Number Stands Slightly Below That of '39-'40

The three most popular of sororities had a total of 100 girls, two at Delta Phi Epsilon, eight at Kappa Delta and six at Alpha Chi Omega. The order of preference for the other sororities is as follows: Zeta Phi Beta, seven; Alpha Chi Delta, five; and Alpha Sigma Alpha, one.

The Fighting Indians Hold Navy For 3 Periods

By RALPH RAPOCO

THIS WEEK

If ever two things were the same in appearance and yet so completely opposite in quality, they certainly were the 31-6 victory which William and Mary scored over Guilford two weeks ago and the 21-6 defeat handed the Indians by the Navy last Saturday. The former game was the most disheartening of the season for the Indians; the latter was the most disheartening for the opposing team.

The Indians did not even attempt to run or pass against Navy. They held the ball for 43 minutes of the 45 minutes play and permitted the Middies to have but four first downs. The Indians scored a touchdown and kicked an extra point, whereas the Navy scored a touchdown after a fumble.

Shipbuilders Always Give Hard Fight

Are Not To Be Taken Lightly Despite Poor Score

Here We Do This Year

The William and Mary Indians, after suffering their first defeat in the entire annals of the university's history (1899-1923), are not expected to play better in the game which is to be played Saturday afternoon in the stadium.

Although the Middies failed to score in their varsity game by the University of Richmond Saturday, they were not so much in a hurry to shoot the ball down against the Indians. The Indians were a great deal more prepared and were able to drive the ball against the Middies' defense.

The third period, in particular, was one of tremendous fighting spirit, in which the Indians gave every indication of being the better team. The fighting Indians showed a better knowledge of the tactics of the game, and were the best performers of the afternoon. The Indians scored a touchdown, and the Middies settled down and began to show that they were the stronger of the two teams.

Birchfield Makos First

The Middies Scored Two

In the final quarter of the game, the Indians came back and scored a touchdown, but the Middies settled down and came back with a field goal. The Indians were finally getting tired. Lack of capable reserves and the lack of a real scoring punch was the downfall of the Indians.

The game opened with a field goal in the first quarter, made by the Indians. However, the Middies, under the leadership of Coach Kellison, were able to use their reserves and scored two touchdowns in the second half. The Indians scored a field goal in the fourth quarter and the Middies scored another field goal. The game ended with a score of 31-6 in favor of the Middies.

GAMBLING HABITS

The third quarter saw little real action except that the game was still running at full force with the Indians still in the lead. The Middies were unable to keep up with the Indians, and the Indian's scoring punch was lacking.

The Indians scored a field goal in the third quarter and the Middies scored another field goal. The Indians scored a touchdown in the fourth quarter and the Middies scored another field goal. The game ended with a score of 31-6 in favor of the Middies.
