DEBATE COUNCIL WILL CONDUCT ELECTION; STUDENTS WILL GO TO POLLS TOMORROW

Tomorrow the inter-Collegiate Debate Council, as a finale to its pre-election program, will sponsor a mock election in which students will express their choice for the President of the United States. Polls will be opened at campus corner from 1 to 6 p.m.

The Debate Council sponsored a program last week in Phi Beta Kappa Hall in which representatives of the Democratic, Republican and States Rights parties spoke in behalf of their candidates for president.

This meeting developed into a bitter clash between the democratic speaker, Mary E. Sturtevant and Collins Donny, Jr., States Rights representative. Both launched a blistering attack on the anti-Truman faction in the Democratic party who "had observed minority rule, the basis of our democratic institutions," to inaugurate the "knavish" states-rights program.

To this Donny added that the Southern delegations to the Democratic convention went to open opposition to President Truman and the Civil Rights program, that many of the Southern state delegations offered conditions to the convention's credentials committee and that the committee accepted the delegations' and their conditions.

Mrs. George B. Tashman, speaking for the Republican party, denounced the Republicans as "the party of individualism, independence, and states-rights.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

I was very perturbed over the incident of "dog shooting" in front of the library, Tuesday evening, October 16. I fully realize that in these days of "becoming" college students it is not the custom to notice or mind the happenings on the campus. From time to time young men have gotten into the library causing distress to the library officials and staff.

However, whenever an officer of the law comes upon campus, with a rifle over his shoulder, shooting a dog through the abdomen, which does not cause instantaneous death, it is something that should not be tolerated at any time, for any reason. I have been contacted by many students and staff faculty of students who have been intimidated by the police and the administration if this spirit continues, it will only continue until the campus is a body as a whole is conscious that it exists.

Sincerely,

NEW SPIRIT

Last week we attended our first meeting of the General Cooperative Committee and were also present at a dinner given by the president of Duke University. We were impressed on both occasions with the spirit of cooperation and mutual respect which now exists among student government officers, faculty and administration.

A strong line of demarcation has long existed between the students on the one hand and the administration on the other. Students as a whole have been apt to be thought of as people who demand quick and easy solutions to their problems. This attitude often has made cooperation between administration and student impossible.

The new spirit which pervades among students and members of the administration alike has developed out of the realization that both groups are interested in the welfare of the college as a whole. When the discussion over improving the band was held in the General Cooperative Committee meeting, all the committee members were in complete agreement that action should be taken. Again, when the question of student membership on the discipline committee was brought up, both at the committee meeting and at the president's dinner, all present agreed that the organization of the committee should be revised to include greater student representation.

At both meetings, students and administration officers expressed their views as individuals rather than as members of a student group. We have talked to student government officials since the meetings, and they were similarly impressed with the mood which prevailed.

We were surprised and pleased ourselves, because this individuality of action and spirit of mutual cooperation seem to have sprung up overnight. More can be accomplished by the student government and the administration if this spirit continues, and it will continue only if the student body as a whole is conscious that it exists.

Sincerely,

1908 Football Team To Register For Alumni Homecoming Festivities

All Fraternity Lodges To Decorate For Gay Homecoming Festivities

By Robert Roeder

In way of a welcome, 11 new fraternity lodges will be brightly bedecked, both on the interior and exterior, for the entertaining Homecoming festivities. By Friday, all the lodges should be completely furnished, with 11 processions beginning at last at once.

Featured in all the lodges are plant-covered sofas and chairs strewn about in various patterns and representing every imaginable hue of red, brown, green, and white. Bugs, many of which are yet being anxiously awaited, of solid the bale Limousin flowers. Radiating photographs and pianos will add to the confusion and fun after Saturday's game. Draperies covered with varying designs, from feudal, ones to purple pointillism, now adorn almost all the picture-windowed lodges. Trophies, from intramural football to deer heads, are present on most of the mantels.

As far as the special exterior decorations are concerned, none of the fraternities are certain as to their plans at the date of writing. The most probable occurrence will be that the Richmond concern now contracted to decorate the town will also handle the lodges. In any event returning alumni will be colorfully greeted by the lodges’ appearances.

The fraternities are planning stag receptions for the alumni following the game. At least one fraternity, following the Halloween motif, will have some witches around, either after the game or in the evening. Another of the fraternities has been prepared for the festivities for more than a week, having purchased a gross of glasses last Wednesday.

