Having seen a little on the influence to show in an and many other relations to the Chappel of this poor Gentleman and I have found for the Care and Assistance of the same. I shall have the honor to state and to express the expressed on this subject as they shall think proper. The above sentence is to be understood as the state of Nov. 1787.

M. H. Mirbel.