Dearest Darling:

Here I sit just hoping. It's doing me very little good but I'm wishing just the same. It's a crime the way we are having to stay around doing nothing when I could be at home with you. There seems to be a shortage of ships. They can't spare any for transporting us back to our homes but they can send Jap prisoners back to Japan on what few they do have.

Speaking of Japs. Some Americans will do anything for a souvenir. There was three boys out in front of my hut digging up a body of a Jap soldier. They were almost fighting for his ribs and his skull was something really worth fighting for as they thought I thought I could stand almost anything but now I don't know. The marines are the guys that are known for their girthy souvenir hunting. Some of the first division on Guadalcanal were knocking out the gold teeth of the dead Japs and making earrings etc. out of them. I'd like to have an Officer's sword
I'm not entirely sure where to start.

But perhaps the most important thing is that I want to know more.

And I've been thinking a lot about what it means to be a品种.

I'm not sure if it means anything.

But I think it might mean something.

I'm not sure how to put it into words.

But I think it's important.

And I want to know more.

I'm not sure if it means anything.

But I think it might mean something.

I'm not sure how to put it into words.

But I think it's important.

And I want to know more.

I'm not sure if it means anything.

But I think it might mean something.

I'm not sure how to put it into words.

But I think it's important.

And I want to know more.

I'm not sure if it means anything.

But I think it might mean something.

I'm not sure how to put it into words.

But I think it's important.

And I want to know more.

I'm not sure if it means anything.

But I think it might mean something.

I'm not sure how to put it into words.

But I think it's important.

And I want to know more.

I'm not sure if it means anything.

But I think it might mean something.

I'm not sure how to put it into words.

But I think it's important.

or something like that as a souvenir.
but, even though some people don't seem to think so, I'm a little bit human.

Now for something brighter. There is a sailor, in the hut across the road, that used to play the violin for Roy across. We have a good old fashioned hooch down every night. To tell the truth the guy is pretty good. Last night he played our favorite song for me. You know what song I'm talking about, don't you. "My Dreams are Getting Better all the Time" and "I Dream of You." I'd give anything to be back in Ottawa, playing that jive for in the 'Senate.' That is one reason I would like to be there. You know the other and real reason.

Well I guess I'll sign off for now.
If nothing happens to keep me out here
I'll be on my way as soon as we get transports enough to carry us home.

Take good care of yourself and tell everyone hello for me.

God help you my darling.
all my love
Dallas.

P.S. Please forgive me for beating my gums in the first part of this letter, but I'm very lonely. I love you very much.
Counselman is as tactful while participating in an event that appears even more fluid.

We must stick to oil, on limit an event. Without \textit{counselman} help our loss will increase that with in, unless.

I am not sure if I really clear at heart that Counselman has with it.
