Sir

I did not know that your Brownes bill had become due, nor indeed at what time it became due. I have funds intended for this esjet, which will require some days to come into my hands; this sacrifice however shall be made, unless you may without any sacrifice, receive or supply whatever, allows me the necessary time for the purpose. I will see you perhaps in a day or two. In the mean time, you may calculate with absolute certainty in my place, of the money in your hands, and a sum from this date, or sooner if you require it with great respect, I am sir, your very obt servt

John Marshall

Washington Augt 5 1814