My dear Sir,

I have just discovered that traveller my pen for the Eastern line played the devil with his typewrit, most probably I am the slippage party and the meeting of the Board is called for the 6th April instead of the 16th March. If possible or must when approaching you please allow your no later than the 10th March.
To which day I have allotted the present in the hope of being obliged to alter it included that day in the common agreement to the Committee.

Hean informed.

Your truly,

James Tyne

The meeting of Visitor has been changed to 10th March.