Jack Palmer Announces Chess Club
To Hold Organizational Meeting Soon

"Sufficient interest in chess has been demonstrated on campus to justify the formation of a club devoted to the royal game," Jack Palmer stated, in announcing that an organizational meeting for such a purpose is to be held in Washington 314 at 7 p.m. on Thursday, October 28.

Membership in the club is open to students and to the faculty, and the presence of all chess-players, regardless of playing strength, is solicited for the meeting at which plans for plans for a round-robin tournament will be formulated.

The final results of this tournament will provide a basis for the rating of players according to playing strength and a basis for the selection of a team to compete with similar organizations at the University of Virginia and at other colleges throughout the state.

It is emphasized, however, that participation in the tournament will not be compulsory, should a player prefer to adopt a passive role in respect to inter-scholastic competition.

Braves To Renew Traditional Rivalry With Richmond

Better Spider Team Expected On Saturday

Girdiron Spiders of the University of Richmond, this year's劲出ch show that Richmond will make a strong showing. Nicknamed the "Spiders" for the 19th time in their history, the Spider team is expected to field a strong team this year.

At that time, the Richmond football team, under the leadership of Coach Karl A. (Dick) Esleeck, have shifted to a more aggressive style of play. The team is expected to challenge the Spider team and make a strong showing in the Southern Conference.

The Braves, however, will face a stiff challenge in Richmond. The Spider team is expected to field a strong team this year and will be a tough opponent for the Braves.

The Braves' tradition of rivalry has been a tradition for over 100 years. The Spider team has been a consistent opponent for the Braves, and the two teams have faced each other in many memorable games.

This week's game is expected to be a thriller, with both teams playing their best. The Braves will be looking to continue their tradition of rivalry and make a strong showing in the Southern Conference.

Brown Indians Edge Big Green In 7-6 Upset

A little school with a much unimpressive record, the Brown Indians, edge the Big Green in a close game, 7-6. The game was marked by a series of missed opportunities by both teams.

At the start of the game, it looked like the Brown Indians were on their way to a victory. But they were unable to maintain their momentum, and the Big Green came back to tie the game at 7.

At the end of the game, the Brown Indians were just able to edge out the Big Green, 7-6. The game was marked by a series of missed opportunities by both teams.
Jack “The Flying” Cloud Hailed

As Nation’s Best Plunging Back

Feature attraction on Coach R. N. “Rube” McCray’s pigskin paradise in battersham ram, Jack “The Flying” Cloud, whose line plunges and power plays are attracting sportswriters from all over the nation.

Famous for his running through the line, Jack has also been used as a passer, and is an excellent line-backer on defensive play. Primarily, however, he is used to gain needed yardage for a first down, and for plays down near the goal line. For this he has received national recognition, and is very much in the running for All-American Ballack.

Jack came to William and Mary in 1946 and as a freshman was named the best fullback in Dixie. He was named to the All-State and All-Southern eleven, and ran second to Coletta’s Justice in scoring honors.

The 22-year old plunger spent most of his life in Britton, Okla., where he played two years of high school and called him the “greatest back ever.”

When the 1947 football clouds rolled away it was found that the 225-pound Cloud had been named on the New York Sun All-American First Team, and the Associated Press Third Team. He was also honored with the captaincy of both the All-Southern and All-State Associated Press teams.

Granville Rice, Dean of American sportswriters, has said that “William and Mary’s Jack Cloud and Army’s Big Rouen are the greatest fullbacks in the nation.”

Following the Dixie Bowl last January 1, Clyde Scott stopped Jack as he was going off the field and called him “the greatest back wearing football cleats.”

That Dixie Bowl game, incidentally, is where Jack showed the best game of his career. He rumbled for three touchdowns, though one was called back, in the Tribe’s 21-19 loss to Arkansas, and it was admitted by all witnesses that he was the best man on Shreveport Legion Field that day.

But Jack finished both VMR and VPI that year he played a great game, at those going for five or ten yards with men on his back. Several times in recent backfield to bring him down to the goal line, he was able to roll right around, as if by magic find the hole.

So far this year Jack has averaged 4.1 yards per play, totaling 129 yards. He has yet to be thrown for a loss, and has scored 5 touchdowns for 30 points. The touchdowns for 8 points. The times which he has blocked against Arkansas haven’t given him too much bother lately, and it looks as if the battersham ram will keep on going full steam ahead right through 1948.

