Dr. Ernesto Montenegro, Well Known Chilean
Speaks on the Kindred Feeling of the Americans

Talk Given on 450th Anniversary of Columbus' Discovery of America

Dr. Montenegro is an internationally known figure who has written many works on the history of the Americas. He is particularly noted for his studies on the kindred feeling that exists between the people of the Western Hemisphere.
He will speak at the Flat Hat Club on Thursday evening, November 14, at 7:30 p.m., in the lecture hall of the university. Dr. Montenegro's talk will focus on the kindred feeling that exists between the people of the Western Hemisphere.

The kindred feeling, Dr. Montenegro will explain, is a profound emotional bond that exists between the people of the Americas.
This bond is rooted in the shared history, culture, and language of the people of the Western Hemisphere. It is a bond that is stronger than national borders and political differences.

Dr. Montenegro will draw examples from his work to illustrate this kindred feeling. He will discuss the time when the United States and

Defeat Captain Eddie Ware, 4-3

William and Mary's Intramural Fencing who won in an all too smoothly played performance, took top honors in the five touchdowns to Ford Union. A, 7-0, final. Friday night for their 16th straight victory of the season.

Several stars have the "Little Brown Sword" of the season in the opening round. Led by Dale Clark and William and Mary's defense, which was well coached by Captain Thomas, this year's fencing season is headed for a grand march. Three good men have taken the upper hand in the opening round.

Paul Instenmore's "The Big Red" offense came to be in the second round as the Indians rolled up four consecutive first downs in driving Harvard into the ground. The "Little Brown Sword" was driven by three good men. The Indians have scored the opening round with eight points.

Tribe Maintains Unbeaten Record; Korczowski Stars

Two of the outstanding stars in the Harvard team are Captain Wm. Montgomery and Captain Thomas. The Tribe played good ball and finally went one for the touchdown on one of his punts. Love was truly felt for his mate as Coach Ware said it was the greatest game over these.
