Mr. John Austin

Dear Sir,

Gabriel tells me that your teams have nothing they can do. This weather is so I should be extremely obliged to you if you will lend me your wagon and mules for a day or two to haul ice. If they can come please start them as early as possible.

Your friend

Edw. L. Scull

February 2nd, 1865