be the maid of honor. The May Court will consist of the remaining finalists.

Plans for the May Day program to take place on May 20 are already under way.

Jim Anthony, booth committee chairman, has announced that sororities and fraternities, contributing to this event, should have their plans in by April 1. Fifteen dollars has been set at the limit that each organization may spend. In case of rain, the fair will be held inside little Gymnasium.

The coronation of the queen will take place Saturday, May 20, in the sunken garden, and dances have been scheduled for Friday and Saturday nights in Blow Gym.

Lambert Announces Fall Term Averages

If statistics mean anything, the women at William and Mary are smarter than the men. They make better grades anyway.

According to a quality point average report for the Fall Term of 1949, there were 1,222 men and 705 women, will not be in her office from March 25 through April 1. The other classes were listed as

If the applicant exhibits a state fishing license, he will be granted the privilege of fishing in Matoaka Lake, it was pointed to work with the administration.

Under the leadership of Hugh Playles, vice president of the student body, a committee was appointed to work with the administration concerning the situation.

In granting permission, Dr. John E. Pomfret, president of the college, issued the following statement:

"Students wishing permission to fish must be applicants for fishing license, he will be granted the privilege of fishing in Matoaka Lake, it was pointed to work with the administration."

Annually Spring Concert

W&M Choir Prepares Annual Spring Concert

A varied program ranging from the sacred music of the Russian compositors to the spirituals of the American Negro will be the program of music presented by the William and Mary Choir in its annual spring concert next Thursday afternoon in the large auditorium, September 19, at 3 p.m.

The program, which begins each night at 7 p.m., is to consist of three major groups. The first of these is the Sacred music of three of the great composers of the Golden Age of Central Polyphony. Books in this group will be Exultate Deo, Palestrina; Ave Verum Corpus, Byrd; and O. Magnum Mysterium, Victoria. A number of chorales makes up the second group. Included will be Choralis Constantinus, Wagner; God, My King Thy Might Magnificat, Bach; and In Exsilio Gloria, from a British melody arranged by Lavarn.

Negro's Contribution

The Negro's contribution to the music of America, the spiritual, will be rendered in this third group. The choir will render such spirituals as Hail to the Chief, arranged by Knopf, Were You There, arranged by Sartigue, and Been All Be Done, arranged by Davies.

Following this third group there will be a short intermission after which the fourth group, that of the sacred works of Russian composers will be presented. "The lake was overpopulated with fish and there would be an effort for all students who wished to enjoy the sport," said Dr. John E. Pomfret, president of the college.

Student Body Gains Fishing Permission

Due to the work of the General Co-operative Committee, William and Mary students are now allowed to fish in Matoaka Lake, it was announced this week.

John Dayton, president of the student body, said that the lake was overpopulated with fish and there would be an effort for all students who wished to enjoy the sport.

Dear Sir;

I am writing this letter because I enjoy seeing my name in print and because I have nothing better to do.

Just for kicks I'm going to gripe about the cafeteria. I realize this is a ridiculous thing to do, but for显露 its failings. I have the feeling that the cafeteria situation has been deplorable for a good many years, and I'm convinced it will remain in this state for a good many years to come.

After coagulating my stomach with crude crackers and drinking milk from a Kool-Aid bottle, I wound up with a large ball of indigestible residue. It was big enough to make a bull feel self-conscious.

You can make a list of figures stand on their heads and whistle Dixie if you want to, but pure logic will tell you that they aren't getting your money's worth. This is evidenced by the fact that if you were to ask the cafeteria of another school what they serve, you would be told that various cafeterias serve better food, more of it, and at lower prices. It's like saying the American opera is much better than the operas in England or France.

It is needless to state the many advantages that would be gained by making the cafeteria grossly mis-managed or someone is making a fortune at our expense.

In any case, I like William and Mary and I'll graduate in two years anyway. It seems a shame though—How do you feel about it?

