James Monroe
President of the United States of America.

To all to whom these presents shall come, greeting:

Know ye, That, in pursuance of the Acts of Congress appropriating and granting Land to the late Army of the United States passed on and since the sixth day of May, 1812, Ellorey Hance, late a Sergeant in the Nineteenth Company of the Ninth Regiment of Infantry, having deposited in the General Land-Office a Warrant in his favour, numbered 2423.4, there is granted unto the said Ellorey Hance, late a Sergeant in the Nineteenth Company of the Ninth Regiment of Infantry, a certain Tract of Land, containing one hundred and sixty acres, being the North Westerly Section, thirty-three of Township five South in Range, west in the Tract appropriated (by the Acts aforesaid) for Military Bounties, in the Territory of Illinois, to have and to hold the said Tract, Section of Land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said Ellorey Hance, and to his heirs and assigns for ever.

An Testimony whereof, I have caused these Letters to be made Patent, and the Seal of the General Land-Office to be hereunto affixed. Given under my Hand, at the City of Washington, this twenty-third day of March, in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen and of the Independence of the United States of America the forty-second.

By the President,

James Monroe
Commissioner of the General Land-Office.
Ezra Manchester

Know all men by these presents, that I, Ezra Manchester, do hereby execute in consideration of one hundred and sixty dollars, the sum of which I do hereby accept, all and singular the premises, estates, lands, etc., herein mentioned, and do assign, transfer and set over to the said

Gordon J. Day, my right to and interest in any estate, to have and to enjoy and have the same in heirs and assigns perpetually. I and my heirs and assigns for and in testimony whereof we have hereunto set our hands and affixed our names this thirtieth day of April, eighteen hundred and thirty...

Exam: Jovita Randle Reed