WHAT DID THE STARS FORETELL AT YOUR BIRTH

Capricorn
December 23—January 21

Energetic, ambitious and self-centered, but very conservative. As business partner, unsympathetic, but reliable; not generous, but just; accurate to the last detail. Prefers to work alone. Domestic and unable to make a lasting friendship. Writes and speaks eloquently, but without originality. Best companions—Taurus and Virgo.

Cusp of Capricorn
January 21—28

Complex personality. Conservative, yet more friendly and impersonal than his neighbor Capricorn.
Aquarius
January 21—February 20

An all around person but specializing in nothing. Fond of imparting knowledge to others. An excellent teacher, a good surgeon and a poor mathematician. Kind, generous and courageous. Common sense stupendous, but too practical to be visionary. Never gives quick or drastic decisions; too restrained and discreet. Writes fluently and pleasantly, but too superficial to be real good authors. Many bachelors. A good public citizen. Best companions—Gemini and Libra.

Cusp of Aquarius
February 21—28

Honorable in business and all other relations. Obliging and promising favors at the moment, forgetting them the next. When happily married, are the most joyous of people.

Pisces
February 20—March 22

Natural wanderers. Lack concentration and directness. Adaptability to circumstances, and environment may be their salvation. Careless with money. Genial and life of party. Essentially lazy; most domestic. Sub-conscious mind is better mind. Makes a good friend. Best companions—Cancer and Scorpio.

Cusp of Pisces
March 21—28

Impressionable, unselfish, and domineering. Generous and great business ability.

Aries
March 22—April 21

Energetic, proud, aggressive, self-willed and impulsive. Vast initiative, but lack persistency. Good conversationalist, and can be depended upon always to provide entertain-ment. Diplomatic, honest and generous in money matters. More capable than others in public affairs. Can progress, but not change radically. Make excellent orators. Best companions—Virgo and Capricorn.

Cusp of Aries
April 19—27
Idealistic, practical. Not always physically robust, but have a wiry, tenacious nature. Very imaginative.

Taurus
April 21—May 22
A hard sign to overcome. Muscular, endurance almost superhuman. Many acrobats. Patient and calm, but when roused, very excitable. Good for executive positions. Sound, conservative financier. A loyal and trusting friend. Unless understood they develop an inferiority complex. Best companions—Virgo and Capricorn.

Cusp of Taurus
May 20—27
Versatilely gifted. Great thinkers, orators and inventors. Busy and helpful when interested, but indolent when in poor spirits. Proud, preferring starvation to dependence. When understood are willingly helpful with their blending of spiritual and material qualities.

Gemini

if things are going well. Best companions—Aquarius and Libra.

Cusp of Gemini
June 21—28
Self-willed and conceited. Mercurial. Magnetic personality; both brilliant and great talkers, sometimes ardent readers. Conservative, intellectual and affectionate.

Cancer
June 22—July 24
Both active and passive. Their determination of an idea cannot be balked, but if hurt they lose heart. Idealistic, poetic, romantic and imaginative, often times lazy. Inspiring teachers or guides. Rarely strongly intellectual. Spiritually developed. Moody. Easily adaptable to environment. Writes fluently and pleasantly, but unoriginal. Easily swayed and should cultivate independence, generally taking the line of least resistance. Enjoy working with their hands. Best friends—Pisces and Scorpio.

Cusp of Cancer
July 21—28

Leo

Thrifty and constructive in financial matters. Domestic, preferring country to city. Make a good commercial lawyer, scientist or philosopher. Lacks enthusiasm and emotionalism. Enjoys intellectual friendships, but easily broken because of differing opinions. Make a good partner, trustworthy and diligent in all affairs. Best friends—Capricorn and Taurus.

Cusp of Virgo

Discriminating and intellectual. The reserve of Virgo is contradicted by the ease and enthusiasm of Libra making a fascinating character. Always making the best of any circumstance. They are ardent lovers and devoted companions.

The Temple of Diana—at Ephesus in Asia Minor, an ancient but now vanished city, was built in the Fifth Century, B.C. by the Ionian cities as a joint monument. In 356 B.C., the temple was destroyed.

The Statue of Jupiter Olympus—in the valley of Olympia, 12 miles inland from the west coast of the southern peninsula of Greece, was begun in 432 B.C.

