Know all men by these presents that we, Belalton, Ed. McCombs and William F. Matheny, are holden and firmly bound unto Mary T. Walton, Robert Walton, Thomas D. Harris and William T. Spence, in the sum of five hundred dollars, to be paid unto the said Mary T. Walton, Robert Walton, Thomas D. Harris and William T. Spence, their executors, administrators, successors and assigns, for the payment thereof, with interest, in case of failure; and that we will execute and administer jointly and severally, jointly by these presents, to-wit, the said, on or before the 18th day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.

The condition of the above obligation is such, that if winning the said Robert Walton, Jr., shall obtain any sum from John B. Clayton, county sheriff of the second division, in the county of Lunenburg, for the judgment on any of the executors or administrators of the said Robert Walton, Jr., or for any other reason, then we, the said Belalton, Ed. McCombs and William F. Matheny, will indemnify and save harmless the said Robert Walton, Jr., his executors and administrators, jointly and severally, jointly by these presents, to-wit, the said, any sum paid, on or before the 18th day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.