Women’s Hockey Team Opens Play

The women’s varsity hockey team played their first real game on Saturday, October 29, against the Williamsburg Club made up of women in the vicinity interested in playing hockey and some women from Fredericksburg.

The varsity team held the club in the first half, and showed their initiative in the second half by tallying two goals. Eleanor Hanlon, left wing and Ebbie Sloan, right inner were the two girls that were responsible for these tallies. However, the varsity tired fast in the last minutes of the game and the Williamsburg Club was able to sneak up four goals and win the game 4-2. Miss Arlington from Fredericksburg, playing a superb game, was credited with three of those goals, and her team mate, Miss Grotzer, also from Fredericksburg, tallied the other goal.

Women’s Team Aces Battle In Intramural Tournament

The women’s tennis intramural tournament opened to a rousing start this week, and the matches were played on Tuesday, October 19, through Friday, October 22.

The first day of scheduled matches featured Barrett’s first team winning one of their singles and their doubles over Gamma Phi. Anita charcoal’s team, under the expert coaching of Altoon, put up a good fight, but the Barrett team won. Another League A match was held between Kappa Phi and Kappa Delta on Wednesday.

Kappa Phi had one of their three teams losing to T.I. Delta. Kappa Phi took the losing side with two wins and one loss, but this was not the case of their second team. Kappa Phi was the victor over the remaining three of the three matches, with Gamma Phi’s team winning all three of their matches. T.I. Delta lost to Kappa Phi and Alpha Chi, and Gamma Phi respectively.

The second day of play saw Phi Phi and Alpha Chi still featuring their games. Chi Omega’s tennis team had a good day by winning all six of their matches with T.I. Delta. A great deal of credit can be given to Jimmie Murphy and Miss Hove Allen. Theta’s first team, even with the able playing of Ruth Barnes and Blythe Lyons, couldn’t take advantage of the extra two out of the three matches played. Alpha Chi won all their games on Wednesday, October 20, and Barrett. This action put KD on the winning side of the triflory. Jefferson had a good day by winning two of their first matches and all three of their second matches. This was all at the expense of Gamma Phi. Kappa’s third team made its first appearance last to Chi Omega by dropping two games out of the three played.

Barrett forfeited all their games in Jefferson on Thursday, October 21, thus giving Jefferson an edge on all the other teams. This same day saw Kappa’s first team win over Gamma Phi, KD’s first team over Phi Phi, and Chi Omega over Chandler 2-1. KD’s second team did not play so KD won all six matches by forfeit. Friday, October 22, saw the last of the tennis matches played for this past week. KD won all six matches due to Gamma Phi’s forfeiting. The first teams of Jefferson and T.I. Delta won two out of the three matches played from Kappa and Alpha Chi respectively.

Kappa Phi forfeited all their first team matches to Chandler. Theta’s second team forfeited all their games to Chi Omega. The best match played that day was between Ruth Barnes, representing Theta, and Mrs. Jane O. Atwater, and Chi Omega. Both of these girls were on the varsity tennis team her last year. Ruth Barnes finally broke through the tie and won two. Theta won another first team match thus defeating Chi Omega 2-1.

Marvin Bass, W&M All-Time Great, Now Molding Strong Indian Lines

By Hugh Moore

Largely responsible for the successes of William and Mary football teams for the past four years have been the perfection-plus coaching and respected leadership of Marvin Bass, the Indians' popular young line coach.

Born, now in his fifth season as line tutor of the Braves, has year after year turned out strong, rugged linemen who have blended with the backfield into a winning combination.

The genial Marvin, very well liked by his gridiron pupils, built his coaching achievements into an all-time high in 1947 when he molded the big Indians up front, into one of the South's most formidable and impenetrable forward units.

Graduates from that Southern Conference championship team included the mighty front bulwark, and Bass was faced with the herculean task of rebuilding that line.

By all the good players turned out by Marvin, it is doubtful that any of those pupils will come close to surpassing the almost unbelievable record hung up by Bass himself.

Marvin, making his pigskin debut in 1936, proceeded to play football for eight years, and in seven of those years he landed All-Southern honors.

The men under the direction of Bass fully appreciate his capable coaching and respected leadership, and they like and admire the "Moose," as he is good-naturedly called by all the good players turned out by Marvin, it is doubtful that any of those pupils will come close to surpassing the almost unbelievable record hung up by Bass himself.