The Colossus of Rhodes—was a brass statue of the Greek sun-god Apollo, about 109 feet high and was erected at the port of the City of Rhodes on the Island of Rhodes in the eastern part of the Mediterranean Sea north of Alexandria. RULES FOR SPELLING

Words ending in e drop that letter before the termination able, as in move, movable, unless ending in ce or ge, when it is retained, as in change, changeable, etc.

Words of one syllable ending in a consonant, with a single vowel before it double that consonant in derivatives, as ship, shipping, etc. But if ending in a consonant with a double vowel before it, they do not double the consonant in derivatives; as troop, trooper, etc.

Words of more than one syllable ending in a consonant preceded by a single vowel, and accented on the last syllable, double that consonant in derivatives; as commit, committed but except chagrin, chagrined.

Words of more than one syllable ending in I have only one I at close; as delightful, faithful; unless the accent falls on the last syllable; as in befall, etc.

Words ending in l, double that letter in the termination ly.

Participles ending in ing, from verbs ending in e, lose the final e; as have, having, make, making, etc.; but verbs ending in ee retain both; see, seeing. Dye, to color, and singe, to scorch, however, must retain the e before ing.

All verbs ending in ly and nouns ending in ment retain the final e of the primitives; as brave, bravely; refine, refinement except words ending in ge; as judge, judgment.

Nouns ending in y, preceded by a vowel, form their plural by adding s; as money, moneys; but if y is preceded by a consonant it is changed to ies in the plural as bounty, bounties.

Snow Still Blocks Secondary Roads; Winds Peril Travel

200 Autoists Stranded Near York; New Drifts Hamper Clearance; Death Toll in Storm Rises to 27

Nearly two days after the end of the severest snowstorm in the area since 1941, thousands of residents within a 100-mile radius of Philadelphia remained literally snowed inside their homes yesterday.

Highway travel still was perilous or impossible. Many secondary roads remained impassable. On most others, only a single lane was open. And to the dangers of ice-packed roadways, violent winds added new hazards last night by blowing giant snowdrifts into the path of traffic throughout Eastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Just across the Pennsylvania line near York, more than 200 motorists were marooned by deep snowdrifts on the Baltimore-York highway. They took temporary refuge in a schoolhouse at Maryland Line, Md.

Even heavier winds than those that prevailed during the storm itself swept over Eastern Pennsylvania yesterday, forcing State and county highway crews to concentrate their efforts on keeping main through arteries open.

Time and again, gusts tossed tons of snow back over cleared stretches, and the crews were forced to begin their work anew. The winds also prevented the workers from tackling the smaller roads, which officials said might not be opened before tomorrow at the earliest.

Dec. 13, 1945—The meeting of the Didsbury Y.C.T.A. was held at the home of Laura Applebee, Parli House. Devotions in charge of Viola Barrett. Our speaker was a missionary from Africa, Mrs. Robert Kerstetter. She told her work and is praying they might receive enough gifts to enable her, her husband and three little boys to return soon. Her talk was splendid and time was not long enough for all the interesting things she had to tell us.

In our missionary work this year our sewing group have made 27 clothing sets, 23 of which were put in a box packed for a family in Holland sent by Didsburytown Church group, and the others to be sent to Belgium with a number of things donated by the Women of our Union.

Brandywine Day Service Is Held At Dilworthtown

“Why We Should Remember the Battle of the Brandywine” was the theme of the morning worship service at Dilworthtown Presbyterian Church yesterday, and the pastor,

Dr. Charles W. Heathcote, gave these three main reasons, the cause of the unusual struggle itself, the leadership of Washington and his fellow officers, and the faith of the men who fought, all giving cause for rededication of faith not only by those present in the congregation but by the people in the entire forty-eight states.

Taking as his text the 7th verse of Psalms 18, “The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul; the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple,” Dr. Heathcote said it is essential to honor the leaders and those involved in establishing the foundation for our great country and show appreciation for their patriotism and the fear of God in their hearts, as we enjoy the fruits of their sacrifice including freedom of speech, the press, and greatest of all, worship of God.

