My dear Sir,

You will read with satisfaction the enclosed copy of a letter from Capt. Col. Campbell who commands the expedition directed against the Mowhauk. In pursuance of your instructions, I have no objection to your Causing it to be published for the information of the Citizens. The Prisoners are now all complete, their locomotion was

Sir,

I am directed by General [illegible] to say that the pickets of his left rear is about 100 yards in rear of the rest of his line, that he will advance them that distance, or until they connect with the rest of his line. The enemy are so near that he can not move farther than that, on the right, he does