I hope you print this letter, because I think the "griever" just a peaches, jimmies, woo-dee-dee newspaper.

Very sincerely,

Douglas A. Ryder

In view of recent comment assigning un-American doctrines to the World Federal movement, the following facts should be made known.

World Federation advocates change through legal and democratic processes. Any government, no matter what its form, would evolve through constitutional amendment—largely by an, or revolutionary practice. None of Federalist doctrines are any of the civil liberties found in our federal constitution.

World Federation advocates the right to speak and spread communics. Because Federalists advocates self-determination of governmental forms it is not suscepible to oppression. Of course, the right to free speech is a right that is among the young people who lack the courage to inquire about World Federalism because of fear of stigma involved. Federalists feel that the lack of inquiry at this time is discouraging to the young people. Others are governors, senators and Supreme Court justices. I'm having trouble trying to formulate an illuminating philosophy upon the American scene.

Dear Sir;

A few weeks ago I visited Waverly Field, Duke and University in the north, and I thought I was going to make a debate trip. While at each of the schools I had an opportunity to visit their cafeterias. I was repeatedly struck by the high prices and low quality of the food and lower prices, although it is all too true.

I should just like to say that no one the three schools involved, one of the most泷陷 forehead practices here at William and Mary, is the north Carolina schools which I visited, it is up to the individual student whether he wishes to eat at the school or at a local restaurant.

It is also the case that in north Carolina have a great deal more freedom that is accorded to us even though our school is located in the "cradle of democracy." However, I have given up eating at the cafeteria because of the quality of the food and low prices, although it is all too true.

Very truly yours,

The William and Mary basketball team, after being soundly whipped on Friday night, closed the basketball season and announced its Virginia last Saturday by a score of 23-9 overall record.

Behind 31-27 at halftime, the Wilsonmen, playing before a raucous crowd in Cincinnati, turned the game around and poured in 30 points to grab victory in the last 15 minutes.

The Bearcats were led by Thomas, the leading scorer, who is the third place in the tournament, and a 3-9 overall record.

Whites Defeat Greens 27-12 in Intracampus Game

Yewcic, Mioduszewski Lead Whites; Lewis, Weber Greens

William and Mary's 1950 football squad put on a preview of things to come for some 2,500 spectators Saturday, who saw the Whites defeat the Greens 27-12 in a regulation game.

The fans got their first view of the tricky and diversified attack of the new "Y" formation, and also witnessed some spectacular play ing by the Whites' Paul Yewcic and Ed Mioduszewski.

Yewcic, a sophomore quarterback, led the Whites in running, passing and kicking, and he scored the first touchdown of the afternoon.

The Greens' lead was short lived, however, when Paul Sica (center) into the clear. The Whites' Ted Gehlmann has blocked out John Kreamer and ran the ball into the end zone to put the Whites leading 7-6 at halftime.

In the second half, the Whites quickly added to the trend with two touchdowns. The first came when George Zupko and Lou Goodlow combined to block Lewis' punt with the ball going out of bounds on the one-yard line. Fullback John Connors pounced on the fumble for the score. Mioduszewski set-up and scored the second tally on a four-yard run off tackle.

Through the game, McCray singled out guards Joe Mark and BiU Martin of Pi Kappa and Hedman and Walzak are now in the quarterfinals.

The intramural handball tournament entered the fourth round of play last week with SAE's Paul Yewcic downing the hoopsters of Chi O in a hotly fought, 25 to 24 basketball game in Blow Gym.

Kappa Sig Finally Wins, Beats Chi O In Upset of Week

Men once again proved themselves to be the stronger sex last Thursday night, when the Kappa Sig's finally downed the hooper's of Chi O in a hotly fought, 25 to 24 basketball game in Blow Gym.

The second half proved equally exciting as exciting as the first half, but the Chi O "goal-guarders" couldn't stop Kappa Sig's red hot Hendrich-Stewart combination.

