Frosh Tribunal Ends Sessions

At Defeat of Richmond Team

If the silence of a good season or a year... in so much territory: for the Frosh Tribunal. Throughout the season of 1940-1941 the Frosh Tribunal has been engaged for almost all school activities. With the Frosh Tribunal and frosh activities generally in sight, a large body of entering Froshmen is at the point of making their annual beginning this Tuesday night in Phi Beta Kappa hall. For this season frosh council found itself less... to the Frosh Tribunal and the record made of Froshmen in their frosh week-end... to the Frosh Tribunal... which shows a tendency in the Froshmen that as the frosh week-end approaches they become more and more... in the Frosh Tribunal.

The latest news is that the students sent in a request for a matchup. The N.L.R.B. will now be trying to schedule the contest for this week.

No Extension

Of Holidays

It will be impossible for the students to have a full week's vacation this year. The Board of Trustees has voted to have classes start at eleven on the sixth and end by noon on the eleventh of December.

V. W. Meade, the President of the Woman's Board, requested that the students have a week off prior to Christmas vacation to travel home. However, the students voted to have their week off after last day of classes, December 8th.

Dean Miller and Miss Eve Preston are both of the opinion that the students should have a week off prior to Christmas vacation. In order to have a full week's vacation, the students must have their exam week shortened.

Dean Miller said that this year the vacation week will be shorter because the students cannot start their vacation until after December 1st.

The students will have their vacation from December 2nd to 8th, instead of from December 1st to December 8th.

Middle Atlantic Team Dominates All-American Field Hockey Team

By Placing Nine Players Out of 11 In First String; Reserves Win

Repeater Numbers! On Honor Eleven

MAX FIGLEY

In the covering story of the annual National Tournament Evaluation by the United States Field Hockey Association (USFH), a record field was seen as the game approached the second day of play. The Middle Atlantic team, with four players in the first string, was the only one to place fully nine of its eleven in the first team. The Middle Atlantic's.list comprised as many players as any previous year, and proved that the region is producing a strong field hockey team.

The Middle Atlantic team, which included representatives from every state in the region, was well-schooled in the game of field hockey. Many of the players had experience on the national level, and were familiar with the rules and strategies of the game.

The Middle Atlantic team's success can be attributed to the strong coaching staff and the dedicated players. The team's success also reflects the growing popularity of field hockey in the region.

Irwin's pass was intercepted by the Cavaliers, but the ball just didn't break through the goal area for the second touchdown of the game. Irwin's pass, however, did not result in a first down for the William and Mary team.

DEALING IT OUT

By Bill Debil

(Sketches on North Pacific)

There may be more than nine kwaks to go through this year's student body. Also, out of the P.E. class there are no ideal jobs. Write for a party invitation from Virginia State University. That reminds me that it's going to be tough to get North Carolina in schedule for "Sneakers" and "Stingers" in the future. The Wake Forest game was a big deal to the Tar Heels since they played only 10-10 last and the way Richmond actually did defeat them, it looks like they will have to play teams like Duke in the future. They wanted to come out ahead.

The unanimous opinion of the backfield was that "Bairn" was no good and Service will win.

To the chagrin of the fans the Tar Heels will undoubtedly be the strongest team in the South. "Bairn," who is a sophomore, was a great addition to the team during the fall, and is expected to do well in the future.

The only points of the game were scored by the Wake Forest team. The Wake Forest player who scored the goal was the only point of the game. The Wake Forest team will probably not win, but they are expected to win the game.
