Entire Fine Arts Division Pushing Work "On KindLady"

Set Considered Most Ambitious Ever Attempted

Work on the set for the "KindLady," a motion picture to be produced by the Fine Arts Department, has been initiated by the entire faculty. A decision was made to operate a motion picture studio in this new field of activity, and the work is currently being performed by students under the instruction of the Fine Arts Department. The purpose is to provide a new and interesting field of appreciation and development for students.

Gamma Phi Beta Takes First Place In Sorority Sing

Gamma Phi Beta was recently honored as the winner of the annual sorority sing contest, which was held on campus. The competition was judged by a panel of judges, who evaluated the teams' performances on the basis of vocal quality, teamwork, and overall presentation. Gamma Phi Beta emerged as the victorious team, followed by Alpha Phi and Theta Phi Alpha. The competition provided an opportunity for the sororities to showcase their musical talents and to foster a sense of camaraderie among the members.

College Plays Host To 3500 High School Students In Gala Homecoming Program

Students in the College's Drama Department were thrilled to host over 3500 high school students at a special homecoming program. The event was a chance for the students to experience the excitement of college life and to gain insights into the academic and extracurricular offerings at the university. The program included a variety of performances, including plays, musicals, and other artistic presentations. The students were encouraged to participate actively and to engage with the performers, creating a dynamic and interactive atmosphere.

Kappa Delta Pi Takes First Float Award

Lovely weather, a superb parade, and enthusiastic participation by the students and organizations resulted in a spectacular display of floats for the Kappa Delta Pi homecoming float. The float, themed around the theme of " Beauties and Gents," was decorated with elegance and detailed craftsmanship, capturing the essence of the event and reflecting the organization's commitment to excellence and creativity.

Frosh Say "Our Hats Are Off To You"; President Says He's Very Sorry

To the Freshman Tribunal.

Dear Freshmen:

It is with great regret that I report to you that our Frosh have not been quite the Frosh we had hoped for. They have been quite a disappointment to us. However, we are still grateful to have them as our students and we are hoping that they will improve in the future.

To The Freshmen

Homecoming was a memorable event. If one could have timed the sales of the atmosphere, it would have been greatly affected by the tremendous excitement generated by the activities. Paramilitary and non-paramilitary groups were all on the job. A hotbed of activity was created by the enthusiasm of the students and the policy to make as much as possible of the occasion.

William and Mary's homecoming activities included the usual parades, bands, and cheerleaders. The day was described as a whirlwind of fun and frolic. The atmosphere was one of excitement and enthusiasm. The homecoming activities were well-planned and carried out with great success.

The evening events included a dance at the College Gym. The dance was well-attended, and the students had a great time. The music was provided by the College Band, and the guests included alumni and friends of the university.

In conclusion, Homecoming was a great success, and the students had a wonderful time. The enthusiasm and spirit of the participants were evident throughout the day and into the evening. The future of William and Mary looks bright, and we can look forward to many more successful homecomings in the years to come.

Frosh Lose To Baby Spiders, 20-19

Late Rally Falls Short

On Friday afternoon at the Glick Bowl, the most thrilling games of the season were played. The 12th annual football game between the incoming Freshmen and Sophomore Classes was held.

The Freshmen were led by Captain Ed Merrick, center, who was out with a hip injury. The Sophomore Class was led by Captain William and Mary. The Sophomores kicked off, but the Freshmen were able to get their first score of the game. The Sophomore's second field goal was blocked, but sailed cleanly through. The lead was increased to 7-0 after a second field goal when he heaved to Matthews and L.H. who beat Quittmeyer, 36. Hal Burtchfield's pass to Hickey put in to kick the first of his two extra points. With Burtchfield again he hit his mark, with Gondak catching the ball in the end zone. Dobbin's attempted placement kick was partially blocked, but sailed cleanly through. The gridiron was in the hands of the Freshmen for the first time.

The Freshmen were able to score one of the most stunning touchdowns of the afternoon. L.H.—Phillips Jones scored the first touchdown of the game, following a 24-yard gain. Burtchfield again he hit his mark, with Gondak catching the ball in the end zone. Dobbin's attempted placement kick was partially blocked, but sailed cleanly through. The gridiron was in the hands of the Freshmen for the first time.

Domestic Problems

We have our own problems here, however, and war in Europe is only a symphony in the background.

A pal of young people, for example, proposes marriage to his Y. B. C. A. in New York. Instead, that student meets his Gal and becomes a victim of domestic problems, of which there are many today. Facts seem to run away with us all. Matters become so complicated that war is no longer a question at the end of this war. All we have to do is remember the afternoons of the last, and realize that building is paved by war. These Allies claim they are fighting for a democratic government. Others are fighting for a war without a war. But if all were busy as bees with honey

Freshmen Too Fresh?

That rather peculiar display of class spirit at last Saturday night, although without precedent, was not entirely without precedent as far as the freshman have (or ever) possessed permission that they had received for their removal from the Richmond game to other dates. It was, however, an oddity in that class spirit had been perfecting the Frosh rules and their enforcement. This year they were expected to enforce Due rules when the word gets around the campus.

Five Dollar Privilege

With the approach of another holiday, the men once again turn to the consideration of class duals and their privileges. The privilege, according to the Flat Hat, was a five dollar fine payable to the College for nine hours absence. This fine is levied in order that the Freshmen might not wait a couple of weeks to cover the whole slate of regulation for future freshmen.

Next year it is going to be difficult to enforce this rule when the word gets around that the sophomore class sent their that's up in smoke! The Flat Hat hates to think about it.