Telling the story of the late summer of 1777, the speaker outlined how the enemy troops were assembled at Wilmington and the way General Howe sought to outflank Washington and go on to Philadelphia. The Hessians and British gathered near Kennett Square on September 10th and traveled over what is now the Philadelphia-Baltimore-Washington Highway just south of the church, to Chadds Ford. It was on the grounds about Birmingham that the battle took place.

After Howe's Cornwallis pushed back the American army which was greatly outnumbered and lacked equipment, General Greene held his ground in check, just south of where Dilworthtown church is located, the enemy while the American army retired. The British army possessed the field, 18,000 men equipped with the best according to the standard of the day against 11,000 of Washington's men.

When Washington and his men camped at Chester that night, he wrote to John Hancock, President of the Continental Congress in Philadelphia, that the morale of his soldiers was high and they would be ready to meet the enemy at an early date, which showed master leadership, confidence of men, and spirit of determination that eventually ended in victory at Yorktown in 1781 when Cornwallis surrendered to Washington.

Dr. Heathcote spoke of Washington's ability to understand fellow men as well as knowing how to lead and inspire confidence and Dilworthtown Church Marks Brandywine Day

The morning service yesterday in the Presbyterian Church at Dilworthtown was in commemoration of the Battle of the Brandywine, as has been the custom since 1931, on the Sunday nearest to the anniversary date of the battle, September 11, 1777.

Dr. Charles W. Heathcote, pastor of the church and head of the Department of History at the West Chester State Teachers College, opened his address with three points to remember about the Battle of the Brandywine, the vision, the faith and the courage of Washington. His text was taken from Hebrews 11:33.

Repeating in a most interesting manner, the story of the battle, Dr. Heathcote spoke of Washington’s vision having made it possible for the American troops to be waiting for the British forces as they came north to reach Philadelphia. He told of the prayer service held in Washington’s headquarters near Chadds Ford on the eve of battle and the great faith the American soldiers had in God. The courage of the American army along with these two important factors all led to victory which in turn was the laying of the foundation of the ideals, freedom and blessings of our Nation today.

Dr. Heathcote reminded his congregation that the people of today should be thankful for Washington and his men and their ideals should be carried into present day living. In his closing prayer, the pastor asked that the people of today be led to show appreciation for what their forefathers did for them.

A quartet comprised of Richard and Robert Maclver, Robert Wylie and Earl Barnett sang “Battle Hymn of the Republic.” As a fitting closing hymn, the congregation sang “America the Beautiful.”

Included in the announcements made by the pastor, was Old Scholars’ Day, to be held on September 29th. Two appointments to fill vacancies in the Brandywine Association because of resignations were announced as Robert Wylie, treasurer, and Miss Ethel Barnett, secretary.

There were visitors in the congregation from surrounding communities and comment made on a fine stone porch which is being built in the front of the attractive stone church and a beautiful stained glass window which has been put in place and represents the 23rd Psalm. All of these improvements are being made by funds left by Miss Christine Biddle whose mother was one of the founders of the church, both having been active members.

Old Scholars’ Day Is Enjoyed At Dilworthtown

A large congregation attended Old Scholars’ Day yesterday morning at Dilworthtown Presbyterian Church and heard the presiding Elder, Charles W. Heathcote, present an excellent sermon taken from John 13, a portion of which reads:

"...He is not strong and of a good man...

From this verse, Dr. Heathcote referred to William Penn and his ancestors, George Washington and Abraham Lincoln, all closely associated with Pennsylvania. He traced the ancestry of these three famous men from England to this country and particularly to Chester County.

Speaking of Washington, whose ancestors came from Belgrave Manor, north of London, the pastor referred to his life as being closely associated with Chester County, through the Battle of the Monongahela, "Dependability" was a vital part of Washington’s fame and Dr. Heathcote emphasized it should be a vital part of our individual lives.

The village of Kimberton, a quaint and simple town near eastern Pennsylvania was described by Dr. Heathcote as the home of the Linnean, and the story of Abraham Lincoln, as president, in 1861, passing through Chester County on his way to Harrisburg, to make an address to the Pennsylvania General Assembly, was also interestingly presented.

Joseph P. Barnett, Superintendent of the Sunday School, welcomed the visitors to Old Scholars’ Day, which was the 23rd reunion. He also read letters from Miss Alice Elinor Newlin, of Wilmington, and Mrs. Elizabeth Perdue, former members, who were unable to attend the meeting. The minutes of last year’s reunion were read by Miss Mary F. Davis, Secretary.