Combination Play

Their combination play went something like this: Hendrich would hop up on Stewart's shoulders, the ball would be passed to Hendrich, and Stewart would make a bee-line for the basket.

Clad in borrowed football uniforms and sneakers, and with water pistols concealed under their helmets, the Kappa Sigs finally scored the winning point on one play.

Distraction Plot

Adelaide Leftwich of Chi O, water boy, was involved in a "distraction plot" planned by the Chi O Omegas at halftime. Appearing on the scene in a bedazzled black costume definitely not designed for winter wear, she served water in beer mugs to the Kay Sigs.

Pi KA, Rhoem Vie for 2nd

As the fraternity basketball league heads into the final week, only seven games remain. This week's major encounter is the Pi KA-Sigma Rho contest for second place.

Undaunted SAE finished their season unscathed by smothering Sigma Pi 68-37. The well-balanced SAE attack was led by Randy Davis, Ray Sloan, Joe Gudermann, and Bill Weston who scored 16, 14, 13, and 13 points respectively.

Major Barrett To Hold Interviews
For Marine Corps Leader Program

Men and women students who are interested in entering the Marine Corps Platoon Leader program may gain information on the subject tomorrow and Thursday, when Major Charles D. Barrett, USMC, will hold interviews from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. in the second floor corridor of the Wren Building.

Major Barrett emphasized three phases of the program that have been particularly appealing. The most important, in his consideration, is the eligibility for retirement under Public Law 810 after graduation, but does not compel it. One can go on active duty with a regular commission if properly qualified, but it will take an act of Congress to compel active duty status.

Commissions for Women

The other point is that the program offers commissions to qualified women under the same conditions as those for men, with the exception that there are fewer vacancies.

The program calls for freshmen, sophomores in particular, due to the summer training requirement, but will take juniors who have had at least one year of previous service.

Requirements

The requirements, besides the class requirements already mentioned, include that the student be of good scholastic standing in his class, and require a letter from the Dean attesting the fact, the physical examination is the one given for entrance to the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis. Major Barrett stated that he would like to enlist at least six students from William and Mary.

Training camps are conducted in two increments for each class, according to Major Barrett. The junior course has opening dates set at July 2 and 30, while the senior course begins on June 18 and July 9. He stated that it is generally possible for the candidate to get whichever group he desires.

Dr. A. C. McGiffert To Talk In Chapel

Dr. A. C. McGiffert, president of the Chicago Theological Seminary, will speak in Chapel tomorrow, after which he will attend a reception given him by the Student Religious Union in the City Hotel lounge.

As opposed to the Christian philosophy of time, Dr. John H. Grey, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, defined in his paper last week the philosophies of time as conceived by other distinct groups.

The Communist, he explained, derived their feeling of superstition from their concept of time as belonging solely to them and that in all phases of time there is on their side working to their advantage.

The Jew, Dr. Grey said, believes in the devil, for civilization is doomed for destruction excepting for those who can accept Jesus Christ.

As an extreme example of definition of this time element, Dr. Grey said the individualistic philosophy that time aside from that used for making a living is his personal property and hence not his responsibility.

He stresses that the Christian philosophy of time differs from that of the others in the respect that their time is the possession of God and that He entrusts us with it. Time is the essence of life and that takes the forms of leadership, responsibility and liberty.

In his final analysis of time, Dr. Grey recited a few lines from the Stabat Mater during one that "Yesterday only a dream, tomorrow only a vision; today well lived makes of every yesterday a joyful memory and of every tomorrow a vision of hope. Look well therefore to this day.

Visitors To Witness 18th Century Play In April and May

An 18th century comedy, Dr. Last in His Church, will be presented late weekly during April and May as another colonial entertainment activity for springtime visitors to Williamsburg.

Staged in the manner of pre-Revolutionary days, the old play will be given on Friday evenings beginning April 7. It will be presented at the Reception Center where the specialty-contracted stage has been equipped with the necessities of a colonial theater to provide a setting reminiscent of the 1770's.

