The heart-to-head music of Elliot Lawrence and his orchestra will be heard at the college of William and Mary's big homecoming at 9 p.m. today, Monday, in the Blow Gym. It will be held Friday evening, October 8, in Williamsburg Lake Theatre, weather permitting.

The Lawrence combo, one of the most popular groups in the nation today, will remain to play for the informal Tobacco Road dance Saturday night.

Lawrence, in his third year as bandleader, has played for dances at all sororities and fraternities in the country, including all of the Big Ten young teams, all the Big Ten colleges and 55 state universities.

The youthful maestro, now only 24, organized his band while majoring at the University of Pennsylvania and began playing with them at the college's first orchestra, a juvenile group called "The Band Busters," and they've been together ever since. The band was formed by an all-sorority ensemble which had been taken over by the Marines.

Lawrence's musicians are both enlisted in the service, but one is self-motivated and the other is off duty on leave. The entire orchestra is composed of college students, but the barracks ensemble is not. The Lawrence organization has been with Elliot since the fall, but most members have been together since teen-age.

Dr. Hackler unveiled an attack on幼稚ty paraphernalia that threatens to take his case but was rebuffed and was back at the keyboard within a year.

In order to meet the demands of the college dormitory dances, the Lawrence organization will go on sale tomorrow night at the old-time Tangerine Ball.

Lawrence, a former student of the Glidden Antique College, will be at the college for the VMI contest to pick them up on October 31, unless further notice.

Dr. Hackler, vocalist and student manager of athletics, asks all students who wish to secure dates at nearby schools.

The student body average is 1.45, with the all men's percentage slightly lower at 1.42. The all sorority average is 1.50. The composite average of both is 1.48.

The highest mark among both fraternities and sororities is Thelma Chi Alpha, 1.58; Phi Beta Chi, 1.47; Lambda Chi Alpha, 1.47; Phi Lambda Phi. Only a little below the all fraternity average is Kappa Alpha, with 1.38, and Phi Kappa Tau, with 1.38. There are all the all-freshmen average 1.45.

Secret Tribunal Thursday
Will Discipline Freshmen;
Soph Officers To Preside

Initiating disciplinary action against usual freshmen, Robert C. Hackler, sophomore class president, has called the first of three scheduled freshmen tribunals Thursday evening.

Freshman officers will be notified to attend this first, secret tribunal. Hackler stated that the next year's tribunals would include the closed tribunals and a final open tribunal with the whole freshman class present.

Following the tribunal, the tribunal will be conducted by Hackler, assisted by Barbara Van Zandt, sophomore class vice-president; Carol Walker, treasurer; Julia Youngquist, matroness and Student Assembly members.

According to the sophomores' announcement, the disciplining of the freshman will take place in tribunals marked by absolute silence. Hackler revealed that several major officers have been spotted and that cases are being prepared against them.

Minor offenders have been punished at the scenic, but they will still have to appear before the tribunal for final disposition of their cases.

Beginning this year, the discipline will be in effect for three weeks. Hackler explained the changes as a move to strengthen freshman observance of the rules. The sophomores pass a shorter discus- sion period, but one which is more strict than those of past years.

Upperclassmen will have to wait until the final tribunal for the exculpation that has characterized past discus- sion period. This tribunal will be conducted in the same manner that marked last year's tribunals.

The aim of the paper is to voice the opinion of the students at the college. We are aware of the responsibility which rests upon the only newspaper voice in any community, and we pledge ourselves to the conscientious fulfillment of that responsibility.

The goal of this paper is to provide a forum for students to express their views, and to facilitate open communication between the student body and the administration. We will strive to maintain objectivity in reporting all news and to reflect the voice of student opinion on our campus.

We shall strive to reflect the voice of student opinion on our campus. We believe that better system of handling the situation could be devised. R. N. Last spring the Blow Hat carried a story describing the poor condition and lack of facilities at the George Preston Blow Gymnasium. Prompt action was promised by the administration at that time.

What happened? The old facilities, as we see them, will be in place. We believe that better system of handling the situation could be devised. R. N. McCray, director of athletics, or his staff cannot provide the kind of facilities that have been on a level with a second-rate high school, and conditions are definitely inadequate, and to have reduced the debt at a slower rate.

Campus Crossroads

Here it is again . . . the column to keep you posted on the latest happenings at the other campuses and round about so you'll know when to look out for those campus cuties.

The students at the College of New Rochelle in New York have finally decided to do something about a well-lit and much needed but very expensive lamp. They have organized a "Parlor Club" so that they can keep up with various campus developments through the medium of the newspaper. And Dad can bring his best girl, Mother, with him if he likes.

A note to the Editor: Don't slam the college cafeteria too much. The editor of The Detroit Collegian did just that and round up eating humble pie until he made an apology . . . in vain.