During the offering, Mrs. William Wyle sang “The Lord’s Prayer,” accompanied by Miss Mary Ann Wyle, pianist. The choir sang “Praise the Lord” and “In the Cross of Christ I Glory.”

Dr. Heathcote expressed appreciation to all for assisting in making the special service a success and reminded the congregation of the World Communion Day next Sunday.

All those who attended Old Scholars’ Day did not register but those that did did so as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Masterson; Mr. and Mrs. William Wyle; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Decker; Mr. and Mrs. John Nye, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wettlaufer, Leda Duvall, W. L. McGeorge, Mrs. Eva Allison, Miss Kathryn J. Neely, Mrs. J. Quinter.
Old Scholars' Day Observed
At Dilworthtown

Old Scholars Day at Dilworthtown Presbyterian Church was observed on Sunday and a large congregation heard the pastor, Dr. Charles W. Heathcote, speak on the subject “Three Essential Things For Living Today.”

Taking as his text the 23rd Psalm, Dr. Heathcote suggested God, American Home, and the church as the essentials, pointing out that the American Home which was founded by our forefathers can not stand without God and the church as a part of it. He said the great plans of America cannot be swept away as long as we have God, Homes and the Church.

Dr. Heathcote recommended that our homes be well organized for the church is made up from the people of the homes, and that God be the dominating part of everyday living.

Letters were read from Mrs. Oscar Highfield, of West Chester; Mrs. Alice Evans Newlin, of Wilmington and Mrs. Elizabeth Pearson, of Slippery Rock, all former members of the congregation who could not attend the service.

Miss Mary R. Davis, secretary, read the minutes of the reunion last year. Miss Phoebe Sheffield sang “The Publican,” and a trumpet solo, “Angel’s Serenade,” was played by William W. Wylie.

Mrs. John Wylie, Sr., and her flower committee had the church attractively decorated with vases and baskets of fall flowers. The stone porch which is being erected and the new Memorial Window will be dedicated in the near future. Announcement was made of World Wide Communion next Sunday.

There was a large gathering of former and present pupils at this the 21st reunion, and Dr. Heathcote expressed his appreciation for the splendid attendance in observance of Old Scholars Day which is an important part of the Church and Sunday School life at Dilworthtown.

The Little Gray Cottage

'Twas the Evening of Wonders, and soft through the air
Ran the chatter of children, the whisper of prayer.
Far down the broad street where the world seemed to end
Stood a little gray cottage just over the bend—
A little gray cottage forlorn in the dark,
With the beacon of hope burned away to a spark;
And most would have whimpered, as little boys can,
Only—Johnny was six, and therefore a man!

And men never whimper when Christmas is near
Though cupboard lack cookies, and cottage lack cheer;
Though shirt be in tatters, and trousers in holes,
And the tops of your shoes have deserted their soles,
No, men never whimper when Christmas is near—
It wouldn't be right, 'cause old Santa might hear!
Thus Little Boy John, who was almost a man,
Explained to his mother, as little boys can.

Then off with his tatters, and down by his bed
To kneel on the floor with a little bowed head;
And soon he was sleeping with eyelids shut tight,
But alas for his mother who sobbed through the night!
'Twas the Evening of Wonders, when dreams should come true,
And she sobbed on her pillow as mothers will do;
For the hopes of a child are as bitter to blast
As the pleasures of childhood are sweet while they last.

While Johnny was dreaming that Santa Claus came
With a package of toys and a wonderful game,
There stole up a motor car bearing a friend
To the little gray cottage just over the bend;
And funny big bundles were left at the door,
All labelled "From Santa Claus"— that, nothing more!
O twinkle ye stars! as ye sung o'er the earth,
And glory to Him whom the heavens gave birth!

The little gray cottage just over the bend,
Down the broad street where the world seemed to end,
Was a mansion of joy, not a hovel of sorrow
When Little Boy Johnny arose on the morrow;
And it may have been you, or perhaps it was I
Who drove the big auto so softly and shy—
But don't you feel happy to know that some friend
Remembered the cottage just over the bend?