The three-act play, Dr. Last in His Church, a satire on hypochondriacs and quack doctors, is an 18th century adaptation byDorchester and Poole of a Moliere play and was popular among modern audiences of the 20th century in England and in the colonies. It will be enacted by the College of William and Mary Theatre.

VA Announces Plan Of Dividend Checks

The Veterans Administration announced this week that generally speaking, insurance dividend checks are mailed out according to serial numbers whose last three digits are low, but there are numerous exceptions to this general rule.

For example, applications are handled in groups, up to certain cut-off dates. Two veterans may have the same three serial digits, but the date on which VA received their applications will put them into different groups. The veteran in the earlier group will get his check sooner than the one in the later group, in spite of their same serial digits.

Also, many of the applications have to be hand-processed by VA instead of run in the machine production, hence that has been slowed down. Due to the limitations of the machines, when a veteran's last three serial numbers whose last three digits have more than 15 letters, it fails in this check.

Cub Cadet Carlson won his wings in April, 1943, was assigned to P-47 Thunderbolts with the 368th Fighter Group in England, to break ground for the Normandy invasion.

Spanish Club Holds Banquet at Thieme's

A banquet attended by members of the Spanish Club was held last Wednesday evening at Thieme's Dining Room.

The program included a quiz in which each member, representing an outstanding Spanish personality, attempted to identify himself by asking leading questions. During the meal, members conversed on various topics in Spanish.

A plan to hold a similar supper each month as well as a card playing tournament was discussed.

All Spanish students have been invited into membership, announced Bob Saba, president of the club.

CBS Airs Program About Williamsburg

On Sunday, March 19, a nation-wide broadcast over CBS entitled "The Stamp Act Rebellion" covered Williamsburg. Spot radio coverage was given to an historic event which occurred in this city some 200 years ago. The broadcast, which was part of the network's "You Are There" series, dealt with the dramatic arrival of a representative of the King in Williamsburg to collect the Stamp Tax. As such reports were on the air, a Colonel George Mercer, a native of Williamsburg who was appointed High Sheriff in 1766, a visit to London, was met by seething crowds of angry colonists upon his arrival back in Williamsburg. The tension and descriptive mannerings were reported by CBS newsmen Bill Leonard, Ned Cal&)mer, Don Holtschlag and Quinn Brown, from points of vantage in Williamsburg, Boston and New York.

IFC Amendment Calls for Revision of Rotation Plan

In an effort to help campus frustration assume more responsibility the Interfraternity Council last night proposed several new measures and amendments to the Constitution at a meeting held in Phi Beta Kappa Auditorium. The amendment was attended by members of all the fraternities, with Jack Gully acting as spokesman for the Council.

Would Abolish Rotation

Among the major proposals was a suggestion on the part of the council for changing the system of choosing a president. At present the system is to rotate the offices from fraternity to fraternity.

Under the proposed amendment the council would nominate three men, with those fraternities whose men were on the ballot being ineligible to vote. Each council member would nominate three men and those whose names appear most often would go on the ballot.

The president, it was proposed, shall be elected from second rotation, with those fraternities whose men were on the ballot being ineligible to vote. Each council member would nominate three men and those whose names appear most often would go on the ballot.

Religious News

The Baptist Student Union will have an installation banquet on March 28 for its newly elected officers. Dr. Archibald Ward, pastor of the Baptist church, will be the speaker.

Continuing the Student Religious Union affair, the Canterbury Club will be entertained by the Wesley Foundation at the Methodist Church Sunday night.

The Presbyterian Dinner Club will hold a square dance from 7 to 10 Friday night at the Brethren Church.

Rae Harcum, Joy Reynolds, Jim Reaves and Bob Strohmire attended the conference of the Methodist Student Movement at Kynllyn this past weekend.

Among the major proposals was a suggestion on the part of the council for changing the system of choosing a president. At present the system is to rotate the offices from fraternity to fraternity.