This year will probably begin with the traditional gripe . . . "There is nothing to do in Williamsburg." Well, we have to admit it's a bad situation when the bowling alley is closed, you've seen the movie, and the steps in the Sunken Garden are full. The students at H-SU in Abilene, Texas are in for a better deal. Skating and on-the-campus movies have been started there. And the nice part about it is that the students can enjoy an evening of skating for only 25 cents or attend the movie for 12 cents.

Garrison And Crowell Take A Ride On The William and Mary Go Round

By Glenn Garrison

If you have never been to Williamsburg, take a ride on the "Go Round." It is a beautiful experience! You will feel like a king or queen. The William and Mary Go Round winds its way through the city. The buildings are magnificent, and the atmosphere is quite charming. You can sit back, relax, and enjoy the scenery. As you ride, you'll see the famous colonial architecture and learn about the history of the area. It's a fantastic way to spend an afternoon.

Back until after proposal. "You should have gotten around to her last semester," Shirley adds, "but that was a Yale man, in dealing with a boy from the U. of Va. It might be a good idea to make him understand that you are extra strong and hold back the cocktails."

Case 26: Beyond the scope of this study, as she is no longer engaged. With some hostess she showed up in a peculiar green stain on her fingers.

A thorough examination of these and other cases leads us to the distinct impression that college education is making men and women more dangerous. We must not let our guard down, because they are capable of more danger. We must take steps to protect ourselves. If you are planning a trip to the city, we suggest you take precautions before you leave your hotel. If you are staying in a hotel, you should be aware of the danger. Navy Schedules Nation-Wide Competitive Examination; Open To All Male Citizens Within Age Requirements

The Navy announced recently that the fourth nation-wide competitive examination for its College Training Program has been scheduled for December 3, 1949, and will be open to high school seniors or graduates within the age requirements. Successful candidates will be given a four-year college education at government expense and will be commissioned as officers of the Navy or Marine Corps upon graduation.

The program is open to male citizens of the United States between the ages of 17 and 21, and quotas have been assigned to each state and territory on the basis of its high school population. Those who are successful in passing the aptitude test will be interviewed and given physical examinations; then, if they are found in all respects qualified, their names will be submitted to state and territorial selection committees composed of prominent citizens and naval officers. The Navy expects to enter about 2,000 students into the program commencing with the fall term of college, 1950.

Upon graduation they may be commissioned as officers in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps, or transfer to the Reserve and return to civilian life. Applications are available at high schools, colleges, Officers of Naval Officer Procurement, and Navy Recruiting Stations.

Dean of Men, John E. Hocutt, who is acting as the Navy's local civilian representative, will provide specific information about the program, including the time and place of the competitive examination, the method of making application, and the specific age and scholastic qualifications to all those interested.

William and Mary Tribe amidships

By Hugh De Samper

Pitt Turns Two Tribe Mistakes Into Touchdowns

Old line Misfortune hit the William and Mary Tribe Saturday when all the fans had located their seats last Saturday in Pittsburg, seating the powerful Pitt Panthers to a six-point lead in the first minute of play which they held onto with grim determination throughout the remainder of the game, 13-7.

After the initial break, the two teams settled down to a see-saw battle of the forward walls, that saw several scoring drives fizzle as they needed forestall territory. The game was close all the way, with the two teams as nearly evenly matched as two teams could be.

The Pitt line proved itself a shade stronger than the Redmen, but not until late in the game when McCrary's stalwarts began to feel the effects of the constant pounding.

The Big Break

The big break of the game came on the third play of the game when Buddy Lex tried to get off a quick kick on third down with the ball on the Island 15. A bad pass from center and an error in the backfield saw the ball on the Indian 15. As Lex tried to recover the ball, it was latched onto one of Bimbo Cecchini's players.

You can't give away six points to a major football power in the way Pitt did Saturday. But why did it have to happen? The Tribe were in the familiar situation of being behind early again, but this time they spotted the Pitt Panther threat and were unable to stop it.

The improvement of the Tribe's line provided by the two platoon systems and the use of Cloud as one of the mainstays this year has made the Indians favorites in the last seven encounters with the Panthers, for it was back in 1936 when a Virginia Tech eleven pounded the Indians.

The Indians are scheduled, while meets with Delaware and Maryland are set in January. The Tribe will be playing their first home game Saturday.

Indian Of The Week

In a low scoring, hard fought football game such as the 13-7 Pitt victory Saturday, it's hard to single out one individual as the "best" player. The entire Indian backfield showed much improvement, and to single out one individual as the Pitt victory Saturday, it's hard to imagine.

Swimmers Begin Practices

Howard Smith, a member of the physical education department for the past four years has been made to coach the baseball and swimming teams, according to K. R. McKee, director of athletics. Although Smith has had charge of the intramural program and handled the year-round and freshman swim teams as well as serving as assistant football coach, this is his first step into the front ranks of coaching on the Reservation.

Swimming and baseball are both teams with good prospects. Smith's charges working out about three weeks earlier than in the past, hoping to develop the first winning team since the sport was revived in 1927. In the past two seasons, only a victory over the University of Richmond last season went into the win column.