Marvin began his gridiron activities while at Petersburg High School, playing there in 1936, '37, and '38. As a tackle he was named to the mythical honorary All-Southern team in seven of those years he landed All-Southern honors.

That he has done, filling with new life the record hung up by Bass himself.

Tribe Harriers To Face R-M In Season Opener

The Tribe cross-country team will open its 1948 season tomorrow with the first home meet since before the war. Randolph-Macon will be the opponent, with starting time scheduled for 3:30 p.m. at Cary Field.

The squad showed considerable improvement during the past week. With the return of Bob Lawson to the trails, the squad is at full strength through the first five positions, though these positions will be occupied by individuals.

It appears again that Clyde Baker, the only Indian to place in the State, will be the opponent, with starting time scheduled for 3:30 p.m. at Cary Field.

The main problem to face the team is that of team depth. With the Southern Conference eligibility rules forbidding the running of freshmen or transfers, it appears that R-M will be able to field only about seven men, while about four men may be forced to stand by this year until their eligibility is granted.

The conference meet will be held at Maryland, on a course that has nothing but the memory of crushing defeats for William and Mary. The University of Maryland, placing seven men in the first 15 of the polls, has nothing but the memory of crushing defeats for William and Mary.

Don Day, Sam Lindsay, Jean Day and Bill Hawkins, are out running for the remaining two spots on the varsity.

Committee Selects Dr. George Oliver As Vice Chairman

Dr. George J. Oliver, professor of education and director of the summer session, was selected to serve a second term as vice chairman of the General Cooperative Committee on Thursday.

Dr. A. D. Corry, professor of economics and business administration, was chosen to serve the faculty, administration and student body.

C. Warren Smith, student body president, presented a resolution from the Student Senate suggesting that the student organization be changed so that the organization be dissolved. 2. With the approval of the student administration, students decided that no specific fund in the student activities fee was set aside for musical organizations. Although the new committee occasionally made emergency grants to the band.

In the discussion which followed, it became evident that all the members of the committee were in agreement with the student administration on the band question. John E. Hocutt, dean of men, suggested that the student activities fee be increased so that a band fund might be included in the budget. Lambert declared that there were three reasons that band members should vote for the fee increase: uniformity, reputation, and the prestige of travelling with the band. The vote was unanimous.

Ex-Servicemen Receive Advice On Life Insurance

"One of the most important things for ex-servicemen to do about their National Service Life Insurance is the naming of a beneficiary or beneficiaries of their policies," the Veterans Administration told in a recent release.

Unless a veteran gives this matter consideration, he may fail to get the most out of his insurance. For instance, if no beneficiary is named, the policyholder may be left with a financial loss to his heirs.

Up to August 1, 1946, it was not absolutely necessary for the veteran to name primary and contingent beneficiaries because the law provided for payment of the insurance to the veteran's estate. It was not until the passage of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act that the law was changed. Under this law, provisions were made for naming beneficiaries. The law provides that the named beneficiary or beneficiaries will receive a lump sum to the veteran's estate. If this happens, the insurance becomes part of the veteran's estate and is subject to all the laws governing estates, including claims of creditors, the administration of the will and the court.

The veteran's heirs might receive the entire insurance money which they sought. A Write to the Department of Veterans Affairs, Washington, D.C. 20420.

Dr. Pomfret Gives Buffet Supper

Dr. John E. Pomfret, president of the college, and Mrs. Pomfret entertained the members of the House last Tuesday night. After a short business meeting, during which John Dayton reported on the activities of the Student Congress of Virginia College and Universities, the student government officers heard a brief address by Dr. Christian Gauss, dean emeritus of Princeton University. Dr. Gauss described student government as it operates at Princeton and briefly traced the history of its development, and more responsibility is given to the student officers. After the conclusion of his address, Dr. Gauss answered questions from the floor. C. Warren Smith, student body president, asked about the extent of student participation in the work of the discipline committee. Both Smith and Dr. Pomfret expressed the hope that membership in William and Mary's discipline committee, which installed one student member last year, will be expanded in the future.

Sundae Bears Name Of Flying Jack Cloud

Those crowds which begin to gather around the Wigwam last Friday afternoon were not waiting to see President Truman or Margaret O'Brien. They were there because the ballroom group of William and Mary now has two 'flying clouds,' and one of them is the new sundae.

