Backdrop Club Organizes

This afternoon, the Backdrop Club will be holding its first meeting of the year. The Backdrop Club is a well-known club at the College of William and Mary, known for its focus on social and cultural events. The club's purpose is to provide a platform for students to network and engage with local and national performers. The club has a long history, with many notable alumni and guests over the years.

"Kind Lady" Casting Is Completed

The casting for the play "Kind Lady" is now complete. The play, written by Arthur Hecker, is an all-student club production. The production is divided into four parts, each focusing on a different aspect of life. The play's lead role is being played by Peggy Taylor, who is known for her versatility and dedication to her craft. The play opens on November 30th, and tickets are available now.

Dew Club Aim

The Economics Club at the College of William and Mary was held Tuesday afternoon. The club's purpose is to provide a forum for students to discuss and debate economic issues. The club meets weekly, and members are encouraged to participate in discussions and present their own ideas.

The Foreign Travel Club at the College of William and Mary will hold its annual initiation ceremony on November 11th. The club is open to all students and aims to promote international understanding and cultural exchange. The club has been in existence since 1935 and is known for its annual initiation ceremonies, which feature speakers and guest lecturers from around the world.

For Complete Sadie Hawkins Day Dope See Editorial Page

Sadie Hawkins Day is a beloved tradition at the College of William and Mary, celebrated every year with a lively parade and a variety of activities. This year, the day is particularly special, as it marks the 50th anniversary of the event. The college has planned a series of events to commemorate this milestone, including a parade, a dance, and a variety of cultural performances.

Collegiate Wreaths

The Phi Beta Kappa Hall of Honor, located in the Wren Building, is home to the college's most distinguished alumni. The hall is open to the public, and visitors are welcome to tour the space and learn about the achievements of the college's outstanding members.
BETTER LIGHT FOR BETTER SIGHT

To visualize SEEING, we think of eyes to see with, a task better light for better sight. Nature gave us our eyes as they are; our work is usually to keep them in that condition. Students particularly require good light for their work. Try more and better light. Virginia Electric and Power Co.

The following rules have been adopted for Sadie Hawkins Day, which is to take place on Thursday, November 30th. The dance is to begin at 8 p.m. at the Lur Abner and the guests are supposed to be at the dance by 7:30. The dance will end at 12:30 a.m. on the following day.

The rules are:

1. Each freshman girl is to go to the dance committee and address on it, which must be held on Thursday, November 30th.
2. All freshmen must wear a white dress, white stockings, and shoes with a heel of at least 2 inches. The girls will be seated in a random order, and the boys will be seated in a random order, too.
3. No boy may be "caught" on Friday by a freshman girl, and if he is, he must be taken to the infirmary. If he is not "caught" on Friday, he must go to the infirmary on Saturday and Sunday.
4. If the boy is "caught" on Saturday, he must go to the infirmary on Sunday, too.
5. A boy may only be "caught" once.

The dance will be held in the gymnasium of the college, and the entertainment of the alumni and the high school pupils. One of the best con"cours will be the "catch," which is to be given to countries who are now in default.

The "catches" will be from 8 A. M. to 6 P. M. and from 8 A. M. to 6 P. M. and from 8 A. M. to 6 P. M.