The new Cloud is a gorgeous creation in green, gold and gray, and may become the property of anyone on payment of a quarter. In two separate syllables, the Flying Cloud is a sundae now and while it may not carry the ball, it certainly is on its territory... Vanilla ice cream, cherries, walnuts, mint sauce, and the whipped cream topping that its namesake is so fond of, all combine to make the Flying Cloud the top drawing card in the Wigwam.

College Orchestra Plans First Meeting

Reorganization of the college orchestra will take place next Thursday, October 28, according to Alan C. Stewart, band director. All students interested in playing in the band may come to the Music Building at 6:30 p.m. on that day, preferably with their instruments.

Plans for this year include continuation of the cooperative concerts staged with the Richmond Professional Institute. The orchestra will go to Richmond on Monday to rehearse with the Richmond group. Two concerts will be staged with them; one in Petersburg on February 8, and one in Richmond on February 12. Later, the annual spring concert will be presented here in Williamsburg.

"particularly welcome," said Stewart. "These are what are needed most in the orchestra."
I. Each likes all the work involved with composing for dance work. Johnston prefers rehearsals. "The performance is like the cherry on top of a sundae, nice to have but you can do without it. The real work comes after the show in the word part," Johnston says that if the test of a vocalist is liking the droogery, he prefers; for he en-jourys the problems in writing a place of music.

Community Theater

Cutler's main ambition is to start a community theater in some small town.

Homecoming (Continued from page 1) provides in the athletic field to watch the Spider dummy burn in the boulvard. Fireworks and flower-giving signs will be added attractions. Women students have unanimous late permission to attend the rally.

Playing for the formal dance Saturdays, October 25, will be Larry Clinton and his orchestra. Decorations for the dance have been placed in the hands of the J. W. Beper Company of Newport News. They also carried out the Williams and Mary colors with a false ceiling of crepe paper and green and white roses.

Tickets for both the formal and informal dances will go on sale Monday and Tuesday and are already at a reduced price of four dollars. They may also be obtained from the information desk in Marshall-Wythe until 4:30 p. m.

Thursday, after this presale, tickets for the formal dance will be three dollars and for the informal dance two dollars.

Stewart Announces Post-Football Plans For Band Concerts

"We may have a concert band after the fall season is over, if the students so desire," announced Alan C. Stewart, band director commenting about the band's plans for the coming year.

New band members for this year include Robert Anderson, James Anthony, Floyd E. Blount, Nancy A. Cleston, Hugh Delamarter, James F. Duff, Jr., Alfred L. Ev-

"Any student interested in playing in the band who has had band experience may come to see me and talk about his interest," Stewart said.

Wilkins Accepts Position As Committee Chairman

W. Elliott Wilkins, Jr., has accepted the chairmanship of the World Student Service Fund Cam-Paign Committee on this campus, it was announced today.

The chairman stated that a goal of $1,500 has been set tentatively for the campaign for playing Rhapsody in Blue with his high school orchestra.

vided by a guitar, a trumpet and a piano.

Both the singing and dancing are in keeping with the general theme of the play and are per­formed by three different groups, the neighbors, the believers and the voters. Miss Hunt described it as country dancing and festival choral singing. Jean Cutler is director of choreography.

The locale of the play is Minnesota, Illinois, Columbus and Zanesville, Ohio, the latter being the home of the "farmer candidate. Change of scene is accomplished by a series of backdrops and a wagon stage, which is simply a platform on wheels. One of the backdrops pictures the house and porch of the farmer in Zanesville; another is a gigantic map of the United States. Roger Sherman is the Stage Designer.

In order to provide the proper setting for The Great Campaign, the entire front of Phi Kappa Hall will be decorated with bunting and banners to represent a typical Campaign Headquarters. Recorded martial music will be played to create a fitting atmosphere.

According to Miss Hunt and her assistants there has been a large pre-production sale of season tickets as well as for this performance alone.

One group of 58 students from Botetourt High School in Glouces­ter will see the play Thursday night. Miss Hunt attributes this interest to the annual play given by the Theatre for high school students and other college groups. This event is called "Shakespeare Night" and was presented in March last year.

The other main characters of the cast include Shirley Davis, Emily; Dick Bethards, Jeff; Joan Barritt, Laneth; Dave Friedman, Sidney and Wilford Leach as Wilderness Jones.
